Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he wishes to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Rudolph Krueger, 60 Branford Place. I wish to request the Board to waive the rule of waiting two weeks for a zoning matter, on the question of 160 Norman Road. My client would like to begin construction at once.

The City of Newark.

Mr. J. Harry Henegan,
Assistant Corporation Counsel,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

The notice heretofore given to The City of Newark in the above matter is hereby withdrawn and discontinued.

Very truly yours,

Stein, McGlynn, Hannonch.

Ordered filed.

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Gentlemen, we would just like to inquire if anything is coming up relative to the merging of the employment bureau with the Poor and Alms Department.

Commissioner Murray: Not this morning.

Mr. Grois: We do not want to speak about it, Commissioner. We would be pleased to have the Commission or you notify the Essex Trades Council when it does come up, so that we can take part in the discussion. Perhaps we can be of some assistance. The way we feel now, we don't want the Poor Department merged, with the Employment Bureau. Of Course, we feel when a man is unemployed and looks for employment if he can get it, but he wants to hold his head high and doesn't want to go to the Overseer of the Poor for a job.

Commissioner Murray: Oh, he can, but you get the wrong slant on that, I am afraid. This is merely to coordinate the welfare work in the department of Public Health. A man doesn't have to deal with the Overseer of the Poor in the Employment Bureau. He can still go to the Employment Bureau.

Mr. Grois: It will still come under that heading of poor and alms.

Commissioner Murray: No, it will not come under that.

Mr. Grois: We will be pleased to have it heard.

Commissioner Murray: You can take it up with the Overseer of the Poor now and talk it over right now.

Mr. Grois: All right, I will be glad to.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

(No response).

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

Board of Commissioners

June, 1931

Newark, N. J., June 3rd, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Saandard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of May 27th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to license and regulate the business of transient merchants or itinerant vendors, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. A. S. Gechtman, Lefcourt Building: May I request two weeks adjournment. The first inkling I had of any such ordinance was brought to my attention about midnight last night, and there is a substantial amount of money invested by the Good Humor Corporation, which I represent, and approximately 75 people are employed by the corporation from Newark.

Mayor Congleton: There has been a request that action on the ordinance be adjourned for one week.

Commissioner Egan: Why?

Mr. Gechtman: So that we can acquaint ourselves with the provisions of the ordinance and learn a little more about it.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, there isn't any excuse for this man coming before the Commission this morning for time to acquaint himself with this situation. This is an ordinance that has been pending as provided for in the procedure. It is something that has been under discussion by the Commission for many years, something that is urged by the permanent merchants of the city, and something, further, that is urged by the civic organizations, such as the Chamber of Commerce and the Market Business Men's Association, and so on. The ordinance is for the protection of the permanent merchant as against the itinerant merchant who comes into Newark, for instance, at this time of the year with a large stock of straw hats, lets a store for a month or so right next door to established merchants, sells his wares at reduced prices and uses the usual tactics of talking, ballyhooing, and shillying, to the serious injury of our permanent merchants. I, as the Commissioner who offered this ordinance, would appreciate my colleagues passing upon it today.

Mr. Gechtman: May I say this: We are hearty in accord with the idea and in back of such an ordinance at this time.

Commissioner Egan: You represent the ice cream company?

Mr. Gechtman: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Egan: So that you won't have any misunderstanding about the matter, I advise you that so far as the discretion of the Director of the Department of Public Safety in regard to issuing licenses for these wagons is concerned, no more licenses will be issued for the ice cream wagons. If you have that in mind you may figure yourself up against a fight.

Mr. Gechtman: I don't think that you and I are going to fight.

Commissioner Egan: I have received a petition signed by 3,000 merchants.

Mr. Gechtman: The attorney who represents these merchants, who presented the petition, is perfectly agreeable to have this thing go over for a week or two. Of course, that is not binding on you gentlemen.

Commissioner Egan: This will not affect the ice cream merchants.

Mr. Gechtman: It will affect our trucks. One thing we want to do is to present an ordinance in perhaps slightly altered form so that it does not affect those who are not itinerant. Our people are not itinerant merchants, but they are affected by this ordinance.

Commissioner Egan: The purpose of this ordinance is to regulate the transient merchants, particularly the itinerant vendor. The real purpose is to protect the permanent merchants in this town as against the fellow who comes in over night.

Mr. Gechtman: All right, Mr. Commissioner, but there is another phrase there whereby it is placed within your discretion to determine who shall be the itinerant merchant.

Commissioner Egan: Yes, it is now.

Mr. Gechtman: Yes, it continues in your discretion, very properly. At the same time, there is a phrase, I believe in the last paragraph, which states that it shall be considered prima facie evidence that a merchant is not itinerant if he can produce a tax bill. Now, my organization is too new an organization to have a tax bill to present to you. How do they get around that?

Commissioner Egan: This phraseology follows the statute, State Law 31.

Mr. Gechtman: Assuming that it does, nevertheless it affects a perfectly innocent party. We are liable to taxes.

Commissioner Egan: You are talking about the ice cream merchants particularly?

Mr. Gechtman: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: Specifically?

Mr. Gechtman: Not specifically. It would represent anybody in our category.

Commissioner Egan: But that is whom you represent. You don't represent everybody who is against this ordinance?

Mr. Gechtman: No, of course.

Commissioner Egan: Those who are on the street are licensed, aren't they?

Mr. Gechtman: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: Those licenses are in effect?

Mr. Gechtman: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: They will not be affected to the extent of this ordinance if they are licensed.

Mr. Gechtman: But they will be affected to the extent of having to pay a three hundred dollar license fee instead of ten dollars.

Commissioner Egan: It will not be retroactive.

Mr. Gechtman: It will not be retroactive?

Commissioner Egan: No. I thought you were coming here shouting for some straw hat merchant who comes in over night, sells low-priced merchandise, for a month or two months, and leaves the permanent merchant to carry the bag.

Mr. Gechtman: It is a highly commendable action to do away with that kind of merchant.

Commissioner Egan: All right, those ice cream merchants who are licensed are safe, but so far as my department is concerned, so that you may not have any misunderstanding, you are up against a stone wall for new licenses.

BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT

City Hall,

Newark, New Jersey.

May 19, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark,

Honorable sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the application of Samuel Bratter, owner for the construction of a 2-story store and apartment building extending beyond the prevailing set back line be allowed; premises 344 Clinton Avenue.

The Board of Adjustment.

R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Samuel Bratter, owner, for the construction of a 2-story building extending beyond the prevailing set back line; premises 344 Clinton Avenue; on condition that no garages or other buildings be erected on the remaining portion of the Hillside Avenue frontage;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: The Law Department has advised the Board of Commissioners that we have jurisdiction in this matter. We will proceed now with the hearing. Who desires to be heard in opposition to the granting of the permit?

Mr. H. E. Wolf, 790 Broad Street: Gentlemen, this application to build stores and apartments is for a site at the corner of Hillside Avenue and Clinton Avenue and takes in what has been known for years as the King property. Now, I represent the property owners of Hillside Avenue. We feel that it would be wrong at this time to build stores and apartments in that type of building or of that type of usage on the lot that would extend out beyond the present building line. We think that the building should be set back in accordance with the present usage of the block.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Herman Harris, Lefcourt Building: I represent the owner of 354 Clinton Avenue, who is Dr. Reinfeld. That building sets back fifteen feet from the property line as Judge Wolf has stated, and all the other buildings set back fifteen feet also. If this proposed building is brought flush with the building line the buildings beside the proposed building will be entirely shut off from view and the side of the building will be looking out to a big blank brick wall.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to speak in opposition now? If there are, those who would like to have their objections noted but do not care to speak will have their names noted on the record if they will just stand up.

(The following persons registered their objection on the record: Mrs. Leo Goldsmith, 59 Hillside Avenue, Mr. T. R. Ruth, 60 Hillside Avenue, Mrs. E. J. Ottley, 61 Hillside Avenue, Mrs. Francis J. Flynn, 62 Hillside Avenue, Mrs. Grace E. Schroeder, speaking for 72-74-76 and 78 Hillside Avenue, Mr. Joseph Bell, 54 Hillside Avenue, Mr. J. N. Hauber, 101 Hillside Avenue, Mr. J. J. Brown, 80 Hillside Avenue.)

Mayor Congleton: Now, are there any who would like to be heard in favor of the application?

Mr. Philip J. Schotland, 9 Clinton Avenue: This particular location is in the business zone and has been placed in the business zone by your commission in passing the zoning ordinance. The attempt is now being made to use the property for business purposes, it having been put in the business zone. There is an apparent surface inconsistency in the provision of the zoning ordinance regarding set-back.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in favor of the application?

Mrs. Leo Goldsmith, 59 Hillside Avenue: Let us eliminate the thought of Clinton Avenue altogether. This gentleman speaks only of Clinton Avenue as the business section. We will grant that Clinton Avenue has gone over to a business section, but Hillside Avenue is not, in any stretch of imagination; it is just a plain common residence section. I don't think it should be put into a business zone.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think so.

Mrs. Goldsmith: We abided by the restrictions when we built our place.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin, what zone is that?

Mr. Rankin: Third Residential zone.

Mrs. Goldsmith: It is still residential.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Application of Harry Levin, owner, for the construction of stores; premises 343½-349 Sanford Avenue;

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this?

Barnett Roth, 130 Huntington Terrace.

Gentlemen, my dad is the owner of the apartment house right next door to this location. We never received any notice as to the permit being granted, and I spoke to Mr. Rankin in the Adjustment Board—

Mayor Congleton: What is the number of your property?

Mr. Roth: 333-341 Sanford Avenue. It is right next door.

Mayor Congleton: You have an apartment house there?

Mr. Roth: Well, it is stores and apartments. We never received any notification that a permit was going to be asked for.

Mayor Congleton: You have stores, but you don't want the folks next door to have them?

Mr. Roth: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: Your objection will be noted. We have denied several application for gas stations there. Now they want to put up stores, and a lot of the people who opposed the site for a gas station signed in favor of it for stores.

Commissioner Egan: It is a business street. I do not see how you can object to it, Mr. Roth.

Mr. Roth: As a matter of fact, I think there were a number of applications for stores, which were denied, a few years ago.

Mayor Congleton: But you have stores in your building.

Mr. Roth: That is right. They are just about standing on their feet now.

Mayor Congleton: Are you afraid of competition?

Mr. Roth: If these other stores go up the people in our stores will have to move out. They are just about existing now.

Commissioner Gillen: This man has a piece of property here. If he wants to make a reasonable use of it we cannot have any objection. I don't see how we can object to or stop it.

Mr. Roth: As a matter of fact, there is another block of stores a block further down. They are all vacant now.

Mayor Congleton: Nobody is buying that land to build houses on it.

Commissioner Egan: Yes, it is too expensive to build a house on it. If they build an apartment house on it they would certainly build stores on the first floor, I am very sure.

Mr. Roth: The reason I came up here is that we didn't receive any notification in order to prepare ourselves for the permit.

Commissioner Murray: Is this the first time you have known about it?

Mayor Congleton: No, his father was in to see Mr. Rankin after it had been acted on by the Board of Adjustment.

Mr. Roth: I happened to see Mr. Rankin the other day and I notified him that we never received any notice.

(Discussion out of the hearing of the stenographer.)

Commissioner Gillen: They mailed the notice to Mr. Zimmerman, didn't they?

Mr. Roth: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: Why not let it go over for a week.

Commissioner Egan: What better chance will he have to state his objections if we do? It is a matter now to come before the Commission.

Mr. Roth: I am not fully prepared to state my objections. I just found out when I went to Mr. Rankin the other day and he told me Mr. Zimmerman was listed as the owner.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that it be laid over for a week.

Application of Carl Gudaitis (Harry Kantrowitz, owner) for an automobile repair shop; premises 124 Clinton Place; for a period of two years, and on condition that the hours of operation be limited between the hours of 7 A. M. and 6 P. M.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application be laid over to June 10, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Patrick Yacullo (Heller Construction Co., owner) for the construction of a retail ice depot; premises 918 Eighteenth Avenue; for a period of two years;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Harry Augenblick, 14 Mechanic Street: At the last time when the hearing was held before this Commission there appeared a Mr. Greenblatt, who conducts an ice business across the street where this applicant proposes to conduct his business.

Mayor Congleton: He is here again today, I see.

Mr. Augenblick: He gave you at that time three reasons why this application should be rejected by the Board.

None of these charges, gentlemen, are true. This applicant wants to go into the ice business and earn an honest living. He wants to sell coal in connection with ice.

The Vailsburg Trust Company has built a very fine building on the corner of Carolina Avenue and Eighteenth Avenue. This building is directly across the street, and the trust company too has signed this application to let Yacullo have the ice depot.

Mayor Congleton: Does your client bank there?

Mr. Augenblick: No, my client does not bank there. There are gasoline stations on four corner—

Mayor Congleton: That is too many, in my opinion.

Mr. Augenblick: That may be so, Mr. Mayor, but I think that those are all business matters up to the applicants themselves.

Mayor Congleton: No, I think that if that were so they would not have passed this statute and put a certain responsibility on the governing body. We have been given certain duties to perform, so it isn't to be determined just by the applicant; otherwise we would have no use or need for a zoning ordinance.

Mr. Augenblick: You may be right, Mr. Mayor. You have probably given it more thought than I have, but my best judgment tells me that it is without the province of the municipality to judge these things—whether or not the competition will be great or less. Now, I ask in all fairness—

Mayor Congleton: You have put it all on the question of competition. You are arguing, so far as my vote is concerned, upon a false premise. You are assuming that what the newspaper men wrote with respect to what they heard here, which, the reports thought made a good newspaper story, was the opinion of the Commissioners.

Mr. Augenblick: I did not say that. I say that that was one of the reasons that Mr. Greenblatt gave for the rejection of this application.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in this matter?

Mr. Benjamin Greenblatt, 141 Carolina Avenue:

This here piece in the newspaper, as you all remember, was nothing exactly what I said. I never mentioned Mr. Yacullo's name being in a racket, all I said was that the Ice Cream Business was becoming a racket, which it is. Furthermore, the zoning board, since this application has been passed, has turned down every application for a retail ice depot. Naturally, they have investigated and they have found out that what I said is true. Furthermore, in this vicinity, about a quarter a mile from where I have my place there is over a dozen ice depots, being almost on the line of East Orange and Irvington, why, they are right nextdoor to each other.

Commissioner Egan: You are quite a way from East Orange.

Mr. Greenblatt: Well, South Orange Avenue.

Commissioner Egan: Well, Eighteenth Avenue and South Orange Avenue are not nextdoor to each other.

Mr. Greenblatt: If I was to tell you that they come from East Orange and Montclair, up that way for ice—they come down with machines, to get it. As far as this racket, I will go into that question—

Mayor Congleton: We remember what you said before. There is no use of your repeating it. It is only a few weeks ago.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Nays: Mayor Congleton.

The following petition was received and read:

We, the undersigned, property owners on West End Avenue, Carolina Avenue, Melrose Avenue and Eighteenth Avenue, hereby respectfully petition the Honorable Commissioners of the City of Newark to grant a re-hearing on the application made for a coal and ice depot on the premises commonly known as #918 Eighteenth Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, for the following reasons:

1. There is only one ice depot in the immediate vicinity, located at #927 Eighteenth Avenue, Newark, N. J., which is inadequate to take care of all the business in our neighborhood.

2. The depot located at #927

Eighteenth Avenue is located on the southerly side of Eighteenth Avenue, and this location necessitates the crossing of Eighteenth Avenue when our children are sent to purchase ice. This is a very dangerous element.

3, We believe that another ice depot in the vicinity will stimulate better service to satisfy our needs.

Signed by twenty-five property owners.

Ordered filed.

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J. June 2, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274 P. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

255-257 Elizabeth Avenue, Acme Auto Laundry, Inc., addition to automobile laundry and greasing station;

State Highway #25, south of McClellan St., Anna Zwigard; gasoline station;

10-14 Washington Place, Washington Place Realty Co.; automobile parking station; permit limited to two years;

367 Washington Street, General Office Supply Co.; automobile parking station; permit limited to two years;

50-68 Malvern Street, John Padavano; public garage.

The Board of Adjustment

R. R. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copies to be sent to each Commissioner and further action postponed two weeks, June 17th.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the rules be suspended and the application of John Padavano, the owner, for permission to erect a public garage at 50-68 Malvern Street, be considered today.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of John Padavano, owner, for the construction of a public garage; premises 50-68 Malvern Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Charles P. Gillen
Jerome T. Congleton
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Henry Krautter, 1027 Broad Street.

Gentlemen, I represent a party by the name of Zwiegard, who had an application before the Board of Adjustment and it was passed, and I would like to—

Mayor Congleton: What was it for?

Mr. Krautter: A gasoline station permit.

Mayor Congleton: I don't vote to suspend the rules on a gasoline station unless I have had a chance to inspect it myself.

Mr. Krautter: The property is on Route 25 at the line of Elizabeth City.

Mayor Congleton: That may be so.

Mr. Krautter: And the reason I request your Honor is due to this: That the contractor has this station practically completed and most of the property is in the City of Elizabeth, and just a portion of it is in Newark, and the contract did not know that the property was in Newark.

Commissioner Gillen: The building is up now?

Mr. Krautter: Practically completed, and he is under contract for the completion of the building by June 15.

Mayor Congleton: Well, the man who searched the title knew where the property was. I guess he searched part of it in Essex County as well as in Union.

Mr. Krautter: The contractor didn't know that.

Mayor Congleton: The owner did.

Mr. Krautter: I guess so.

Mayor Congleton: The owner made his contract with the subcontractors?

Mr. Krautter: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: He didn't take out his permit in Newark?

Mr. Krautter: No.

Mayor Congleton: He knew where his property was. He pays taxes in Newark as well as in Elizabeth.

Mr. Krautter: Well, I don't know very much about it. I represent the contract. I only knew about it this morning.

Commissioner Murray: Oh, you represent the contractor?

Mr. Krautter: Yes, I represent the contractor. I would like some quick action on it, if possible, because as far as I know there is no objection to the permit at all.

Commissioner Egan: A week from today won't cause you much delay.

Mr. Krautter: All right, if it is put down for a week from today I guess it will be all right.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be sent down for a week from today.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication from the Essex County Board of Taxation relative to abstract of ratables and exceptions in the County of Essex for the year 1931 was read and on motion ordered referred to Commissioner Howe.

Presented by A. C. Martino, 20 Rowland Street, Newark, N. J., and signed by approximately 275 retail ice dealers.

Ordered referred to Commissioners Egan and Murray.

A similar communication from the wholesale ice dealers was received and read and ordered referred to Commissioners Egan and Murray. This communication was signed by Mountain Ice Co., Christian Feigenspan, Lackawanna Ice Co., Knickerbocker Ice Co., and L. & R. Ice Co.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, on March 4, 1931, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment dated January 20, 1931, adopted a resolution approving the construction of a gasoline station on premises 271-279 West End Avenue; and

WHEREAS, the Renner Investment and Construction Company, owner, of the premises in question, was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that an extension of three months from the date of this resolution be granted for the commencement of the aforesaid work.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Bernard W. Schnur, 60 Park Place:

Some months ago you granted a gasoline permit on the corner of West End Avenue and Alexander Street, Newark, but through certain delays, as far as financing and one thing and another are concerned, we have not been able to get started. I understand that the last day to get stater with that building operation is June 4. The permit that we have was dated June 1.

Newark, N. J., June 10, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Gillen.

The minutes of meeting of June 3rd were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Green Street on the southerly side thereof from Liberty Street easterly to New Jersey Railroad Avenue east of the Pennsylvania Railroad elevation; and for the Change and Establishment of the Grade of Green Street from Liberty Street easterly to New Jersey Railroad Avenue east of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Emile Garfinkel, 2 Mott Street: I would like to know who is going to pay for the charges on that.

Mayor Congleton: That will be determined by the Board of Assessment Commissioners. If any property is benefited by the improvement there will be an assessment against that property. If the Assessment Commission determine that it is not an improvement to the property the cost will be borne by the city at large.

Mr. Garfinkel: We are located on Railroad Avenue, on the other side, between Railroad Avenue and Green Street, where it won't be of any benefit to us, Mayor Congleton: Then, you will not be assessed. We give notice to all the property owners. You will get a notice when it is before the Assessment Commission and you will have your opportunity to have it determined that it is not an improvement.

Mr. Garfinkel: Well, of course, that is all right. We just wanted to know what the true situation is, because if we are not benefited we do not see why we should pay.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hermes Lunch Co. (M. & J. Augenblick Realty Co., owner) for a miniature golf course; premises 1036-1040 Broad Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved on the following conditions:

1. That a substantial metal fence on steel supports be erected three feet inside of property lines;
2. That lighting standards be of steel and not over ten feet high;
3. That lighting fixtures be so arranged as not to shine in neighboring windows;
4. That no refreshment stands or other business be conducted on the premises;

5. That all requirements of the License Bureau be complied with;

6. That this approval expires January 1, 1932;

and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this?

Hon. Abe J. David, Elizabeth, N. J., as counsel for the petitioner said "there can be no valid objections to the granting of the permit."

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in favor of the application?

Mr. Harry A. Augenblick, 14 Mechanic Street.

I represent the owner of the land. We had in mind, when we granted him this right, the possible future development of Chestnut Street. We do not want to put a building on there, so that later on, if the City of Newark desires to take the property, it will not have to pay any fancy prices for it.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else?

Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, State House, Trenton.

As property owners right across the street from this proposed proposition we do oppose the installation of this miniature golf course and the buildings which will go with it, which, as time goes on, subject to approval, would undoubtedly include there a lunch wagon or a lunch room, a refreshment stand, and other things of that kind.

Mr. David: I am assured that the owners and the occupants do not contemplate the erection of any building on this lot and also that the permit of the Zoning Board provides that there is to be no building erected for the sale of food-stuffs. I would also like to call attention to the fact that Chestnut Street is a one-way street.

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of concurring in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment will signify by saying aye.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the matter be laid over for a week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Samuel Brater, owner, for the construction of a 2-story building extending beyond the prevailing set back line; premises 344 Clinton Avenue; on condition that no garages or other buildings be erected on the remaining portion of the Hillside Avenue frontage;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone who desires to add anything further to what we heard last week? There is no occasion to reiterate the protests that we heard last week. If there are any new reasons to be advanced or any new parties to be heard we will be glad to hear them. We will ask the people to kindly keep their seats. Everybody will be given opportunity.

(No further speakers.)

Mayor Congleton: Before the vote is taken I should like to say that since this matter has come before us I have received a petition which involves the street line. If this permit should be granted it will be granted subject to action on that petition for vacation.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following petition was received and read:

We, the undersigned, being the owners of the properties set forth, do hereby express our objection to the granting of a permit now being requested for the erection of stores and apartments at the southwest corner of Hillside Avenue and Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, unless said stores and apartment are required to stay back to the average line of the present buildings now erected on both streets.

Signed by twenty-four property owners.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Carl Gudaitis (Harry Kantrowitz, owner) for an automobile repair shop; premises 124 Clinton Place; for a period of two years, and on condition that the hours of operation be limited between the hours of 7 A. M. and 6 P. M., be laid over to June 17, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Harry Levin, owner for the construction of stores; premises 343½-349 Sanford Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe
W. J. Egan
Jerome T. Congleton
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Mayor Congleton: I should like to say that since last week I have received a written protest on this.

Mr. Barnett Roth, 130 Huntington Terrace:

Rather than ask for an adjournment I would like to request that the proposed permit be thrown out altogether, in order that we be allowed to be given a fair hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: Well, you are being given an opportunity for a hearing right here.

Mr. Roth: That is true, but it seems to be that we are under an undue disadvantage.

Mayor Congleton: Not at all; you are having your day in court right now. We adjourned this hearing last week to this week, in order to give you an opportunity to state your views and to marshal your ideas so that you would be able to state your views fully today. Now, go ahead and state your views. Are you ready to do so today?

Mr. Roth: First of all, there seems to be a set of stores a block down towards East Orange which are entirely vacant. Because some individual seems to be in favor of the permit, it does not seem just that the permit should be granted, due to the present conditions. I suppose that should be an unusual situation, but if these stores are erected, the stores that we have there now will become vacant. I have also learned from a credible source that the party who is seeking this permit is a Jersey City resident. We have been taxpayers here for the last twenty-five years. I do not see why an outsider should come in here and put up a building to the detriment of a taxpayer.

Mayor Congleton: Well, is the outsider shown as the owner?

Mr. Roth: It doesn't show it on the record, but we have learned it from a credible source that he is the owner.

Commissioner Howe: He is paying taxes, isn't he?

Mr. Roth: He is just paying taxes for the current year.

Commissioner Howe: Well, someone is paying taxes for every year. They will have to pay taxes in addition to assessments for any improvements that are put in there.

Commissioner Egan: This is a vacant lot. It has been unimproved up to the present time. Applications have been made for other businesses there and the Commission has seen fit to reject them. Now along comes the property owner asking for the right to erect stores on that corner. We cannot take away the property owner his right to develop his property and you cannot take away from the City the opportunity for additional ratables. Your problem from a personal standpoint, no doubt, is a serious one, but your concern is whether you will be able to continue to rent the stores in your building or not. The same principle would apply in the heart of the city, but competition, after all, is the life of trade.

Mr. Roth: That is true.

Commissioner Egan: You would not expect us to be unfair to the point of refusing to permit the increase of ratables and to let the owner improve the property.

Mr. Roth: Four years ago there was a permit asked for for stores and it was refused, and there have been numerous applications for gas stations.

Commissioner Egan: Well, you are in the immediate vicinity and you have stores in your building, so the nature of the business is the same as has been established in the locality.

Mr. Roth: That is just it. There seems to be fifteen stores in the locality and out of the fifteen stores there are only six rented.

Commissioner Egan: We can show you the same regrettable condition on Broad Street today.

Mr. Roth: That is true. Then, why let more stores be erected?

Commissioner Egan: We have no jurisdiction over that. We cannot protect the interests of one merchant or property owner to the detriment of another who is within his rights and who is conforming to all the requirements of the law.

Mr. Roth: What I can't see is that we were never afforded the usual custom of appearing before the Board of Adjustment for our hearing.

Commissioner Egan: The record says that you were notified; you say that you weren't. We said that we would like to give you an opportunity. You said last week that you didn't have your arguments well organized in your mind to be prepared to speak today, so we adjourned it a week. Now you have your opportunity to speak. State your objections. If they are worthy enough we may take them into consideration. Perhaps you will be able to influence the vote of the Commission.

Mr. Roth: My only objection is the fact that we don't care to have the other stores there. Why isn't it possible to put up a dwelling house, which would add to the beauty of the property there?

Commissioner Murray: Nobody objected to your stores when you built them.

Mr. Roth: We didn't build them.

Commissioner Murray: You bought them already built.

Mr. Roth: We didn't have anything to do after the permit was granted.

Commissioner Murray: You have stores and your sole objection is to the fact that there will be competition between the rentability of your plant and the rentability of the new one.

Mr. Roth: That is so.

Commissioner Howe: It will put life in the neighborhood. Competition is the life of trade, so the old saying goes.

Commissioner Murray: I don't think it will hurt you at all; I think it will do you good.

Mr. Roth: I would not mind if business were good, but in this depression period it seems foolhardy to put stores there now.

Commissioner Murray: I think business is going to be a lot better.

Commissioner Howe: They are taking the chance, and we cannot stop them even if we want to.

Mr. Roth: They are taking the chance, but in the meantime we will suffer.

Commissioner Howe: We thought you had some argument that would make us vote differently. So far we have not heard any that would make me change my vote. I don't even know the owner of the property.

Commissioner Egan: I don't know who he is, either.

Mr. Samuel Roth, 130 Huntington Street.

There are plenty of people against it. They don't want the stores.

Mayor Congleton: Heretofore the Board of Commissioners have felt that Sanford Avenue was not to be cluttered up with too many gas stations. On other occasions we have denied applications for gas stations. Now, the man who owns the property comes along and wants to erect a building in which there will be stores. As I view our duty, it is not along the lines that you suggest, of seeing that one storekeeper is protected as against the other; our duty is to see that nothing is erected there or any use permitted which is detrimental to the neighborhood. I cannot for the life of me see with the way Sanford Avenue is developing as a business street, how stores will injure you. The mere fact that other storekeepers fear that it may bring more competition cannot affect our judgment. We are charged with the duty of preventing something that will be a detriment to the neighborhood. Now, as between merchants, they have to take some chances, the same as any other man in business has to take. One fellow has to keep his stock of goods and his place dressed up so as to attract customers.

Mr. Samuel Roth: That part is all right, but my argument is this: With more stores, these stores will be vacant. Naturally they will take the matter down to the tax office and say it don't bring in anything, it don't bring any rents, and naturally you will have to come down with the taxes.

Mayor Congleton: They will have to take that chance. We cannot see to it that a man makes enough out of his investment to carry it. That is his business. We have enough headaches without that.

Mr. Samuel Roth: They ought to get a permit to put up four-family houses or three-family houses.

Mayor Congleton: But he hasn't asked for it. I notice that the applicant is going to maintain the same setback as prevails on Sanford Avenue and on Finlay Place. I cannot see any reason for prohibiting it at all.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: I move that the rules be suspended and that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment approving the application of Anna Zwiegart for permission to construct a gasoline station on State Highway 25 south of McClellan Street be considered for action.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Anna Zwigard, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises State Highway No. 25, south of McClellan Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. John Magovern, c/o Pitney, Hardin & Skinner, National Newark Building.

Gentlemen, I am here for Pitney, Hardin and Skinner on behalf of the Washington Place Realty Company, which wants to make an application to the Commission to suspend the rules and grant this application after a period of one week, instead of waiting two weeks. It is for a parking station at Washington Place. No gasoline is to be sold on the premises. There was one objection by the Globe Indemnity Company, and I think that their objection has been removed by a provision in the application for a five-foot fence.

Commissioner Murray: Are you going to put a fence around it?

Mr. Magovern: A five-foot steel wire fence across the front.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is to suspend the rules. The first week is already up.

Commissioner Egan: I am not prepared to vote on this this morning. We have a lot of congestion on Washington Place between Broad and Halsey Streets particularly, and we are going to be confronted with more confusion because of entrances and exits to this small parking station. I am afraid there is going to be more congestion. I would like to have it laid over for a week so that I can make a further study of it.

Mayor Congleton: It will come up regularly next week. The application was to advance it a week.

Mr. Magovern: I may say that all the owners within two hundred feet have been served and that I myself have gone around to see most of them. They are all agreeable.

Commissioner Howe: How about the insurance company?

Mr. Magovern: The Eagle Fire Insurance or the Globe Indemnity?

Commissioner Howe: The Eagle.

Mr. Magovern: They are perfectly agreeable. I have spoken to their secretary.

Mayor Congleton: There is no motion to suspend the rules, so it will have to come up regularly next week, Mr. Magovern.

Mr. Magovern: Thank you.

New York, June 1, 1931.

Mr. P. J. O'Toole, Jr.,
City Clerk of the City of City of Newark, N. J.,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:—

We take pleasure in enclosing six signed copies of our report on the audit of the accounts of the City of Newark, N. J., for the year 1930.

As required by law, we are sending a certified copy of this report to the Commissioner of Municipal Accounts at Trenton.

Yours very truly,

Price, Waterhouse & Co.
By J. H. Bowman,

Registered Municipal Accountant.

Received, filed and ordered published in accordance with law.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Andrew G. Vogt, residing temporarily at Allenhurst, New Jersey.

The State Highway Commission is going to build and is now acquiring property, known as route 21. They contemplate going through the City and building a viaduct from River Street to Poinier Street, or thereabouts, paralleling the Pennsylvania Railroad. They say they are going to give you a street underneath. To me as a property holder—

Mayor Congleton: Underneath and outside and beyond.

Mr. Vogt: Well, even so, they have required, I think, a hundred feet of property all the way down. To me a viaduct is a detriment to all the adjacent property. Instead of increasing the value of that adjacent property you are going to destroy it and further depreciate that land that runs down along that railroad. That has been evident by the railroad crossing Broad Street at the Delaware Lackawanna. That property is dead. The people on Market Street on either side of the proposed viaduct are going to be punished.

I have absolutely no objection to a highway; I am in favor of it, but on a street level. We know that the Public Service is going to have a subway, a subsurface road. It will make the accessibility to the Pennsylvania Railroad more easy for anybody coming down the Raymond Boulevard, which it is stated is destined to be one of the finest streets of Newark. Property on either side of that street will be destroyed by the viaduct. A viaduct never has increased the value of property wherever it has been erected.

Mayor Congleton: Is that so? Have you seen the property around the Forty-second Street station in New York City?

Mr. Vogt: You bet it is. They are taking it down.

Mayor Congleton: What? The viaduct around the Grand Central Station? If they have taken it down they must have done it in the last few days, because I was there the other night. It goes around the station and through buildings, and the people there are tickled to death with it.

Mr. Vogt: That is true, but it stops at Forty-seventh Street and goes on to one of the finest boulevards in the world.

Mayor Congleton: That is what we have here.

Mr. Vogt: You cannot have that. The people on Sixth Avenue in New York have petitioned the City Government to cut down and take away the Sixth Avenue elevated. The City of New York is building today a subway, and the property north of Fifty-third Street to Fifty-Ninth has been improved enormously by the destruction and the taking down of the viaduct. There is no question about that.

I am appealing, if this Board is thinking as I do, that you petition or appear before the State Highway Commission not to have a viaduct in the city, but to give us a level street.

I want to know if I ask Mr. Howe a question whether he will be willing to answer it. I will put the question to him. He has charge of the taxable property and I think he can answer the question. I want to know if he has known in his experience where a viaduct has benefited adjacent property. I wonder if he will be willing to answer that question. I know he has had experience of over thirty years in real estate values, both before he entered the City Government and as an employee of a large private corporation.

Commissioner Howe: Well, I would not say that it does enhance the value of adjacent property, but it speeds up traffic and help do away with congestion.

Mr. Vogt: That is true, but you rush traffic by your stores.

Mayor Congleton: Doctor, down of New Jersey Railroad Avenue the viaduct that you speak of—

Mr. Vogt: I am talking from River Street.

Mayor Congleton: I will come to that in a moment. The viaduct from Pionier Street to Lafayette Street is right smack up against the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks and a common wall will be used by the railroad and the highway. There will be a surface road underneath the viaduct which will extend twenty feet beyond the westerly side of the viaduct. There will also be provided, in addition to that, a ten-foot sidewalk. Now, that property along New Jersey Railroad Avenue, in my opinion, will be very much better off than it is today by a good deal. With New Jersey Railroad Avenue as it now exists with these underpasses under the railroad, I for one would never vote to have a State Highway at grade alongside the Pennsylvania Railroad with its underpasses creating nothing but a murder trap. From Lafayette Street beyond the highway leaves the Pennsylvania Railroad and broadens out. The viaduct is only a forty-foot roadway, and from Lafayette Street up to River Street it is still wider. There will be a roadway on either side of the viaduct thirty-one feet ten inches wide.

Mr. Vogt: Each roadway or just one?

Mayor Congleton: Each roadway.

Mr. Vogt: I understand that it is fifteen feet with a sidewalk. The engineer's department says it is a fifteen-foot roadway.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I am looking at this blueprint. It says a roadway of twenty-two feet on either side.

Mr. Vogt: Yes, and seven feet for a sidewalk.

Mayor Congleton: Still open underneath the viaduct.

Mr. Vogt: Well, all I call your attention to is the viaduct through Jersey City, the Pennsylvania viaduct. What happened to that property? The property alongside is the most undesirable and unattractive property there is. Nobody lives there who is not compelled to.

Mayor Congleton: Don't you think there is any difference between a viaduct that carries steam railroads sending forth black smoke and a vehicle highway?

Mr. Vogt: Well, in the travel of today, automobiles making their noise, going over, I think it is just as unattractive. There we have got to come to it. We have to have that traffic, but I do not think—I can't agree with you—with only one side, which will be a dark place at night, a loitering place for undesirables. You won't get the people to live there. You want the broad light of day on it.

Mayor Congleton: Unfortunately you cannot have it because the Pennsylvania embankment is there.

Mr. Vogt: Well, we don't want to disturb it, sir.

Mayor Congleton: When we considered this proposition we tried to see whether or not we could get the Pennsylvania Railroad running under the Passaic River in a tunnel and in an open cut through Newark, so that that wall would not be there.

Mr. Vogt: Well, it is there.

Mayor Congleton: It is there and I don't see how a viaduct alongside of it is going to hurt anything. I think it is going to improve conditions there very materially.

Mr. Vogt: Well, is there a person who goes down there at night today who doesn't have to? It is a dangerous place. Put your traffic signals at your intersections and make me and everybody else obey them. It won't be a murder trap there, and in a few years you will see it grow up and the ratables increase.

Mayor Congleton: I have never seen anything grow the way it has around the Grand Central in New York. They have there fine office buildings, banks, and hotels on both sides of the viaduct.

Mr. Vogt: But that is only for a short distance.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, it is quite a distance, a half mile.

Mr. Vogt: Yes, but this is for several miles, from River Street down to Poinier Street. It is a different proposition. Besides, over in New York the New York Central donated some of that land.

Mayor Congleton: So has the Pennsylvania Railroad donated a lot of the land here, toward the general improvement.

Mr. Vogt: I don't think you can get away with a wall and you will not attract anybody down there. Besides, you won't have the stores. I am sorry you do not see that. I want to ask Mr. Howe if an open roadway accessible to everybody is a benefit to the property.

Commissioner Howe: Naturally, if people can walk along there. There have not been many desirable stores in that section in its history.

Mr. Vogt: But it is terrible. They have had to move. They can't rent the property along that railroad. Nobody rents it. It is a load. Your tax books will show that.

Mayor Congleton: It has been very poor property, and that is what you usually find along the main line of a railroad as you pass through any community.

Commissioner Howe: In any city it is that way. Railroads naturally buy through the cheapest property.

Mr. Vogt: In my judgment you have an opportunity to improve that property.

Mayor Congleton: But you do not remove the railroad at all.

Mr. Vogt: You will have a highway a hundred feet wide which will be a wonderful street.

Do not shoot the people through Newark, because you will then be helping nobody.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes. That is why we provide for a surface road with ramps from Poinier Street where traffic can go off the viaduct to Broad Street and to Mulberry Street and have fine access to the heart of the City for years to come.

Mr. Vogt: That is why I think you are mistaken about the value. If, of course, you do not agree with me do not do it, but if after consideration you think that the property will be improved by my suggestion I would ask the Commission to appeal to the State Highway Commission to have them remove the viaduct through the City of Newark.

Mayor Congleton: We have had hearings on that. We have had other property owners before us and the whole matter was gone into from every angle at those public hearings.

Mr. Vogt: There was a lawyer Beecher here in Newark some years ago. The Prudential Insurance Company attempted to put a passageway from one building to the other. He prosecuted a suit in the Supreme Court of the State, and they said that he was within his rights.

Mayor Congleton: And the legislature passed a new act and the bridge is across Bank Street.

Mr. Vogt: Yes, but they waited until Mr. Beecher died. I have no objection to this thing, but that is a matter which is a detriment. You lawyers probably know all about the case. It was detriment to the property lines west of the building, and Mr. Beecher defeated them in the highest court in the State, but after he died that passageway was erected.

Commissioner Howe: Yes, and it has proved a blessing. The Prudential feeds 7200 people every day, and they had to come down on the sidewalk and block traffic. Now, they cross over that bridge and do not interfere with the traffic.

Mr. Vogt: I am just stating that as an example. The courts of this State say that a bridge is a detriment to the adjacent property. That is on record. You lawyers know that.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard before we adjourn.

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., June 17, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of June 10, 1931, were read and approved.

A petition, signed by 149 property owners, protesting against the construction of a system of sewers to be known and designated as the Grafton Avenue Storm Water Sewer and Branches, was read and on motion ordered filed.

A petition, signed by 24 property owners, protesting against the grading, paving and repaving and resurfacing of Grafton Avenue from Ridge Street to Bellair Place, was read and on motion ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the construction of a system of sewers to be known and designated as the Grafton Avenue Storm Water Sewer and Branches, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does any citizen desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Thomas J. Mooney, 273 Grafton Avenue.

May we talk about the Grafton Avenue paving at the same time? It is one transaction.

Mayor Congleton: The paving will be considered after, separately and apart, but we will consider your statements on both of the ordinances at this time.

Mr. Mooney: This question came up about three years ago in regard to this particular sewer. The people at that time felt they should not pay for the sewer, that the county was getting the full benefit, and that the county should stand the expense. At that time we did not have the figures that we have today in regards to the sum. At that time we did not know the amount that the county occupied, but since that time, within the past few days, we have learned that the county area—that is, the part area—represents about one-sixteenth, and the private area represents about a half—I mean the street area represents about one-quarter. The people in that section object to this sewer on various grounds. They do not object to its going through, but they object to the paying of it. That is the whole thing. Most of them think the sewer ought to go through, but they think that they should not stand the expense of the sewer.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, you know that they will not stand anywhere near the cost of the sewer. We have to make an appropriation for a sum sufficient to cover the improvement. After the improvement is made and is certified to the Assessment Commission, that Commission fixes the assessment, based on benefits that various properties have received. Then you will have your day in court before them to demonstrate that you do not think your property has been benefited. For your information, the Park Commission has agreed to pay for a part of the cost of the storm water sewer. Under the law there is no way by which we can compel them to pay anything if they do not want to. The sewer engineers have advised me that this sewer is necessary for a proper development in that section. The fact that the ordinance carries a certain sum does not mean that that sewer will be spread on the property affected in total.

Mr. Mooney: Well, a great many people objected to this. As a result a petition was gotten up and it was signed by property owners owning approximately 12,000 front footage there. I believe the total in that section, from what we got from one of the departments, is around fifteen or sixteen thousand. It seems from what we have been told that the county would pay something like forty per cent. of the improvement west of Bellair Place. Inasmuch as they have at least one third of the area it seems to me that it is only fair that they should pay at least for the area which they own there, inasmuch as the other area is to be subject to a tax, too. Forty per cent. of that west, as I understand it from the figures show that it runs around a third.

I thing you gentlemen were all here the last time, with the exception of Commissioner Egan. You know the principal argument against why the upland should pay it was that they felt that the Park Commission bought a swampy piece of land and that the canal, being cut through there, formed a pocket there, preventing natural drainage. Therefore they should pay the cost of this sewer.

Mayor Congleton: Do you know any way by which you can make them? We can't.

Mr. Mooney: I do not. You are the former Corporation Counsel. You know the law better than I do, I think.

Mayor Congleton: This being property owned by another municipality or by another governmental agency, devoted to public use, we cannot assess them for public improvements, any more than we can tax their property.

Mr. Mooney: They are the ones that are getting all the benefit here.

Mayor Congleton: We don't think so, any more than you might say that the property owners that live on the crown, on the Heller Parkway and these other streets, whose water runs away, have the right to throw it down on their lower neighbors, except as the water might percolate through the ground in the natural way.

Mr. Mooney: Take the other people on the hill. They paid much more for their lots than the people on the lowland, just for that particular reason. When they bought they knew that they had a certain definite layout there, but later this other crowd that bought down below, they knew that the water would come down on their property.

Mayor Congleton: I live on lower ground and I had to pay a storm-water sewer assessment to take care of the water of the fellow who was up on the hill, whose water was thrown down on us.

Mr. Mooney: I was asked to speak here this morning and I would like to file this petition against paying for this particular sewer. Individually, I have no objections to paying a reasonable amount for the stormwater sewer, but residents in this group which signed the protest, I have to present the protest in that particular way.

Commissioner Gillen: They are not opposed to paying some sort of assessment?

Mr. Mooney: Personally I am not.

Commissioner Gillen: But the group?

Mayor Congleton: The petition is against paying anything.

Mr. Mooney: Personally I am not. I would like to see this thing gotten out of the way, so that we haven't any more trouble in connection with the thing.

Do you want to take up the other part of the ordinance, dealing with the Grafton Avenue pavement?

Mayor Congleton: We shall be very glad to have you go on with the paving matter.

Mr. Mooney: We have a petition here with regard to the paving proposition. We object to the widening of Grafton Avenue. I understand the theory is that it is to be widened five feet on both side for that particular distance between Highland Avenue and Beaumont Place. The principal reason why we object to it is due to the large trees that are in that five-foot area are so close to the—Mayor Congleton: I don't know that we quite agree on the part to be widened. My memorandum says that the roadway between Highland Avenue and Forest Hill Parkway is to be widened.

Mr. Mooney: That is practically the same as Beaumont.

Mayor Congleton: This will be effected by putting the curb back five feet on each side so as to provide a uniform roadway with a width of forty feet.

Mr. Mooney: We object to that on the ground that it takes away trees. When your curb is set back it will be so close to the roots of some of these large trees that it will either kill the trees or if the roots continue to grow it will shove out your curb and you will have a poor looking street there.

We all are in the neighborhood and we request this Board to pave Grafton Avenue. We all signed a petition for the paving. We would like to have it paved, but we object to a paving that costs what this figures out to cost, running $39,900, amounting to somewhere in the neighborhood of $15 a running foot. Since that notice I understand that they can put in a pavement at somewhere around $10. We still think that $10 is too high for that type of pavement, so if the Commissioners here will allow the street to remain as it is the residents of Grafton Avenue would be only too happy to have it paved at a fair price. Every owner on Grafton Avenue has signed a petition, with the exception of two parties, one owning a hundred feet and the other owning seventy-three feet, so it is practically unanimous that we want it paved, but that we want a pavement that does not cost us too much money.

Mayor Congleton: What type of pavement do you suggest?

Mr. Mooney: We have a man here that will speak to you on that. He knows more about pavement than I do.

Commissioner Murray: What is the pavement on Grafton Avenue now?

Mr. Mooney: Old macadam.

Commissioner Murray: What was laid on? I suppose there is nothing but the macadam? There is no foundation under it?

Mayor Congleton: No. We are going to surface over the old pavement, the same as we did on Parker Street.

Commissioner Murray: It is resurfacing?

Mayor Congleton: You might call it that. They would have to scarify the street and resurface it. The setback of the curb of this street is 150 feet, and what we are doing is merely to prepare a roadway along this line of the street.

Mr. Mooney: We appreciate that, but there is no need in that community at the present time for a forty-foot street.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we think that if we are going to improve this street that it ought to be of uniform width and that we ought not to leave one little stretch in the middle of the street narrowed up when we already have the property. There are not many trees that are destroyed.

Mr. Mooney: But it is a whole row of trees from Beaumont Place throughout.

Mayor Congleton: Six trees go down from DeGraw Avenue to Beaumont Place on the north side, three on the south side, between Highland and Lake, two on the north side between Lake and DeGraw, and one on the south side of Lake Street and DeGraw. That street is 150 feet wide now, and it seems to me that it is poor planning to have the rest of the roadway forty feet and in the middle to narrow it up to thirty.

Mr. Mooney: Well, I would say this, that it is one of the beauty spots of Newark and it seems to me a shame that when you have beautiful trees you should want to cut them down just in order to make a street forty feet wide, when there is no particular reason why.

Mayor Congleton: But you put your trees on city property, my dear sir, on the street. You have no more right to do that than you have to build your house there.

Mr. Mooney: We appreciate that. It belongs to the owners of the streets, and I think that the pride of Newark should try to keep a fine, decent looking, and respectable section and that they ought to allow the trees that are grown in there to remain.

Mayor Congleton: We want to save every possible tree that we can.

Mr. Mooney: But I do not see that you can state any reason why it is necessary. There is very little traffic that comes over Grafton Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think that is probably so now.

Mr. Mooney: Well, that is probably so. We have lived there for a long time and we ought to know. There are only two or three people who have their garages out in the back of the house that come out on Grafton Avenue. The other property comes out on side streets. There is practically no parking of any kind by any of the residents of Grafton Avenue. Most of the houses are on the corner. When they have callers they go to the side streets and park there. There is practically no parking on Grafton Avenue. You very seldom see a car parked there, except late at night when some people come out there from other sections of the city to stop.

We feel that there should be no widening, on account of the trees. If there weren't any trees we would have no objection to your taking it. It costs a lot of money every year to keep that in order. All the people on the Parkway take a pride in keeping it in shape and costs us money to keep it in order. It is because of the trees that we do not think it should be widened.

Commissioner Murray: Can't you transport those trees somewhere else? I know that they transport trees with roots as large as this table. I have seen that coming up from the shore.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in opposition? We will consider both ordinances before us.

Mr. Frank Mullin, 286 Grafton Avenue.

Gentlemen, when we bought that property on Grafton Avenue we had a wonderful frontage there. It is the beauty spot of Newark. Two or three years ago we came here, and all the Commissioners voted against the same thing that is brought up today. There is no good reason why you should widen Grafton Avenue. You may as well take the flowers away from us. Lord knows we have enough ugly spots now, and if we have a few pretty spots, why in the world do you want to go and widen it now. If there were a lot of traffic there you would have a wonderful reason, but there is no traffic there.

As far as the sewer is concerned, Mayor Raymond at the last hearing told you to let the Park Commission find a way of draining the swamp down there. They have $300,000. They knew when they bought it what to expect. If you people have a lot of money, go and spend it to widen the street, but I don't see why you should force it down our throats to force a widening at this time. (Applause.)

Mr. Percy H. Johnson, 773 DeGraw Avenue.

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I think the principal reason at this time is the finances. I don't think there is one person in Forest Hill that would object to this sewer if it could be laid at a reasonable price. The rumor was that it would cost anywhere from three to four to six to ten dollars a running foot. Since then we understand that that is not so.

Now, as to the widening of Grafton Avenue and the repaving, we feel that at this particular time that at $10 a running foot it is an exorbitant rate, and we do not need it. We do want a pavement there, and I don't think there is a property owner on that particular avenue that is not in favor of it, but at the same time, if we could have it resurfaced at a reasonable price, probably the standard of DeGraw Avenue and Lake Street, and Highland Avenue, which I believe cost us in the neighborhood of $3.25 a running foot.

Now, they say, "Yes, you have five years to pay for it." Well, what are the consequences? How much interest have they got to pay in the five years? That is what you have to consider. You cannot do it for nothing. You have to have certain interest charges, and it cannot be done for two and a half or three and a half or four per cent., I don't think.

Mayor Congleton: So far as the paving is concerned, the part that is now paved is to be treated in exactly the manner that you have suggested it ought to be done. Beyond there, to the west, where it has never been paved and it is practically a dead street, of course, it will have to be treated differently.

Mr. Johnson: Well, Mr. Mayor, I would like to know if Mr. Costello can give us an idea as to what the repaving of Grafton Avenue will cost approximately.

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance carries an appropriation of $39,900, which is the engineer's estimate, based on our experience in the last few months on bids that we have gotten. The bid probably will run considerably less.

Mr. Johnson: Can you tell me what proportion the city bears of that?

Mayor Congleton: That is fixed by the Board of Assessment Commissioners. We cannot tell you.

Mr. Johnson: And you could not tell us whether you are going to widen Grafton Avenue?

Mayor Congleton: We can't tell you at this time. We are here to hear the property owners and we will undoubtedly be guided by what you have to say.

Mr. Johnson: Well, I would like to settle once and for all the rumor that has come to me in the past few weeks relative to myself and my associates in Forest Hills, that we were antagonistic to you or to the Commissioners, and that we had sent out literature in Forest Hill opposing you politically and in other ways.

Mayor Congleton: Well, if that rumor is abroad it has not reached my ears yet.

Mr. Johnson: Well, I have been told by a man supposed to be truthful that that was told to him through your department. I have nothing outside of that. I want you to understand, Mr. Mayor, and Mr. Costello and the gentlemen with you, the other Commissioners, that that is absolutely false. We have never opposed you except in a way such as we oppose you today, nor the people that come under your department. Therefore we are looking for the best for the people that are interested. High taxes to pay and assessments coming on them now does not seem reasonable, and we want you to give us a fair deal. That is all we ask.

Mayor Congleton: So far as your being here opposing this matter in the manner that you are is concerned, I am sure that I express the views of the other Commissioners as well as of myself when I say that we are glad you are here today. We only wish that more citizens would attend our meetings and participate in the matters that are before us, giving their views at the proper time and in the proper manner, instead of standing out on the corner and talking about it after it has been done, when we have had no opportunity to know the real views of the property owners.

So far as the improvement being initiated at this time is concerned, it was done because of a petition that was presented to me, in which it was stated that practically every property owner—I don't say everyone, but practically every property owner—had joined and signed, requesting the street to be paved.

Mr. Johnson: Well, Mr. Mayor, in answer to that I would say that that is practically so, that most of the property owners on Grafton Avenue at that particular time did sign, with the exception of a few, but things were quite different then they are now.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I received a petition during the fall season after paving had ceased for the year, and it was on our schedule for this spring.

Mr. Johnson: What we cannot understand is one thing that I have neglected to tell you, which is in regard to the contractors being anxious for work at a greatly reduced price, and it seems to me that if DeGraw Avenue and two other streets, Parker and Highland, and so forth, can be resurfaced and paved at $3.25 we can't understand where $10 a running foot comes in, unless it is in the charges of widening.

Now, Mr. Mayor, we held a meeting last night at the club house in Forest Hill, and I had the honor to be chairman of that meeting, and during the terrible storm, raining very hard, we had out over a hundred members that attended there. They were absolutely opposed to paying only a minimum charge on the sewer and they hope that they will not have to pay anything, and I was with them. I think there wasn't a voice there, excepting one, that was in favor— or maybe two— and they were living in toward where the Park Commission has jurisdiction. I felt that the enthusiasm that was shown at that meeting, that we wanted to get next to you, as Mr. Egan and Mr. Murray said, and come down here and talk it over, and get together like a family. That is what we wanted to do.

Mayor Conglton: Neither the Commission nor my department has any desire to force this improvement on the property owners if they do not want it. If they prefer to wait until a later date, we will do the best we can with patching it, and we will wait until you are ready for it.

Mr. Johnson: I think that that is the best way.

Mayor Congleton: The only real matter in difference between us is the question of the sewer.

Commissioner Gillen: The widening.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, the widening. As to the question of the sewer, I am advised by men who make it their life's work that it is poor city planning and poor improvement to pave a street without providing adequate and proper drainage. That is the only thing on which we are very much apart. As a layman I feel that I must be guided to some extent by the advice of people who have devoted and are devoting their lives to that line of work, who are constantly making studies, and who are servants of the public.

Mr. Johnson: Mr. Mayor, I appreciate what you say. Undoubtedly, from an engineer's standpoint and from a city's viewpoint it is O. K., but so far as the property owners are concerned, we can't agree with you. That is the reason for the demonstration that we see here. There are probably 150 to 250 people here that are opposed to it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we ought to be able to disagree with very friendly feeling.

Mr. Johnson: Absolutely. That is the way I feel.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the ordaining clause of both ordinances be stricken out.

Not seconded.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Heller wants to be heard first. I think that we ought to hear him.

R. Arthur Heller, 559 Ridge Street.

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, first as to this enthusiastic meeting which you have had evidence of, I want to call attention to this circular, which I think is a perfectly unfair circular, in which they say that the assessment will be from $200 to $800 on the sewer. Each member of the Board can see that and you can account for this enthusiastic meeting.

As to the sewer, I speak on behalf of the largest property owner and the largest prospective assessment payer, and as to the paving also. The amount of assessment for both the sewer and the pavement will be approximately half of the total. I am in favor of it.

The circular there is a perfectly unfair circular for an occasion like this, which will be the occasion for a gathering of this kind. I believe your Honor or Mr. Costello has figures which would somewhat indicate approximately the lineal foot assessment on the sewer. Do you know? Have you such available?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Heller: Approximately what would it show per foot?

Mayor Congleton: About 69 cents per front foot for the sewer, figured one way, and 96.6 cents per front foot, figured another way.

Mr. Heller: Taking the higher figure it will be under one dollar, will it not, your Honor?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, based on our estimate of the cost and not on the bid figures, where, as I say, municipal work has never been done at as low a price in years as it is being done today.

Mr. Heller: Well, then the ninety-odd cents is approximately the high-figure?

Mayor Congleton: .966 figured one way, and 69 cents, figured another way.

Mr. Heller: It is a fair statement that the 96 cents would be a fair maximum, would it not?

Mayor Congleton: I think so.

Mr. Heller: As to the sewerage, there is no doubt about it. Over a period of a year we came before your Honor's old predecessors to ask for this sewer. It is essential to have that sewer. Grafton Avenue on the lower end has been dubbed the worst paved street in the City of Newark. Personally I think it is true. Secondly, as the result of the rain last night, yesterday, and last evening, there is a virtual lake there, making the property impassable for the people to get in and out with their automobiles. I believe the sewer is absolutely essential, engineeringly, to carry out properly the City railroad, which, according to your present plans, will go out to the canal up to a point approximately at the boundary line of Bloomfield. I believe that is the purpose of the present railroad, is it not? I say, it runs to the Bloomfield line, does it not?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Heller: So this sewer is quite essential for that purpose. I see no engineering reason—in fact, I can't find any engineering reason, and our friends here who have opposed it have not expressed an engineering reason to the contrary. It seems to be a question of the amount of the assessment, which your Honor indicates will be under one dollar, and therefore, in spite of the fact that we pay the largest assessment on the sewer, I am in favor of it.

As to the paving, I am heartily in favor of it. It has to follow, engineeringly. While on that question, they can repave over the largest part of it, because the upper part is an old pavement which will probably be resurfaced, as I understand it, and the assessment on the property that will be resurfaced will be quite moderate. The assessment on the part that has not been paved, which is the part that we own, will be quite considerable. We stand here and say we would like to have it.

As to the question of widening Grafton Avenue, that is purely a matter of your better judgment. If you feel that you ought to widen it after we gave you the street so many years ago, widen it, but I think it is all right as it is. Therefore, both parts of the ordinance should prevail.

I should like you and your associates, Mr. Mayor, to see that circular.

Mayor Congleton: We have seen it.

Mr. Johnson: Mr. Mayor, with your permission I take exception to what our friends, Mr. Heller, says relative to that circular. That circular was gotten out approximately as to the cost, and it wasn't supposed to be authentic, because we did not know.

Now, Mr. Heller has always opposed the people in Forest Hill, so far as protests are concerned, and Mr. Heller has a perfect right to do so. I would do the same thing if I owned property down where he owns it and the rain comes down and floods the cellars of his tenants. Naturally I would say that Mr. Heller was perfectly right, as far as his standpoint is concerned, but as to the property owners in other sections that are affected it is quite different, particularly at this time. We do not see, Mr. Mayor, why you cannot do something, you and your Commission, to help us. We ask you to do that as best you can. (Applause).

Subdivision 1. Permit required:

Subdivision 4. Every person, firm or corporation obtaining a license for the sale or distribution of milk, cream or milk products in the City of Newark, shall pay to the Department of Health, a fee of two ($2) dollars for each store, wagon, vehicle, station or bottling plant and manufacturing plant. A license shall entitle the holder thereof to sell only the particular grade of milk, cream or milk products for which it is issued. Should the licensee desire to sell other grades of milk, cream or milk products, he must obtain a separate permit for each additional grade of milk, cream or milk products and pay an additional fee of fifty cents (.50) each, for every additional grade of milk, cream or milk products, a permit is granted for. Only one such additional fee of fifty (.50) cents shall be charged for each additional grade of milk, cream or milk products, regardless of the number of wagons, stores, vehicles, stations or bottling or manufacturing plants.

June 16, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

605 Orange St., Edward H. Frederick, owner, gasoline station; for a period of five years;

82 Prospect St., Ignacio Gonzales, owner; alteration of a dwelling to a store;

155-159 Mulberry St., Herman Z. Baum, owner; addition to a public garage;

490 Eighteenth Ave., Frank Tortorello, owner, alteration of a garage to a retail ice depot.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Copy to be sent to each commissioner and laid over until July 1, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Michael M. Chanalis, 9 Clinton Street.

I represent Miss Mabel McCann.

About eight months ago she entered into a lease with a responsible oil company to lease the property out as a gas station. It is 73 feet on Broadway and 100 feet on Elliot Street. The oil company applied to the Board of Adjustment for a permit and it was denied. The opposition was organized and came from the Broadway Association.

Mayor Congleton: After the application was first denied another application was made to reopen it, wasn't it?

Mr. Chanalis: By the oil company.

Mayor Congleton: And that was denied.

Mr. Chanalis: I don't think that these facts have ever been presented to the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: In addition to the Broadway Association—the reason I know it is because the petition was sent to me and I in turn transmitted it to the Board of Adjustment. As I recall it, it was a very extensively signed petition, signed by practically everybody on Elliot Street. The Board of Education, as I recall, objected to it because of the Elliot Street School nearby, where so many children come up that street.

Mr. Chanalis: Well, the Elliot Street School is on Summer Avenue, over a block away. I personally have taken a great interest in this, on account of this woman's financial condition.

Mayor Congleton: Well, your application for a re-opening would have to be to the Board of Adjustment. It has never come to us, and we have no jurisdiction in the matter until they—

Mr. Chanalis: I was led to understand that the Commission can direct the Board of Adjustment to reopen the matter.

Mayor Congleton: Our only jurisdiction is after they have granted the permit. Then we have to concur in it or deny it.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I think, in view of what Mr. Chanalis has said, that it would be proper for us to recommend to Board of Adjustment to reconsider this matter, I so move.

Commissioner Murray: That is particularly so because of the fact that Mr. Chanalis thinks that one man got a permit and was unable to negotiate successfully and abandoned it. I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Chanalis: Thank you very much.

Mr. J. Creran, 783 Broad Street.

Gentlemen: This ice house at 18th Avenue, we have it erected, and the owner filed application to add an office on the side to take orders for coal. The Building Department referred it down here for approval.

Commissioner Murray: Is that McCullough's?

Mr. Creran: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: Next to the Vailsburg Trust Company?

Mr. Creran: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Is this 490 18th Avenue?

Mr. Creran: 918.

Commissioner Murray: The building is up. I understand they have to have a coal office and an ice depot there. I understand that the Building Department wants our approval of the coal office.

Mayor Congleton: I understand that all we had before us was the ice depot. We had nothing to do with the coal office.

Mr. Creran: The building that is up is just a rough interior to take care of the ice. He wants to have an office addition here nextdoor, to have a desk inside to take orders for coal.

Mayor Congleton: The point about it is that they have not built in accordance with the plans that the Board of Adjustment approved and which we approved, Mr. Rankin says. They have built a building larger by nine feet.

Mr. Rankin: They want to build out on it.

Mr. Creran: Oh, no we haven't done that.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin says it is not being built in accordance with the plans which were submitted to the Board of Adjustment and which were approved by them, and which were concurred in by this Board.

Commissioner Murray: This nine-foot office is not on yet?

Mr. Creran: No, it is not on yet. We want it.

Mayor Congleton: That is just what I am saying. They wanted Mr. Rankin to approve plans different from what has been approved.

Mr. Creran: We built according to the approved plan and the building is erected and up, and now we come down to ask for an office addition on the same line with the other building.

Mayor Congleton: You have to go to the Board of Adjustment first.

Commissioner Murray: The Building Department refuses to give you a permit. Your appeal is to the Board of Adjustment. We have no action to take on it until they have passed on it.

Commissioner Gillen: Is there any serious objection?

Mr. Rankin: I believe there is serious objection. He leaves a foot on each side and makes the building 25 feet wide instead of the original 16.

Mr. Creran: This office will be pocketed up against the oil company that is there now.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the permission be granted.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Clarence H. Lane, 465 Clifton Avenue.

I appear before this Commission to try to draw their attention to a fact that I think is not really good for the City of Newark, and that is the parking of automobiles at night on vacant lots. What draws this mostly to my attention was that about five years ago I applied for a permit to build some individual garages on Treadwell Court, which was rejected on the ground that it was 200 feet from a school, but since that time that lot has been a perfect nuisance to the neighborhood for the parking of automobiles at night in that lot. I believe that the City Commission wasted a ratable when they rejected that permit, but I don't believe there is any ordinance to prohibit the parking of automobiles on vacant lots.

Commissioner Murray: Yes, it is. It makes a parking station. He has no right to do that without permission.

Mr. Lane: The Bureau of Combustibles has been trying for a long time to clean that lot up. I was talking to one of the inspectors and he says that the landlord does not seem to act. It isn't that place in particular, but I sat here and listened to applications for golf links and parking stations presented here to this Commission, and the people get a chance to voice their objection, but I don't believe that anybody has anything to say as to whether a man should park his automobile on a vacant lot or not. I think the City is losing lots of ratables.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, unless the lot is in a territory where a garage could be put under the zoning ordinance and the man is permitted this carrying on of a business. There the enforcing officer under the zoning ordinance, in my opinion, would have a perfect right and would succeed in making a complaint for a violation of that ordinance.

Mr. Lane: I believe the City would reap quite a revenue from that if there was sort of plan brought about whereby it could stop that. I know for a positive fact that the young fellows will drive cars in these vacant lots where there are lots of cars there and carry on things that should not be carried on, and all that sort of stuff. I really think it would be a good plan if there would be a way whereby it was prohibited to allow a man promiscuously driving his car on vacant lots and parking it there over night. As a matter of fact, it is unfair for a man struggling in the garage business to compete under that sort of thing. I think that the parking stations are a very good thing. It brings revenue to the city, and so forth, but this parking of cars on vacant lots at night is creating a source of petty larceny and other things.

Commissioner Murray: It is maintaining a nuisance.

Mr. Lane: I know the people down on Park Avenue had a deuce of a time trying to get rid of that.

Commissioner Murray: Who owns that lot?

Mr. Lane: I think the apartment owners on Mt. Prospect Avenue owns it.

Mayor Congleton: I suppose the lot is used by most of their tenants?

Mr. Lane: No, there is no tenants. His tenants are kicking.

Commissioner Murray: Why don't you get the facts. Then we will take action.

Mr. Lane: There are cars up there that have no license on them.

Commissioner Murray: If that is the case, it is maintaining a nuisance and he can be stopped. You get me the full information on it, I will make them stop.

Commissioner Howe: Is that the same property where the people applied for a permit?

Mr. Lane: Yes, I stood ready five or six years ago to spend fifty or sixty thousand dollars. At the present time there is cars been parked on there ever since. It doesn't seem fair when a man is ready to invest money to bring ratables into the City of Newark and he is turned down because there is a school there. I don't think it is a fair shake.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who wishes to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the people of this City have learned, with great sorrow, of the death of their beloved fellow-citizen, Timothy F. Foyle, which occurred on Tuesday, June 23, 1931; and

WHEREAS, arising from humble origin he became, by reason of a life-time of activity, which stamped him as being possessed of the highest type of citizenship, a dominant figure in the business and financial life of this City; a public official noted for his fidelity to the public welfare, and a conspicuous figure in the cultural and civic activities of Newark; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Foyle will be long remembered in the minds and hearts of the people of his native City for his works of charity; for it is recorded that he spent his entire time dispensing true charity to many thousands of people less fortunate than he, in the form of material goods and services, and as their personal counselor and spiritual guide. In these respects he occupied a foremost position in the contemporary life of Newark;

NOW,, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of Newark, record this expression of deep loss which the City has suffered through the death of Timothy F. Application of General Office Supply Company, owner, for an outdoor automobile parking station; premises 367 Washington Street; for a period of two years;

Commissioner Egan: I might say in connection with that that I have had a conference with Mr. Kane, our traffic engineer, and Mr. Bulger, on these open-air parking spaces. They have finally reached a point, where, I think they will have to be regulated, so far as the handling of traffic is concerned, and so far as the elimination of fire hazard is concerned. We are making a study of it now. Shortly we will bring in something, a resolution or an ordinance, they are getting to be so numerous.

Commissioner Murray: They should be compelled to pay.

Commissioner Egan: They should be compelled to pay something in the way of a license, as against the man who puts up a garage in the heart of the City at a tremendous cost, while alongside him there is a fellow with an open-air parking station. It is easier for a motorist to use an open-air parking station than a garage. The fellow who has his money invested gets nothing and the fellow who has nothing invested gets something.

Commissioner Howe: Do you want to lay this over?

Commissioner Egan: No, I think that we ought to vote on it now.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Hermes Lunch Co. (M. & J. Augenblick Realty Co., owner, for a miniature golf course; premises 1036-1040 Broad Street, be laid over to July 1, 1931.

Application of A. M. Hemmen, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 272 Hillside Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter they desire to speak about to the Commission this morning?

Mr. R. Botelli, Jr., 45 Branford Place.

Gentlemen, I represent the property owner at 107 Malvern Street. On last August 12 we were granted a permit for a gas station for a three-months period, and this man at that time could not finance it and could not go ahead with it, but now he is in a position to build. He would like to have an extension of time on that permit. At the same time, we showed the building setting back 39 feet 6 inches from the street and he would like to make that 30 in order to utilize the other lot for another building that he intends to put up.

Commissioner Egan: I move that it be referred to the Board of Adjustment for a report.

Commissioner Howe: That makes it a different proposition now.

Mr. Botelli: How about the extension of time? Can that be granted now as is? We intend to start immediately.

Commissioner Egan: Is that time up now?

Mr. Botelli: Well, three months from August 12. That is up considerably.

Mayor Congleton: It will be extended now to September 12, if you want it.

Commissioner Gillen: I so move.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, on August 6, 1930, the Board of Commissioners, on the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment dated July 15, 1930, adopted a resolution approving the construction of a gasoline station on premises 107 Malvern Street; and

WHEREAS, Bernardino Neviello, owner of the premises in question, was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that an extension of time to September 12, 1931, be granted for the commencement of the aforesaid work.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Botelli: And the other question will be taken up with the Board of Adjustment?

Mayor Congleton: You take it up with the Board of Adjustment. Get in touch with Mr. Rankin. He will tell you how to proceed.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, I want to move the reconsideration of the vote on the Hillside Avenue gasoline station. I understand now that the man who objected, who owns the adjacent property has withdrawn his objection. Someone who was here last week was told that he should get the withdrawal of this objection in writing. I am told now that the man who is standing behind me is the man who has the adjacent property and that he is here to withdraw his objection.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Bramley?

Commissioner Murray: Bramley was here.

Mayor Congleton: That was not Bramley. Commissioner Howe stated that he had a letter from Bramley that morning objecting to it.

Commissioner Howe: He owns four of the five or six houses on that block.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is to reconsider our action. All those in favor will say aye; all those opposed will say no.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Murray.

Nays: Commissioner Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The matter is now before the Board. What is your pleasure?

Commissioner Egan: I move that we concur in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment.

Commissioner Howe: I think that Mr. Bramley ought to have an opportunity. They say that he has withdrawn. I have a letter to the effect that he has not. It is a matter of courtesy. After having voted it down, we ought to give him an opportunity to present his objection.

Commissioner Egan: They were notified.

Commissioner Howe: Bramley was not notified. He was up in the Pocono Mountains and he didn't have an opportunity to appear. I move that it be laid over for a week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Lehman, c/o Samuel Brader, 972 Broad Street.

Gentlemen, in regard to the permit for the Hillside and Clinton Avenue store and apartment building, I understand that all the details have been taken up with the Law Department—

Mayor Congleton: An ordinance providing for the vacation of the street has been introduced and will come up for consideration within two weeks from today. Until that is done we have no right to grant a permit to build a building on some property that may have a street pass through it.

Mr. Lehman: Two weeks from today?

Mayor Congleton: Two weeks from today.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

July, 1931.

Newark, N. J., July 1, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of June 24th were read and approved.

A petition presented by Thomas J. Mooney favoring the repaving of Grafton Avenue, provided it be not widened and assessments to be levied on the same basis as was done in Highland Avenue, Lake Street and McGraw Avenue, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the construction of a system of sewers to be known and designated as the Grafton Avenue Storm Sewer and Branches, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: We will also have the paving ordinance read. We will read both titles together.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, paving, repaving and resurfacing of Grafton Avenue from Ridge Street to Bellair Place with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation or on the old macadam pavement prepared as a foundation, as may be directed, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. Percy H. Johnson, 773 McGraw Avenue: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, at a meeting held last night at the Forest Hill Club it was decided that the sewer be put through at a maximum of 96 cents. A resolution was also adopted that the resurfacing of Grafton Avenue take place at as small a cost as possible, and also the repaving of Grafton Avenue from Beaumont Place running west. It was also adopted unanimously that we oppose and protest against any widening of Grafton Avenue at the present time. I think that is about all. I don't want to take up your time. We hope that you will be in accord with us.

Mayor Congleton: Are you prepared, Mr. Johnson, along those lines, to withdraw the petition which was filed the other day, which, if it contained signatures representing the frontage you say it does, would act as a veto, unless we proceed under another section of the law, which gives us the authority to do so if we declare it to be a public necessity, except as to the widening?

Mr. Johnson: Would that only be to the sewer? The protest so far as the sewer is concerned?

Mayor Congleton: Your protest would still stand with respect to the widening. Do you withdraw your protest with respect to the sewer and the paving?

Mr. Johnson: I don't think there is a question that the people are willing to withdraw the protest or the petitions if we can have the sewer put down at the cost that I think you gave us at this meeting.

Mayor Congleton: We can't go beyond that, if we—

Mr. Johnson: Well, you thought that that was the approximate cost.

Mayor Congleton: Under one scheme of assessment, my recollection was that it was 67 cents and under another 96. Those figures are based on rather liberal figures, but if this work should proceed and the bids should come in as this sewer recently has, the figures ought to be left.

Mr. Johnson: Well, of course, we have to trust you. We can't take the chance of saying, "Well, we still protest." We put the thing up to you. You know how the people feel up there in the area affected, and we certainly want to be fair with you and we expect you to be fair with us.

Mayor Congleton: We would want the official minutes to show that the protest in so far as it relates to the storm water sewer and the paving is withdrawn; otherwise we would have to proceed in a different manner if we are going to go ahead with it. So far as it applies to the widening of the street, it still stands.

Mr. Thomas J. Mooney, 273 Grafton Avenue: Mr. Mayor, may I say a word? In your ordinance you say nothing about the widening, so that the question of the widening of Grafton Avenue, to my mind, does not come up in this ordinance. We have no objections to the repaving.

Mayor Congleton: The only reason for that is that when we widen is when we have to acquire property. All we would do, if we widened it as proposed under the plan, would be to use the land that is already part of the street. The widening ordinance has to go through only when we have to acquire land that we do not already own.

Mr. Mooney: I do not see that the question comes up under this particular ordinance. You can go ahead. We withdraw the petition in regard to the sewers, but in regard to Grafton Avenue, we do not withdraw that except that you agree that you do not widen Grafton Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: That is just what I have asked you.

Mr. Mooney: That is what we do.

Commissioner Murray: All objections are withdrawn except to the widening?

Mr. Mooney: Except to the widening. I have here a petition that is signed, representing 79½ per cent. of all the property owners on Grafton Avenue, who object to the widening. Even the outlying people, those on the adjoining streets, do not want Grafton Avenue widened. We have no objection to the repaving of Grafton Avenue east of Beaumont Place and the new pavement west of Beaumont Place, because it is my understanding that the Heller interests have agreed to pay for a complete, sewer — a complete paving, which will be needed west of Beaumont Place, while you can do a resurfacing job east of Beaumont Place.

Commissioner Murray: Then, you are satisfied with the sewer and the pavement, providing that there is no widening?

Mr. Mooney: Absolutely.

A communication dated June 29th from Catherine P. Sullivan protesting against the proposed rerouting of buses on South Orange Avenue was received, read and ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the regular order of business be suspended and that we hear the people who desire to be heard with respect to the re-routing of buses.

Mayor Congleton: A motion has been made that the regular order of business be suspended and that we hear the people who desire to be heard with respect to the re-routing of buses.

Mr. Nathan Bilder, 60 Park Place: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I appear here on behalf of the Springfield Avenue Business Men's Association, an organization consisting of at least 155 business men who are located on Springfield Avenue, who desire to enter a protest against the re-routing of buses from Springfield Avenue to Eighteenth Avenue, and who not only desire to enter a protest, but who desire to ask this Commission to cooperate to the extent of having the Law Department of the City oppose and take an active interest in opposing any effort which may be made before the Public Utility Commission to change the traffic from Springfield Avenue.

The merchants of Springfield Avenue for a great many years—I may say for two generations—have been active in building up one of the main business arteries of the City of Newark. They are in that section which is a veritable beehive of industry. There is represented every branch of business life of the City. You will find there the largest shoe house in the City, a large furniture center, and a large department store. All this represents the industry, the thrift the perserverance, and the ability of merchants for a great many years in building up this great part of the City of Newark. To attempt to change now what has been created as a result of this hard work in one of the greatest business centers of Newark, by removing millions of people from that center, which would result from a re-routing of traffic, would not only result to the material injury of every merchant upon the thoroughfare, but greatly reduce tax valuations in that part of the City.

The protest made here on behalf of all the merchants on Springfield Avenue is unanimous. We have combed that thoroughfare quite thoroughly and we know of no merchant in that section who is in favor of it, and all of them are unanimously opposed to it. This is no longer a neighborhood. That section is fed by millions of people who come from all part of the City and pass through that section. Millions of dollars worth of business is done in that section, and a vigorous protest is made in behalf of those merchants, who say that their business will be destroyed if the traffic is deflected from Springfield Avenue and taken over on to Eighteenth Avenue or to any other place.

It seems to us that with the appeal presented so unanimously by a large croup of the business men of that section who ask your cooperation, the Commission should heed it and actively interest itself with them in opposing the matter before the Public Utility Commission. Business is difficult enough in these days, with the depression and the great stress that the business man has before him, with the problems that he has of keeping his employees—and he is trying to do it—with all of the problems that confront the business man today in an effort to keep his head above water and to keep himself from financial ruin. To add this one great additional burden to him, of deflecting the traffic from that important center to another street, would be the last straw.

We urge and plead with this Commission to actively assist us and to ask the Law Department of the City to assist us in frustrating the attempt to remove the buses from Springfield Avenue to another part of the City.

I understand that there are representatives here from other associations along the line which is to be affected, who desire to be heard. This protest which I make as virgorously as I know how is on behalf of the Springfield Avenue Merchants Association, an organization representing 155 of the active business men on the avenue.

Thank you very much for giving me this opportunity. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Who will be the next speaker? Is there anyone else who desires to be heard?

Mr. Abram Marx, 995 South Orange Avenue: I am speaking in behalf of the Vailsburg business men and as a resident of Vailsburg. I think it would be a great deed if you would leave the buses on the avenue, for the benefit of the public and the business people. I feel it would be a great loss to both of us, and I appreciate it very much if you would leave the buses on the avenue instead of re-routing them. Thank you. (Applause).

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard? Does anyone else desire to be heard. If not, we will proceed with our regular business. Proceed, Mr. City Clerk.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I think, with respect to these protests to the re-routing of the buses on the various thoroughfares over which they have been operated, that there has been such a general protest that we must give ear to it. The protest comes from so many merchants and important business men of the City of Newark, and it has been so well stated here by Mr. Bilder, that the City Commission, it seems to me, has to take action on it. After all, the people have placed us here to look after their interests, and if there is something being done which they say affects their interests to a very great extent, it is up to the City Commission to try to prevent that thing being done.

What has been said about Springfield Avenue affects all the main thoroughfares on which buses have been operating and from which it is proposed to take those buses. I think that the people of Newark know exactly what they want. I think that the business men along these main arteries are able, intelligent men, who know just exactly what their streets require. I have had to do with transportation matters now since I entered the old Board of Works nearly twenty years ago. There isn't a question in my mind that this taking away of the buses from these important arteries is going to injure to a very great extent every merchant on those thoroughfares. We can't stand by and see that done. If there is a monopoly in charge of those buses and if they propose to take them from the streets on which transportation is most required because of the business demands of the business interests, I think it is up to the City Commission to put buses on there, no matter by whom they are operated. That is my theory.

In the meantime I think that the first action we ought to take, if we are of a mind, if your minds are the same as mine, is to listen to these protests from these people who have so much at stake, probably their whole livelihood. Many of these merchants have all the money they have in the world invested in their little businesses and in their big businesses, perhaps, and in the properties, probably, in which they conduct those businesses. The first thing we ought to do, it seems to me, is to make known to the State Utility Board the attitude of the governing body of this City.

I have always felt that this plan, notwithstanding the report of the gentleman who made the investigation, is too radical, too harsh, and that it will cause too much injury if put in force. I would therefore offer you, Mr. Mayor, a motion that this Board oppose the re-routing of buses and that we instruct the Law Department to appear before the Utility Board today and make known our attitude, if this motion is passed, and that we also instruct the Law Department to oppose in every way the re-routing of buses as proposed under the present plan.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any remarks on the motion?

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, a matter that ought to receive very deep consideration in a case of this kind is the fact that the establishment and maintenances of transportation along a definite and fixed line for a continued period of time is actually a basis of the business that is formed along that line. Without the transportation having been there that business would not have accrued as it has, and to take it away summarily would require a readjustment that ought to have tremendous consideration before it is done. I have had numerous petitions and objections to it. These streets are now particularly busy, and of course we all know that congestion means business. Without congestion we would not have any business. We ought to go very slowly, it seems to me, in doing anything by way of adjustment that would be as revolutionary as the abandonment of a large portion of a business highway by the very traffic which brings the business to it. I cannot see that it is good logic or good sense to do otherwise.

Mayor Congleton: I suppose that most of these remarks are aimed at me, because the question of issuing bus permits and re-routing buses has been assigned to me. There has been no arbitrary action. The late Commissioner Brennan, with the sanction of the other members of the Board of Commissioners, and I appointed a Traffic Commission made up of reputable business men of this community. Their report was made, and it is clear that the operation of buses and trolleys upon the same street is an economic waste, that it serves transportation only to a limited number of people, and that there should be some re-routing of buses.

The matter has been given very full study. Traffic counts galore have been made. It is my own judgment that the one great thing that the City of Newark is suffering from is that we still believe that Newark is a two or three street city. In order for the City to grow commercially or in a business way, it is my belief that it is necessary to re-route transportation. The service is not so far removed from its present streets that it does not serve the public. The only difference is that when a person leaves his home he will be required to make up his mind whether he wants to travel that day by bus or by trolley, and he will walk in one direction or the other to get the mode of transportation that he desires.

For years the City downtown has been suffering because it has been hard to make the public and the people who come in from outside the City believe that the City of Newark downtown consists of anything but Broad and Market Streets. If we are to grow and to have business scattered throughout our City—because that must be the way in which we are going to grow; we are not increasing in population, as our last census showed, and we have to depend upon people from our neighboring municipalities to come in—we have to provide more than one or two streets for business. That is my viewpoint.

The question of a monopoly of transportation has not entered into this. When that charge is made it involves not only me, but it involves such men as Mr. William L. Mallon, Horace A. Bonnell, Henry D. Bowman, J. Nelson Carter, William C. Fiedler, Judge Richard Hartshorne, Claude E. Holgate, Joseph A. Hurley, Alfred D. Way, and Fred M. Rosseland, who were the members of the special traffic committee appointed by the late Commissioner Brennan and myself, and this rerouting is based upon a report made by them.

Are there any further remarks to the motion?

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I would like to say this with reference to Commission Gillen's motion before I vote on it; It is a record in the City that in the time of the late Mayor Raymond he had experts appointed, who at a cost of approximately $30,000 made a survey of the traffic situation in Newark, having to do with the handling of our people, from the transportation standpoint, and they recommended certain re-routings. When that matter was presented to the Commission some time ago a manifestation of dissatisfaction similar to the one shown now was shown. This Commission that you have just referred to was appointed by the late Commissioner Brennan and yourself, Mr. Mayor, and it made a very serious study of the transportation situation, recommending certain changes in the bus lines, in order to handle the public as the Commission thought they should be handled most efficiently. That report is on file and has been for some fifteen months, as I recall it.

Mayor Congleton: It came in March, 1930.

Commissioner Egan: March, 1930. No action has been taken on it until this time. The interested public had every opportunity to consider the matter, to discuss it with the City Commission, and to take it up with the Utility Commission. As I understand it, under the law now the Utility Commission has the right and the power—

Mayor Congleton: The permits that I have issued permitting the re-routing, or ordering the rerouting, are not effective until o.k'd by the Utility Commission, so all these protestors will have their day before the Utility Commission.

Commissioner Egan: In other words, the Utility Commission has complete charge? If they o.k. it it becomes effective?

Mayor Congleton: If they do not my order is of no effect.

Commissioner Egan: The order is before them now.

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: It would seem to me that because of the protest on the part of our citizens, including the business people and the people in the residential sections of the City, it is incumbent upon the City Commission to give it very serious thought. We have two viewpoints, the viewpoint of the expert who studies the handling of traffic or transportation and the viewpoint of the citizens who are interested in the arteries that are now used for transportation facilities. I am not an engineer. I do not pretend to be an expert in the matter of transportation. I do believe, however, that it seems quite foolish to have on the same artery a trolley car and a bus serving the same purpose at the same time. If I were to have my judgment accepted, I would try the removal of the trolley cars for a while and use the buses. (loud and continuous applause). I would use the buses as a more modern mode of transportation. Those who are expert in the matter of transportation tell me that the time has not yet arrived when buses can properly handle the traveling public.

I recall not so many years ago, when the trolleys were tied up because of labor trouble, that the people of our community were moved and moved rather satisfactorily by buses, although they were not regulated along perfect lines. It was an emergency situation handled perhaps in a haphazard way. Of course, I am also told, and I am led to believe from my reading up on the matter, that there is much to be considered in addition to the type of transportation when it comes to the removal of trolley cars. I think the experience of the Public Service in dealing with buses and trolley cars over the last fifteen years has indicated clearly to them that the bus is the modern mode of transportation. When the bus became a part of our utilities in this community the Public Service took the position that it was just a fad or a feature and that it would not be lasting. After the independent bus operators handled the situation so well for a long period of time the Public Service came in and purchased these buses from the individual owners at what in my opinion seemed to be exorbitant prices, in order to establish themselves in the bus business.

I know how we feel about it from a governing agency standpoint. We are charged with the responsibility of handling the affairs of the City of Newark. After we engage expert engineers to make a survey of our transportation situation and they recommend certain changes, it is the duty of the Commission to take action. After a Commission has been appointed by the governing body to make a study of the traffic problem and the transportation problem, and after they have made certain recommendations, it is the duty of this body to take action, but after all, we do represent the people of Newark, and they are entitled to their day in court.

This matter has not been dealt with actively up to the present time. Perhaps it should have been dealt with sooner, but I know that his Honor the Mayor had in mind giving the interested groups of our citizenship every opportunity. Human nature seems to prevail at all times, and no move was made until it seemed imperative. Now comes a situation where it is being considered actively by his Honor the Mayor, who has charge of this particular feature in this government. The matter is now before the Public Utility Commission for their consideration. Everyone knows that when there is a great body of citizens taking an active part in some movement there must be a substantial reason for it. When a large group of citizens such as we have here today have to deal with a problem that requires serious thought and conservative consideration it finally simmers down to a point where men have to gather around a table and discuss the matter thoroughly, after having given the interested parties every opportunity.

I should like to suggest to Commissioner Gillen that he amend his motion to have this body ask the Utility Commission to postpone any definite action in this matter until the Utility Commission confers with the City Commission, so that we may have at least coordinated thought in the matter. The Utility Commission, after all, is just as much charged with handling the affairs of the public as we are, even though they be appointed rather than elected. Perhaps in this combined fashion, after the two bodies, the State body and the City body, have considered it thoroughly and have given the interested citizens of Newark an opportunity to express their views, I am sure that we can get to a point where we can better solve this problem and have the great majority of our interested citizens satisfied.

Mayor Congleton: The matter has already been adjourned to September 15th by the Utility Commission, I am told.

Commissioner Murray: I would like to add here, Mr. Mayor, that no remark made here is intended to refer directly to the Mayor. It is simply the Mayor's responsibility because it is in his department. I had no thought of directing any remarks to you or to your position in the premises. I think that whatever is done will be the act and responsibility of the entire commission, not of you alone.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, on that point, I don't think that any citizens or any group of citizens here are going to be panicky to the point where they are going to put any official on the defensive when that official is doing the best he can to solve a very serious and important problem. I don't think it is necessary for any of the Mayor's colleagues to take a position where they are defending him. The Mayor does not need any defense in this matter. He is doing that which he is charged with doing as the Commissioner in charge of the Department of Public Affairs and as the chief executive of the City of Newark. He is supported by a report made by experts of national reputation and by a local committee of outstanding citizens.

If anybody deserves a certain amount of criticism it is this group of citizens here this morning, for remaining sound asleep for fifteen months in a matter that is of importance to their particular interest and welfare. It was only yesterday that I arrived at a satisfactory compromise with the South Orange Avenue Business Mens' Association. For the last two months I have been dealing with the representatives in committee form, and in every instance we had very definite disagreements as to what would be the best plan for handling traffic on South Orange Avenue in order to move traffic through that artery and to protect their interests as local business people. I did not agree with them at any time when I thought they were wrong, and in disagreeing with them I certainly did not curry favor. There comes a time in public life when a man who is doing the best he can do on his job cannot be politically expedient. The matter of currying favor in a political way is totally incidental to the doing of the job as it should be done. I think that you men who are here today are broadminded enough to know that any movement which involves a vital change is bound to result in controversy. In this situation we find existing difference of opinion between certain interested groups of business men and residents in different parts of the city, but after all this has been worked out and boiled down we will have something that is best for the greater majority of the people. I think that you are just as much interested in Newark as we are, and we have in mind one thing at all times—to get the best for the greater majority.

I don't want to intimate that I am attempting to curry favor with you when I express my thought as to what I think is the more modern way of public transportation in the matter of the bus against the trolley car. I don't think that a utility like the Public Service should be placed on the pan unnecessarily, unless they deserve it. They are just as important in the welfare of the community as any company or corporation, because of their tremendous proportions, and they must bow to the wishes of the public within practical lines. (Applause).

Mayor Congleton: Does Commissioner Gillen accept the amendment of Commissioner Egan?

Commissioner Gillen: No. I have offered a motion. I am opposed to re-routing. I offered the motion and I am going to vote on it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Nays: Mayor Congleton.

• Commissioner Egan: At this time, because of the attitude of the interested citizens in different sections and until we know more about it and have a chance to discuss the matter further, I will vote yes on the motion.

Mayor Congleton: We will proceed, then, with the regular business.

Commissioner Egan: I make the motion now, Mr. Mayor, that we ask the Public Utility Commissioners to confer with the City Commission in connection with this matter between now and the time in September when the public hearing is scheduled.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A petition signed by five property owners protesting against the ordinance providing for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Albert Avenue was received, read and ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Albert Avenue from Lockwood Street to Chapel Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Thomas F. Bryce, 988 Broad Street.

Mayor Congleton: Do your remarks apply to more than one ordinance?

Mr. Bryce: Yes, sir, the ordinance for Cornelia Street, Catherine Street, and Euclid Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: We will consider the ordinances as all being before the Board now, so that you will not have to repeat your remarks for each ordinance.

Mr. Bryce: I represent W. B. Glacken of the Essex and Hudson Land Improvement Company, and the Stanley Rule Company. We own seventy-five per cent. or more of the street frontage involved in this ordinance. We do not think that this is the time to proceed with the paving. We are very anxious to see how the Farmers' Market succeeds. We do not want to do anything to injure them, but we do not want to find ourselves assessed for $150,000 for paving streets.

Mayor Congleton: Does the new market occupy any of the land that you or your clients control?

Mr. Bryce: They occupy all of it that we own.

Mayor Congleton: I only want to say to you that these ordinances were initiated at the request of the people operating the market and not of our own initiative.

Mr. Bryce: As the owners we do not want them.

Mayor Congleton: I just want to make our position clear.

Mr. Bryce: We just want to have it postponed for three months until we see how this Farmers' Market succeeds.

Mr. Ernest Lum, 605 Broad Street: I would like to speak in objection to this if the ordinance is to be dealt with at this time. If it is to be continued, I would like to reserve any remarks I should have to make.

Mayor Congleton: You represent property owners who are opposed to it at this time?

Mr. Lum: Property owners to the extent of about forty-seven per cent.

Mayor Congleton: Who are opposed to it at this time?

Mr. Lum: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone here in favor of this ordinance?

(No response).

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following petition was received and read:

To the Commissioners of
The City of Newark.

We, the owners of the property designated herein opposite our respective signatures, do respectfully request that your Honorable Board will refuse to grant a permit for the erection or maintenance of a gasoline station at #605 Orange Street, Newark, New Jersey.

We understand that a petition has been filed requesting a permit for the alteration of the building at #605 Orange Street, into a gasoline station.

We feel that a gasoline station at this point will not only make the section undesirable for the various businesses which are now located at the various addresses listed below, but will also cause the insurance rates to be greatly increased, in addition to creating an extreme fire hazard in a section which is now occupied by some very old buildings.

We further feel, that on account of the present business depression and the high tax rate, it is very difficult for some of us to retain our properties, and in the event of a gas station being placed at the said premises, the increased insurance rates will probably cause some of us to be unable to further carry our properties.

We further submit that the north side of Orange Street is at all times heavily congested by pedestrian traffic, and to create a condition whereby automobiles will continually cross the sidewalk in order to enter and leave the said gas station, if intalled, would create a dangerous condition whereby it would be very easy for such pedestrians to become injured, and in time, said traffic would be diverted to other streets, thereby causing the merchants occupying our properties to lose considerable business.

For the aforesaid reasons, we respectfully pray that the said petition for the granting of the permit be refused.

Signed by 36 property owners.
Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Edward H. Frederick, owner, for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 605 Orange Street; for a period limited to five years from date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Harry Augenblick, 14 Mechanic Street.

Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, this is the return day for the confirmation of the action of the Board of Adjustment granting a permit for the alteration of a gas station on the corner of Orange Street and Hedden Place, Newark.

Mayor Congleton: That is because you antedated the Zoning Ordinance.

Mr. Augenblick: Yes, to drive in. The tenant, as I said before, has been there for ten years and the gas station has been established for seventeen years. We wants to advance himself there now and he wants to establish a substantial improvement on that corner.

Mr. Pearce R. Franklin, 810 Broad Street.

One or two of the objectors here either personally or through other channels represent people who have gas stations on the opposite side of the street. The general character of the neighborhood is not residential. I can see that this is nothing more than an improvement, and I request that this Commission pass the application.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in this matter?

Mr. Jacob Lubetkin, 60 Park Place:

Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, I represent thirty-seven property owners within the two-hundred-foot radius of this gasoline station.

Mayor Congleton: Owners of real estate? There are not that many within two hundred feet.

Mr. Lubetkin: Owners of real estate?

Mayor Congleton: I don't think so. There are a lot of tenants.

Mr. Lubetkin: They are owners, and I submit this petition for the inspection of the applicants if they feel they can disprove it.

The tendency of an automobile owner is to drive into a gasoline station where he has better facilities for getting water and oil, and the placing of a gasoline station, which may cut its rate for gasoline, by giving good service will give cars to that particular corner and is going to add to that congestion.

Mayor Congleton: I don't agree with you on that. I may unconsciously in part be responsible for this application being made, because I have objected many times when I have gone up Orange Street to being blocked by cars stopped at the curb being served with gas from the tanks at the curb, whereas if the station was as they are applying for it those cars would be in off the road and we would not be held up. I have kicked about the situation several times. Now, I do not know that that had anything to do with the making of this application, but I know that locality very, very well.

Mr. Lubetkin: Mr. Mayor, here is a plot of ground 25 feet front by 100. There is very little parking facilities for any automobile to get on that park. Let the owner have any sort of a run of business and he has got to have cars on Orange Street waiting for the other cars to fill in, and you will have just as much if not more congestion at that particular corner by reason of the gasoline station as you have by reason of the tanks.

Mayor Congleton: I would think that if we are going to have a gas station anywhere that is quite a place to have it. In the rear of that is a coal office, and in the rear of that is a large group of garages. Hedden Place is a by-pass for a lot of Orange Avenue motorists. I know that from my own stamping ground. I know that very well.

Mr. Lubetkin: There is considerable retail trade in that section. Once you stick a gasoline station there it is the beginning of the blight of that neighborhood. These buildings may be old, but it is a fine business section.

Mayor Congleton: I think that a gas station will be very preferable to the ramshackle buildings that we have had there ever since I was a kid that high (indicating).

Mr. George R. Jackson, 738 Broad Street.

I am appearing on behalf of two of the property owners and myself as a property owner in objection to the gasoline station being erected on this corner. The greatest argument against the creation of an additional gasoline station at this point was made by counsel on the other side by his argument in his application for it when he said it was a fire hazard. It is a fire hazard. One of the bitterest fights that was conducted in opposition to a gasoline station was conducted three years ago when an application was made for a gasoline station on the far side. At that time the Commission in charge of the zoning development of Newark turned it down. It was carried to the Supreme Court and they also said it was a fire hazard. No better reason existed then than it does today why it should not be put on that corner. Ninety per cent. of your people pass down Orange Street on the side that this station is going to be located on, at six o'clock in the evening. This would make it a physical impossibility to pass through with an automobile on account of the congestion. Your Honor has spoken before about the gasoline served on Orange Street. You can count the number of times that they get gasoline. It is a physical impossibility to get to the curb.

Mayor Congleton: I have struck those times.

Mr. Jackson: You must have done it in the middle of the day. I bought gasoline at that station. I want to protect my neighborhood and my property. I want to see it remain as it is.

We have petitions from all the neighboring property owners and we have four or five of them here at the present time who have come down. Their reason for objecting is only for the protection of their property. I think they should be given consideration. It is no argument to come here and say that there are objections based on mercenary reasons. They are objecting for their property, their homes. The owner of the property in question is living in Maplewood. Besides there hasn't been a gasoline station there for seventeen years. It has been a moving picture place for part of the time.

Mayor Congleton: There has been a gas station there for many years.

Mr. Jackson: Not a gasoline station. It is in portable tanks.

Mayor Congleton: There have been gas tanks in the building. I am opposed to portable gas tanks coming to the curb. Where anyone has had a gas tank station for many years and is inclined to do away with the fire hazard by improving his property, I am for it. I felt when I examined this place, when it was on my list, that I was in favor of it. It is an old ramshackle building with gas tanks in it, and I am in favor of improving it.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I haven't had a chance to inspect this property. I move that action on it be postponed for two weeks.

Commissioner Murray: Would the objectors change their attitude if the Orange Street front was kept as it is and the curb kept as it is, and to have the entrance to and from Hedden Place?

Mr. Jackson: Director, it has always been my opinion that a gasoline station would be detrimental to property values. I haven't changed my opinion. I have seen where property close to a gas station has been reduced in value because a gasoline station has been erected. That is from my observation. That is from actual facts.

Laid over to July 15, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, Jr.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., July 8, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absence: Commissioner Gillen.

The minutes of meeting of July 1st were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance entitled "An ordinance governing the manufacture, bottling, sale and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages, carbonated beverages, cereal beverages and still drinks in the City of Newark, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

The following petition was received and read:

We, the undersigned being all of the owners of the properties opposite our names, do hereby protest the vacating of that part of Vanderpool Street as described as the southwest corner of Vanderpool Street (Madison Avenue), Clinton Avenue and Hillside Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, and respectfully state that we believe the City of Newark should not relinquish any interest it has in that triangular plot.

(Signed by 21 property owners).
Ordered filed.

Mr. H. Edward Wolf, Kinney Building: Gentleman, I represent the group that objected to the building of a certain type of building there at the corner, and they feel in vacating Vanderpool Street it should be—they have no objection to the vacation of it from the easterly side of Hillside Avenue down to Elizabeth Avenue, but they feel that the triangular piece that is called the king piece, which is the corner of Hillside Avenue and Clinton Avenue, should be taken over by the City and used for the changing of that corner, removing the sharp point that is certainly a hindrance to traffic.

Mayor Congleton: We are taking a part of it.

Mr. Wolf: I understand they are taking only eight feet, and they feel that it is hardly a variance in the corner at all. They feel that the City should keep what it owns there.

Mayor Congleton: It is very questionable whether the City owns it. It is one of those old paper streets laid out on the Commissioners' map. What we are doing is to extinguish any possible right we may have. The owner of the property Commissioner Howe tells me—the supposed owner—has paid taxes on it for a great many years.

Mr. Wolf: I appear to present the objection for the neighbors.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who appears in objection to the vacation of Vanderpool Street. If not, we will consider the hearing closed.

John Howe,
Director of the Dept. Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Commissioner Egan: I move that we recess for half an hour, Mr. Mayor.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

(A recess was taken at 11.20 A. M.)

(The Commission reconvened at 12:10 P. M.)

Present: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, in accordance with our discussion, I am introducing an ordinance. I am not by its introduction signifying how I shall vote on it on final reading. The ordinance is introduced for the purpose of providing for a public hearing, when everybody will have an opportunity to be heard.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance authorizing the sale of certain lands under an option given by the City of Newark to the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, on November 28, 1917, and stipulating terms.

PREAMBLE

On September 27, 1917, the Mayor and Common Council of The City of Newark, by its Board of Street and Water Commissioners, entered into a certain lease for certain premises of the City of Newark at Port Newark Terminal with the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, an agency of the United States Government.

On November 28, 1917, The City of Newark executed an option to purchase the said lands, containing approximately 112.79 acres, to the said United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation; thereafter, the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation sold all its right, title and interest in the said lease, together with its rights under the said option, to the Submarine Boat Corporation, who have since that time been tenants of the City of Newark, and who have sought to exercise their option and have given notice from time to time of their intention to purchase the property.

The said Submarine Boat Corporation is now insolvent, and receivers of the said Company have entered into an agreement to sell their option to one George J. Brown, providing the said George J. Brown can make proper terms with the City of Newark.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 1. That the Director of the Department of Public Affairs be and he is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement with Brown, or his nominee, for the sale of premises at Port Newark Terminal, lying on the north side of the Channel, between the Bay and the property of the United States Government, and extending from the Channel to Port Street, containing approximately one hundred and twelve (112) acres, on the following terms:

The purchase price to be at the rate of Twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00) per acre, and the acreage to be estimated to include all lands lying in that area, whether laid out as streets or otherwise, except the lands extending along the bay front to a depth of two hundred (200) feet;

The purchase price to be paid—one-third upon the execution of agreement in writing, the balance in three (3) equal, annual instalments, payable on the anniversary of the agreement, instalments to bear annual interest to be fixed by later agreement;

The vendee to take immediate possession of the premises, and to make such improvements on the premises as he may desire, and to pay taxes on the improvements from time fixed by later agreement, taxes on the lands to be paid after the taking of title;

For the lands lying along the bay front for a depth of two hundred (200) feet, the vendee shall enter into a lease and pay an annual rental, as shall be fixed by later agreement;

The agreement shall call for conveyance by Warranty Deed, except as to portions of the land for which the City received no Warranty Deed, and there the conveyance shall be by Bargain and Sale Deed;

The deed of conveyance shall contain restricted covenants against the use of the premises by vendee, or his successors, for any obnoxious purpose amounting to a nuisance and tending to deteriorate adjoining lands;

Together with the conveyance of the lands, the City shall provide in the agreement for the lease of a right of way over other lands of the City to connect by railroad the lands sold with the main line railroad, which right of way is now known as part of the Atlantic Port Railway, it being understood that in granting this right of way, the City limits the use of the right of way to the present trackage, and that the vendee, for himself and his successors, will enter into an agreement to limit this use of the Atlantic Port Railway to connecting his lands with the main stem, and will abandon any right of condemnation under their charter;

The agreement shall contain a clause requiring the vendee to construct a building of the value of One million dollars ($1,000,000.00) within one year from the date thereof;

The agreement shall contain a provision requiring the vendee to pay a proportionate share of the annual cost of dredging and clearing the channel, and stipulations as to rules and regulations concerning the use of the channel and other port property;

The agreement shall contain such other protective and restricted measures as shall be deemed necessary by the Director of the Department of Public Affairs and the Corporation Counsel, and shall be approved by the resolution of this Board before execution.

Section 2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication according to law.

Commissioner Howe moved that July 22nd, 1931, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Further consideration of and a public hearing upon this ordinance will take place two weeks from today.

Commissioner Egan: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

APPROVED:

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. EGAN
JOHN HOWE
JNO. F. MURRAY, Jr.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, Jr.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., July 15, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners, Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan. Gillen Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of July 8th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An. ordinance creating a Bureau of Purchases and providing for the appointment of a Purchasing Board, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Ralph E. Lum, Griffith Building: May it please your Honor and gentlemen of the Commission, I appear for the Organized Taxpayers, Incorporated. I want it definitely understood that this is not a group of busybodies nor faultfinders, nor complainers, but it is a group very largely and very heavily interested in the real estate of Newark and interested greatly in our tax problems. This group has asked me to urge very strongly before you the consideration of a single-headed purchasing commission. There can be, according to the best figures that we can obtain a saving of substantially $450,000 a year in the purchases made in this City by having a single responsible head handling and carrying the whole thing. A matter of a saving of four or five points in our tax rate is a very great concern to all our people and is a great concern to you as the representatives of our people.

The Public Service Corporation, the Prudential Insurance Company, to mention two of the many concerns of large extent, would not for a second think of running their business with separate purchasing agents for the separate departments. You each do have your own separate departments with the care and custody with which you are charged, the responsibility for which is your own, but it is one single city and you are each a group representing in the end a final unit, and the matter of purchases, no matter to what department they may go, is merely a matter of a single unit item. If you were handling Newark as a stock company in which you were the board of directors, you would have a single purchasing agent without any possibility of a question.

A matter of reaching the right mar, a matter of getting the machinery working down, is not a matter simple and easy; it requires precision and it requires the best that all of you have, to work to that end, but it is an end that should be worked to.

There was a definite pledge and promise of a purchasing agent, and I am sure that your constituents would never recognize a five-headed body as a fulfillment or performance of that promise. There can be no manner of doubt in the minds of any of you who are in touch with the sentiment of our city that that would not be regarded as a performance of that pledge, and if there is a failure to work this problem out now and provide an effective single-headed purchasing agent, we may expect without a scintilla of doubt that the legislature will deal with this subject at Trenton next winter. If they do, naturally and necessarily it will not be so favorable to Newark as for us to have our own legal agents. It will perhaps forestall something that we haven't wanted to see, and so, from our our local condition, from the situation of the whole state, I urge very strongly and very sincerely that this simple business proposition should be recognized and accepted and that this City should be given a single purchasing agency with the saving that that will mean, which inevitably and unmistakably must be very great. It is common sense, it is good business, it is good statesmanship, and it will be a move which I know will be very popular indeed with the electorate of our city.

You have received the detailed statement of Mr. Forbes, and I am not going to repeat or go into any of those details with you. The argument is absolutely conclusive and it is not disposing of a control which you must keep, of course. The responsibility in each department is yours; consequently you must keep and control it; but this manner of economy in purchases does not weaken your fingers one single hair's breadth, and will in the long run strengthen your position.

We urge that it be given very careful and faithful consideration.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Lum, there has been an impression that there has been five purchasing agents. I have never purchased one dollar's worth of goods in the nine and a half years I have been here.

Mr. Lum: I understand your position, Mr. Howe. I was speaking loosely. I stand corrected, and you are correct. The principle, however, of the divided responsibility for four would leave the situation. I want to make correction as to Mr. Howe.

Commissioner Gillen: Your argument is predicated on the assumption that there are going to be separate purchasing agencies?

Mr. Lum: There are bound to be if you have four men responsible instead of one single responsibility. It must be one of two things. It would be a mere duplication of needless effort, making for inefficiency.

Commissioner Gillen: How could it be? Why cannot a board function in just as centralized a fashion as a single head?

Mr. Lum: When you come to the matter of purchases, of course, it can't be done, because there are duplications of purchases in your various departments of items and articles continuously.

Commissioner Gillen: Why can't the Board take all those purchases and pool them just as a single head would?

Mr. Lum: It is making four efforts to accomplish the result of one single effort—four men.

Commissioner Gillen: You know that that is not true. You are assuming that there will be four separate men going to go their four separate ways and that they are going to continue to make their separate purchases for their separate departments. You know that that is not true. You know that the ordinance does not mean that at all.

Mr. Lum: If that is so, then why the possible need for four men, if it is going to be the work done more effectively and more efficiently by one single man?

Commissioner Gillen: That is what you say, but there is a difference of opinion about that. There is a question in my mind as to whether a board can't do it far more effectively, far more economically than a single head. Of course, you might possibly find some fellow with supernatural powers and with wonderful ability who would come in here as purchasing agent and accomplish a great deal. On the other hand, you might not be able to find that sort of fellow. We have found, for instance, that in cities where they have engaged a business manager to run the City they are getting rid of them and are going back to the common council to run the city. The City of Seattle got rid of their single-head gentleman out there and they are going back to the Board. Even large corporations with single purchasing agents have been obliged to change those purchasing agents from time to time. There is a large publishing company that had a singleheaded purchasing unit, which had to let him go, because they found out that he wasn't making his purchases most efficiently and most economically, and perhaps for some other reasons worse than that.

My thought is that a board composed of the men who have been doing the purchasing for the City of Newark, men who have been experienced in this work for years, can sit down, take all the requisitions that are presented by the different departments, put them together, pool them, and buy the goods just as well as a single head could do. Moreover, if there is anything rotten in Denmark it would be easier to check up on a board than it would on a single head. For instance, if there is anything dishonest about a singlehead purchasing agent it is much more difficult to check up on that single head than it is on a board. If the board does not function properly someone on that board will arise and expose what is going on and state that it is not right.

The thought in some of our minds was that we engage this board composed of men who have been doing purchasing for the City of Newark, that we give it a fair trial, and that if it does not function satisfactorily and properly and if it does not centralize just as it is in the minds of everybody who wants centralizing, we could get rid of the board and take a single head.

Mr. Lum: Taking the situation in the reverse order of your remarks, may I, in the first instance,

Mr. Gillen, say that I fail to see how under any circumstances it is easier to keep a check on four men than on one man?

Mayor Congleton: Five men.

Mr. Lum: On five than one. Again, under no circumstances can it be done. You have got five doing the work of your one agent. Secondly, if your one man is incompetent or dishonest, that, of course, is a grave misfortune. You can without difficulty, however, find an agent who will be free from either of those disabilities, but if he wasn't, your chance of checking up and making a comparison with a single man who is responsible would be much simpler. I know of no large concern that has not its single purchasing agent solely responsible. I have never heard of any nor known of any in all my experience. In any big concern or in any big company they would not for a second tolerate separate purchasing agents, for the separate departments.

Commissioner Murray: How about Bambergers?

Mr. Lum: Bambergers is a department store. It has its separate departments.

Commissioner Murray: It has a large business.

Mr. Lum: It has its single purchasing agent for its administrative end, but it has separate purchasing agents for its separate departments.

Commissioner Gillen: Did you know, Mr. Lum, that Mr. Forbes in his report recommended practically a board? He recommends a purchasing agent and three buyers to act with the purchasing agent. Isn't that similar to a board?

Mr. Lum: The machinery doesn't make so much difference if you have a single individual whom you can hold responsible. If you have that you have a very greatly strengthened position over a situation in which you haven't any control, a situation with a purchasing agent in this department and one in the other department, and so forth. There can be no conceivable doubt about that, not for an instance.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you say that you would not have control over a board?

Mr. Lum: You would have control over your section of the board, but you haven't the control over the board that you have over this one individual who is held solely responsible.

Commissioner Gillen: Let me correct you. This Board of Commissioners has time and again exercised its powers and supervision over subordinate boards in the City Government and has time and again suggested, when we did not think that the board was acting wisely, that they change their methods. We can do so again in the case of a purchasing board, without the slightest doubt.

Mr. Lum: If this were a business corporation, as indeed it should be regarded, and you were a board of directors and were considering the purchase of coal for five separate departments as different items in different matters, you would find that it would not be tolerated for a fraction of a second, not by any board of directors.

Commissioner Gillen: You have a misconception of the object of this ordinance to create a board. Your conception is that it would be a board of five individuals, or four, whatever you call it, and that those men would go their different ways, separating the purchases of the various departments. That is not the conception of this board at all. That is not the object of the ordinance, nor the idea of it, nor is it the object in the minds of the Commission. If it were, why, we would not tolerate it for a minute. We wouldn't even introduce it. We want to centralize purchases.

Mr. Lum: I think that you are going to get a very much better result with a single man than you would get by setting up another board between you and the sellers, and removing it if necessary. You are held responsible for your departments. You will get a better result than if you had another purchasing agent besides each of you, but still not the unified center of control, which there should be on such item of purchases which concerns only the interests of the City as a whole and has nothing to do with any particular department. If we can buy an item at ten per cent. or fifteen per cent, or twenty per cent. less for the City as a whole, and if we get the quality, it doesn't affect the operation of any particular department for a single instance. I think that the message you provide in your ordinance would not be as effective and would not be as vital, in my judgment. If it were left for me to decide I would say that by all means go on as you are. If you are not going to have your unified control, this ordinance will not meet the requirements of your pledge and will not effect the savings that are so much desired. Certainly it will make for further confusion, certainly it will make for added expense, and certainly, under any circumstances, it will make a greater inefficiency. It seems to me that you ought to leave the matter where it is unless you are going to take the central agency instead of the board, which is not living up to the promise that was so solemnly made.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Lum, you represent a taxpayers association. That, of course, implies that you are concerned with everything that is purchased with the taxpayers' money.

Mr. Lum: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Why do you limit yourself to purchases made by the City Commission only. You have the Board of Education. The taxpayers pay its expenses. You have the Public Library and the Museum and you have the common commodities of stationery, ink, pens, pencils, and whatnot, common to all of us. Why should not all of these purchases be made together? Why shouldn't the purchasing agency cover the entire field and why shouldn't we, in preparation for that, establish, by means perhaps suggested by folks better informed than I am, a bureau of standards which would first determine on standards, and then, with the aid of this bureau of standards, composed of men from large concerns doing business in the City, get to a more intelligent determination as to a purchasing agency and its personnel?

Mr. Lum: Commissioner Murray, I can conceive of no reason in the world why that should not be done. I think that it is the most desirable thing. I think that that is a step in the right direction, and I most sincerely hope that can be accomplished. There can be no question in the world that we pay much more for a single pencil than we would for a dozen—that is, the unit price, much more for a dozen than we would for a gross, and much more for a gross than we would for a carload, whether the pencil is bought for the library or for one of your courts, shouldn't make the slightest trace of difference; it should be purchased at the lowest possible price, and the City as a whole should be considered. That, however, is a large proposition to consider and we must see that the right step is made here by you in the first instance. We are in a very strong position to go on to the correct ultimate conclusion, but I would go one step at a time. I would say let us not go on before we make the first step right because we can't run the whole race on the one day.

Commissioner Murray: We might get very substantial help from concerns such as the General Electric, Western Electric, Prudential Insurance Company, Mutual Life Insurance Company, the Bell Telephone Company, and the large department stores. I think that they would very readily furnish what is necessary to help us arrive at these various standards and that they would make, in addition to giving their standards, a recommendation as to the best method of purchasing and the best establishment of personnel.

Mr. Lum: I think that the savings of the taxpayers would be very great. I would increase my five points to ten and possibly fifteen points without a single instant's hesitation, if that can be done.

Mr. Edward W. Wollmuth, Chamber of Commerce: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I represent the Chamber of Commerce under the authority of the Board of Directors of the Executive Committee on the subject of the hearing before the Commission this morning. During the eleven years—if you will pardon the personal reference for just a moment—that I have been connected with the Chamber of Commerce, according to my recollection, and perhaps with the exception of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the City Railroad contracts, there appears to have been no greater interest in a subject of city-wide importance than the one that is the subject of the hearing here this morning. I have been called on the telephone. People have come into the office and have talked to me. People have talked to me elsewhere. They have expressed themselves without reservation with respect to the question before you. Without exception, and in as few words as possible, the idea is that the City Commission in this instance can do a very large service in helping to take care of the tax rate, with which you are concerning yourselves, and that in due course of time the savings that are made possible by reason of a well-known business practise throughout civilized countries will enure to the benefit of the taxpayers, and, of course, bring credit upon yourselves, if you institute this service on a proper and sound business basis.

Now, it is recognized that the men on the Commission are business men of wide experience and administrative affairs of the City and in other lines. You welcome the expressions of those who take an interest in municipal business and municipal affairs. There are ample citations on the part of the press which I may present a little bit later, which, I daresay, and I think it is fair to say, reflect the general public opinion, there having appeared nothing in opposition to the thoughts expressed editorially and otherwise in the local press.

A number of years ago, in 1918, there was an ordinance introduced for the purpose of creating by the Commission a Bureau of Purchase, Standards and Tests. That ordinance is still in effect, in so far as the record is concerned, and it truly represents more nearly what the Mayor strives for in his ordinance which was voted down by the Commission four to one, and it is far in advance which is the subject of the hearing here this morning. You gentlemen all know of the large concerns like the General Electric, the Western Electric, the Bell Telephone System throughout the United States—I happen to know something about them, because I lived with it a while on the question of standardization, and I know the tremendous savings that were made possible by reason of standardization—all large industrial plants in the community here either through branch representation or otherwise, have adopted for many years past and are using at the present time the system of centralized purchasing, a system where you can put your figure on the spot. The objection as to the board, which I wish to state as having come to me, and in which I firmly believe myself, is this: That when you have divided authority you are in a position where you can't put your finger on the spot. That is obviously so, and no one knows that better than you gentlemen of the Commission know it.

For the record, I should like to read the resolution that was presented to the City Commission, adopted by the members of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held on June 9, 1920:

"Whereas: Centralized purchasing is the method followed as a rule by large business corporations and has been adopted with marked success by a large number of states and cities throughout the country; and

Whereas: The use of centralized purchasing by our City government with the advantages accruing from buying in larger quantities, from standardization of specifications, and from more precise and scientific methods of purchase, would unquestionably result in the saving of a considerable sum in the City's heavy expenditures for supplies and equipment;

Resolved: That the Chamber of Commerce places itself on record as favoring the method of centralized purchasing, and urges that speedy practical action be taken to put into effect the city ordinances providing for the establishment of a Bureau of Purchases, Standards and Tests, and be it further

Resolved: That a copy of this report and resolution shall be sent to each City Commissioner."

Now, from time to time the Chamber of Commerce, through its munic-ipai affairs committee and its president, has brought to the attention of the City Commission this question of the centralized purchasing of city requirements, but it must be frankly stated that in the minds of the men who have endeavored to bring this constantly to the attention of the Commission there is a very definite thought that apparently political considerations—at least at that time—had made it impossible to consummate this plan for the creation of a centralized purchasing bureau and for the standardization and testing of the supplies required by the City in all its parts. That was brought to the attention of the Commission at that time with the sole idea and in recognition of the fact that our municipal expenses would be bound to go forward, not alone because of extravagance—that wasn't so stated at the time—but because, it was recognized, that the City would have to move on, and huge expenditures would have to be made in order to keep up with the immediate march of progress, and by reason of the other increasing costs of supplies. In that respect the City is no different than an individual. When prices go up the City must pay those prices, but it should and can consolidate its purchasing power. To that end may I suggest that that is being done in the State. The State has a centralized purchasing agent, as has the County of Essex.

One of the finest examples of the beneficial results of centralized and consolidated buying is in the some of the cities referred to as having changed in their form of government, Seattle, which was mentioned, by the very fact of the creation of centralized purchasing, made possible the savings that had been estimated by the experts engaged to ascertain the benefits of centralized purchasing. May I, with the greatest respect, and quoting from the press referring to the press, refer to the promise made by this Commission that there would be created a centralized purchasing bureau. I believe that that statement was made without qualification. I believe that it was made sincerely, and I wonder whether or not the Commission may not bring upon itself, if the Commission still feels that this ordinance pending here today is the one that will bring about the savings that you yourself wish to bring about—

Commissioner Gillen: You are assuming—pardon me for interrupting a moment—that this Board would not be a centralized purchasing agency.

Mr. Wollmuth: Commissioner Gillen, may I finish, and then I shall be glad to answer any questions that I may be able to answer.

Commissioner Gillen: But you are going along on that line of argument all the way through, and it is not so.

Mr. Wollmuth: Then I shall be glad to answer any questions that you may care to ask.

Commissioner Gillen: There isn't anything difficult to straighten out as to what our view is. If your conception of our view is wrong I want to get you straightened out on it.

Mr. Wollmuth: I shall be very glad to be straightened out on the basis of fact. In connection with the subject, it is clearly brought out in the remarks of Mr. Forbes as to what the thing is going to result in if it is created. If this bureau is created it requires no stretch of the imagination to realize that subordinates are naturally and must be subject to the direction of their superiors, and no one can gainsay that a single-headed agency or instrumentality, given official powers to perform under rules and regulation passed by this Commission, can be held directly responsible for its acts, whereas a four-or five man group cannot be so held responsible because there enters into the question the possibility of buckpassing. You gentlemen know what that word means. It is done every day. It isn't French language or foreign language to any of us. Those are the things that happen in bureaus and in bureaucracy, not only here, but elsewhere. We are not particularly more adept at it than anybody else in the country, but it is just human nature that these things do creep in, whether it is in private business or whether it is in public business.

It is the belief that in so far as the ordinance is concerned, it might be well, rather than to take definite action upon it today that the Commission give consideration. I had an opportunity to talk to one of the Commissioners recently about this and I stated what I am now about to say in an article that I gave to the Sunday Call at the request of the Sunday Call a week ago last Sunday, to wit— and referring to what Commissioner Murray stated to Mr. Lum— that the entire purchases of the City in so far as the law permits, be consolidated. That takes in the question not only of purchases of supplies and equipment and so on, but the question of storage and the distribution of the goods. You gentlemen know how that thing is handled. I have no doubt that what you want is the greatest efficiency. We bring this thought to you. It can't be a new thought, but nevertheless it is offered in the sincere belief that it affords an opportunity to go deeper into the situation and bring the greatest possible benefit to the taxpayers of the City. We all know that for one reason or another, for more reasons than one, our tax rate is right. The tax rate is high in other places, but that doesn't make any difference. All of us are desirous of pulling it down for the benefit of all. Now, we have the Board of Education, we have the Public Library, and we have the Museum, we have, I believe, the dental clinic and some other departmental units under the City Government, all of which should be taken into account to the extent of ascertaining what the central purchasing power of the City may be, and then to utilize it to the best advantage of everybody.

Now, it may be quite possible, and I think that it is so, that there may be some difficulty in the City Commission, by virtue of existing law, in taking over the functions of purchasing for some of the non-commission activities, but by conference and by arrangement, not by transcending the law in any respect, it is possible that the Board of Education and the other agencies in the City who now on appropriations spend according to their own sincere beliefs no doubt could be brought into the picture. Then if it is found that there are barriers to the consummation of a complete purchasing plant covering everything required in the administration of the City Affairs, let us go to the Legislature and find out what can be done about it.

Those are the thoughts, gentlemen, that we would like to leave with your honorable body, with the hope that out of it may come a decision to take no action on the pending ordinance and to take those necessary steps which will bring about a complete inquiry to determine exactly where we are at on the matter. Piecemeal procedure is not representative of the most effective and efficient means of doing things. It is the trial-and-error basis, and certainly there is no need of resorting to the trial-and-error basis here, because of the vast experience of big business, of large municipal corporations throughout the nation, of the State of New Jersey, and of the County of Essex. Let us look at this thing in its biggest and broadest light. Let us absolutely eliminate all political considerations, which obviously enter into a question of this kind. Everybody talks about it openly and frankly. We are in serious days. I don't want to wave any red flag or anything like that, but you gentlemen have an opportunity to take this thing up in its biggest and broadest phase. After all, you are the taxpayers yourselves and you don't want to pay any higher taxes than anyone else. Business is looking to the Commission to do that which is to the best interests of the City of Newark.

Commissioner Murray: You think, Mr. Wollmuth, that plan to have a conference with these large concerns, such as Western Electric, General Electric, the Telephone Company, the Prudential Company, and other large national institutions which use a great many things that we use, might result in the establishment of a set of standards and a final recommendation, which I have suggested, for the creation of a central purchasing agency and the determination of its personnel?

Mr. Wollmuth: Yes, unquestionably. Unquestionably you can call upon big business in the finest spirit of cooperation. They will serve in that respect. I can pledge that.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. W. Howard Demarest: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I appear as attorney for the United Civic League, an organization of several hundred taxpayers which has taken an interest since the start in the matter of the purchasing agent for the City. When the ordinance introduced by the Mayor was brought up I was instructed to appear here and speak in favor of its adoption because it was hoped that that ordinance would fulfill the promises that the citizens believed had been made. When the turn of affairs came, our executive committee instructed me to appear here and speak against this ordinance, it felt that it wasn't beneficial to the taxpayers or the City to have the ordinance passed in the form in which it now stands. It is felt that if any changes are to be made along the lines of the present ordinance we should oppose it and that we should ask the City Commission rather to retain its present position, rather than to change to this one.

From looking over the public press, if I as attorney were addressing a tribunal, the comments that have been made entirely on this subject seem to indicate to my mind that this might be called the case of the City of Newark against the Commissioners, because it seems to me that all the comment on it has been adverse. No organization that I know of has gone on record in favor of it.

We favor the defeat of this ordinance because we feel that it entails additional help and additional work, probably additional employees added to the City payroll, with no constructive benefits. We feel that the Commissioners themselves are trying to find a commission that will affect the taxpayers favorably, and it is not supposed that this will do it any more than a single purchasing agent will do it, but that it will have the opposite effect. The idea of the purchasing agent has been carried out in the County of Essex with marked success. Their system could very largely apply to the City of Newark. Those who have been in charge of the purchasing of the various department supplies could very well consult with a single purchasing agent, under the ordinance which the Mayor has introduced, and have the same centralized in such a way that not only the power, but the responsibility would be centralized.

We feel that these things should be taken into account and that the interest of the Commissioners and the taxpayers should be made one and that they should go along on a proposition that would be agreeable to the citizens, because it is fundamental that where opposition is so tremendous and so rampant, where the public press and individual comments coincide, it is quite likely that the Commission as a body and the citizens as such—their constituency will suffer if the ideas that the people want are not carried out. I know very well that it is generally supposed that in many instances the public at large does not really understand and does not really know exactly what it wants, but in organizations such of the type that you have heard represented here this morning and probably others that will be heard express themselves, after a deliberation and consideration, and after those who are public-spirited get their comments in the press, it seems to me that the duty of the Commission to its constituency is not to pass this ordinance.

I thank you gentlemen.

Mr. H. J. Gottlob, 17 William Street: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I am instructed by my organization—I represent the Typographical Union of Newark. At a meeting on Sunday we took up this question and had quite a debate on it. They instructed me to appear here personally before your honorably body and advocate the passage of this central purchasing bureau in the form which is now before you and to oppose the single head purchasing bureau. We feel that the single purchasing head of the bureau will be too much of an oligarchy in the City and give a man tremendous power which he doesn't deserve, which will be a man whom the citizens who will have no direct voice in the choosing of. As far as talking about the expense of a board rather than a single man, you all know that you are not going to get a single man without you have to pay him thousands of dollars and perhaps have to pay him a higher salary than you have to pay the members of the Board. As far as talking about the single responsibility, we know that if you have four or five men to divide up this responsibility it is much safer than putting it in the hands of this one single man. No single man is a superman that you can put in that office, and there is no man that is going to know the requirements of the different departments the same as the direct representatives of the different departments will know them. This man is supposed to be a superman that knows all the values from a lead pencil to a fire engine, from an automobile costing thousands of dollars down to a penny lead pencil and everything in between. You know as well as I do that it is foolish to say that any one man is more capable of handling a big job like this than four or five men.

The idea of the citizens in electing a Board of Commissioners, was that the City is growing too large and the responsibility too large for one single head to handle, and therefore they divided up the authority among five men and created in the city government different departments with a man at the head of each department who is supposed to handle that department and not handle the entire affairs of the City of Newark. The same thing applies to all the things that the City of Newark has to use in the course of a year. You men were appointed here in charge of the various departments and the responsibility for them, and you should therefore carry on the duties and your obligations in assuming the responsibility of that department, and not put it in the hands of any single man and sidetrack your responsibility in some other one hand.

They talk about citizens and taxpayers. It is all nonsense because of the taxpayers being opposed to this ordinance and being in favor of the one-man purchasing bureau. The workingman of the town are really the taxpayers. The people who own the property get the taxes, of course, and pay it into the City, but the taxes are collected from the tenants and the tenants are the ones who pay the taxes, but the tenants are not in a position to come down here at all times before you and present their ideas as taxpayers, as the so-called taxpayers are able to do with their hired lawyers and hired spokesmen. You know that in those places where they have their single head buying bureaus, their purchasing bureaus, they are not a good thing for the citizens. We don't want any dictators here in the town to control the expenditures of our money; we want democracy. That is what this country is founded on—democracy, and we want the purchasing power to rest in the hands of those whom we elect to carry on the work of administering the duties of their offices, and not to sidetract their responsibility by placing in the hands of some paid official who would practically be irresponsible to everybody. After this purchasing agent gets in with his high salary, and under the civil service, it is almost impossible to remove him. No matter what he does, and we feel that the Commissioners should carry on the responsibility to which they were elected. We sincerely hope — I am speaking now of the working people of this town—that you adopt the ordinance creating a bureau in which each department will have a direct representative, and not any single one man to override the wishes and desires of not only the Commissioners, but in many cases the citizens of the town. I think it will be more economical than to have one high-priced official that is hired for a good salary, who is not selected by the City of Newark. Thank you.

Mr. Michael A. Stavitsky, 60 Park Place: Mr. Mayor and honored Commissioners, there seems to be agreement on the idea of the centralized purchasing bureau. I honestly feel that the Commissioners are fairly sincere in their desire to make good or redeem the obligations which they assumed before election, when they pledged themselves to the organization of a centralized purchasing bureau. I think also that the Commissioners are thoroughly motivated by a desire to effect economy in so far as possible in that important phase of our municipal government, namely, purchasing. I think that the difference, altogether is in the method by which this idea of a centralized purchasing bureau can best be effectuated, and I for one, as a representative of the organized taxpayers league, believe that the Mayor's recommendation of a single head of such bureau is the only sound method of approach.

The Commissioners, in order to get light on this subject, called in one of the recognized national experts. I am sure that they deliberated very carefully upon whom to select to make the survey that was made, and when they agreed upon Mr. Forbes, they undoubtedly agreed upon him because of his recognition throughout the country in the matter of municipal administration. Mr. Forbes' recommendation was for a one-man bureau. Now, gentlemen, it strikes me that by organizing a commission of five men with a chief clerk who shall be responsible for carrying out the decisions of those five men we are complicating the whole system of purchases rather than simplifying it, because, I take it that the five men who constitute such a bureau are now the purchasing agents of the respective departments of our government, so that they in turn would function and would pass onto another man the responsibility for carrying out what they have decided upon. In other words two steps would have to be taken before purchases are finally made, instead of the one step that is taken by each purchasing agent today. I believe that if the Commission wants each department represented in the matter of formulating policies with respect to purchases, that it might be well to have an advisory board of five members representative of each department but nevertheless to have one man, not a clerk, but a highly trained and a highly specialized purchasing executive, to be charged with the responsibility of making purchases.

As I view the work of purchasing, it is largely one of administration, and from my contact with organizations I have rarely seen hydraheaded organizations work in the field of administration. It is very difficult to allocate responsibility. It is very difficult if anything goes wrong to say "Touware responsible" or "You are responsible?" because there are five men or ten men doing the work. If we have one man who is wholly in charge of purchases we can very definitely allocate the responsibility.

Now, to me it is a very significant thing, gentlemen, that throughout this entire City I haven't seen a single announcement by a single organization representative of any group or element of the community come out in favor of the idea proposed by one of the Commissioners, the idea of a hydra-headed centralized purchasing bureau. Every organization seems to be enthusiastically in favor of the idea of our Mayor, of a centralized purchasing bureau headed by a highly trained, highly specialized and highly efficient man, in whom responsibility can be vested and upon whom and to whom we can look for carrying out the administrative work entailed in the purchases for this City, at a saving, a tremendous saving, to this City, at a saving at a time when the citizens of this City are so much in need of every dollar than can be saved by our Commissioners in the administration of the municipality.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Harry Wendrick, 94 Academy Street: Honorable Mayor and Commissioners, speaking for the Allied Printing Trades, we are opposed to the idea of a central purchasing agent, for the simple reason we believe it is autocratic, to begin with, and I believe that you gentlemen are interested in efficiency. Efficiency is a thing that has been spoken of a great deal here, and there are a number of things that enter into that particular question. Where is this individual who has the ability to judge the quality, the price, the materials, the workmanship of every kind and character of commodity that is purchased here by this City? I believe that you gentlemen will agree that there is no such human being on the face of the earth that is expert in every line to judge a particular material or commodity that you gentlemen require for the efficient transaction of your business or carrying out the purpose of your office.

My friend Wollmuth said something about passing the buck. We believe that a central purchasing agent would be a fine medium that could be used for passing the buck. You gentlemen are each individually responsible for your own department. Now, in the event there was question with regard to purchasing commodities, you would simply go ahead and purchase it or report to your purchasing agent, because you know that later on you could say, "Well, the purchasing agent purchased it." Perhaps it would not be up to requirements, perhaps it would not be up to the standards, but at least it would put you gentlemen in a position to pass the buck. We believe that you are the heads of your departments and that you should appoint men who are qualified to do the purchasing for your particular department. Then if there are any errors or mistakes you personally can hold him responsible. We, the Printing Trades Union of this City did not elect a purchasing agent; we helped to elect you men, and we look to you and we hold you responsible for your departments. If you appoint men who are not efficient or who are not qualified to carry the best interests of your departments, and mistakes are made, you gentlemen have got to take the blame. We don't believe that any autocratic power should be given to one man to do the purchasing for this City. There is a great deal more that enters into the purchase of a commodity than only question of price and material. You men know -- I believe you men that are in business know that business is carried on, on a large scale, upon friendship. If there is some business institution or some businessman that may offend this purchasing czar, well, he would be simply out of luck entirely. We believe that the businessmen should be given an equal opportunity to go through the various departments. In the event they cannot get in one department they can do business with another department, but here if they fail to do business with the one purchasing agent he would be out of luck. He could do no more business with the city. We hope that you gentlemen will take that under consideration and see your way clear to appoint a single purchasing board and that you gentlemen are responsible for the gentlemen you appoint to that purchasing board, but do not appoint one single individual as a purchasing agent for this City.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else?

Mr. Howard J. Connelly, 164 Market Street: Gentlemen, I merely wish to make a brief statement as to the attitude of the United Property Owners Association regarding the five-man bureau. Our position was made very clear in the letter which we sent you two weeks ago. Anything that I might say now would be merely reiterating many things that have been said today. I merely call your attention to the fact that the survey made by Mr. Forbes presents a very practical plan to reduce the expenditures of the purchasing bureau. We ask you to appoint this bureau, as suggested in this report. We ask that the members of the Board to be created, as suggested by Mr. Forbes, be comprised of members now on the City payroll and that no additional job be created. We ask you, if there is any doubt in your minds, to read that report over again word for word and adopt it one hundred per cent. as recommended by Mr. Forbes.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else?

Commissioner Murray: I move that the public hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen. Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I have never purchased any goods for the City, but my department is the auditing department—the department that audits every bill. I was one of the men who believed in the purchasing bureau to go along with the single head, but I have waited for three years. I was not only willing to vote for a single head commissioner, but there are members of the press here who know the man I was willing to vote for as the individual head. I saw that nothing was coming of it. Now, I repeat that my department is the auditing department of all the bills, and for that reason I believe that it is unwise for me to have a representative on that board. I have absolute confidence in my four colleagues, and their representatives, and I would ask that the ordinance be amended to read four men and that no representative assigned to me, for the reason that my department audits all the bills and all the acts and purchases of the Commission.

Mayor Congleton: There is nothing in the ordinance, Commissioner Howe, that says that each one of these five men shall be from each department. There is nothing to amend in that respect.

Commissioner Howe: Well, I would move that it be amended to read four.

Mayor Congleton: It will come up on amendment.

Commissioner Murray: I suggest, Mr. Mayor, that in view of the diversity of opinion, and the apparent thought in the minds of Mr. Lum, Mr. Wollmuth, and others, that standardization is an essential element and that the purchases by the City, whether for the account of the various departments under the City Commission, or for other departments not under the City Commission control be also involved, I suggest that the ordinance be laid over for two weeks, during which interval the commission will take it up in special conference.

Commissioner Gillen: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be taken up at a special meeting on Wednesday afternoon, July 22nd, 1931, at two-thirty, and that the Board of Commissioners try to arrange a conference at that time with the representatives of the Board of Education, the trustees of the Public Library, Museum and others involved.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance providing for the vacation of Dougherty Street from its southerly terminus about 50 feet south of Twelfth Avenue northerly to its northerly terminus at a vacated street formerly known as Parsonage Driftway, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

Commissioner Murray: It is all right if you put your entrance on the side street, Hedden Street, but not on Orange Street. How are you going to handle it with that 25-foot front?

Mayor Congleton: Drive right off onto the property.

(Discussion out of hearing of stenographer.)

Commissioner Gillen: There was something said about cutting off the corner, rounding the corner.

Commissioner Howe: Are you folks willing to round that corner?

Mr. Pearce R. Franklin, 810 Broad Street:

Round it? That is, at the curb, you mean?

Commissioner Gillen: There was something said about that.

Mr. Franklin: How much would you want taken off?

Commissioner Howe: To ease off the abrupt corner, to go around it.

Mr. Franklin: I guess they would be willing to do that, yes.

Commissioner Howe: They can't put anything else at the corner. Your oil tanks will be back here (indicating). That won't hurt. They ought to do it.

Commissioner Egan: Let us lay it over for a week.

Mr. Franklin: We are willing to put that curb around the corner to meet the convenience there.

Mr. Rudolph Kruger, 60 Branford Place:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I would like to ask for the waiving of the usual two weeks on 79 Baldwin Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: 79 Baldwin Avenue? Isn't that pretty close to Clinton Avenue?

Mr. Kruger: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: What is the application for?

Mr. Kruger: We are extending the porch, making out of the present porch part of the building for a doctor.

Mayor Congleton: You want to extend the porch beyond the prevailing setback line? On that block they are all private residences, aren't they?

Mr. Kruger: Yes, sir, but there are no objections, and we have a petition from all the people, the property owners, granting the right to do it. You see, we have a porch that sets back eight feet from the line. We want to build up to that line.

Mayor Congleton: What is your pleasure, gentlemen?

JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., July 22, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Howe.

The minutes of meeting of July 15th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance preventing the conducting of any business wherein paints and hardware are sold on the first day of the week, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Herman E. Dultz, 972 Broad Street: Are you hearing those in favor of it, Mr. Chairman, or those opposed to it?

Mayor Congleton: Well, we will hear whichever side gets started first. If you are either for or against it, we will continue your side of it.

Mr. Dultz: I am for it. As I understand, gentlemen, this is the third reading of the ordinance.

Commissioner Murray: Second and third.

Mr. Dultz: Second and third. Most of the paint shops in the City of Newark have been closed on Sunday for a considerable length of time. It is only a few of those very small ones that have been open. With the hardware people engaged in the paint line, almost every hardware store in the City of Newark is now selling paints as a side line.

Mayor Congleton: Do you represent any particular organization or are you here speaking for yourself?

Mr. Dultz: The point is this: I am only talking for Mr. Plotkin, who represents a considerable group of paint people in the City of Newark, and he understood that most of them were to be here. He telephoned me from Linden that he is engaged in court this morning and that I should come here and urge this argument.

Are there many people here urging the passage of the ordinance. Will you please step up here and let us know whom you represent?

(Several persons stepped forward).

Mr. Dultz: I understand that these are the men that have formed a painters organization and are urging the closing of the hardware stores on Sunday.

Mr. Louis D. Yecies, 110 Pacific Street: We have paint in hardware stores, and we want them closed on Sundays.

The following persons went on record as being in favor of the ordinance: Adolf Shaw, 380 Hawthorne Avenue, Sal Inguaiato, 233 Lafayette Street; Roseville Hardware and Paint Co., 432 Orange Street; Joseph Savastano, 271 South Orange Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard in opposition?

Bessie Bernstein, 268 Springfield Avenue: I represent the S. Bernstein Store. I wish to oppose this ordinance on the ground that I think it is absolutely unfair to all the stores that carry other lines outside of hardware and paint, and I would like to have a little light on Section 2. I would like to know just exactly what Section 2 means. It says: "It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firms, or corporations, to keep open or to be kept open on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, any store or place wherein the business or selling paints, varnishes or hardware is conducted in the City of Newark." Now, does that section mean that all stores which carry a small portion of hardware and paints, probably less than five per cent. of their total merchandise—does this section mean that they have to close?

Mayor Congleton: I would think so from the wording of the ordinance.

Miss Bernstein: Does it mean that they are forbidden to sell hardware and paints on Sunday?

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance does not say they may not; it says they shall be closed.

Miss Bernstein: The reason why I am interested in this section 2 is this: If you take my father's at 268 Springfield Avenue, you will see that it affects us in a manner—

Mayor Congleton: What else do you sell besides paints and hardware?

Miss Bernstein: I will explain what we carry. In our store, for example, and in many others like it all over the City, we carry just a small smattering of hardware and maybe a little paint, just to accommodate the customers, but ninety-five per cent. of our line takes in house furnishings, cutlery, silverware, gas ranges, pots and pans, dishes, electrical goods, plumbing goods, toys and so on. I will tell you the reason why it affects us in this way. On Sunday morning some people are able to shop. Some people are so occupied during the week that the only chance they have, especially during the winter months, is Sunday morning in order to do their little bit of shopping. In order to accommodate them a little bit, we are open. During the winter months this holds especially true, and in the Christmas season, too. It is to accommodate people who have no other time in which to shop, because the large stores are closed on Sunday, yet the only time these people have to do business is on Sunday morning. If we have to close it will mean that these people will be put to a great inconvenience for their shopping.

I think that it is very unfair and discriminating, because we are willing to do away with the selling of paint and hardware on Sunday. You see, we carry only a tiny little bit of it, anyway, but we want to be able to sell our other lines.

I have a good many other stores that will bear me out on those points. I guess they were not able to be here today, for some reason. If I was granted a week, say, I would be able to bring in a signed petition to bear out my point.

If these gentlemen who are opposed to me are opposed to the selling of paints, I am with them. We won't sell our paints or hardware on Sunday. In other words, I don't see any question of our store being open on Sunday to do a little bit of business on that day. It helps us out to be open on Sunday to get the purchases of those who cannot come in there during the week. The large stores get the benefit of everything during the week. Naturally, on Sunday we get the benefit of the other business I speak of, so I ask you to give me a week's stay. If you can't do otherwise, I will bring you in the signed petitions to bear me out.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard against it?

Mr. A. C. Prior, 432 Orange Street, Roseville Hardware & Paint Company: Gentlemen, I believe that this young lady's argument was that she carried house furnishings. There aren't many house furnishing stores in the City of Newark that do not carry hardware and paint. The hardware and paint business today is a matter of long, long hours for the owners and the clerks. I should think that we should have one Sunday, one day a week rest. If the ordinance doesn't mention house furnishings it should be mentioned to include them, and close them up, too. Another thing, the hardware and paint business today is one that is uncertain. We have some of the larger stores, the sporting goods houses, who have put paint in. They are open on Sunday morning. Those are the things we want to have straightened out—whether a sporting goods store can have paint and be open on Sunday morning or a house furnishings store can have paint and be open on Sunday morning. If the ordinance goes through it should close all those stores; those carrying hardware, paint, electrical goods, and so forth, should be closed.

Mayor Congleton: All the drug stores sell paints.

Commissioner Murray: Why shouldn't the ordinance prohibit the sale of paint and hardware on Sunday?

Mr. Prior: That would answer it. You see, today if you walk into a drugstore you find that they have electrical things, and everything there but drugs. You go into the sporting goods stores and they have paints. You go into grocery stores and you find that he has screens in the summer time and sleds in the winter time. That is what we are up against. The ordinance should be put through to give us one day of rest and to specify the closing of all stores—that is, hardware, stores, house furnishings, paint stores, electrical goods, and so on.

Mr. Sigmund Bernstein, 268 Springfield Avenue: May I add something to what Miss Bernstein said? She is my sister. As far as I heard this morning, most of the people present today are in the paint business. They sell—most of the merchandise they sell is paint, and I haven't heard much about hardware dealers. The objections coming from hardware men. If you don't mind, I would like to hear from those, who have spoke what line they are in, whether they are paint dealers, predominantly paint dealers, or hardware men. Will you please ask them, Mr. Mayor?

Mr. Yecies: Perhaps I can answer that for you. All those letters you read this morning for the approval of this ordinance are from men in the hardware, house furnishing, and paint business. They do not specialize in paint, not by a long shot. Miss Bernstein says that she handles only about five per cent. of hardware. I doubt that very strongly. If I may say so, I think it is twenty-five per cent. hardware. We represent a few men too. As Miss Bernstein says, there are quite a few men on their side who just couldn't leave their stores today. Why couldn't they leave their stores today? Because they were busy. They had no one else to leave there. Don't you appreciate that these men can use one day of rest? If they can't get one little day of rest they are not worthy of having their stores. They have them open seven days a week. They need one day of rest, really, especially the way things are today, with competition so very close. With the stores closed one day a week it can't hinder anyone. If the people know they can't buy merchandise on Sunday they will buy it on Saturday or some other day.

I don't see why we should grant a week's delay. You have letters of approval. Everyone of them handles hardware and paint and other things. For your benefit, there is a paint association in Newark that keeps their stores closed on Sunday, but these paint stores have objected for the reason that the hardware stores have kept open. They would like to see the hardware stores closed. I don't think there is a better thing than to keep these stores closed on Sunday. After all, some of these stores are open from seven o'clock in the morning to twelve at night. I think that they should appreciate being closed one day a week.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the matter be adjourned for two weeks.

 has been a gas station for good many years and that this is improving the condition by taking the gas tank wagons away from the curb and permitting the cars to get off the street. The man has been there for ten years.

Mr. Harry A. Augenblick, 60 Park
 Place:

There are as many in favor of it as there are who object to it.

Mr. Pearce R. Franklin, 810 Broad Street:

The adjournment in the past were not at the instance of the applicant and I think in all justice to him we ought to be entitled to an adjournment because of the absence of Commissioner Howe.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be approved:

Application of Bernard Topf (Regina Topf, owner) for an outdoor automobile sales station for a period of one year; premises 72-76 Watson Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Abraham Mankowitz, 24 Commerce Street:

Mayor Congleton: Near what side street is this?

Mr. Mankowitz: This is on Watson Avenue, I should judge the southeast corner.

Commissioner Egan: The southeast corner of what?

Mr. Mankowitz: Watson Avenue and Ridgewood.

Mayor Congleton: There are all dwellings around there.

Commissioner Murray: There are some stores around there, below.

Mr. Mankowitz: There are some dwellings and there are some stores. If I may be heard for just a moment, the matter came up before the Board of Adjustment on July 7. At that time there was quite a delegation of objectors. Unfortunately they had no spokesman and were not represented by counsel. When the matter was called they either did not hear it or did not know what to do.

I have a petition signed by twenty-four adjoining property owners who are objecting to the approval of this application. The chief concern is that it will entirely depreciate the premises—the value of the premises of the adjoining property.

There is also another objection. Repairs are being made on some of the cars, and others are being junked. There is hammering, there is blasting, there is the torch keep going all the time, and there is constant noise there. There is filing. It is not exactly an auto sales shop, as is pictured by the applicant; it is a junk shop.

Commissioner Murray: It is a nuisance?

Mr. Mankowitz: It is a nuisance, exactly.

Commissioner Murray: You people live down there?

Mr. Jacob Gennett, 525 Elizabeth Avenue:

My property is right next door. I have nine tenants, and everyone of them notified me that if this goes in there that they are going to vacate the premises.

Mayor Congleton: Personally, I feel that these open-air sales rooms, for second-hand cars in residential sections are eyesores.

Commissioner Murray: Absolutely, a nuisance.

Mayor Congleton: They ought not to be permitted. The only ones I have permitted are those on the outskirts of the City, on main streets.

I for oe will not vote for one in a residential or a semi-residential section.

(Rebecca Boxer, 81-83 Watson Avenue, gave her name as being opposed to the application.)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to speak in favor of the application?

Mr. William A. Brook, 972 Broad Street:

Gentlemen, two weeks ago this came up before the Zoning Commission. I appeared for Topf, the owner of the property, who leased this property to one Schuster, who is running this parking or auto sales station there. As to this tearing apart of cars that they speak of today, it is due both to Topf and to myself. It was only granted for one year.

Mayor Congleton: Your application isn't for an outdoor parking station; it is for second-hand junk use.

Mr. Brook: It is for a salesroom. The tearing apart of cars, I didn't know they were doing it, and the permission wasn't granted with that idea; it was granted for one year for the purpose of selling cars, as Schuster, the tenant in there, had no other means, practically, of making a living than this. I will agree that there are junks there, but second-hand car places are made up of junk. That is all they have.

Mayor Congleton: They ought not to be permitted to have them in semi-residential sections.

Mr. Brook: Just one block from there is an open-air stable where they keep horses, on Watson Avenue, corner of Peshine Avenue. It faces right on Peshine Avenue, so that this territory is not purely residential. I myself live within a thousand feet of that block, on Renner Avenue, and I know that Watson Avenue is purely business and nothing more. If they are tearing apart cars, it is without the owner's permission or without his idea of mind.

The roll being called, the motion was declared lost by the following votes:

The following communication was received and read:

Board of Adjustment
City Hall

Newark, N. J. July 21, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day it was decided by a vote of four to one (Mr. Lehmann dissenting) to amend its recommendation to your Honorable Body regarding the application of the New Jersey Historical Society for an automobile parking station at 14-20 West Park Street. The original recommendation, dated July 7, 1931, was to approve the application for a period of five years. The Board now recommends that the time limit be extended an additional five years in order to conform with the terms of the lease which the Society has entered upon.

Respectfully submitted,

The Board of Adjustment.
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the Building Commissioner an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be approved:

Application of New Jersey Historical Society, owner, for an automobile parking station for a period of ten years; premises 14-20 West Park Street; and that fences, signs and driveways be subject to the approval of the Building Department;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

W. J. Egan
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.
Charles P. Gillen
Jerome T. Congleton

Mr. Brooks: I represent the protestors. This application was on a 33-foot street, which at the present time is a two-way traffic street. The owners of the property from Broad to Halsey Street now have property rented mainly, and with the exception of probably one or two, to people who deal exclusively in women's merchandise. Considering the two open-air parking places now on Washington Street south of Market and their method of doing business, if this is pursued on West Park Street, people coming from Broad Street in to do business with these merchants will lose considerable of their trade. The lease, as we understand it, has been granted to these people for ten years, has been granted to these people for ten years, at a tremendous rent. That rent cannot possibly be made at twenty-five or fifty cents a day. I grant you that at the present time this property is bringing no revenue to the City, but the increase now will only be for a land value. The man that is going in there has practically no overhead except to tear this building down, and what little help he might hire to do it. We are along that street. There are men with considerable investments both in the property, and their tenants with considerable investments. The Historical Society Building was originally—until now we presumed it was a five-year lease that was granted. Today we understand that in some way it has been changed to a ten-year lease without any hearing. On Washington Street now we have two indoor garages, the Washington Terminal and the Kent Garage, which has a large investment and the physical building that is on that property. It is impossible for them if open-air parking places are permitted to do it. I don't see personally, nor do the people whom I represent, where a parking place on this 33-foot street is going to aid the traffic condition at all on the street for parking. It will only be a benefit to those people who come and park all day and we are not allowed to park today on the streets all day, anyhow. There are plenty of parking places on Halsey Street. There are two available that are never filled. There is plenty of room. There is plenty of room in the indoor parking stations on West Park Street. I strongly urge, in behalf of the property owners on West Park Street, that this permit be denied.

Mr. E. W. Wollmuth, 24 Branford Place:

I represent the Retail Trades Council of the Chamber of Commerce, on whose behalf I would like to file a communication in approval of the granting of this application, a copy of a letter from Kresge's which you already have on file, one from L. Bamberger and Company, Wiss Realty Corporation, and the J. G. McCrory Company, I am passing them over to the City Clerk.

Mr. Ralph E. Lum, Jr., Griffith Building:

I appear on behalf of the New Jersey Historical Society, who now no longer occupies the premises in question, by reason of their new building. They were unable to sell this, although they were negotiating, and they feel that this new lease is the best arrangement that they could make. They therefore request that it be approved. I might say as to some of the statements made in objection as to the number of owners and the tenants affected thereby, that we have a petition, which we present by Mr. Schlesinger, as showing quite to the contrary as to the greater number of people in that neighborhood.

Mr. Alexander Schlesinger, 31 Clinton Street:

Gentlemen, I wish to present this petition, which is signed by sixty-five owners and tenants. There are three points emphasized: First, that parking facilities will help retail trade; secondly, this will bring the property back into ratables; third, that this lease contains a cancellation clause whereby the owners can cancel if a permanent improvement is desired. That does not tie the property up if they desire to put up an improvement. Mr. Brooks made the statement about representing owners. There are so many owners on here that approve it that I would like to know how many he represents.

Mr. H. Penn, 6 West Park Street:

We have only three available on that side of the street. The rest of the property is owned by Mr. Schlesinger and is owned by the Historical Society.

Mr. Schlesinger: We have property owners both on the east and the west side of the street.

Mr. Penn: Their sidewalks will not be blocked and will not be crossed. Their shops will remain clear, while ours will be blocked.

Mayor Congleton: What do you mean that your property will be blocked?

Mr. Penn: By the automobiles crossing over the sidewalks. Do you realize the number of cars that will pass over that sidewalk?

Commissioner Murray: Isn't it also true that the number of cars that pass over that sidewalk will be that many less on that street?

Mr. Penn: No, sir. No one will pay a parking fee where there is parking free. There are plenty of parking stations within a half a block of this proposed parking station that are half vacant all the time.

Mr. Schlesinger: The property owners on both sides of this, east and west of the property, have signed the petitions.

Mr. Penn: Will you state who the property owners are? I should want them stated here.

Mr. Schlesinger: On the east side the Smith Estate, on the west side Louis Schlesinger.

Mr. Penn: Schlesinger and the Historical Society.

(Discussion outside the hearing of the stenographer.)

Mr. Penn: They have only short term leases. What do they care? They are here today and gone tomorrow. I own the property forever.

Mr. Brooks: Mr. Mayor, as to the statements that this property comes back into the ratables by this, I do not agree with it. At the present time the Historical Society has vacated the building. They are holding it at a price of a half a million.

Mayor Congleton: Have they vacated it yet?

Mr. Brooks: Yes, they are up in their other building.

Mr. Lum: They are just moving in. I believe everything has not yet been moved out.

Mr. Brooks: So technically it comes back with that building there. Tearing the old building down and putting in this parking station does not bring it back.

Commissioner Murray: If it increases the revenue it will bring it back.

Mayor Congleton: If this permit is granted, I think that it should be on certain conditions. There is no condition in this permit with respect to fence, signs and entrances. I don't think that they ought to use the entire frontage as a driveway. There would be proper entrances and exits, so that the entire frontage is not used to go in wherever the motorists happen to please. I think that this permit—

Mr. Schlesinger: The tenant is here. He is prepared to comply with any request of the department.

Mayor Congleton: I think that it should be on condition that the driveway, the signs, and the fences, be in accordance with the rules established by the Building Department or the Board of Adjustment, one or the other.

Mr. Penn: Mr. Mayor, that will not reduce the number of cars crossing that sidewalk.

Mayor Congleton: I grant you that. Does anyone else desire to be heard? If not, the hearing is closed. All those in favor of concurring in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment, as amended by this Board, will say aye; all those opposed, no.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A petition, signed by tenants and owners of property on West Park Street, favoring an outdoor automobile parking station at 14-20 West Street, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Irving Siegler, 164 Market Street:

Gentlemen, I am speaking for the application of the premises 11-13 Bayard Place. This matter came before the Board of Adjustment yesterday and the application was granted to erect a two-and-a-half-story building for three families on Bayard Place, in contravention of the Zoning Ordinance permitting only one-family houses. There was no objection or objectors present.

Commissioner Murray: A two-and-a-half-story building for three families?

Mr. Siegler: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: You will have to get the o. k. of the Tenement House Commission.

Commissioner Egan: Within the regulation?

Mr. Siegler: Within the regulation.

Overseer of the Poor for May and June, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: The conference that was arranged for this afternoon, with reference to the purchasing agent, will be postponed until next Wednesday morning at nine-thirty a. m.

Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. David Lebovit, 608 South Eighteenth Street:

I appeal to you, gentlemen. This is not only an appeal. I live on 608 South Eighteenth Street. I own there two properties since about eleven years. Around three years ago they opened a pool room next to me. The building of the pool room is very poorly built shack, which you could hear any sound. Any noise you could hear right in our bedroom and in our place. Now, this is only half of it, and evenings, one, sometimes two o'clock, when the time is to sleep and to get up in the morning to go to work, they could never have since three years steady sleep and steady rest in this place. We appealed to the police. The police answer is that "We have no law. We can't do anything. They could conduct their place at one o'clock at night."

Commissioner Egan: What kind of business is it?

Mr. Lebovit: Pool room.

Commissioner Egan: Where is it?

Mr. Lebovit: 608 South 18th Street.

Commissioner Egan: Is it a pool room?

Mr. Lebovit: 606 South 18th Street.

Commissioner Egan: That is near where?

Mr. Lebovit: It is near 17th Avenue. Now, after the police complaint when I did make a complaint, we were terrorized. I could not go on the street evenings. My wife and my children, we could never go on the street, because the gang—they didn't want to bother me. The pool room owner would not bother me, but, they always get these thugs and those hang-outs in this pool room, and they went against those windows—

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the matter be referred to Director Egan.

Commissioner Egan: We will take care of it at once.

Mr. Lebovit: I would appeal for your humanity. I worked for those properties all my life, but not only the properties are at stake, but my wife and children.

Commissioner Egan: If it is not entirely corrected by next Wednesday come down and let us know.

Mr. Lebovit: Thank you very much.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners of Newark, there is a rumor in Newark to the effect that the City officials are about to appoint or take into consideration the appointment of an inspector of kosher products.

Mayor Congleton: Of what?

Mr. Handler: Of kosher food products. I don't know whether that is, properly before the Commission here or whether I should take it up with any Commission.

Commissioner Murray: You don't know it.

Mr. Handler: No.

Commissioner Murray: Do you know where meat inspection usually is?

Mr. Handler: I don't know.

Commissioner Murray: It is in the department of Public Health, isn't it?

Mr. Handler: We will take that question up with the proper Commissioner.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that it be referred to Director Murray.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance creating a Bureau of Purchases and providing for the appointment of a Purchasing Board.

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance is at the third reading. Are there any remarks? I desire to explain my vote. I shall vote on this ordinance, for the reason that I do not believe it is for the best interests of the City business, that it will not tend to efficiency, and that the proper way to create a central bureau, in my opinion, is to have the responsibility under the Board of Commissioners vested in a single person whom we can bring before us and have complete control over, rather than a board made up of five persons. For that reason I shall vote against it.

Commissioner Egan: Explaining my vote in the matter, whether it be a one-man purchasing board or a five-man purchasing board, the responsibility still remains the responsibility of the City Commission. If a one-man board were selected it would not be possible for me personally to devote sufficient time to keep in close touch with the purchasing bureau, consequently I would designate someone from my department to represent me and keep in close touch with the situation, in order to insure efficiency. As I see the structure as it will be organized under this ordinance, if and when passed, it will be a board of five men selected by the Commission, in the persons of employees of the City, who have had experience in the purchasing of supplies for the respective departments. That board will be organized, a chief clerk will be in existence, who will be subordinated to this Board, and the Board in turn will be subordinated to the City Commission.

It is my desire—and I will use my best efforts to see to it—that a standardized layout is inaugurated, whereby we will have a purchasing department that gives more efficiency and that will, I hope, save us some more money. We all know what the law of the State is covering the purchasing of supplies in amounts of over $1,000 except in emergency cases. There is no doubt in my mind that we can save some money for the City in buying our supplies in bulk. This Board organized as it will be under this ordinance, with five men supervising the activities, will inaugurate plans standardizing the supplies that we need and, I am sure, bring about just as good results, if not better, than will the one-man board.

If this plan is not a success after it has been given a fair trial, it can be changed to a one-man board.

I want to say in passing that we agree with the attitude of the Board of Education in that they should not be asked to be stripped of their rights under a separate and distinct law which makes them an independent body, for this reason only: That I do not believe that the Board of Education at any time should be brought into a picture that would give it the least tinge of politics.

I hope that when this Board is organized and the Bureau of Purchases begins to function there will be no politics in it. If we can save money for the taxpayers that is what we want to do. The plan of procedure is no doubt quite important, if this plan of a five-man board is not successful, it will not be difficult for us to change it. If after a fair trial I personally see that it is not a successful plan, I will be one of the very first to urge the changing of the Purchasing Bureau from a five-man board to a single-man supervision. I vote aye on the ordinance.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I have explained my view so fully before that I do not believe there is any reason for going over the same ground again. I resent very keenly, however, the insinuation made by certain gentlemen who appeared before this board that it was not our purpose to centralize purchases. The whole demand that has been made with respect to the purchasing of city goods has been to centralize the purchase of city supplies. I believe and I have good reason to think that you can centralize it just as well under a five-man board as you can under a one-man board. I think, furthermore, that you can economize just as well and that you can get probably more and better economy, as well as more efficiency, under a board than you can under a single man.

It is the purpose of the majority of this Board, as I understand it, to centralize the purchasing of city goods and anyone who insinuates that that it not our purpose is not sincere and is not honest in his views. I discount a great deal that has been said before this board by so-called representatives of various so-called organizations. We are going to centralize the purchases of city goods and in that way, if possible, we are going to effect economy and promote efficiency. I shall vote aye.

Commissioner Murray: I am going to vote aye on the ordinance, because I think that the main objective is the centralized purchase of goods for common use by all departments. I think that the question of the constituency of the central purchasing agency is a matter of detail. In the cases referred to, in which single purchasing agents are in charge, my experience upon inquiry is that most of the purchasing is done by their assistants and that the intimate and particular knowledge of each particular purchase is not in the possession of the Purchasing Agent. Furthermore, nobody has shown that any of the Purchasing Agents so far has bought goods for less than we have, the goods being of a similar nature, and I am satisfied, in my own mind that this will work out satisfactorily. If it does not, we can, as has been said by Commissioner Egan, very easily make any necessary change.

The ordinance was adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Naye: Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to repeal Sections 35 and 41 of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance governing the manufacture, bottling, sale and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages, carbonated beverages, cereal beverages and still drinks in the City of Newark," adopted July 15th, 1931, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Abraham I. Harkavy, 11 Commerce Street: I appear in this matter representing six independent sellers of seltzer and soda, and it is my proposal at this time that the proposed amendment be laid over for a period of two weeks so that we can iron out the difficulties that exist with the Health Department at the present time. We respectfully ask that in view of the fact that the present time is the season in which these men work and make their few dollars in the sale of these beverages, that this matter be laid over, so that we can continue in business until the final passage of this ordinance.

Hon. Joseph G. Wolber, 763 Broad

Street: Mr. Mayor, if I might be heard on this subject, this matter of working out a comprehensive ordinance to control the sale and the distribution and manufacture of non-alcoholic beverages has been a matter of many conferences with the Department of Health for some two months, and we thought that we had reached the point where we had threshed out and worked out an ordinance that could be effectively enforced. As a matter of fact, representing that group of manufacturers that have participated in these discussions with the Director and his department, I might say that we consented to the passage of the ordinance as originally proposed by the Board of Health. Only today there comes before your board certain amendments to which the Board of Health has consented. My suggestion, if I might make one, is that the same course is followed with respect to this, because, after all, it seems to me that the determination of the suggested amendment by these gentlemen representing the few independent distributors will finally have to be passed upon by the Director of the Department, the purpose of the ordinance being, of course, to protect the public health. This is the season when there is the greatest opportunity for the control of this industry so important to the health of the people of the City of Newark.

Mr. Harkavy: The people that I represent, gentlemen, are sellers of seltzer and soda water. We are more particularly interested in the seltzer feature and in Section 4 of this ordinance, for this reason: Under the present force of Section 4, a person manufacturing or bottling seltzer is prohibited from filling any bottles with seltzer or the rest of the carbonated beverages unless the name of the manufacturer, or person bottling the bottles appears on the bottle itself. Now, the way the situation stands today, my clients grouped together as a little individual group, shall we say jobbers?—and have built up a route. They buy their own bottles, their own cases—and I refer to seltzer bottles in cases,—and have their names etched on these bottles. By the way, these bottles are very expensive, costing 72 cents apiece, and the six people together have a stock of approximately ten thousand bottles at the present time, with their respective names etched on the bottles. They go to a manufacturer who is licensed by the City of Newark to sell seltzer. That manufacturer of seltzer comes directly under the control of your City Board of Health. The men I represent permit these manufacturers to fill the bottles paying them a price per bottle for the filling of the seltzer and then they sell them.

Under this section the manufacturer cannot fill their bottles, because the name of the manufacturer does not appear on the bottles, and naturally, my clients cannot sell the seltzer because the name of the manufacturer does not appear. My proposal, as an amendment to this act, is that where it refers to the names of the person, firm or corporation manufacturing or bottling such beverage, the words "or filling such beverages" be included, so that my clients shall not be put out of business by this particular ordinance. We all know that business is bad enough as it is, without directly putting people out of business and without causing a loss.

Mayor Congleton: If the bottle merely has the name of the fellow on, there is no way of knowing who has manufactured the beverage, so as to know whether it is good stuff.

Mr. Harkavy: Yes, for this reason: The seller is likewise licensed by the City of Newark and is likewise under the control of the Board of Health. Merely by an exercise of their police powers they can control the purchase of seltzer by these fellows and see to it, that they buy from regular licensed manufacturers.

Mayor Congleton: That does not tell the purchaser whether he is buying seltzer of good manufacture or poor manufacture.

Mr. Harkavy: No, that is true.

Mayor Congleton: It is the source of it, I understand, that this ordinance was to get at, so that the people might know the kind of seltzer or whatever else it might be they were buying and drinking. A manufacturer's reputation goes a good way with the purchaser, doesn't it?

Mr. Harkavy: True, Mr. Mayor but the fact remains also that the little route that the various independents have built up consist of people who rely upon the person selling them the seltzer, and they are interested in the particular seltzer that comes to them from the seller. After all, there are but a few recognized sellers of seltzer, where people demand a particular type or brand. As the situation stands now, these people are buying seltzer on the strength of the persons selling it to them and not on the strength of the manufacturer.

Commissioner Murray: I think, Mr. Mayor, and gentlemen that the Mayor, and gentlemen that the client of the speaker here are unnecessarily worried about it. It is a very common practice for a druggist to have upon the shelves of his store certain preparations which are manufactured by the wholesale druggist and labeled with the retailer's name. If that is a safe procedure in the matter of drugs or medicines, it certainly cannot be less safe in the matter of soda water. If these men can present a good case in the way of an amendment to this ordinance, there isn't any reason why they should not take it up with the Department of Health and have the food and drug division pass upon it.

Personally, I think it probably will not do any harm; yet at the same time, we cannot pass an ordinance and then pass another taking the teeth out of the first ordinance and taking away from us our real control. If these gentlemen will go to the Department of Health and submit their proposal, instead of waiting until Wednesday morning, when the matter comes up for final passage, I am very confident that a satisfactory conclusion will come out of it. I have no desire to be arbitrary, but they wait until Wednesday morning, when the matter comes up for final passage and after it has been debated for ten weeks at a conference between the Krueger Company and the Hoffman Beverage Company and about twenty-five or thirty others, all going into it very extensively and reaching a mutual agreement upon form, that we will have proper supervision through the Department of Health and be able to protect the people from two or three cent stuff that is not fit to consume.

This ordinance will not be hurting legitimate business. They were all ready to report on it. I presume that Mr. Harkavy's clients agreed with them and found no fault with it until they noticed this one exception which they thought disbarred them. I think that we can still put this ordinance through and take it up next Wednesday, if the Board of Health approves it.

Mr. Harkavy: I would be in accord with that, but for this one reason, and that is that the Health Department has already notified these various manufacturers in the City of Newark not to bottle any of my clients' bottles, and the way the situation stands now they cannot get seltzer from anyone today, Mayor Congleton: Do they put label on the bottle saying "Manufactured by Krueger," or whoever it may be?

Mr. Harkavy: We would be glad to put labels on. This ordinance does not call for labels; it calls for etching or engraving right on the bottles themselves. If we can have the permission of the Board of Health to paste labels on, I can assure now that we will have arrangements made with the manufacturers to have labels put on the bottles, but the ordinance does not call for labels. In fact, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I will go one step further and say that if we can have ample time, if this body will give us a few more, I am negotiating now with the manufacturers of this seltzer to permit my clients to place on the reverse side of the bottle their trade name. My clients buy seltzer from licensed manufacturers and they conform with this ordinance, but we must have a few weeks' time to do that, or our business will be at a standstill. As it stands now, they have the name of the seller on the bottle. I will agree to this, if we may have a few weeks' extension: We will have the manufacturer put his trade name right across this side of the bottle, and that will serve the purpose of the ordinance and will not put my clients out of business for the next few weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Murray, couldn't the ordinance be passed and a resolution be passed suspending that phase of it for a few weeks?

Commissioner Murray: The ordinance is in effect. They have not anything to be afraid of. It is not the intention of the Health Department to put people out of business, unless they ought to be put out of business. If people are on the level and doing the kind of business that the Health Department will approve of, with proper regard for the public welfare, they do not have to go out of business, but there has to be a proper adjustment all the time. If these people will go to the Health Department they will have the matter taken up.

Mr. Harkavy: Do I understand that the manufacturers will receive notice from the Health Department saying that they may continue using these bottles and selling seltzer?

Commissioner Murray: Yes.

Mr. Harkavy: Only Seltzer.

Commissioner Murray: Yes, only seltzer.

No one else appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

---

August, 1931

Newark, N. J., August 5, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Gillen.

The minutes of meeting of July 29th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance preventing the conducting of any business wherein paints and hardware are sold on the first day of the week, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Three petitions signed by approximately 126 paint and hardware dealers favoring the passage of the ordinance without alteration, were received and ordered filed.

Mr. Maxwell M. Plotkin, 972 Broad Street: Gentlemen, I represent the Essex County Paint Dealers Protective Association. We have circulated petitions amongst the paint dealers in the City of Newark, and more than ninety-eight per cent of them have signed the petition. This, gentlemen, is not a personal necessity. All cobblers and barber shops are closed on Sunday, and therefore, stores dealing in paints should also be closed on Sunday. Now, all the painters do not work on Saturday, and therefore, they have plenty of time to buy their goods and different materials they desire on either Saturday or Monday. Paints and varnishes are also a fire hazard, and if all the stores are closed on Sunday there will be less chance of a fire breaking out in these stores, thereby causing a great saving to the City of Newark.

Therefore, gentlemen, I respectfully request, in behalf of the Essex County Paint Dealers Association, that this ordinance be passed.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else?

Mr. Philip M. Gehl, 15 Clinton Street: Gentlemen, I represent the Hardware Dealers of the City and I wish to say that I have here a petition signed by some of the largest hardware dealers in the City of Newark—in fact, about 99 per cent. of the dealers have already signed it. There is no opposition to this resolution to have these stores closed on Sunday. The statutes of this City have always provided that stores should be closed on Sunday, but the City has always been rather lenient in the matter of selling foodstuffs, but hardware, and house furnishings are not a necessity, and those stores should be closed on Sunday, to stifle any chance of unfair competition among the one or two that may desire to be open.

No one else appearing, Commissioner Howe moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that further consideration of the ordinance be postponed for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to amend Section 1115 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark, (Revision of 1913), and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Murray moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the title of "An ordinance to amend Section 1115 of the Revised Ordinance of The City of Newark, (Revision of 1913) be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to amend Section 1115 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of Newark, (Revision of 1913).

The ordinance having been read three times, was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An Ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Margaretta Street from Avenue "L" easterly about 433 feet with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Mahlon Pitney, 744 Broad Street: Gentlemen, there is opposition to this ordinance. I present here a written petition signed by 79 per cent of the frontage and 67 per cent of the assessed value of the property to be affected by this ordinance. It is also signed by the owner of the property at the extreme end of the street, which, I believe, is assessed as fronting on Avenue L, which also backs up on this Street. As I understand the statute, the ordinance cannot be passed with a petition signed by so large a majority.

Mayor Congleton: No, not if it is so large. I think that the property owners, however, are taking a very short-sighted view on this. Margaretta Street is one of the few remaining dirt streets in the City of Newark. You are all talking about the high cost of government. It is that kind of street that helps to make the cost of government high. There are other property owners there who are conducting business on that street, who do want it paved.

Mr. Pitney: There is only one property owner who did not sign the petition, and that is John Englehorn & Sons, on the corner.

Mayor Congleton: The City of Newark is too large, and, in my opinion, too progressive to go along with dirt streets. Of course, if the petition is signed as extensively as you say, it will act as a veto of the ordinance. The burden is then on someone else and not on the Board of Commissioners, but that does not change my personal view as to dirt streets in the City of Newark.

Mr. Pitney: Whether or not the petition is signed by so large a majority, it seems to us that the street is a dead-end street which does not lead anywhere, and the property owners who have signed are extensive, while the only property owner who has not signed is John Engelhorn & Sons.

Mayor Congleton: They are carrying on a beef business.

Mr. Pitney: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: And the United States Government has complaint about the condition of that street as affecting the way the business is carried on, and if the street is not improved they may revoke their meat inspection and put Engelhorn out of business. Of course, if you want to drive business out of the City of Newark, I suppose it is all right. We will check up your petition.

The petition opposing the ordinance for the paving of Margaretta Street was then read as follows:

To The Honorable

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

We, the undersigned, do respectfully protest and object to the passage and adoption of an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Margaretta Street from Avenue L easterly about 433 feet with asphalt pavement (1½" top 1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation," now pending before your Honorable Board, and do set forth the following facts:—

Margaretta Street extends east of Avenue L for about 433 feet and ends without connection with any other street, avenue or highway, being a "dead-end street". During all of its length it practically parallels Wilson Avenue, which is an improved highway that is heavily traveled, and is at no place more than 135 feet distant from Wilson Avenue.

The undersigned represent the owners of the entire frontage on the southerly side of Margaretta Street and a substantial portion of the frontage upon the northerly side of said street. The improvement of the street is unnecessary for the purpose of serving the owner of the property at the northeast corner of Avenue L and Margaretta Street, who has a frontage of 125 feet on Margaretta Street, for the reason that said owner has frontage on, and access to, Avenue L, which is a well paved and thoroughly improved street. Nor is said improvement necessary for the use of the property located at the easterly end of Margaretta Street, for the reason that said property has a frontage on Wilson Avenue for the entire depth thereof and said Wilson Avenue can be used for all necessary access to said property. The present street surface of that portion of Margaretta Street which is described in said ordinance, is passable and usable by the owners of property fronting thereon for all necessary commercial purposes in its present state; and, if further improvement is necessary, said surface can be made wholly satisfactory by a covering of dry cinders or ashes.

The ordinance in question appropriates $8,600. to pay the cost of said improvement and provides that the cost thereof shall be assessed against the property benefited by the same. Such assessment would impose an expense of approximately $10. a front foot upon the abutting property owners, if the entire cost is assessed against them. No such benefit can be received or anticipated by such property owners for the reason that, as stated above, they now have access to other well paved streets and the portion of Margaretta Street now in question is only a "dead-end street" and does not connect with any other streets. For the same reason, said improvement cannot be classed as a public necessity so as to justify the City of Newark assuming the entire cost of the improvement.

We therefore protest against the adoption of said ordinance and do hereby show the respective assessed valuations of our properties which may be affected by the said improvement by reason of frontage on Margaretta Street.

Dated Newark, N. J., July 28, 1931.

Street Number	Owners	Street frontage	Assessed Valuation

Mr. Harry V. Osborne, 24 Commerce Street: Gentlemen, I have had a communication from the Department of Agriculture, in which they say that the condition is a menace to the health of the community and that they will be obliged, unless the condition is remedied, to take from this industry the inspection permits, as a result of which the industry will have to close. It therefore has become a very serious matter. I have the letter here, and the Inspector from the Government is here, who will state so, under instructions from the Department in Washington. Of course, they realize that they cannot compel the City to do anything, but they will have to bring pressure to bear upon this industry, which has been conducted for many, many years by John Englehorn.

We have produced here photographs showing the deplorable condition. Englehorn himself has tried to remedy it. He has filled in and filled in and filled in, but of course it cannot be done in that way.

If the situation is as indicated, due to the protest of a certain percentage of property owners, I suppose that the only thing to do is to adopt your Honor's suggestion to lay the matter over until it can be investigated, unless it can be reached by the Health Department.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, we will refer the petition, in the manner provided by law, for a checkup as to whether or not it represents 75 per cent, of the assessed valuation in opposition to it. That does not act as an absolute veto, however, The Board of Commissioners, even though that petition is signed as the opposition says, if it comes to the conclusion that the paving of the street is a public necessity, has the authority to do it, and if it is a menace to health I am prepared to vote to declare it a public necessity.

Mr. Osborne: May I leave with the Commission a communication from the Government?

Mayor Congleton: We will be very glad to have it.

Mr. Osborne: If you desire it, the Government representative will state just what their position is with regard to the matter and why it is a menace to health.

Dr. Clarence L. Elliott, representative of the Department of Agriculture, appeared:

Mr. Osborne: Mr. Elliott, are you a representative of the Department of Agriculture in this district?

Mr. Elliott: Yes, sir.

Mr. Osborne: What are your duties in that connection?

Mr. Elliott: My duties are supervision of the Federal Meat inspection work.

Mr. Osborne: Does that include the condition of the plant and surroundings?

Mr. Elliott: It does.

Mr. Osborne: Have you inspected the John Engelhorn & Son plant?

Mr. Elliott: I have.

Mr. Osborne: What is the character of the business conducted by them?

Mr. Elliott: It is meat slaughtering.

Mr. Osborne: Is the business conducted, in so far as the private property is concerned, in a proper manner and in accordance with the Government regulations?

Mr. Elliott: Yes, sir, so far as their private property is concerned.

Mr. Osborne: Is there a condition on Margaretta Street which needs to be corrected?

Mr. Elliott: There is.

Mr. Osborne: What is that condition. In what way does it need to be corrected?

Mr. Elliott: Well, after every rain there is considerable stagnant water there, due to holes in the street. They stand full of water and become contaminated with the horse manure and conditions from the—

Commissioner Murray: I think, Judge Osborne, that it is not necessary to go on with that, because Margaretta Street at that point is so rottenly bad that there is no question about it. The Health Department has objected for some time to the pools that gather there after a rain storm and to the soggy condition of the street in general, and it is, in our estimation, a decided public nuisance.

Mr. Osborne: May I ask one question?

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Osborne: Mr. Elliott, what will the Government do if this condition is not corrected, so far as this industry is concerned?

Mr. Elliott: Well, I have the statement from our Chief of the Bureau to the effect that they will adopt severe measures. Of course, they do not specify what the severe measures will be, but the chances are that they will withdraw the meat inspection, which means that the plant will have to be closed up.

Mr. Osborne: Of course, that means that that industry will close up — an industry which has been here for a great many years, and which employs many people in this city. It will only mean that the business will be driven from the City.

Commissioner Murray: Well, the street now is a menace, aside from the matter of the slaughter house, although a slaughter house in itself is somewhat of a nuisance. You know, Mr. Elliott, we are, as you are probably aware, more severe in our inspection than you fellows are.

Mr. Osborne: The slaughter house was established there a great many years ago.

Commissioner Murray: The street has got to be fixed, no matter how it is done.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the matter be postponed for two weeks and that the regular action be taken on the petition.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that further hearing on the ordinance be postponed for two weeks and that in the meantime the protest be referred to the Board of Tax Commissioners for the purpose of checking it and reporting.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk then read the following communication:

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY,
Washington, D. C.

July 29th, 1931.

Dr. C. L. Elliott,
518 Broad Street,
Newark, N. J.

Sir:—

In reply to your letter of July 27, it may be stated that you should make it plain to the management of Establishment 97, John Engelhorn & Sons, that if filthy mud holes and fly-breeding places are permitted by the company to exist on premises so close to the plant as to become a menace to the conduct of inspection the Bureau may be forced to adopt severe measures, and furthermore, inform them that the Bureau expects the conditions, described by you as existing on premises used by the company in unloading live stock and loading our meat and meat food products, to be corrected without delay.

If the city authorities request your presence at the hearing before the Bureau of Streets on August 5 to give testimony relating to the bad condition of the street adjacent to Establishment 97, or if the Engelhorn Company requests your presence at the meeting to testify regarding sanitation of the street adjacent to the plant, it will be permissible for you to so appear and give testimony of character indicated.

Respectfully,

U. G. Houck,
Acting Chief of Bureau.

Ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Mulberry Street from Market Street to River Street, including the street railway track area, with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation and on the old concrete base repaired and/or built up with concrete as required, outside the street railway track area, and with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new concrete foundation within the street railway track area, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Samuel Katzin, 68 Mulberry Street: What I want to say is that the street improvement should not be looked upon as a local improvement entirely, not entirely a local improvement benefiting the property owners on that street alone, but benefiting the City entirely, proportionately.

Mayor Congleton: Not entirely you don't mean?

Mr. Katzin: Not entirely. That is, part of the benefit—

Mayor Congleton: The abutting property owner will be assessed very little for the paving, but it will be a benefit to his property to have this fine, wide street, properly paved, in front of his property.

Mr. Katzin: I wanted to say that we should bear only part of the cost, that only part of the cost should be borne by the property owners suggested and part by the City, that is all.

Mayor Congleton: The City will bear a large share of it.

Mr. Katzin: Thank you.

Mr. Herman G. Baum, 834 South Thirteenth Street: My sentiments are the same as my predecessor here in that regard.

Mayor Congleton: But you do think that it will be of some benefit to the rest of that property that you have left to have a pavement in front of it?

Mr. Baum: Yes, I do.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

(No response).

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South Thirteenth Street: If you are going to grant the City Centre Corporation a moratorium you must in all fairness grant to every taxpayer and property owner in Newark, New Jersey, the same privilege, to apply on his taxes and his assessments. I don't know why that contract was made at first.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be approved:

Application of Antonio Blasi, owner, for the sale of gasoline from two portable tanks at the curb; premises 37 Norfolk Street; for the period of one year from date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Are there tanks there now? Does the man hold a permit for tanks now?

Commissioner Murray: He has a garage there.

Mayor Congleton: I understand He may have a garage, but I will not vote for tanks at the curb if he has not already got them.

Mr. Rankin: No, the party does not hold a permit for tanks. This is a new proposition.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Building, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Umberto Borbotti and Nicola Fabbroni, owners, for the construction of four individual garages on the rear line of a corner lot; premises 160 Norman Road;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Laid over to August 19, 1931.

Eight communications and petitions protesting against erection of auto laundry at 929-31 Eighteenth Avenue were read and on motion ordered filed.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Benjamin Greenblatt, owner for the construction of an automobile laundry; premises 929-931 Eighteenth Avenue; on condition that present ice depot is removed, and a five-foot steel wire fence be erected along the Carolina Avenue frontage;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment of Building, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: I have here numerous protests from rather substantial people.

Mr. Irving Siegler, 164 Market Street:

Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, I would like to move for an adjournment for one week in this matter, on the ground that the objection that is presented today by the Irvington Chamber of Commerce is the first indication I have heard that they have any objection to this matter at all. This matter pended before the Adjustment Board for several months and the objections and the troubles of the various neighbors were gone into. This matter was thoroughly considered on three occasions by the Zoning Board, and not one occasion did we ever hear a word from the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Congleton: But you had 19 objectors from Newark.

Mr. Siegler: We had as many who approved.

Mayor Congleton: You had 19 opposing and 17 approving and 3 who did not sign the petition.

Commissioner Egan: Are all these people standing here opposed to it?

Voices: Yes.

Mr. Siegler: Some of these people reside in Irvington.

Voices: All within 200 feet.

Commissioner Egan: Let me say this: This is not the right moment for this. In these spots, such as Eighteenth Avenue bordering on the Irvington line and in other sections, such as South Orange Avenue bordering on the East Orange line, matters like this should be given careful consideration. East Orange has recently permitted the erection of an unsightly ice depot on South Orange Avenue right at the border line, and if there was ever an eyesore on South Orange Avenue it is that ice station. It seems to me that East Orange ought to be a little more considerate of its neighboring community, Newark, before they permit things like that to take place. It seems to me that we ought to be more considerate in the matter, too, it being on the line of Irvington.

Mr. Siegler: I think that if I have an opportunity to present this properly to the Irvington Chamber of Commerce I may be able to change their mind or perhaps remove their objections or see what objections they may have, so that this matter will be presented to the Board properly.

Mayor Congleton: The communication I have received from the Chamber of Commerce is not an official communication from the Chamber; it says that it is written on behalf of three Irvington property owners.

Mr. Siegler: But nevertheless he writes in the name of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Congleton: No, he does not; he writes on behalf of three Irvington property owners, residents of Carolina Avenue, all within 200 feet of the property known as 980. I have no objection to the matter going over, but I think that we ought to hear these people, so they do not have to come here again.

Ralph Acocella, 138 Carolina Avenue:

May I say, gentlemen, that I was made an agent by about more than twenty people, representing more than two-thirds of the community that is against it. It is a public nuisance and the neighborhood is bad enough as it is now. We have two gas stations and we have two ice depots within three corners. Also the appearance of the building is not any too good. There is traffic congestion, with bus lines that we have, it is so hard to cross those corners. Then again, the paving might be ruined. These people live mostly in one-family houses. They are paying those taxes to have those homes, to have peace and quiet, and then an auto laundry is to be established.

I really think that this ought not be granted.

Mr. Louis Mammano, 28 Howard Street, Irvington.

I don't live in that neighborhood, but I was asked to come here by Mr. Ralph E. Acocella to represent some of the people who signed the petitions, and also a few who are here, like Commissioner C'Connor. It seems that they very bitterly object to this auto laundry for several reasons. It is very unsightly. It also creates noises at all hours of the day, endangering the lives of the kiddies by the increasing of traffic, and these people through me ask that this application for this auto laundry be turned down. I am speaking for them. I have nothing to do with it, personally, but I do pray the Honorable Mayor and members of the Board to turn down this application.

Mr. Acocella: May I also say, gentlemen, that on this application we have been here three times within a month and a half.

Mayor Congleton: Before the Board of Adjustment?

Mr. Acocella: Yes, but the second meeting—the third meeting was opened only one month after the second meeting, and we have been doing nothing but coming here and consulting, so that we will get tired of it; perhaps that is what they are after.

Mayor Congleton: I want to say to you that if this matter is laid over for two weeks it will not be necessary for anyone of you to come again. What you have said today a permanent record has been made of, which will be given consideration when it comes to a vote.

Theodore G. Dix, 128 Carolina Avenue:

In regard to its being a hazard and a nuisance, I am not an objector. I bought this home of mine to live in, and if they do erect that building, as I see it, it will not be a detriment to my property. Furthermore, the auto laundry will not make so much noise or disturb anybody's sleep. I assure you that I as a property owner do not object to it. In the first place, it will bring fifteen or twenty thousand dollars more assessments to the city. At the present time it is an empty lot. If I owned the lot I would try to raise something on it to pay the taxes.

As I see it, it is more of a grudge against the owner than against the laundry. It is not against the laundry, but against the owner.

Mrs. Georgiana Homish, 218 West End Avenue.

I object to one thing that the gentleman said. There are many accidents there. I think if you will look up the records of the Seventh Precinct you will find there have been several serious accidents on the corner of Seventeenth Street and West End Avenue. I think there was a fireman hurt.

Mr. Dix: That is for grown-ups, but there has never been any accidents for the kids. I know you will not find that. The people who will use that laundry will come from the neighborhood and not from downtown here and will not be going up Eighteenth Avenue. It won't increase traffic there.

Mr. Leon Unger, Prudential Building:

We have 140 feet on the corner of West End Avenue and Eighteenth Avenue, improved property. That is within 200 feet. We have noticed Eighteenth Avenue having nothing but gasoline stations and ice docks. This is a highly competitive line, and I am afraid that if this application is granted there will be more laundries on the street. We have Elizabeth Avenue where there are competitors one after the other, and that is likely to take place on Eighteenth Avenue.

(The following persons noted their names on the records as objecting to the auto laundry.)

Mr. John J. O'Connor, 122 Carolina Avenue; Eurylle Nugent, 140 Carolina Avenue; Mr. Joseph Straba, 220 West End Avenue; Mr. John Bunonincontri, 226 West End Avenue.

Commissioner Murray: I move that we lay the matter over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Laid over to August 19, 1931.

The following petition was received and read:

To the City Commissioners of The City of Newark, New Jersey.

The undersigned, tax payers of the City of Newark, and owners of property in said City, near and in the neighborhood of premises known as #551 High Street, respectfully protest against the granting of permission to the owners of said premises known as #551 High Street, to build upon and alter said premises, whereby a store front or other alterations involving the use of said property in a manner which your petitioners deem objectionable, and detrimental to their property values, and destructive to the general nature of the neighborhood in which said premises known as #551 High Street are located.

Your petitioners respectfully pray that your Honorable Board will earnestly consider the matters contained herein and co-operate for the attainment of the results herein requested. Special objection is made to the proposed 10' 6" encroachment beyond the present front wall.

Signed by nine property owners.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Edward J. Krause, owner, for the construction of a 2-story addition to present building extending beyond prevailing set back line; premises 551 High Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

(Commissioner Egan read a letter from Mr. Bigelow, Superintendent of Buildings, objecting to the proposed addition, and also a letter from Mr. Monroe.)

Dr. Waldron, 549 High Street:

I would like to say that I placed the thing before the Board of Education, and inasmuch as the City has a school there, which cost approximately close to two million dollars, and if that street is from ten to fifteen feet narrower at that point, between that block, than between any other block from Springfield Avenue down to Clinton Avenue— It is just like a neck in the bottle there, and to come out from ten to ten and a half feet in front of it, in front of our property and that of the other property owners, I think it will be a detriment there. If the City should agree to widen that street it will have to buy that property, the same as it did on Mulberry Street, and they will have to pay that additional expense.

Mayor Congleton: If that other building were not there, and the Greek Church, it would be different, but it now makes it almost impossible to do it.

Dr. Waldron: It was built before the zoning law.

Mayor Congleton: That doesn't make any difference. These other houses were built before the zoning law, and they observed the set back line.

Commissioner Egan: There is no question about that section of High Street being the neck of a bottle. It is a problem to handle traffic through there at any time.

Mayor Congleton: It is a very bad situation.

Commissioner Egan: I think further to clog it up with more features of congestion would be a mistake on the part of the Commission.

Dr. Waldron: Ten and a half feet is an enormous amount to go out there. You will have no sidewalk if you narrow the sidewalk that is there now. The Board of Education has already opposed it.

Mr. Max Albach, 60 Park Place.

I appear for Mr. Samuel F. Leiber. Under the circumstances, I would like to ask for an adjournment of two weeks. Mr. Lieber is away. I ask for the adjournment that he may personally appear. We also represent the building and loan, if your Honor please, and both of those corners are built up to the line, and we are not going to be in advance of them.

Commissioner Egan: You should be able to present your case now for Mr. Lieber. You represent him.

There isn't anything complicated about this matter.

Mr. Albach: I think that I would like to have Mr. Lieber appear here.

Commissioner Egan: Well, it will not make any difference to us if he is here. I would like to vote on it.

Mr. Albach: I would like to say, under the circumstances, that this property is immediately adjacent to the Greek Church. It doesn't go out any further than the Greek Church. It is business property. As I understand the zoning ordinance,—Mr. Kelly, I believe, who is next to Dr. Waldron, has his property advertised for business purposes. I think that under the circumstances it creates no hazard there, and the improvement is not such as to destroy the possibility of the City's widening the street, if in the future it should decide to do so, without any really great expense. After all, the large expense will be both the building and loan and the church, which have limestone buildings.

Mayor Congleton: So as to prevent a situation like that becoming more extensive, our department has been considering introducing a resolution or an ordinance to create a new set-back line on that block, so that any new buildings that go up will have to go up to the new line and not the present line, forcing us to buy the property. That is a very bad situation there.

Dr. Waldron: Eight out of ten signers in that block are against it. The other two are the building and loan and the petitioner.

Mr. F. R. Kelly, 547 High Street:

When this proposed building plan was submitted the applicants called on every owner or nearly every one in the block and served the usual legal notice. He was unable to get a single signature in the block in approval of it. When we appeared before the Board of Adjustment Mr. Lieber made the statement that only two owners in the block were opposed, namely, Dr. Waldron and myself.

We have submitted here today a petition that is signed one hundred percent. of all of the property owners in the block, with the exception of the Hamilton Building and Loan and the applicant himself. The Greek Church board held a meeting on it and voted to oppose it. The signatures are 100 per cent. complete, and last week the Board of Education unanimously voted also to oppose it.

I do not think that a $3,000 ten and half foot obstruction out in High Street is good for the property owners, and I do not think it is good for the City as a whole.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be approved:

Application of Eugene A. Ryan (Stanley Company of America, owner) for the enlargement of an automobile parking station with entrance from Broad Street; premises 878-880 Broad Street; for the period of one year from date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Laid over to August 19, 1931.

JOHN HOWE,
Director of Revenue and Finance.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any other matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Commissioner Egan: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A P P R O V E D :

JEROME T. CONGLETON

W. J. EGAN

JOHN HOWE

JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

The Board of Commissioners of
the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., August 12, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gilen, Howe, Murray.

Absent: Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe, presided.

The minutes of meeting of August 5th, 1931, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating the sale of returned bakery products and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen wish to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: I have here petitions signed by customers of these cut-rate stores with about thirteen hundred names on them. I also have a petition here of the operators of the cut-rate stores, in opposition to this ordinance. The people who engaged me to represent them in opposition to this ordinance feel that the ordinance is entirely unnecessary in the City of Newark. The people who buy this product, thirteen hundred of whom have signed this petition, do not feel that they need the protection of this ordinance on the grounds of fraud in the sale of the product. They know what they are buying; the stores have on them labels "Bread one day old five cents, 2 days old 3 cents," and the same thing for cake and rolls. The people affected are mostly from the Third Ward, and the wards bordering thereon, and they are very poor people and if they could not buy this product at the reduced rate the chances are they would have to do without or do with much less than they can buy now for their families, themselves and their children. On the grounds of health, these stores are inspected periodically by the Health Department, and any unsanitary conditions can be checked that way. In speaking to the owners of these stores, they have been under inspection now for say a year and inspections are very efficient and very periodic, about once every two weeks, I should judge; and no storekeeper in Newark has, I believe, been turned in for handling unsanitary products or unhealthy products. The people in the Third Ward and the ward bordering thereon are all a very poor class economically, especially today, many of them are out of work, and many of them receive alms tickets from the City of Newark. From the strictly legal question it may also be reasonably argued that this proposed ordinance is entirely unconstitutional and unwarranted in law. The City should not pass the ordinance either as a health measure or as a police regulation. Now, as a health measure it can not be said that these products are unhealthy and therefore should be abolished. The only thing the City can do is inspect, and if they find any violations of the Code, then they can haul the man up for proper punishment. But as I said before, there is no complaint from the City Inspectors, as far as I can gather, on the stores themselves. As to the health of the products themselves, we have a petition signed by a doctor and a druggist, and they say these products are wholesome or healthy, and that the staleness of a day or two does not matter. Furthermore, if it is a question of health, then what difference does it make in your ordinance by your preventing these storekeepers from selling it, or by saying only bakers or manufacturers can sell it in their plants, or their stores run for themselves. If it is unhealthy in one place it is just as unhealthy in another place, which perhaps would bring us down to the point as to what motive is behind the ordinance. I say it is not health, it is not regulation, but it is abolition of these small traders who are in competition with the boss bakers around the ward. Now, those boss bakers, I presume, have dropped some word to the union to the effect that, "If you don't cut this competition out we might drop wages for our men," and perhaps—perhaps, I say—that is the reason the Union is down favoring this ordinance. But I say that we sit here to regulate the rights between groups, and it is a pretty sorry day when the Union, to bolster their wages, would deprive poor people, much poorer than the Union man, many of them out of work, many of them receiving alms from the City, would deprive them of two or three and four cent pieces that they can save by buying these products, by depriving them of the extra half a loaf they can buy by saving that money. As far as the boss bakers are concerned, they attract no consideration in this question. I am sure that prices of Union labor have not gone up in the last two or three years, they remain the same thing; but the price of flour has perhaps dropped two hundred per cent. and these people still get twenty cents a dozen for rolls and they still get ten cents a pound for bread, making an enormous profit, and yet they are afraid of these few cut-rate stores who give four or five thousand poor people a means of living. On the question of police regulation, I say that the ordinance would perhaps be unconstitutional, because it doesn't regulate. It says in the second paragraph it is absolutely prohibited, the sale is absolutely prohibited except by the bosses and manufacturers at their plants. Regulation would be supervision for sanitary questions, it would not be an abolition. Instead of being regulatory this ordinance is absolutely confiscatory; it takes away from these citizens of Newark who have these stores, this means of livelihood and their chances of making a living that way. We appeal to the Commissioners as representatives of all groups in Newark, to cast their protecting hand about these poor people who know the type of product they are buying, who are not being defrauded, who go for it because of the saving involved, and who, if they could not get it, would absolutely be denied their needs, their full needs of this common commodity, bread and rolls. We know the City Commission will give due weight to this petition and see justice in this matter.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Handler, you say this bread is marked "One day old four cents," "Two days old three Cents", and so forth?

Mr. Handler: Something to that effect.

Commissioner Murray: Can you bring the evidence that it is so marked?

Mr. Handler: Well, Mr. Commissioner, some of the storekeepers are here themselves and I guess they can speak for themselves; but that I believe is the situation.

Commissioner Murray: You say there is no record of any storekeeper having been turned in. What do you mean by that?

Mr. Handler: I mean I have spoken to practically all of them, and none of them have said they received a complaint from the Board of Health to appear there to answer any charges for having unsanitary conditions or products.

Commissioner Murray: Did any of them ever tell you that any of it was condemned or destroyed as unfit for consumption?

Mr. Handler: No, sir.

Commissioner Murray: I move this be laid over for one week to give Mr. Handler a chance to bring proof in that this bread is marked one day old, two days old or three days old, because by information it is not marked at all, but that the stuff is brought in there from New York, Brooklyn, and from cities outside of Newark and dumped into these places without regard to how old it is, bread that is ordinarily sold to feed cattle with, and it is absolutely because of that it is unfit for human consumption. Bread one day old is better than fresh bread, and bread two days old is very good; but bread that is gathered up from the Boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, and the rest of the five boroughs of New York City, is no good for our people, and it is no economy to sell it for three cents a loaf because it is unfit for sale.

Mr. Handler: The products these people sell are not of the type that you describe, Commissioner; and if there has been some of that I suppose Board of Health regulation can check it; but if we are going to do some good it is no good to kill the whole body.

Commissioner Murray: This ordinance requires every manufacturer selling returned goods to slip the ends not less than an inch or an inch and a half, and to show upon its wrapper what the contents of the wrapper really are; and if your people are selling bona fide goods they haven't any reason to be afraid of it.

Mr. Handler: That is the only question there, that the manufacturers themselves sell it for so little to those people to enable them to sell it for three or four cents or five cents, that they won't go to the expense of putting the labels and wrappers on it, and consequently they would rather throw it away than do that, and we are depriving these people of the chance to buy this cheaper product; but I think a regulation preventing outside bakers coming in would be a reasonable regulation.

Commissioner Murray: We can not prevent outside bakers or outside merchants of any kind from coming into Newark if they comply with health regulations.

Mr. Handler: Most of these people buy from local people, local returns, and they are checked at the source of sale and they are checked at the store. I presume there are some who buy from outside sources, but that would be checked there.

Commissioner Murray: If you can prove that these goods have been so marked that the person buying it knows what he is buying and that the bread has indicated upon it one, two or three days old, you will refute a statement made to me in conference with the bakers—

Mr. Handler: I didn't state the bread was so marked, I said this: on the store windows there is a marking there that it is returned goods, and they have the goods segregated in bins with posters over it, "This is two days o.d," this price; this is one day old, this price. We can not expect the manufacturers will mark the bread with labels, they would rather throw it away. Anything you might desire us to prevent we will be very glad to do it, because we think a reasonable regulation can be made.

Commissioner Murray: We don't care whether it is manufacturers, unions or anybody else, we are out to prevent the sale of food to the poor that purports to be something that is isn't.

Mr. Handler: It seems that the people whom you desire to help are very much interested in having the ordinance defeated.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, 704 South 14th Street: It is distasteful to me indeed to appear here today and resent certain accusations made by my good friend Counsellor Handler, but I am not here today representing organized labor, nor am I here representing any interests, be they a trust or be they individual. I am here today representing myself as a chemist and as a man that understands the baking industry from the time the grain is sown until the time that the stale and unfit products are brought back to the factory or the establishment from which they originated. My organization is affected by this matter; perhaps so more vitally than are the several dispensers of this unsaleable product. To bring this out more clearly, I may state that more than sixty per cent. of the stale products of the City of Newark that are manufactured in bakery establishments, are manufactured and returned by union establishments, and not alone by non-union establishments. But my organization and the organization that I represent, the Essex Trades Council.

When I say that none of us are willing to eat stale bread, I think the majority of you commissioners and sympathizers, as well as those that are the buying public, will understand me when I say that they are not in favor of stale bread. I will differ with the physicians, although my not being one, when I say that although they favor and say that stale bread is more healthful than is fresh bread, I may say that may depend upon circumstances and wherein and whereby that bread becomes stale. I may say this to them, that if they purchase that loaf of bread fresh and they allow it to become aged in their own homes without the continual handling of merchants and drivers that perhaps with the drying out of that bread that it may be healthful. Today in cake with these large manufacturers, regardless of whom they may be, the public no longer is assured that they are being given fresh, sanitary farm products, and that will not be denied, because of this feature, that the eggs today that are used in the products are powdered eggs, they are dried eggs, they are what they call Chinese eggs, or frozen eggs; and the same applies to your milk. Your milk is so set as to make it into bakes or make it into powder, or to condense it. Sugar is used and put in the cellulose form and many other forms. You have yeast that is being imposed upon in the manufacture of your products. The baking business today is so that with these patent ingredients, the public, unless they dwell and deal with their own bakery in their own neighborhood, they can not any longer be assured of the vitality and the freshness of farm products. Icings today are made through the ingenuity of mankind and comes in the baking division. Some are made through or with legitimate milk, fresh milk, some are made with powder, some are made with cocoa, some are made with chocolate. In all of them sugar is used. If it is granulated, powdered, brown, molasses sugar, maple sugar, or whatever kind it may be, it is sweetening, and it is used in the manufacture of those icings and those fillings; and when that is put in there between the cake as a fresh product it becomes saleable; but when that product is returned after a length of time, after a period of time, it is no longer saleable because you as well as I know that milk will sour; that sugar is a sweetening and that sweetening will sour anything; and that these products come back with icing sour, with everything sour, that everything that is in that bakery will sour in time to come. We have in the City of Newark this experience that is today before us.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Grois, you have put your case very well, as clearly as anybody could. I do not know of anything that you could add to convince me any more about the argument you are offering. But this place is packed here. We have a lot of business; and if you will just bring your remarks to a close I will appreciate it.

Mr. Grois: I am sorry, your Honor, that I have dwelt so long. And I apologize to the Board for being so long trying to bring out the point. But do you recall in the years that I have represented my organization I have never come here before this Board and asked a single thing. I have always through the Department of Health tried to take care of my matters, and I have tried so at this time.

Mrs. Lena Farb, 86 Avon Avenue, spoke in favor of the "cut-rate" bakeries, stating that in her experience they helped patrons to economize and to enjoy good food.

The following petition was received and read:

To The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

We the undersigned citizens and residents of the City of Newark, and sellers of returned bakery products of bakery products seconds, do hereby humbly petition your Honorable body to vote against a proposed ordinance entitled "An ordinance regulating the sale of returned bakery products and providing penalties for the violation thereof."

We are in business in various places throughout the City of Newark as indicated by the addresses below our signatures and supply a considerable number of people an opportunity to buy returned bakery products or bakery products seconds. These products are in every respect wholesome, clean, nourishing and healthful. In fact, many of our customers come especially to us seeking old bread and rolls because they prefer the older products to the fresher for reasons of health.

Our goods are not sold under any misrepresentation as to their character or quality and in fact our prices are regulated downward in inverse proportion to the length of time the products have been manufactured. Our shops and products are open to inspection by the members of the Board of Health and we wish to state publicly that the inspectors of the Health Department have made frequent and periodic inspections of our products for the interest of the people at large and have never found cause to make complaint as to our products or shops from the standpoint of the health code of the City of Newark.

From our observation we know that the bulk of our customers are people in very impoverished circumstances and that the cost of the products to them is of extreme importance and we feel that if they were deprived of the opportunity to purchase these products many of them would have to do without adequate substitutes therefor.

We have been advised that the proposed ordinance would cause us to give up our business and thereby it would deprive a large number of people of an opportunity to purchase cheaply these necessities of life.

We feel that the proposed ordinance is unjust to the public and it is discriminatory as to ourselves. The present health code and the efficient inspections periodically made by the health department are sufficient protection and guaranty to the City at large of our conditions under which we operate.

(Signed by approximately 1300 signers).

BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT
City Hall,
Newark, New Jersey.

August 5, 1931.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a special meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following use in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

255 Academy Street, Alphonse Bergamo, owner; poultry market.

The above matter was approved on condition that an up-to-date system for the control of odors be installed, and that all windows on the east, north and west sides of the building be eliminated.

Respectfully,

THE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT,
R. B. RANKIN,
Secretary.

Ordered filed.

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Alphonse Bergamo, for a poultry market; premises 255 Academy Street; on condition that an up-to-date blower system for the control of odors be installed, and that all windows on the east, north and west sides of the building be eliminated.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Murray: Is this chicken market on Academy Street the one that the Adjustment Board took up at a special meeting the other day?

Mr. Henegen: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: What was the occasion of the special meeting?

Mr. Henegan: It was because the Commissioners in making an award in the condemnation case heard evidence that the poultry permit would be obtainable in the same neighborhood.

Commissioner Murray: Why wasn't something said to me about it?

Commissioner Howe: I don't think they had any right to make such an assertion, and I have been reliably informed that the property in question was purchased for $3,500 and they in turn received about $26,000, and they have been well repaid and could afford to go anywhere.

Commissioner Murray: A chicken market permit has no value. It may be revoked on fifteen minutes notice. If my inspectors find a chicken market violating the rules of the Department of Health it may be closed at once.

Mr. Anthony Calandra: I represent the applicant in this matter and I would like to have a continuance for about two weeks.

Mr. Henegan: This is a matter in which the Mayor is interested in obtaining the property which was sold to the City by an award before a condemnation commission, and the Mayor knows what agreement he made with the attorney for the applicant, and I think the matter ought not to come up in his absence.

Commissioner Howe: I have no objection to it going over. I am opposed to the chicken market.

Commissioner Murray: It is going next to a sixteen-family house with a single driveway, in a garage, and this commission can O. K. it if it likes and I will never issue a permit.

Commissioner Egan: I think the matter ought to be held up and we will go into conference. I moved the matter be laid over for conference so we can find out what the Mayor did in this matter.

Mr. Calandra: May I ask you gentlemen to please continue this matter for a hearing to three weeks from today? I expect to leave Saturday for a two weeks vacation.

Commissioner Egan: I move we take it up for public hearing three weeks from today, and in the meantime confer with the Mayor.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Twenty-three Property owners appeared in person in opposition to the application for a permit to conduct a chicken market at 255 Academy Street.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating the sale of returned bakery products and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: Representations were made by Mr. Grois in his statement here last week that he represented the manufacturers who sell this material. I have been talking to some of the manufacturers' representatives, and they say that they are not represented by Mr. Grois and that they are opposed to the passage of the ordinance as an invasion of their sales policy.

Mr. Samuel Kopatonsky, 167 Spruce Street: I feel certain that all ordinances proposed along these lines are aimed to maintain the continued good health of our city. However, in the proposed ordinance now up for your consideration there is but one section which definitely points in this direction: Namely, the section prohibiting the resale of returned unrapped products. Aside from this it designates as to who may sell such products which is impracticable in application since it is in conflict with established methods of distribution. Therefore, should there be no other objections but the last mentioned, I am sure that upon your careful consideration you would not permit this measure to become part of the law of our great city.

Commissioner Murray: I want to ask you what you mean by partiality.

Mr. Kopatonsky: Well, it appears that it lays down conditions that are now met by one big firm. In that case the partiality would show that it is evident that unless the conditions must be met—

Commissioner Murray: Is it news to you to know that seven manufacturers, if you call them that, large bakers, were present at a conference in the Health Department a month ago and concurred absolutely and that that is their approved language? Are you a baker?

Mr. Kopatonsky: No, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Are you a dealer?

Mr. Kopatonsky: I am interested as a dealer.

Commissioner Murray: You sell this bread?

Mr. Kopatonsky: Some of it.

Commissioner Murray: Where do you get it? In New York?

Mr. Kopatonsky: No, sir, we are selling all such products as far as most of them are concerned, except some cake, which is returned.

Commissioner Murray: The cake is not fresh?

Mr. Kopatonsky: No, sir, it is not fresh. Some of it is returned.

Commissioner Murray: The way this food is sold now, and the way it has been sold right along, can you take a cake or a pie from the shelf, in your case, if the articles are mixed up and tell whose it is?

Mr. Kopatonsky: No, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Then, suppose that in that cake or pie there is food poison; who is responsible for it? You are the manufacturer?

Mr. Kopatkonsky: That I don't know.

Commissioner Murray: How are you going to determine who is the responsible party if you do not have these packages wrapped? These articles wrapped in packages and labeled inform the purchaser as to the responsible mark of the seller.

Mr. Kopatkonsky: I agree with that point. However, it shows partiality where it says that only certain people may sell that product.

Commissioner Murray: That is right. There ought to be only certain people who should sell these products, only those who live up to the conditions protecting health laid down by the Health Department. We are not going to have trucks going to New York and buying up cake, pie and bread from hotels and restaurants, stuff that has been laying around five or six days, piling it into the truck, handling it like hog feed, and then doling it out in the City of Newark under the label of cheap food products for the poor.

Mr. Kopatkonsky: What I would suggest in that case is prohibiting the sale completely rather than say that some may and some may not.

Commissioner Murray: No, this may be done under proper conditions, but always is the certainty in the final analysis, that you may determine who is the manufacturer of it and locate the responsible party, in the case of poisoning. Locating the responsible party for food poisoning is the hardest problem we have. Some people have been poisoned by canned food, even, and even there it is extremely difficult to locate the responsible party.

Mr. Kopatkonsky: Wouldn't it be that only the bakers may sell it at retail?

Commissioner Murray: I will ask that this ordinance be laid over for another week and I will ask you fellows to get the language in the ordinance that you want. You will see how reasonable we are.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until August 26th.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance authorizing the sale of certain lands under an option given by the City of Newark to the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, on November '28, 1917, and stipulating terms, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, I would request that this matter be postponed for four weeks, to the 16th of September. There is a great deal of interest manifested in this matter, and I hope by that time we will have a definite and concrete plan to submit before you.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I would suggest that at this time the citizens of Newark be furnished with a bill of particulars as to what land actually stands the City of Newark. It may be that it is good to sell it. It may be not good to sell it, for the simple reason that at the price quoted, $12,000 an acre, which would be $750. a city lot—that is not much if you figure it at thirty cents a square foot—figuring it such valuable property. Then if you will figure in about twelve years you will have to ask twice as much for it, figuring interest at four per cent., figuring taxes at four per cent. There may be different angles to look at it.

Mayor Congleton: It did not cost the City $12,000 an acre.

Mr. Zemel: That is true.

Mayor Congleton: For your information, I would say it is worth a lot more than $12,000. I have been offered $18,000.

Mr. Zemel: All right, but we ought to have a bill of particulars showing exactly what it will cost the City and what it has cost the City to date. Of course, you would have to tack on the taxes.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, no, we would not. We have been getting rent for it right along up to date, my dear sir. We have been getting $71,000 a year right up to the first of September, at that rate.

Mr. Zemel: They ought to show in the bill of particulars everything.

Commissioner Egan moved that the ordinance be laid over until September 16th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance authorizing the making and execution of a supplemental agreement between The City of Newark and City Center Corporation amending the terms of lease made between said parties under date of April 24th, 1930, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Zemel: Gentlemen, it is all right for an individual to be liberal and generous with his own money, but I do not think that it is proper to be liberal and generous with the City's funds, and in this case here you will be establishing a very bad precedent by allowing these people this new contract on that City lease. These leases are not made to be stretched or to be elastic. You are doing every property owner and taxpayer an injustice. You never dore it to any other individual taxpayer. I dont' know why you are going to show any favors to them in ths case.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, ycu have made that statement several times, and in order that you may know by view of it, this is not a tax problem, as I view it. Whether we like it or do not like it, the City is in the real estate business. It is a question of landlord and tenant, and I have tried to approach this the same as I know other landlords have had to approach similar situations during these trying times.

Mr. Zemel: That is true.

Mayor Congleton: If this ordinance is passed, getting down now to your taxpayers, I think that we are doing him a benefit.

Mr. Zemel: Any every other citizen an injustice. *

Mayor Congleton: No. Before we leased the market it was on the City's hands and was running at an annual loss of about a quarter of a million dollars, almost. We have saved that loss to the taxpayers, and if we even postpone these payments for the next three years we are not canceling them; we are postponing them and receiving interest annually on the postponed payments. We have wiped out the quarter of a million dollars loss and are getting $100,000 a year cash during these troublesome times, so the taxpayer as the landlord is reaping a benefit. We have got to do the same as I know many other landlords are doing, where there have been solemn leases, where they have not only voluntarily postponed, but reduced the rent, and I as one feel keenly that I should approach this proposition as a landlord would approach it if it were his own property.

Mr. Zemel: That is true. You just remarked that the City is in the real estate business, but it went in the real estate business on a giganic scale on June 3rd past when it took titles, tax titles, to thousands of pieces of property right in Newark, New Jersey, and the City did not show those people any mercy.

Mayor Congleton: We have showed them all the mercy that the law would permit.

Mr. Zemel: You penalized them and they could not afford to pay, and some of these sharks bought them in, and many a man, woman and child is out of a home today.

Mayor Congleton: No one who bought a piece of property in the tax sale of June 3rd has any right to possession to that property, and I do not believe that anyone has been turned out of their home on the land that was sold on June 3rd.

Mr. Zemel: But they are going to take title as soon as they can perfect their title.

Commissioner Howe: There is not a record of one this year or last year.

Mr. Zemel: They have a right to under the law.

Commissioner Howe: They did not do it.

Mr. Zemel: They did not do it?

Commissioner Howe: You cannot name one home, not one.

Mr. Zemel: Not one home?

Commissioner Howe: This year not last year.

Mr. Zemel: Gentlemen, I am surprised. I don't know. There are none so blind as those that won't see.

Commissioner Howe: That is your fault just now.

Mr. Zemel: That is one of the covenants in every mortgage that a building and loan or mortgage company or a bank takes. While you probably don't take it away, the mortgagee says, "You did not pay your taxes and you violated the covenants, and it is a reason for foreclosure on this."

Commissioner Howe: But do you know one home, one? Do you know one this year that was taken?

Mr. Zemel: Directly by you, no, but indirectly by the building and loan, the mortgage companies, and the banks.

Commissioner Howe: We are conducting our business strictly according to law and you have repeatedly said that yourself.

Mr. Zemel: Absolutely right, but it is wrong to show these people any more favors than you show the average citizen.

Mayor Congleton: You would prefer to have us keep this property and run the risk of its coming back on our hands, with an outlay of $250,000 on the taxpayers?

Mr. Zemel: Gentlemen, it was an outlay in the first place. I am here protesting.

Mayor Congleton: That is water over the dam. Some of us protested it then, but now we are confronted with a problem. I ask you what you would do.

Mr. Zemel: What every other mortgagor does—take it away.

Mayor Congleton: I hope that the City never will seek to take it away and that the City will never have to take it back on its hands.

Mr. Zemel: I also demand and ask for a bill of particulars as to how they stand on the City books, as to the rent at the present time. From what I understand, that does not look very good.

Mayor Congleton: They have been waiting for this matter to be settled. They have paid no rent, as I recall, since May 1.

Mr. Zemel: May 1st? Four months?

Mayor Congleton: They have been after the City on this proposition since then.

Mr. Zemel: They have got about $50,000 security up. The rent is $16,000 a month, and they have nearly eaten up the security, and still you insist that you are going to carry that at the City's expense.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

A petition signed by seven property owners, representing approximately eight hundred feet, protesting against the proposed ordinance for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Margaretta Street, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Edwin O. Stanley, Pitney, Hardin & Skinner, National Newark Building:

Mayor Congleton: When this matter was before us two weeks ago the protest was received and referred to the Assessment Board, as provided by law. They report that the protest is signed by more than two-thirds in value and frontage, which acts as a veto unless the Board of Commissioners deem that this is a public necessity. For the purpose of giving it further study along that line, the matter will be laid over for one week.

Mr. Stanley: Thank you. I am filing an additional protest, because in the first protest we found one signature was made by a wife instead of by a husband. This is to correct the record.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, as we are all aware, since our last meeting one of our foremost citizens has passed away, and we have prepared a proper and appropriate resolution. I will ask the City Clerk to read it.

WHEREAS, in the demise of Uzal H. McCarter, the City of Newark suffered a great loss in that the career of one of its foremost leaders and most distinguished citizens was terminated; and

WHEREAS, Throughout a full lifetime of indefatigable service in the world of banking, insurance and commerce, and in the welfare of the public, he occupied a dominating position by reason of his great personal force, his keen and penetrating intellect, his wide knowledge and learning and the high ideals of personal honor and integrity which governed all his activities; a foremost figure in his chosen field of banking, in which he achieved a national reputation, he also occupied a commanding position of the greatest importance among his contemporaries with respect to his activities in the development and progress of the City of Newark; and

WHEREAS, Charity toward his fellowmen and patriotism for his country were among his outstanding virtues; his entire span of life was especially noted for an unending stream of charitable acts in which his generous nature impelled him to give much of his worldly goods to those less fortunate, and which was climaxed by his leadership in community chest drives; and

WHEREAS, Uzal H. McCarter devoted many years of his life in unselfish service to the public, contributing much of value to the study and public discussions of contemporary affairs, and on many occasions giving unstintingly of his vigor, energy and strength toward the successful accomplishment of major public projects; this phase of his career was fittingly climaxed during and following the late War by his work as Chairman of the Liberty and Victory Loan Drives in Newark; toward the successful conclusion of which none of his contemporaries contributed more.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, New Jersey, on behalf of the people of this City, do hereby record this expression of the appreciation of Uzal H. McCarter for his life-time of enduring service to the City and to his fellowmen, their sense of community-loss occasioned by his passing, and their deep sympathy for the members of his family;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions suitably engrossed be presented to the bereaved family.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application of Joseph De Vizio (Livio Di Girolamo, owner) for the sale of gasoline from two portable tanks at the curb; premises 18 14th Avenue, for the period of one year from date, be laid over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Application of Eugene A. Ryan (Stanley Company of America, Owner) for the enlargement of an automobile parking station with entrance from Broad Street; premises 873-880 Broad Street; for the period of one year from date;

Mayor Congleton: Why do you want an entrance on Broad Street right there at that busy corner?

Mr. Eugene A. Ryan, 31 Clinton Street: I am the applicant on that. It will keep the congestion away somewhat from the corner of Lafayette and Broad Street.

Mayor Congleton: The automobiles can enter from Lafayette Street.

Mr. Ryan: They can enter from Lafayette Street, but it will save a lot of traffic at Broad and Lafayette Street if they go in on Broad Street before they reach the corner. As it now stands, there is a vacant lot there, and it is my intention if I am granted permission, to use that as an entrance. I will put up a fence that will be something worthwhile looking at, instead of having a vacant lot there.

Mayor Congleton: You can put up a sign showing that there is an entrance on Lafayette Street, which will accomplish the same purpose.

Mr. Ryan: No, sir.

Jennie H. Haveron: 892 Broad Street: I want to protest against that, if you don't mind. I represent the owner. That will be a precedent, because it is only for a year, and then this man who only has a temporary lease, at the end of that time someone will come up and put a garage there, and there will be a permanent driveway there.

Commissioner Murray: He will have to get special permission to do that.

Miss Haveron: We have property on that block.

Commissioner Gillen: Where is your property?

Miss Haveron: 892, the owner is Fajen.

Commissioner Howe: Where are you, Mr. Ryan?

Mr. Ryan: 878.

Commissioner Howe: You are near—

Mr. Ryan: Green Street.

Commissioner Howe: What effect would that have on your property?

Miss Haveron: It would have an effect. It is bad enough now.

(Discussion out of hearing of stenographer, and reference to blue-prints).

Mayor Congleton: We issued a permit here a while ago and suspended the rules for a theatre. They were going to go right ahead with it. We even suspended the rules for it.

Commissioner Murray: If business conditions had continued as they were at that time they might have put the theatre up.

Mayor Congleton: Well, they were going to put up a garage, too.

Commissioner Gillen moved that it be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the application of Antonio Blasi, owner, for the sale of gasoline from two portable tanks at the curb; premises 37 Norfolk Street; for a period of one year from date, be laid over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which the application was made be allowed:

Application of Umberto Borbotti and Nicola Fabbroni, owners, for the construction of four individual garages, on the real line of a corner lot; premises 160 Norman Road; on condition that face brick be used on all sides; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

A petition protesting against the erection of the proposed auto laundry at premises 929-931 Eighteenth Avenue, was received, read and on motion ordered filed. (Signed by 16 Residents).

The City Clerk presented the following resolution and stated that to-day was the time fixed for hearing on the same:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Benjamin Greenblatt, owner, for the construction of an automobile laundry; premises 929-931 Eighteenth Avenue; on condition that present ice depot is removed, and a five-foot steel wire fence be erected along the Carolina Avenue frontage;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED By the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this application?

Mr. A. W. Rosinger, 381 Ridge Street: Now, this, as I understand it, is a residential section. On either side of the street between 18th Avenue and University Place it is purely residential. There are no stores, no shops, anything of that kind. I understand that sometime ago a gasoline station was put on the southeast corner of 18th Avenue and Carolina Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: They have got a gasoline station on two corners there.

Mr. Rosinger: As I understand it, on 18th Avenue there is quite a congestion. The more of these concerns we bring there the more automobiles we will have there, the greater the congestion and the greater the danger to pedestrians and also to the automobiles themselves.

Mayor Congleton: There is no entrance on Carolina Avenue?

Mr. Rosinger: Well, as I understand it, this is coming on Carolina Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: There is no entrance on Carolina Avenue, as I read the memorandum given to us by the Building Board.

Mr. Rosinger: Well, it will come there, no question about it, and if it goes through it will certainly reduce the values of these properties.

Mayor Congleton: Eighteenth Avenue is a real thoroughfare and there isn't any question about that.

Mr. Rosinger: That is true.

Mayor Congleton: If you are going to have garages and gas stations, why, that is where they will have to go if we do not put them in residential sections. We are keeping them out of residential sections as much as we can.

Mr. Rosinger: If you put them in residential sections and if it destroys the value of the whole property on that street, would that be wise to do? That will happen here if this is done.

Mayor Congleton: I do not agree with you on that.

Mr. Rosinger: No matter where you put a gasoline station— and this is connected with an automobile laundry, which makes it worse yet. You have a petition before you that was signed, I think, by seventy per cent. of the residents right in this immediate neighborhood.

Mayor Congleton: It says only an automobile laundry. It says nothing about a gas station.

Mr. Rosinger: Well, an automobile laundry is worse than a gas station.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. E. L. Nugent, 140 Carolina Avenue: I object to it because I feel the same as the rest do, that it certainly is endangering the neighborhood there.

Mayor Congleton: I have been up there and I have been through that territory and I must say that I am almost convinced that a proper kind of building to conduct this business in will be a benefit to the property rather than what you have got there now.

Mr. Rosinger: Then, you must believe that a situation of that kind will promote the value of the residences rather than decrease it.

Mayor Congleton: I do not think it will decrease the value of your land, Mr. Rosinger, as much as what you have on that property now, a nasty, dirty-looking ice station.

Mr. Rosinger: Where?

Mayor Congleton: It is there now, right on this property.

Mr. Rosinger: All right, if that is a nuisance already, do not increase it, please. You would increase it.

Mayor Congleton: That is coming out. The ice depot is coming out.

Mr. Rosinger: I know, but will the other one recompense for that?

Mayor Congleton: It will, in my opinion, be an improvement on that property.

Mr. Rosinger: Nevertheless, I think it is wrong to grant it.

Mrs. Nugent: Gentlemen, what about the exit that is on Carolina Avenue now? Is that going to be closed?

Mayor Congleton: This permit is granted, if granted, on the condition that there is no entrance on Caroline Avenue.'

Mr. Irving Siegler, 164 Market Street: There will be a fence there.

Mrs. Nugent: I object to it because I think I will have cars around my house all day, which will be far from decorative.

Mr. Rosinger: I would also say that if this concerned any of your gentlemen here, or if any of you gentlemen were fortunate enough or unfortunate to live in any of these houses you would oppose it tooth and nail.

Commissioner Egan: I think that the citizens who own residences up in this section are entitled to a great deal of consideration. There are twenty-three homes in that neighborhood, in the vicinity of the proposed auto laundry. They seem to be all opposed to that laundry station. I am going to vote against it. I think that it should be given very serious consideration.

Mr. Rosinger: Here you have a petition with seventy per cent. of the immediate residents opposed to the station. Are they not worthy of any respect if they do not want it?

Mayor Congleton: We try to respect every citizen's rights, Mr. Rosinger, and it is a very unfair remark for you to make.

Mr. Rosinger: You try to put them aside.

Mayor Congleton: No, we do not try to put them aside, and if you as a citizen would attend a few more of these meetings as a citizen you would see that we do not try to put them aside. We try to give every citizen his day in court and to treat them courteously.

Mr. Rosinger: If you grant this you are displeasing the citizens of that whole street.

Mayor Congleton: That is your judgment.

Mr. Rosinger: Well, it is a fact. We have got it before you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard?

Mr. Siegler: Gentlemen, I might say the objection made by Mr. Rosinger, that most of the neighbors residing there have objected to this is not entirely accurate, in that there was presented to this Board a petition signed by almost as many persons who objected, and in the nature of value of properties owned by the persons who signed our petition, you will find they are far in excess of the values of those who failed to sign.

Mayor Congleton: What is the distance between the rear building and the rear line?

Mr. Siegler: Sixty-Five feet from any adjoining property and forty feet in from Carolina Avenue, and incidentally, Mr. Greenblatt owns the property which is sixty-five feet in the rear of the intended building. He owns the whole block around there.

Mayor Congleton: He owns the houses in the rear?

Mr. Siegler: He owns the houses in the rear of this particular laundry.

Mr. Ralph Acocella, 9 Clinton Street: I really think, gentlemen, that this building is not a business building; it is a building of an industrial nature, and the neighborhood does not demand it. I do not think it is an improvement at all on the neighborhood, and all these objectors look upon you to deny this application, because of the pride they have in their homes for which they have sacrificed so much.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication signed by twenty-five residents, storekeepers and property owners, dated August 17th, in the vicinity of West Kinney and Washington Streets, requesting the removal of the taxicab station now located at the northeast corner of West Kinney and Washington Streets, was received, read and on motion ordered referred to the Director of Public Safety.

A resolution dated August 17th, signed by twenty-two residents objecting to the appointment of three Rabbis as official inspectors of kosher goods in the City, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

A resolution adopted at a special meeting of the Federation of Kosher Butchers Association on August 18th, favoring the appointment of three Rabbis as official inspectors of kosher goods in the City of Newark, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

Mr. Noah Geiger, 554 Central Avenue: It has been announced that Director Murray would appoint three Rabbis to inspect the kosher meat of the Jewish butchers, the orthodox Jews have banded together for the purpose of protesting the action of the City officials of the City of Newark. The Constitution guarantees and especially requests that the government divide itself from the religion and any citizen has the right to worship to God as he sees fit.

Commissioner Murray: Dr. Geiger, pardon me, for interrupting, but the religion has nothing to do with it.

If you talk about the matter of kosher meat you have a right to be heard, otherwise not.

Dr. Geiger: This is a rabbinical controversy, because this matter has been brought to the City officials by a group of butchers who are banded together for the purpose of profiteering and upkeeping the price of kosher meat, because if they were the Jews who really are carrying out the Jewish principles they would never have banded together and come before you to request you to appoint three Rabbis that they desire to have.

Commissioner Murray: Are you an Orthodox Hebrew?

Dr. Geiger: Yes, sir, I feel highly honored to lead this movement.

Commissioner Murray: Why didn't you object to the statute that provided that there be no misrepresentation in the matter of kosher food in this state?

Dr. Geiger: This has nothing to do with any statute. This is a religious ritual and a custom that has absolutely nothing to do whatever with any statute.

Commissioner Murray: It has not been going on without any trouble.

Dr. Geiger: Yes, it has, until one Rabbi came to Newark and stirred up all this. We are not interested in any controversy. We want to take this matter out of the hands of the government and we feel we have a right to settle this matter ourselves because we know what it is all about.

Commissioner Egan: Doctor, didn't you think that you ought to take this matter up with Commissioner Murray? It is in his department.

Dr. Geiger: Well, it became a public matter, and these Jews feel that it should not have become a public matter, and they appeal to this Honorable Body for redress, inasmuch as they did not get any redress from Director Murray.

Commissioner Murray: Who did?

Dr. Geiger: We did.

Commissioner Murray: Did you ever try to get it? You don't know anything about. You didn't know anything about it then and you don't know anything about it now. You are talking about something you don't know anything about. You don't know what you are talking about.

Dr. Geiger: Didn't I write you a personal letter?

Commissioner Murray: I got it from you this morning.

Dr. Geiger: Well, I have written it last week. I have written a resolution that was adopted at our mass meeting.

Commissioner Murray: How many people were at your mass meeting?

Dr. Geiger: Three hundred, and I defy you or anyone else to tell me whether we had less than three hundred. We might have had more than three hundred. Now, this matter is a matter that can come before the City officials because it involves the Jewish citizens of this City, and this matter ought to be settled once and for all.

Mayor Congleton: I see that there is a difference of opinion among the Jews.

Dr. Geiger: Which they have a perfect right to, but they would not have to have a difference of opinion if a City official would not have injected himself into this issue.

Mayor Congleton: How can you say that you are right?

Commissioner Murray: Just a moment. I resent that. There has been no injection by a City official into this matter. The statute of New Jersey requires there be no misrepresentation in the selling of kosher food products. On the recommendation of Dr. Craster I appointed three Rabbis as a Committee, who will report any found violation of that statute. It hasn't anything to do with the religious end of it, except to see to the lawful observance of the State statute which was passed out of respect to the wishes of the Jewish population of this State. This action is taken to guarantee to the people of this City that when they buy something that is held out as kosher it is not going to be t'refah. T'refah meat has been bought and has been sold to orthodox Jews as kosher meat when it is not kosher meat. For your information, Dr. Geiger, this matter belongs in my department. It was done upon the recommendation of the Health Officer, sent to me in writing, and it has been set up for a period of six months to see how it works out. There is no compensation and there is no racketeering. It is going to act as a preventative of racketeering. I say again, it is a matter entirely with the Department of Public Health.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: The Jews that we represent here today are not affiliated with the butchers or with the synagogues, but just the general rank and file, which Jews feel that there has been a great injustice done, and we feel that Director Murray's arguments in favor of it are the arguments of the group which enlisted his support. First of all, the kosher statute to which Director Murray refers to is purely a statute to prevent fraud, and this is not in his department and never was. It belongs properly within the Police Department, within the province of the Director of the Department of Public Safety, if he chooses to make an issue of it.

Commissioner Murray: Just a minute. Isn't the Department of Health nothing but a Police Department that does that work under the Health Department?

Mr. Handler: Under this statute it is not. In this statute it says, "It shall be a fraud for anyone to wilfully sell t'refah food under representation of kosher food." Whether an article is kosher or t'refah has nothing to do with sanitation. Food can be clean or unclean and still be not kosher. It may be clean food but t'refah, but if a sign on a window says kosher it becomes a matter for the Police on complaint.

Now, the situation boils down to this: That for years, for thousands of years, the Jews have followed this religious principle involving kosher foods. It is purely a part of their religious laws and not part of the civil laws. They have relied upon the Rabbis to be their representatives and judge whether or not a butcher is killing kosher meat. A butcher states that this Rabbi or that Rabbi has approved of his meat and the people recognize this Rabbi or that Rabbi and rely upon the Rabbi to protect them, but by the appointment of an official with the official badge, who can come into a butcher, we Jews feel that it is not only within the authority of the religion upon which we are relying, but it is outside the authority of the government, and our Jewish laws are full of documents to the effect that the Rabbis shall not seek the support of the civil arm of the government to state within their religion. Now, in the particular case at hand the people who are behind this, who have wanted their support, are none other but the Federation of Kosher Butchers, sitting here. (Applause). Now, observe the situation. The Rabbi is appointed to watch over the kosher butchers, that they should not sell t'refah meats. Is it fair, is it reasonable to the Jews, to have these Rabbis or to have these butchers select their watchers? It would be the same as if you had a Republican Board of Elections, and instead of having Democrats they would appoint Republicans to count. That is no reflection on either side, of course. Now, furthermore, these butchers who have banded together in the association are organized purely for their own protection in their pockets economically. If they can get a Rabbi of their own choosing to have the final word to say, those Rabbis will not bother them, but they will bother the people who do not belong to their Federation. As an example, and without any reflection whatsoever, but the fact will speak for itself, a certain butcher who does not belong to the Federation got up at this mass meeting Monday and he stated—he made some personal remarks about some people personally, but we won't mention them, but what I want to state is that one butcher was singled out of all the butchers in Newark and brought to court by the Health Department, and when he got to court the Judge dismissed it because it was without merit at all. Why, out of all the butchers in Newark, pick out this man? That is the sort of thing which will develop. The people are talking about it now. I do not say that it is persecution, but they will link one with the other. It will cause dissension among the Jews and it will not redound to the confidence of the Jews in this ward.

If the Jews unanimously had come to Director Murray and said, "Director Murray, please act as arbitrator for us and select somebody for us, it would be a different matter, but I doubt whether a Rabbi honorable to his trust as a Rabbi to the Jewish religion would violate the tenets or dictum of our Jewish law and come to ask an outsider for assistance. If the Jews unanimously did that, it would be another question. We ask this body to kindly call a conference on it and see if this question cannot be separated from the control and regulation of any civil body. (Applause).

Mr. Jacob Lipman, 17 Academy Street: The Federation of Butchers has requested me to present a resolution which was adopted last night. Now, the State of New Jersey has seen fit to pass a law making criminal what has always been unmoral. Misrepresentation is unmoral, whether there is any law upon the subject or not, and we understand that the laws are the crystalization of public opinion. The State has seen fit, for the benefit of the Jewish bodies of that State, to see that what was formerly unmoral shall now be not only unmoral but criminal as well. No attempt is being made by the Director's move, as I understand it, or by the statute, to say what shall or shall not be kosher meats. That will be determined by age-old and long-established custom, and no attempt will be made to disturb them.

Now, the resolution which I shall present was adopted unanimously by a group of 110 kosher butchers, and there are in Newark at the present time 120 butchers. It is very strange that of 120 men in this business 110 of them are willing to say to you, "Yes, we are perfectly willing to show you our hands. We are perfectly willing to have you supervise our business. We are perfectly willing that you examine our ice boxes," particularly because they know it is right. They say that without your supervision they are obeying the law, and it is these few that do not obey it, and they object. What reasonable objection can there be?

Last night a statement was made by a gentleman, and I take this statement as indicative of what the situation is. I will read it aloud. (Here the speaker read the statement). These 100 men, gentlemen, came to you because they have been faced continuously by ruthless competition that is based upon unmoral and criminal misrepresentation, and they say that they are willing to go on as they have gone in obeying not only the written law but the law of their hearts.

Gentlemen, I say to you that any objection is voiced in bad faith. They come to you with the same degree of faith that they have exercised in their own business. If I may, gentlemen, I will take another moment in reading the resolution which expresses the sentiment of this group. (Mr. Lipman read the resolution.) (Applause.)

Mr. David Goldberg, 54 Watson Avenue: I have been a social worker in the City of Newark for fifteen years. I have organized the Federation of Kosher Butchers in the City of Newark and have been their executive president. It is no use for you to go into any of these details, but what occurred six or eight months ago when the split between the two Rabbis in the City of Newark took part. Twenty-five of us did not agree to the recognition of this Rabbi. We organized into a different organization and called it the United Kosher Butchers of the City of Newark, which is 35 or 40 men. The minute we did that all doors to us are closed for the purchase of merchandise. Until this day, as a taxpayer of the City of Newark, I cannot purchase any kosher meat in the City of Newark, because I do not recognize Rabbi Konowitz. Furthermore, I was trying to get in touch with Commissioner Egan and waited at his door a number of hours; but it was not his fault, it was my own. I did not know he was out.

I was called on the phone, "Look out for yourself. Keep you mouth shut." On the 3rd day of July I was notified on the telephone, "Goldberg leave town for three days. We are your friends. We want to make $300." It was on the 3rd of July, I went to Coney Island. I came home. They said, "Have your head tied up with a handkerchief. Sit by your door and he will turn it over." I said, "Who are you?" They said, "Never mind, have your hands bandaged up and your head tied up." Well, it was around the third day of July, so I said to my wife, "I will take that vacation and go to Corey Island." I came back, and three days later I tied my head up and I sat in front of the door and watched, and a certain party passed by, which, if it will come to Commissioner Egan's office, he will know where it was. Within 24 hours I got a telephone call and they said, "We collected it. Thank you." So that is what is going on in the City of Newark today. There is a monopoly trying to come into the City of Newark, as citizens and taxpayers we must clear this monopoly out of the City of Newark. That must be a picture for the entire United States that such things cannot take place in the City of Newark, that a man should come on a platform where you buy poultry and say, "Give me $300." and that money was marked. Commissioner Egan knows that case. That fellow took that money from that man. They are going to throw these people out of that market because they do not recognize certain Rabbis. I do not know what has happened to that case. I suppose it has been squashed, it has been thrown away.

Commissioner Egan: What has been squashed?

Mr. Goldberg: I don't say it was squashed. Maybe it is working so that they could get around and get the right party, but it is a fact that it is in existence. I am telling the truth, nothing but the truth, so help me God. About two years ago or so some people came and asked for this from this body and Commissioner Murray said, "I will not give it to you." He took a very fine stand. We had a dispute. We had a fight. It cost the butchers about $11,000. About three weeks ago we came to Commissioner Murray's office and we told him the same difficulty was there. He said, "It is. I agree with you. As long as there is Jews in the City I will remain the same in this action. I will stay out of it." All of a sudden Commissioner Murray comes out and makes the butchers, who are 25 or 30 butchers in the City of Newark, who have been guided by Rabbi Mendelson, and says he will send such and such religious inspectors to us, and we will not under any circumstances, whether it comes from individuals or whether it comes from Washington, recognize them, because it is a religious question. Everybody wanted to change it, but there is only one thing that can change it, that is the Jewish bible.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Goldzerg, you have left the impression that in another matter, purely a police matter that has nothing to do with this matter which you are talking about, the Police Department stated a case having to do with the poultry business in Newark. Now, I would like to have you tell the Commission publicly, if you will, what you know about it, so that the press will not create the impression that the Police Department squashed a particular case which has been handled safely in that department.

Mr. Goldberg: I agree with the Commissioner. I really expressed it in a wrong way. and I think that the Commissioner is working that out in this particular way, and I will give myself over to the Commissioner Murray. I pointed out how that is being worked out underhanded in the City of Newark.

Commissioner Egan: You have talked about this $300. that was passed in marked money. The Police Department was functioning in the case. You have said that it was squashed and that is why I have raised the question. What do you mean by "squashed"? You said you would come back to it later, but you didn't. In order to have the record complete will you tell the gentlemen of the City Commission what you have in mind and what you know about that case?

Mr. Goldberg: When this occurred a number of our members of the organization thought that they were relieved already and that the doors be wide open without disturbance, they will be able to go to the public and sell their merchandise and so forth. Every day, every week, they have been waiting and waiting that something should happen, and I asked that this party that has been involved in it, and he said, "It is in the Police Department's hands." I came down to our organization. I said, "Sometimes you have got to leave these things go. It is a lot of things. It is a delicate question. You have got to leave it in the hands of the Police Department." We thought maybe they would not do anything about it. I myself have threatened to go to Commissioner Egan to find out, but I have indirectly told that Commissioner Egan is taking active work and is working underground to get somebody up above. He wants the big fellow, not the little fellow. This is the way we feel about it, and we wish you great success in doing it, Commissioner, and we don't feel about it any other way.

Commissioner Egan: What about the $300. that was marked money?

Mr. Goldberg: The $300. that was marked money? I don't know what you mean. It was given to the party. This party was caught and was put under arrest, and it is in the hands of your department to investigate. Isn't that what you want?

Commissioner Murray: Was that kosher meat or kosher poultry?

Mr. Goldberg: Kosher meat or kosher poultry is the same thing.

We buy poultry the same as kosher meat.

Commissioner Murray: I know. Is that case to which you refer here confined to kosher poultry racketeers?

Mr. Goldberg: It is not confined to the poultry racketeers. We have them in the meat the same as we have them in the poultry.

Commissioner Murray: Can you name the meat-dealing racketeers?

Mr. Goldberg: I name the entire Federation of kosher butchers in the City of Newark as a racketeering organization in the City of Newark as compelling and dictating to the City of Newark what they want them to do.

Commissioner Murray: That can be referred to the Federation of Kosher Butchers. They can refer to that.

Commissioner Egan: It might be well for me to have on the record a statement about this matter that Mr. Goldberg indicated in his discussion. Some four weeks ago a citizen and a butcher complained to me about being improperly treated in his business of butcher and poultry dealer. The matter was immediately handled by the Police Department, and there seemed to appear all the elements of a racket. The next morning — this gentleman came to my house in the evening — I immediately telephoned Police Headquarters and turned him over to the Detective Bureau. The matter was handled without delay and there was an amount of money passed hands the next morning, having to do with the sale of poultry, and we did have in police headquarters on that day the wholesale commission men, the wholesale butchers and some retail butchers. They are all well guarded legally. The matter is still under investigation.

As I said before, it has all the earmarks of a racket. What the ultimate outcome will be is a question, but we did find, and I say this now publicly, so that the record will be complete, that unless one is affiliated with at least three organizations his opportunity to do business in the poultry and meat line in Newark is rather slim. We did find, subtly effective the treatment accorded to a butcher who did not sympathize with the rules of the organization. A decoy was used in the form of a young lady, who went into his shop to buy a chicken, and while he was preparing the chicken, with his head turned from the front of the store, according to his statement, he was attacked physically and beaten badly. There are at least two other instances along that same line.

The matter has been aired to a great extent in the courts, as I understand it. Some features of it are now being considered in the Court of Chancery of New Jersey. Even though it is well covered with rules and regulations of an organized type, it does bear some marks of racketeering activities. It has nothing to do, however, with the question of kosher or t'refah meat, in so far as the Department of Public Safety is concerned.

I say this at this time, Mr. Mayor, so that the record will be complete. Mr. Goldberg spoke extemporaneously, a bit excitedly, and dropped part of his remark, and the story would not be complete if I did not give this explanation to the Commission officially, so that it would be a part of the record.

Mr. L. Gardner, 369 Hawthorne Avenue: I only want to say a few words. This gentleman, Dave Goldberg, came here with a story accusing the Federation of Kosher Butchers as racketeers and that they want to racketeer this business and raise prices, and so forth. He came here with a story that he was called on the telephone and threatened several times and that he bandaged himself and that he had to go out of the City for two or three days and did that, but the fact is that the President of the Federation of Kosher Butchers was criminally attacked and beaten up a few weeks ago. The Police Department knows about that. Now, the fact is that our President, Mr. Kuskin, was beat up, not that he was threatened, but that it was fulfilled. Mr. Goldberg comes here with a story and says that he was threatened but nobody did anything to him.

The Federation of Kosher Butchers consists of 110 members, and all we are interested in is that each and every member represents himself as a kosher meat dealer to sell kosher food. Kosher meat costs at all times a few cents more, five or six, sometimes ten cents more a pound more than non-kosher meat. The trouble between the Jewish butchers always arises on this here competition.

Commissioner Murray: Did I ever ask or consult or know anything about these kosher butchers association before this was done? You never came near me and asked me for anything.

Mr. Gardner: No.

Commissioner Murray: You have not yet?

Mr. Gardner: No. That matter was taken up with the City Health Department, and as far as I could understand, Dr. Craster recommended that these Rabbis should be appointed as Kosher meat inspectors. (Here the speaker made a personal mention).

Mayor Congleton: We do not want to get into any personalities. We have here a matter that we want to discuss. We will listen to it, but we do not want to get into personalities.

Mr. Gardner: All I want to say to all the slaughter houses in the City of Newark, and the slaughter houses outside the City of Newark, and this here statement which Mr. Roth, the manager of Swift & Co. made last night, is true, and we can prove it which people sell non-kosher meat. The Federation of Kosher Butchers ask the City Commissioners to do what is right with these appointments. we will support them. We are very thankful to the City Commissioners for doing this, because we think that this will help to put the business on a right stand, and that no butcher will be able to sell t'refah meat as kosher meat. (Applause).

Mayor Congleton: Has any other person any other matter to take up with the City Commission?

Mr. L. G. Huttlevaite, 105 Third Street, discussed the spread of infantile paralysis. He referred to conditions in 1916.

Mayor Congleton: That was in 1916, but will you get down to the present day, as to what you think we ought to do, what you have on your mind?

Mr. Huttlevaite then mentioned the possibility of milk contamination.

Commissioner Murray: Do you know that in Newark there is none but pasteurized milk coming in?

Mr. Huttlevaite: If you will consult, as I have, with chemists — you don't necessarily have to be a Doctor — you will find that pasteurization in my estimation is bunk.

Commissioner Egan: May I suggest that you confer with Commissioner Murray on it? I know that you will find in Newark a very fine supervision on the question of milk. If you have any particular points or suggestions Commissioner Murray will be glad to discuss them with you.

Commissioner Murray: If you have any data to show that pasteurization does not degerminate the milk and destroy the harmful bacteria in it, I would like to have you submit that to Dr. Connell, who is bacteriologist of the Department of Public Health, and who has no superior in the country, who said, by the way, that pasteurization does kill the germs.

Mr. Huttlevaite: All right.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the matter be referred to Commissioner Murray.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved to adjourn.

The Board of Commissioners of
the City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., August 26, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioners Egan, and Gillen.

The minutes of meeting of August 19th, 1931 were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating the sale of returned Bakery Products and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to vacate portions of Market Street, Railroad Place, Commerce Street, Abel Street, New South Canal Street, and Ramond Plaza West, and to vacate and extinguish public rights, if any, in land occupied by the elevated railroad and structure of the United New Jersey Railroad and Canal Company, all within an area bounded as follows: On the southwest by a line parallel to and distant ninety (90) feet measured at right angles, from the proposed Southerly line of Market Street, which line is described as follows: Beginning at a point in the southerly line of Market Street distant 22.81 feet from the easterly line of Alling Street measured South  $73^{\circ} 59' 30''$  East along the Southerly line of Market Street, as it now exists, thence South  $73^{\circ} 47' 10''$  East; on the Northwest by a line parallel to and distant 125 feet measured Southeasterly at right angles from the Northwesterly line of Raymond Plaza West as the same is laid out from Commerce Street northerly to Raymond Boulevard; on the Northeast by the Southerly line of Raymond Boulevard; and on the Southeast by the Northwesterly line of former Commercial Street, now Raymond Plaza East, excepting from the above described area to be vacated the following described triangular strip, now or formerly of Charles Zemel, et al.; Beginning at a point in the northerly line of Market Street in the division line between land now or formerly of Charles Zemel, et al, known as 323 to 327 Market Street and land now or formerly of Victory Realty Co, known as Nos. 329 to 329½ Market Street, said beginning point being distant 165.71 feet measured easterly along the northerly line of Market Street from the northwesterly corner of Raymond Plaza West and Market Street; thence along said division line north  $0^{\circ} 47' 15''$  west 3.26 feet; thence south  $47^{\circ} 27' 25''$  west 5.01 feet to the northerly line of Market Street; thence along the same north  $88^{\circ} 02' 45''$  east 3.41 feet to the place of Beginning, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until September 9th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the resurfacing of Broome Street from Springfield Avenue to West Kinney Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on the old existing brick pavement prepared as a foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Michael Levine, 93 Mercer Street: In reference to the repaving of Broome Street, today it is paved with brick, and it really does not need to be resurfaced. There are probably a few little spots on Broome Street from Springfield Avenue to West Kinney Street. The rentals up there are so small that they cannot even meet the obligations that is required of the owners there. The owners of the property between Springfield Avenue and West Kinney Street would only wish that they were in a position that they would come down and tell you to do so, but today it is absolutely one that is a hardship for each and everyone of us, and it really does not need the paving today.

Mayor Congleton: I will tell you what we will do. We will lay it over for two weeks, and I will make a personal inspection and see if it is as you say, although I do not doubt it.

Commissioner Murray: They are under a lot of stress there. They cannot collect the rents where the houses are occupied, and to put an extra expense on them, I think, would be out of order.

Mr. Levine: I think it is very kind of you to give it consideration.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until September 9th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication from Samuel S. Offen protesting against the ordinance providing for the resurfacing of Broome Street, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving, and repaving of Market Street from Mulberry Street to Raymond Plaza West with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new 6" concrete foundation and on the old concrete base repaired and/or built up as required outside the street railway track area and with granite block pavement on a new concrete foundation within the street railway track area, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I shall not talk at length. I appear here in opposition to that part of the ordinance which provides that the improvement shall be undertaken as a local improvement and a part of the cost thereof assessed against the property which is so-called peculiarly benefited. As a property owner on Market Street, we felt that as far as we are concerned—and I think the other property owners join with me—that there is no need in repaving Market Street as it stands today. Certainly the property owners on Market Street have not petitioned this body to repave or regrade or recurb Market Street. If there is any need for making these alterations on Market Street, such reasons arise by reason of the changes which are taking place in the vicinity with the hope or expectation that they will benefit the entire community, because, I say, the Market Street Merchants have not asked for it. We feel that these things ought not to be saddled upon us because we happen to be so unfortunate as to own property on Market Street.

A number of improvements have been made there, improvements that are such that must have contained this clause that the property peculiarly benefited should be assessed. Now, there have been at least two or three of these improvements put through. How many more are coming we do not know, so we do feel that with such taxes as we have there now, with the assessments which we will necessarily have to meet with the other improvements, that we are very much at a point where we are ready to say, "One more improvement and we are ruined." We do not want our property taken away. We want nothing for nothing, but we feel that inasmuch as this ordinance, if passed, will benefit the entire community as a whole and will aid in the transportation system of Newark, that we ought not to be assessed for the improvement.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, Mr. Zemel, you will be assessed for only a very small part. We will take it that the major part will be recognized as a general improvement.

Mr. Zemel: It will be recognized as a general improvement?

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes. The mere fact that the ordinance is worded as it is done so that the Assessment Commission may make an assessment if they think that the improvement is a benefit to some small extent. If we did not put the ordinance through this way they could not assess a penny. If you will just look and see how it has been done in the repaving of Washington Street and Broad Street you will see that the City has been very, very lenient and fair.

Mr. Zemel: All right. I am sorry that I have been laboring under a misapprehension.

Mayor Congleton: That is all right.

No one else appearing, Commissioner Howe moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging, paving and repaving of Market Street from Mulberry Street to Raymond Plaza West with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on an new 6" concrete foundation and on the old concrete base repaired and/or built up as required outside the street railway track area and with granite block pavement on a new concrete foundation within the street railway track area.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Commissioner Murray: Before we come to that, Mr. Mayor, I should like to say that inasmuch as the President of the United States has indicated a plan of action relative to unemployment relief during the coming winter, it seems quite proper at this time to suggest that we take our unemployment relief committee, which has already been functioning very, very actively and very successfully for almost a year, and request that they sit with the City Commission at a time agreeable and convenient to themselves, and that at such conference between the City Commission and the unemployment relief committee, such steps be taken as might call for co-operation and perhaps an enlargement of the unemployment relief committee in co-ordination with the plan that has been laid down by President Hoover. I think none of us is at all pessimistic, but we are not crossing the bridge before we come to it in a case of this kind, because we have the signs that seem to show that the coming winter will not be comfortable, and inasmuch as it is the far-sighted thought on the part of the President of the United States to create this unemployment relief organization, it might be well for Newark, which already has taken the step in advance, as have many other places, to put itself in a position to cooperate with the President of the United States, if it be the desire of this Commission that we shall so do.

Mayor Congleton: I think that is a very wise suggestion from Mr. Murray. I am in full accord with it. We leave it to you, Mr. Murray, to get in touch with Mr. Harlin and arrange a conference at a time convenient to them. I know that we will all be glad to sit with you and do whatever we can.

Commissioner Murray: All right, I will take it upon myself to do that.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Thomas J. Sherlock, 81 Chelsea Avenue (Representing the Ironworkers' Union, Local No. 11): Mr. Mayor and City Commissioners, I am here on a matter that I have been in conference with different people, in regard to the City of Newark, for a number of weeks, a number of months, the wrecking job on the corner of Plane and Academy Street. The man that received the contract from the City of Newark, by the name of Honixfeld, the wrecker, is not wrecking that job, and I want the City Commissioners, if they will, to investigate who is wrecking that job. Through some maneuver a man named Moch from Albany—he could not get insurance to wreck that job. The insurance is carried by a wrecker from Albany, by the name of Eaton. They are hiring labor there for thirty-five cents an hour, a ten-story building, the first in the City of Newark, and nobody is responsible for wrecking that job. I would like to have the City Commissioners to find out who is responsible for wrecking that job. They were working ten hours a day, six days a week, which is against the State law, and no citizens, six trucks from Albany with Jersey licenses on them, and the protest is that it is non-union labor. I would like to have the City Commissioners investigate and see who is wrecking that job.

Mayor Congleton: I will be very glad to take it up. The contract let does not permit a sub-letting of the contract without the consent of the City, and I have not been asked to give a consent to any sub-contractor. I have no knowledge that the work is being done by any one other than the men that wreck the building. So far as being responsible is concerned, the City has a bond to cover it on the matter. I shall take it up and look into it.

Mr. Sherlock: Mr. Mayor, the bond for wrecking the job is not to the Honixfeld Company. It has been changed in the City of Newark to a new corporation, and the people that got the bond out to wreck that job is a man named Eaton from Albany.

Mayor Congleton: I have no knowledge that there has been any substitution of any bond to the City. I will look into it.

Mr. Sherlock: Thank you.

Commissioner Murray offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: We have learned with profound sorrow of the death of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Charles A. Egan, brother of our colleague, Commissioner William J. Egan.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That we record this expression of appreciation of our departed friend, and that we extend our deepest sympathy to the members of the bereaved family in their hour of grief.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating the sale of returned bakery products and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Green, 42 Schuyler Avenue, spoke in favor of the sale of "returned" bread, rolls and cake. He said that the low price was a boon to poor people. He displayed a loaf of bread.

Commissioner Murray: Who wrapped that loaf?

Mr. Green: I wrapped it in this paper. It comes in a case and we wrap it in paper or put it in a paper bag.

Commissioner Murray: You wrapped it yourself?

Mr. Green: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: How long has that been in your store?

Mr. Green: This came last night.

Commissioner Murray: Where did you get it?

Mr. Green: I wouldn't want to mention the name. In private I will tell you.

Commissioner Murray: Is it from a Newark bakery?

Mr. Green: Yes, sir, absolutely. All this is Newark goods, manufactured in Newark.

Commissioner Murray: Are you a baker?

Mr. Green: No, sir. I have a store of this kind.

Commissioner Murray: You don't know how long that keeps?

Mr. Green: Well, I have been selling it seven months.

Commissioner Murray: That happens to be one day old. What have you got to show that this is one day old and this is four days old?

Mr. Green: I could prove I bought this last Friday, not before that.

Commissioner Murray: Does the customer who buys it know?

Mr. Green: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: You tell him?

Mr. Green: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Howe: Do you have fresh goods in addition to that?

Mr. Green: I have fresh bread, fresh rolls, and so on,

Commissioner Howe: In addition to that?

Mr. Green: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: No mark to distinguish them?

Mr. Green: I just brought this to you so you can examine it.

Commissioner Murray: Under this ordinance they would be obliged to clip one inch off of the corner so as to show it was not fresh.

Commissioner Howe: And at the same time to get the cheaper bread.

Commissioner Murray: They will get the cheaper bread, but they could not by any chance slide along the shelf yesterday's stuff next to this stuff.

Commissioner Howe: What objection have they got to doing that?

Commissioner Murray: The very bakery they are buying from is in favor of this ordinance.

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: This ordinance as drawn, forbids people like this man selling it at all. It only permits the bakery companies to sell it. This forbids a certain class to sell it entirely with no legitimate distinction.

Mr. Green: I have other packages here, if you wish to see it. It is all here and it is all in good shape.

Commissioner Murray: Did any Health Inspector ever take your stuff away?

Mr. Green: No. They came down and bought a couple of pieces of goods, which I can prove it.

Commissioner Murray: Well, there are other gentlemen who want to be heard and I move we hear them, and then I will move that we adjourn it for a week.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Edward D. Weiss, 142 Prince Street: We up in the Third Ward in Prince Street supply thousands of poor families with bread by selling this merchandise for four cents, three for ten cents, where in another store they have to pay a price of seven cents a loaf. I don't think it is right for the City to put an ordinance through to stop the sale of this bread or any other sale object.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Samuel Kopatonsky, 167 Spruce Street, spoke in favor of marking "returned" bread, using code marks. He favored time limits on such goods, also penalties for violation in sales.

Mayor Congleton: Do you want to say anything further?

Mr. Kopatonsky: No, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Are you a merchant?

Mr. Kopatonsky: Yes, sir. I believe you will recall I was here on August 19th.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else want to be heard?

Mrs. Ruth Schneitzer, 228 Price Street, favored the sale of "returned" bread and bakery products.

Commissioner Murray: Do you sell anything except stale breads?

Mrs. Schneitzer: We sell fresh stuff too.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard?

Mr. Louis Retberg, 70 Hawthorne Avenue: Gentlemen: I represent the Horbach Baking Company. We are house-to-house bakers and we have about fifty routes that run through Essex, Morris and Union counties. People have been trying to buy our bread that has been unsold. We do not believe that that should be done unless it is particularly marked. Bread, when it is baked in the summer time, at the very extreme, is good for thirty-six hours. We may stretch it to forty-eight hours. Our plan is that when the bread has not been sold during the day we dispose of it at night to our trade, or to the people in the neighborhood, at sixty cents on the dollar, and the next day's bread what is left over we deliver to the Newark Rescue Home, Salvation Army, free of charge. We feel there are so many destitute people that the bread that is left over should really be given for charity and not sold for that small sum, as I understand, a cent and a half to the wholesaler, which in turn are sold by these people who are dealing in second-hand goods for about four and one half cents. If the poor people need bread the Newark Rescue Home, Salvation Army, and any amount of these rescue homes, will give it to them gratis. We are in back of that movement, that any bread or cake that is unsold after two days should be marked when it is packed and where it was packed. Mr. Sharwell mentioned that recently to me, that he went through some of these stores and he found the cake moldy, and that is his idea why he wants this bill passed, so that bread or cake that is moldy cannot be sold to the detriment of the people's health, and that is why I am heartily in favor of this bill to see that all second-hand bakery goods should be marked when they were packed and when they were packed. We don't see the need to letting these people sell it, although it is against our principles. We will not resell unsold stuff; we would rather give it to charity and rather do it than some of these fellows are selling it to the farmers for pig food when there are so many thousands of people in the City who need it. Gentlemen, we are heartily in favor of the bill.

Commissioner Murray: The point about it is, this man who spoke a few minutes ago and read these suggestions, gave us some food for thought and it cannot be disregarded. I will be in favor of having the Health Department taking the ordinance in conjunction with these suggestions and seeing whether or not without taking the teeth out of the ordinance we might incorporate the suggestions in it. There isn't any question of the absolute necessity for the regulation of these products. It has been abused. Food that is absolutely rotten has been held for sale and has been condemned and destroyed. In some cases I have no doubt it is true that the Inspectors have made visits to these establishments, bought the stale goods, had them tested in the laboratories and ~~found them all right. In other cases~~ they found that they were not fit for human consumption. And the difficulty of locating responsibility for food poisoning is almost insurmountable in cases where there is no method of tracing back the source of supply. It is necessary to do it so as to find out whether the difficulty arose when the bread was freshly made, or when the other food was prepared, and it is impossible to tell when a loaf of bread is made unless it is put in a sealed package, properly marked by the name of the producer so you can follow it to its ultimate determination. This ordinance will have to go through possibly in some modified form, if the circumstances and the food and drug commission approve it; but the necessity for it is so complete and the attitude of the bakers generally is so eminently fair on the proposition, that I think no harm can be done by laying over for one week for the purpose of giving full consideration to these very intelligent suggestions given by this man who spoke a few minutes ago. They may not be adopted because they may clash with the contents of the ordinance. And I think perhaps we had better lay it over for two weeks, because next week we have Labor Day and there will be a number of people away.

I move that further consideration of this ordinance be deferred for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murriay, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark on July 15, 1931, introduced an ordinance entitled "~~An ordinance to provide for~~" the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Margaretta Street from Avenue "L", easterly about 433 feet, with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation;

AND WHEREAS objection to the adoption of said ordinance has been made by the owners of two third (2/3) in value of the lands proposed to be assessed for benefits accruing from said improvement;

Newark, N. J. August 18th, 1931.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor of the City of Newark,
Newark, N. J.

Honorable Sir:—

The Jewish citizens of this city pin their faith in you as Mayor and a "real free thinking American." They know that you will want and will be on the just side of the Kosher question. We, therefore, address the inclosed resolution to you in the hope that will use your good office in bringing about a reconsideration of the appointment.

With this hope in mind, we are,

Respectfully yours,

Vaad Hakashruth of Newark,

J. E. Willner,
c/o Hoffman Furniture Co.,
33 Market Street.

Referred to Commissioner Murray.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Commissioner Murray: I would like to suggest, Mr. Mayor, because of these various pending matters, that they ought to receive a good deal of attention. We have got the unemployment situation to face and we ought to marshal our assets as well as possible; we have got the purchasing department matters, which will take a good deal of time, and we have got the Submarine Boat plant. I think we have got so much to do that we ought to give a whole day to those things and clear them up.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, while we were at the meeting, some three weeks ago a matter was submitted in conference having to do with the erection of a fire house on Eighteenth Avenue and it was reported by Commissioner Gillen, and further reported to him by the architect and contractor, that a condition discovered underground made it look necessary to spend approximately $25,000 if we were to erect that building on that site. I have had offered to me informally several sites, the average I would say would be around $20,000 for a plot about that size. In conference with Commissioner Gillen and his architect it was explained that if another site were purchased it would be likely to involve extras in any event for the reason that the stone for this particular fire house had already been cut, and other things had already been done based on the grade of the lot, and so on. The report of Commissioner Gillen to me shows that the cost of constructing the fire house on this site would be a little outside of $25,000. Now, if we dispose of that lot it will cost us, as I understand it from Commissioner Gillen, for the work already done and the re-filling of the lot, approximately $5,000, and there is some work already done that we would have to pay for. And checking it all up, without going into details on figures, it would seem to me we would be better off if we could get this lot in condition for a price outside of $25,000, to use the lot that we already have than to dispose of the lot we have now.

Commissioner Howe: If you want to sell it to anyone else it stands us over $19,000 now.

Commissioner Murray: And we have knowledge of conditions there and you would have to provide for the flood water there.

Commissioner Howe: I would not want to buy it from the City.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Rankin told me in conversation we would be likely to strike the same condition in any piece of property in that immediate neighborhood, and Mr. Pellecchia, in conference with the architect, told me they struck the same condition in the Ivy Street School, which had to be water-proofed at extra cost. I dislike to see extras go in—

Commissioner Howe: It would save money in the end.

Commissioner Egan: I do not think you could save money by buying another lot. I have had lots offered to me for as high as $25,000 and as low as $18,000, and then I have had groups of residents who thought the fire house was going to be located in their immediate neighborhood, who said, "Don't put it here, we don't want it next to our home." But taking the whole thing up, Commissioner Gillen and I are of the same mind, that we would not save any money if we got another lot.

Commissioner Murray: That resolution went through this morning, didn't it?

Commissioner Gillen: After our conference I had the resolution prepared.

Commissioner Murray: What are we going to do, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen about this conference?

Mayor Congleton: We can fix a date for the conference. There are several matters pending that will take quite some time.

Commissioner Gillen: Can we hold the conference right after the meeting now?

Commissioner Egan: I do not think so.

Mayor Congleton: We ought to start in the morning sometime and stick to these various things as long as it is necessary.

Commissioner Egan: We have matters that are going to require a great deal of consideration and a great deal of time in discussion. You take your relief situation, that is very serious.

Commissioner Murray: If we could make it a week from tomorrow and put the day to it, that would be a more satisfactory conclusion.

Commissioner Egan: I move you, Mr. Mayor, that we confer, starting at two P. M. on Wednesday, the 9th of September.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk,

Newark, N. J., September 9, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of September 2nd were read and approved.

WHEREAS: The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark in their judgment deem it advisable that a new building line shall be established along the southerly side of Chestnut Street from Broad Street easterly to Mulberry Street, and on the northerly and southerly sides of Chestnut Street from Mulberry Street easterly to State Highway Route No. 21, and have directed the preparation of a map describing the location of such proposed building line for presentation to this Board; and

WHEREAS: Such map has been prepared and is now presented to the Board for approval;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that a map entitled, "Chestnut Street Setback Line from Broad Street to State Highway Route No. 21," dated July 13, 1931, and designated Map No. 1323-O, be and the same is hereby approved; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That no building or part thereof whatsoever shall continue to stand between the present southerly line of Chestnut Street and the newly established line on the southerly side of said street from Broad Street easterly to Mulberry Street, nor between both the present northerly and southerly lines of Chestnut Street and the newly established lines on the northerly and southerly sides of said street from Mulberry Street easterly to State Highway Route No. 21; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That said improvement shall be taken as a local improvement, and the cost thereof shall be assessed against property benefited by said improvement, in proportion to the benefits received; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a hearing upon said improvement be held on Wednesday, September 9, 1931, at 11 o'clock A. M. Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on the question of a new setback line on Chestnut Street?

Mr. Joseph L. Lippman, 17 Academy Street: Representing the owners of property on the corner of Broad and Chestnut Street, M. and J. Augenblick Realty Company, we desire to object to the proposed ordinance for the following reasons: First: the advertisement as disclosed in the newspaper does not say any time from which the buildings are to be taken down and when this setback is to be maintained; secondly, it is advertised as a local improvement, and we feel it is more of a public improvement rather than of any benefit to the properties adjoining or abutting on the street.

Mayor Congleton: Do you represent the other property owners on the street?

Mr. Lippman: I am just speaking for the M. and J. Augenblick Realty Company.

Mayor Congleton: Do you think it would be any improvement to property on the north side of Chestnut Street if they had had a setback on the south side?

Mr. Lippman: It won't benefit the property on the south side.

Mayor Congleton: That property will be paid for when it is taken if it is taken; but if we do not make it as a local improvement we could not assess the property on the north side.

Mr. Lippman: The southside won't be assessed then?

Mayor Congleton: That will depend on what the Assessment Commissioners find at the time of their hearing.

Mr. Lippman: The benefit to the property owners on the north side would not be as great as to the City of Newark. There are certain benefits to a wide street, but I do not think the benefits would be local, but would be more public, and it is from that point—of course, I do not represent any of the other owners on the street, only the M. and J. Augenblick Realty Company. Thirdly, the establishment of this building line leaves the matter up in the air. At some future day the City may decide to reestablish that building line; they have not taken the land, though, according to the Act they do pay for it, but it would leave a void in between the street and that building line, and our clients could not properly erect a building of proper size to get a proper income from the property for them.

Mayor Congleton: Do you own all the property between Chestnut—

Mr. Lippman: No, we own 104 feet south of Chestnut Street.

Mayor Congleton: Just as soon as your client is in a position to build a building, then we have to pay for all the land taken and damage to the remainder.

Mr. Lippman: I realize that, your Honor, but it is the establishment of that building line that leaves it in the air.

Mayor Congleton: Not at all. Your client could go to work tomorrow, or the day after the line is established, with whatever plans he wanted and be compensated.

Mr. Lippman: There is nothing to stop the City at any future time from changing that building line and instead of taking 42 feet, as the matter shows here, but later on to take thirty feet.

Mayor Congleton: If in the meantime he wanted to use his property we would have to pay, and if we then changed the line he would get the property back that he has been paid for if we vacated it.

Mr. Lippman: Those are the objections I wanted to voice at this time at the first hearing on this ordinance. Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this resolution?

(No response).

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., September 16, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M. Standard Time, 11 A. M. Daylight Saving Time.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of September 9th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance authorizing the sale of certain lands under an option given by The City of Newark to The United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, on November 28, 1917, and stipulating terms, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance? This ordinance involves the sale of the property known as the Submarine Boat property, by the City. Does anyone desire to speak on this matter?

Mr. Lathrop Anderson, 474 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission: This reminds me of the time fifteen or twenty years ago, when I used to come to the City Hall and give the City Fathers good advice as to how to run the City government. Sometimes they accepted that advice, most often they did not. I am speaking now of the time when the old Board of Works appropriated $1,000,000 to dig a ditch in the meadows and called it a canal. At that time I advised that we take that million dollars and buy the bay front property and build our docks out into the bay. They used some of that money for that purpose at that time, and I understand that you gentlemen have since acquired more of the bay front property, so that now Newark owns from the Elizabeth line up to our Port Newark Dock Property. That I think a very wise measure. I want to advise you now not to sell a foot of your bay front property. If you will look at Jersey City you will find that they allowed the North River front to go and now it is largely owned by the railroad companies. If you sell this bay front property you will never get it back. There never was a time when the real estate business was as bad as it is now. If you can afford to hold this property instead of selling it for $12,000 an acre, in two or three years it will be worth twice or thrice what it is today. Now, my fatherly advice to you again is, do not sell any of your bay front property. Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Anderson, when you say not to sell any of the bay front property, how far back did you have in mind? I know that you know this—it may have slipped your mind for the moment—under the State Law as it exists today we cannot sell from the government bulkhead line eight hundred feet inland. Now, when you speak of bayfront do you limit it to that, or would you go further back?

Mr. Anderson: I do not know just how far back the City owns.

Mayor Congleton: Well, we own practically two miles or more, we own from the bay back to the Central Railroad tracks, and from the Central Railroad tracks on the west back paralleling Route 25, practically all of it, with one or two pieces that we have not yet acquired.

Mr. Anderson: Have you anybody that wants to buy the back pieces?

Mayor Congleton: The only one we have sold up to date was to the Westinghouse people; and we have stood ready at all times to sell sites for industrial purposes—for the purposes of description I would say on what would be the north and north-westerly side of Route 23 from the viaduct where it hits grade all the way down to Haynes Avenue, and we own there 600 feet deep from the highway. That we have always stood ready to sell for industrial sites, and did succeed in selling 22 acres of it to the Westinghouse Electric Company.

Mr. Anderson: That I think is good policy. But your bay front, I cannot tell you just how far you ought to run back, but do not let any of that bay front property go, and if you can buy more, do so.

Mayor Congleton: Thank you, sir. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street: Gentlemen, while I understand the price offered is $12,000 an acre down at the Port here, and this includes the privilege of using that bay front, doesn't it, gentlemen?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir. The proposition is we cannot sell that frontage as I have just described it. The proposition that has been submitted is that they buy the upland at $12,000 an acre. They are ready to enter into a lease with the City for the eight-hundred foot strip, a fifty-year lease.

Mr. Zemel: True, they will have the exclusive use of that eight hundred feet. It will actually make the rear ground landlocked and won't give it any approach to the bay front, will it?

Mayor Congleton: What land?

Mr. Zemel: The land in the rear of what they are going to lease.

Mayor Congleton: If the Submarine Boat property should be sold under the proposition that is before us, that then disposes of all the land that the City owns on the north side of the channel. There are only two plots on the north side: The United States Government owns one and the other is the piece referred to as the Submarine Boat.

Mr. Zemel: In other words, this choice piece is to be sold for $12,000 an acre with the exclusive use—they have got the choice of leasing for use the bay front at a price to be set, and they get the first privilege there, don't they? $12,000 an acre, figuring ten lots to the acre 25 by 100, getting down to square footage, is about thirty cents a square foot or $30. a foot front. I don't know; this is Newark we are in now, we are not up in the rural sections. Can you buy anything with that advantage in Newark, New Jersey with a railroad siding for 30c a square foot or $30. a foot front in any part of Newark? From what I understand from you, Mr. Mayor, you told me that you have had better offers, you have had something like $18,000 offered to you for acres of ground down in that vicinity. I do not think this is the time—there is a time and place for everything—and this is not the right time to sell this. Newark, New Jersey does not want to sell any of that, and just as you said before, you did sell to the Westinghouse people 22 acres. That is all right for industrial purposes. From what I understand these people want to buy it and we don't know what they are going to do with it.

Mayor Congleton: It has been represented to us as to what they are going to do with it.

Mr. Zemel: We have got nothing concrete, nothing in writing what they are going to do with it; they will be free to do with it what they please.

Mayor Congleton: No, they will not.

Mr. Zemel: You are not going to put any restrictions in.

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance is based upon the proposition that the City and the purchaser can come to an agreement, and a lot of the details that you now have in mind have already been talked about and a tentative agreement arrived at as to the use to which it was to be put, and that it can never be put to any use which will be what we will call a nuisance; and some other things that we have insisted upon.

Mr. Zemel: But Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, do you think that thirty cents a square foot or $30. a foot front is the value of that ground?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir.

Mr. Zemel: Nor I don't either, nor I don't think this is the time or place to sell it at the present time.

Mayor Congleton: But Mr. Zemel, in order to clear the atmosphere perhaps I ought to say how my mind is working on this proposition.

Mr. Zemel: Glad to listen to you.

Mayor Congleton: With respect to price.

Mr. Zemel: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: The City of Newark, through its duly authorized officials, in 1917 entered first into a lease with the Emergency Fleet Corporation. Later, in November, 1917, the government came back to the city. We were then under Commission form of government. They said that they were going to go in there and spend a great deal more money in improvements and things than they had first contemplated, and that by reason of that they asked for an option to purchase. That option was given and the price was fixed. Now, the way my mind is working on the proposition is this, if that option has any validity it is not for this Board to say that the property should not be sold for $12,000 an acre, because that price was fixed before the government spent large sums of money upon it upon the faith of that option. That is the way I have to look at it. And I for one, if I were sure—and I say to you frankly I am not today—that that was still a good and valid option, I have no concern as to whether the property is worth $12,000, $15,000, or $30,000, I will not be a party to the City welching on its duly constituted contract, if the option is valid.

Mr. Zemel: If the option is valid you must stand by it, I fully agree with you. But did the government enter into the option and make those promises in writing in reference to the improvements that they were going to put in, and did they put the improvements in as they promised they would?

Mayor Congleton: The resolution granting the option, it is stated in there—the purpose of it as stated in there to spend these large sums, and they spent large sums. When the receivers of the Submarine Boat Corporation attempted to collect from the City the sum of $1,600,000 for these improvements based upon some of the language of the lease, the City took the position that we did not have to pay for them; and we have settled all of the claims, either real or alleged, that these receivers have against the city, for a very small sum of money.

Mr. Zemel: I am not a lawyer, I am not able to argue the law point of it; but from what I can see, if you bought the right, title and interest of the receiver down there, my humble opinion is that the option rights went back to the City.

Mayor Congleton: We did not buy anything from the Submarine Boat, we settled claims.

Mr. Zemel: You settled claims?

Mayor Congleton: Money claims.

Mr. Zemel: And I think it is for the Law Department of the City of Newark to take this matter up further before anything can be done on it.

Mayor Congleton: The Law Department and the attorneys for the receivers were very careful that there should be a meeting of the minds and a clear understanding as to what was being settled, and the resolution settling those claims specifically says other than right under the option.

Mr. Zemel: While in 1917, the war year, the government had first preference on it, today is 1931, there is fourteen years in the difference, and the government today is not in that position where they need it, and I don't think that the price is anything what it is worth, although if you are bound by it legally I cannot see any way out of it. I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, the option, as I understand it, expired in 1922, and it is supposed to be renewed from year to year by written notice given by the tenant. The tenant has been in default for several years rent, and I do not think their option amounts to a row of pins.

Mayor Congleton: They were never in default on rent until the receivers came in.

Commissioner Gillen: Well, they are in default now.

Mayor Congleton: No.

Commissioner Gillen: In any event, if this property is worth what they say it is, and I have very expert opinion upon it from some of the leading water-front experts of New York, it is worth $30,000 an acre. At that rate the price would be about $3,300,000, and if we were to sell it for $1,200,000 we would be giving away our birthright for a mess of pottage. I think if this Commission were to do anything of that character it ought to be recalled.

Mayor Congleton: Maybe.

Commissioner Gillen: I think so. That is my opinion. In any event, we could have bought from the receivers for the same price, $65,000, all their right and claims to the railway and to the property itself, and the option; and if there was any doubt in our minds as to validity of their option we should have bought it, providing we thought that the property was worth $3,300,000. I think Mr. Anderson is right about it. Mr. Anderson has been a good citizen, one of the best Newark ever produced, and I think he is right about his opinion.

Mr. Stanley Holmes, Chamber of Commerce: As representing the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark and the leaders of industries who make up that association, I am here to see if I can assist the Commissioners in formulating their opinion. It is the opinion of the business interests of Newark that a shipping facility for transoceanic and other facilities located on the area previously occupied by the Submarine Boat Company, is a desirable thing for the entire industrial situation. It is our feeling that the state and the Chamber of Commerce have spent a lot of time and money in the providing of evidence in a case before the Interstate Commerce Commission having to do with the injustices which rate structures have placed against the City of Newark in a shipping industry, and that at the present moment the indications are that Newark, through this litigation, is bound to win something. It is impossible to tell what it may win, but it is bound to win something. At the present time if that case were settled the industries of Newark would not be in a position to make concessions to rates that may be made, because of the lighterage case, available, because there are no facilities in Newark for the handling of shipload or cargo shipments. Therefore, Newark as a port will be just as dead as Newark as a port has been dead in the last twelve or fourteen years. The City of Baltimore has entered into a very comprehensive plan of developing their port. The City of Baltimore; in order to develop their port, has made considerable concessions as to properties, properties owned by the City put up for disposal for that purpose. Due to that kind of a procedure and that kind of attitude, the City of Baltimore today is the second port of the United States, and rapidly increasing in its port value. In the last fourteen years the City of Newark has done some, but nothing like the increase of development that Baltimore has developed. The Port of Newark is in a competitive field with Boston, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Each one of those cities has made progress, very decided progress, and particularly Baltimore. Newark has made none. Newark has had laying idle lands and properties that should be available for these purposes for a number of years. That is, properties are largely owned by the City of Newark, and were acquired by the City of Newark in order to develop the land and the property and the birthright of the City of Newark. And it seems to the Chamber of Commerce as if we were rapidly approaching a time when if we were ever going to put the Port of Newark on the basis of the other ports on the Atlantic coast that it was about time that we were taking some action towards that end. And it is our feeling that this property, whatever disposition may be made of it, should be used for that purpose. We would regret very much seeing it used for factory sites or other industrial usages. If this property—

Commissioner Gillen: Why would you regret that?

Mr. Holmes: Because it appears to us that that closes Port Newark as a substantial world port forever.

Commissioner Gillen: Isn't the Bush Terminal manufacturing and industrial?

Mr. Holmes: Yes, it is manufacturing and industrial because the Bush Terminal has built buildings and structures there to a point where they have got to go out of the lighterage and shipping business and are now going out and getting industrial and manufacturing plants in there so they can get a return of about fifty cents a square foot for everything, for all the area they own in buildings, because at fifty cents a square foot for the buildings you cannot operate economically on anything but special cargoes. That is, they cannot store sugar, potatoes, and things that are now coming to Newark in the Army Base, because they cannot compete in that line of business; and because of that they are renting their spaces for industrial and manufacturing purposes that have nothing to do with the shipping area whatsoever. The Chamber of Commerce feels that such an industry in Newark will be very remunerative, remunerative not only in taxable returns or in leases, whichever basis the property may be disposed of, but in payrolls and in activity accruing to the entire shopkeepers and other industries of Newark. The Chamber of Commerce has interested themselves in this particular project as we feel it is our responsibility when people from other localities come to Newark and ask what the privileges and opportunities are of building plants and increasing industries in Newark, we feel we have a real responsibility to interest those people. We have gotten into this particular case, and I think the present situation is the third person whom we have tried to interest with some success in the development of a shipping facility at Port Newark. The other two cases have failed when the time came because of lack of finances or lack of vision on the part of the applicant. We now have succeeded in interesting Mr. Hanlin in this property for that very reason. We have spent a lot of time and lot of persuasion in trying to get him interested in taking this thing over and providing shipping facilities for Newark. That is the second reason why we are here, because we feel we have an obligation, having interested him in the proposition. As a further indication of what I want to call your attention to the fact that several members of the Chamber of Commerce have gone so far as to agree with Mr. Hanlin if he would agree to undertake this thing they would serve as dummy members on his board without recompense until his company was formed. So we feel that the Chamber of Commerce has done everything we can to produce for Newark an opportunity to operate this property as a shipping facility. In the question of the value of the land there are a lot of factors involved. One factor is involved, and we must not forget that neither Boston, New York, Baltimore, or Philadelphia is anywise anxious to see Newark come into position as a real port, which they do not look upon it now. I can go within the shipping area of Philadelphia, I can go within the shipping area of Jersey City, and I can get lands for this particular purpose at not $12,000 an acre, I can buy them for eight or nine thousand dollars an acre; and I haven't tried this, but I think it is fairly sure that there are areas that can be obtained for nothing if I will agree to the development. I cite that not as an indication that Newark should sacrifice this property, but as an indication as to how acute these various ports are to obtain tonnage and shipping values. The City of Baltimore has just inaugurated a ship line from Baltimore, five vessels built by the Federal Shipping Company, bought from the government for $3500, re-equipped, a government mail allowance that will pay for the maintenance of those ships; they have a joint relationship between the Baltimore and Ohio, Pennsylvania Railroad and Baltimore Trust Company to finance the whole procedure; and the dock facilities were provided by the City of Baltimore. The whole thing worked out on an economic basis so they now have transoceanic steamers sailing from Baltimore. They have two big railroads out soliciting business for them; they have Government mail contracts—further development for the Port of Baltimore—and I think it is time if Newark is to be a port, and if all the waterfront property is to be of value, that something be done right now, the sooner and quicker, to establish Newark as a port. If we don't, we won't realize on all the work we have gone through with on our rate case; and furthermore, it seems to me there is an obligation on the part of the City of Newark, having bought these facilities, to see that they are put to work and not lay there idle. I think the property at Droyers Point across from Jersey City can be acquired for a very low value. There are properties on the Passaic River than can be acquired for $9,000, available for this use and not been sold, and been on the market for $9,000 an acre for some extended period. From the point of the Chamber of Commerce, whether this land is sold to the Hanlins or whether it is leased to somebody may be of secondary consideration, but the Chamber of Commerce thinks it has laid idle and non-remunerative to anybody, and it could be made active, it could be made to return immediately, and it is just barely possible that a return now rather than waiting maybe ten years for a $30,000 valuation, might put the City of Newark farther ahead financially. Thank you. Here is a editorial on the subject that is fairly broad.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak?

Mr. J. H. Wood, Foot of Madison Street: Gentlemen, I appear before you on behalf of the Traffic Club of Newark. As you know, the Traffic Club was very deeply interested in establishing Port Newark at its inception, and they have never lost that interest, and they are deeply interested in its future development. They have given it considerable study, and they believe that at the first opportunity where bonafide propositions are made that the Port should be put to work. In this particular instance it seems that it would be very much to the advantage of the City of Newark, inasmuch as I do not understand that there is any bay front property involved in this, that is the Submarine Boat location, which is on the—Mayor Congleton: Of course, the lease to the Submarine Boat or to the Emergency Fleet Corporation, Mr. Wood, did include the bay front, 112 acres includes the bay front.

Mr. Wood: Yes, but a very small portion of it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, all that we owned on that side of the channel. But under the State Law we cannot sell for eight hundred feet inland from the government bulkhead, so what we would sell if this proposition went through would be the land back of that eight hundred foot line.

Commissioner Gillen: Eight hundred feet back from the pier heads.

Mayor Congleton: And lease the bay front.

Mr. Wood: Then there is less than five per cent. involved in this proposition. If the property could be sold in 1917 for $12,000 an acre, it would seem as though in these times, in the present depression of real estate, that $12,000 an acre at this time was very liberal, particularly in view of the waterfront property that can be purchased in all other sections along the river. I might point to you the illustration of Albany. Albany has embarked on a port development and they are now up against the proposition that they have either got to sell their property or build their buildings themselves, build their warehouses and build their elevators. Now, I do not think the City of Newark cares to embark in any building of elevators or warehouses of any kind. But there—

Commissioner Gillen: We are doing it now.

Mr. Wood: The theory I have is that you will get better results through private ownership. That has been the case. Here is a proposition that it seems as though in looking it over the City of Newark will obtain $100,000 a year which she is not now getting, that property being returned to the taxable assets, and the interest on the money being paid for the property; and on behalf of the Traffic Club I want to urge your serious consideration to the proposition as they are favorable to it.

Commissioner Gillen: Are there some members of the Traffic Club interested in this company as directors?

Mr. Wood: Not that I know of.

Mr. Milton B. Barman, 15 Exchange Place, Jersey City, N. J.: The New Jersey Traffic Advisory Committee, of course, is a statewide organization and which has a large membership in Newark. It was co-complainant with the State in the lighterage case. At a regularly attended meeting consideration was given to the question involved here and resolutions were passed putting the Traffic Advisory Committee on record as endorsing the principle of private development under private capital at Port Newark. We took no position as to any particular interest or any particular price, but basing our views on our experience we feel that private development is the medium through which Port Newark can compete with property such as Bush Terminal, Jay Street Terminal, and other large termination operations in New York and Brooklyn which are operated under private capital and which would not have restrictions which would be made if the terminals were operated with public funds. That is all I have to say.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Joseph Gunn, representing Ironbound Manufacturing Association: The Ironbound Manufacturing Association which is composed of industries below the railroad and a large number of them located on the Passaic River and at Port Newark, are on record in favor of this Hanlin proposition, through a memorandum filed with the Commission a month or two ago. They feel that terminal development is tied up with water development. Much has been spent by both Newark and the federal government in the deepening and the improvement of the waterways about Newark. It is just as important for them to bring terminal facilities here as it is to have good waterways. They feel with this development that now is the time to make the development. They feel this plan ought to be followed out the same as was followed out in the development of the Market Plaza. That has brought big improvements to Newark, brought real estate values up, and they figure that this development would be the same thing.

The following communication was received and read:

BROAD STREET ASSOCIATION,
744 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Dear Mayor Congleton:—

The members of the Board of Directors of the Broad Street Association are deeply interested in the proposal that the city sell a part of the land on the channel at Port Newark.

We approve, in principle, of the city disposing of its holdings to those who will develop them, thereby increasing the ratables and so tend to reduce the tax burden.

As to the sale now under discussion, we have been informed by those whose judgment we respect, that the price being considered is below the present value of the property.

Also that the present does not seem to be propitious time in which to make such a transaction.

Meanwhile we are sure that the Commission, having the interest of the city at heart, will decide on the best time and method of disposing of the property.

Sincerely yours,

Moses Plaut,
President.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else wish to be heard?

Mr. Fred Harries, Broad Street Association: Mr. Mayor, Mr. Plaut, President of the Broad Street Association is absent this morning because of a death in the family. He asked me to present this letter to you and tell you that it was signed by Mr. Louis Aronson, Mr. Harris Bonnell, Mr. Bowers, Mr. Fred Braun, Mr. Cronheim, Mr. Diggs, Mr. Fielder, Mr. Goerke, Mr. Goldsmith, Mr. Halsey, Mr. Herud, Mr. Headley, Mr. Marsh, Mr. Neddille, Mr. Plaut, Mr. Quinby, Mr. Schindel, Mr. Van Nolts and Mr. Wiss.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone else who desires to be heard?

Commisisoner Gillen: I move the matter be referred to conference.

Mayor Congleton: Just before we leave this matter: I have seen a lot of figures mentioned and a lot of statements made as to what it is costing the City to carry this property year by year, and I have a little bit different notion of it myself and I think this is the proper time to try at least to clear the atmosphere. They speak about the City having invested $18,000,000 at Port Newark. It is true the City has spent $18,000,000, but it is not fair to say that the particular plot of ground constituting 2400 acres now owned by the city should return to the City all of the money that has been spent upon it. And for the following reasons: We have created there a water highway which goes to the benefit of the entire city, and to expect to get back out of the 2400 acres all of the money that has been spent for that is not right; any more than we expect to get back from the abutting property owners upon Mulberry Street for the widening of that street. That was done in a large part as a general improvement for the benefit of the City at large, and I say that that water highway was built and must come in the same class as the widening of streets and the opening of streets.

The property owners along Washington Street did not pay all of the cost of that widening, they only paid twenty-five per cent. of it and the rest was paid by the taxpayers at large as a general improvement to the entire community. And whatever comes to the City in the way of benefit from the development of the Port of Newark is in a large extent a benefit to the City at large, because our manufacturers are getting the benefit of it, the employees at the Port are citizens of the City; and when you stop and think that when we started the development that that area represented one-third of the total area of the City of Newark and was nothing but marshy meadow, and within my recollection considered of such little value that they did not even assess it; and within my time as the head of the Law Department we bought the land for $750. an acre and gradually it has increased until now the highest we have paid is $3200. an acre, except for some of the waterfront property, and the highest price there was $5,000 an acre without riparian rights, and $6700. an acre with the riparian rights; and again I say it is not fair to charge all of that to that particular 2400 acres, because you can all recollect that before we could get the government interested in this development the City went out into the government channel and dredged deep water 34 feet and 400 feet wide, and at a cost of considerably over $1,000,000. And what has come from the development of the Port of Newark and the establishment of the airport is largely due to the expenditure of that initial sum so that the government would come in and spend some of its money in its own waterways, and that has redounded to the benefit of the City at large. And then the other sums of money that are included in the $18,000,000 that do not properly belong just to that 2400 acres. I refer to the laying of water mains. Have any of you property owners even been assessed for the laying of water mains in the main streets of the City. And why should the abutting property owners on the streets in the Port of Newark be expected to return into the City Treasury directly the capital cost of the laying of water mains? And what I say with respect to the water mains applies also equally to the sewer system. The City at large pays a large part of the development of every sewer system, whether it be sanitary or storm water. And again, the City had to build across that meadow a highway. The city had spent over $900,000 in building what was then called Haynes Avenue, and it has now been taken over by the State as part of Route 25, and for which we got no return from the State at all. Why should just that particular property be expected to bear the entire burden of the $900,000, for the creating of a highway, because the building of highways, repaving of highways is always borne in a large part out of general taxation. So that I just want to make it clear that when you say that is costing the City of Newark $900,000 a year in interest and the retirement of bonds that were issued for the development of Port Newark, in my opinion that is not a correct picture to paint.

The motion is that the matter be taken in conference at the conclusion of this meeting. Further hearing on the ordinance will be postponed until next week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

He comes to Newark representing his organization of over 600,000 men throughout the country. I take great pleasure at this time in presenting him to you as Mayor of the City, and to the other members of the Commission.

Mayor Congleton: Judge, I want to say to you that the City Commission feels honored in having you with us this morning. We know of your order very well, and we know of the pioneer work that you have done in the matter of old age pensions. Board of Adjustment

Newark, N. J. September 15, 1931.
The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:—

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted recommending to your Honorable Body, in accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, that the following structures and uses in variance with the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance be allowed:

112 Newton Street, Henrietta Gersten, owner; construction of a 2-car garage in front of lot;

9 Bayard Place, Henry Rothberg, owner; construction of a 3-family dwelling;

15 Finley Place, John Wygera, owner; construction of a 4-family dwelling; 280 Central Avenue, Thomas Troncone (Dechler Realty Company); outdoor sale of automobiles.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copies to be sent to each

Commissioner, and further action postponed for two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Harry Levin, 25 Commerce Street:

May I at this time, in view of the Board of Adjustment matters taken up at this time, make application for the Board to extend the time in a rather peculiar situation. At 343-349½ Sanford Avenue there was a permit granted for stores. Captain Burke was in favor of it, it was passed unanimously by the Board of Adjustment and that was confirmed by your Board on either June 11 or June 12. The contractor went down yesterday to get a permit and we find that we are just about a day or two days over the tape.

Mayor Congleton: For stores?

Mr. Levin: A day or two over your ninety-day limit.

Mayor Congleton: I thought you had a year for building.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we extend it one month.

Commissioner Egan: I will second that motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, on June 10, 1931, the Board of Commissioners, on the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment dated May 19, 1931, adopted a resolution approving the construction of stores on premises 343½-349 Sanford Avenue; and

WHEREAS, Harry Levin, owner of the premises in question, was unable to proceed with the work of construction within the allotted time; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that an extension of three months from the date of the original resolution be granted for the commencement of the aforesaid work.

Jerome T. Congleton
John Howe
W. J. Egan
Charles P. Gillen

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Max Littman, 27 Johnson Avenue:

As a taxpayer of Newark I like to have you pass an ordinance or law that everybody works for the City of Newark, no matter if they are teachers or anybody else, should live in the City of Newark.

Mayor Congleton: That has been discussed by the Board of Commissioners many times.

Mr. Littman: You have never done anything. You will have maybe a few less departments for the idle.

Mayor Congleton: There is a lot of merit in what you say. I think people working in the City here and making their money here ought to live here.

Mr. Littman: You ought to enforce it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I don't know whether you can or not. We will take it in conference again. Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Nathan Siegler, 164 Market Street:

Gentlemen, there has been an application passed unanimously here yesterday for a four-family house at 15 Finley Place, and they are desirous, if possible, to have it acted upon today instead of the usual two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: Was there any objection, Mr. Rankin?

Mr. Rankin: There was not.

Mayor Congleton: Is it in a neighborhood of four-family houses?

Mr. Rankin: There are two's on the street.

Mayor Congleton: If it is a departure from what is there I do not think we ought to do it without giving the property owners a chance to be heard, whether they objected yesterday or not.

Mr. Siegler: They were all notified. It is about 150 feet west of Sanford Avenue.

Mr. Rankin: There are two's and three's on the street.

Mr. Siegler: The property owners were notified and there were no objections.

Mayor Congleton: I find a lot of them do not go before the Board of Adjustment, they wait and come before us.

Mr. Siegler: This happens to be a lot where there was a fire and a building burned down there.

Mayor Congleton: It was not a four-family house?

Mr. Siegler: No, but it was an eyesore on the block.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

My dear Mr. O'Toole:

Very truly yours,

Secretary to the Governor.

Reports of City Officers.

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for July, 1931.

Overseer of the Poor for August, 1931.

Auditor's Trial Balance as of August, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry Hebler: On August 26 the Centre Market Corporation laid our four men off who are citizens of the City of Newark, who have been employed at that market since the market was opened, and very capable men. This corporation could not get any men in the State of New Jersey or the City of Newark but had to go to Los Angeles, and bring a man from Boston, to take the positions of our men. We have been trying every which way to get this matter settled to get our men back on the job and we have been unsuccessful up to this time. We have taken up the matter with Commissioner Gillen and he has advised us to take it up at your Commission this morning. What we ask is to place our men back on the job. It was merely a matter of cutting wages on the position from $61 to $50 a week, and they asked them to work seven days a week, which we refused to do. They went and dismantled the old plant and put in Diesel motors and they say they want to have experienced Diesel motor men. Since then they have the man who put up the machine and they said they were not capable to run it, and we asked them to put our men back without success. We claim that in this time of unemployment preference should be given to the citizens of Newark. While the City of Newark has made a rental allowance of $200,000 on that rental proposition, I believe the citizens of Newark should be entitled to consideration. I have with me Mr. Kelly, our president. I ask you to give us consideration in this matter and have our men put back on the job.

Mr. Patrick Kelly: I come before your Honorable body this morning to see if we cannot get these men back to work. The men were laid off on the 26th day of August. They reported back to the organization what happened. We held a conference with Mr. Cohen, I believe his name is, for two hours, and the only satisfaction we could get is that these men must go to school. I told him he had competent men in his employ, men that have been in the City for the last fifty years, some of them; I told him to go down and take his engine apart and throw it in the scrap pile and they would put it together for him. He did not seem to be satisfied, and what his reason for laying the men off is I do not understand except he is getting cheaper men. And if he wanted that he ought to apply to the organization and see if terms could be made. But we are not in that kind of a mood; we believe these men are responsible and competent to do his work, and we ask these men be returned to work there.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, that is a private business being operated there.

Mr. Kelly: I understand it is a private business, but I also understand he has leased that property from the Commission. He has also, as I told him, come before this Commission and got little gratuities granted to him; and instead of throwing the citizens of this City on the streets who are paying taxes in the City and bringing men from California and Boston— you are not going to get anywhere with that kind of work, and I do not believe he is justified in doing it. He had no hesitation in coming before this body and getting a concession of $200,000, but that is the advantage they are taking of us. I do not approve of it.

Commissioner Egan: Have you taken it up, Commissioner Gillen?

Commissioner Gillen: I have taken it up but I have not been able to get very far with it. They claim they need Diesel engine operators and not steam engine operators. These men claim their old men can operate them.

Commissioner Egan: They have been treated very decently by the City Commission, and if they are going to hire people from outside of the City of Newark they should be told we do not approve of it.

Commissioner Gillen: I will take it up with them again.

Commissioner Egan: I move the matter be referred to Commissioner Gillen with the hope of having the company which has that lease over there recognize the fact that they should employ Newark help rather than outside help.

Commissioner Gillen: They should; there is no question about that.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Louis G. Huthwaite, 105 North Third Street: I wish to file a protest against an annoyance that I have taken notice to for quite some time, and that is the manner in which the ash collectors drag the ash barrels out through alleyways at an unseemly hour in the morning. We have been awakened every time they come through our street, as early as five and six o'clock in the morning. Now, we have children, and there are other people in the neighborhood, and there has been quite some talk about the way they drag those barrels making an awful screechy noise and no one can sleep. This morning particularly at the clock when I woke up and it was three minutes after six.

Mayor Congleton: Where is this section.

Mr. Huthwaite: This is on Third Street between Sussex and Orange. Now, it may be possible—

Mayor Congleton: I will have it looked into; but, of course, we have to start that work very early in the morning to get it done.

Mr. Huthwaite: I thought possibly it was on account of the hot weather to get the men's work done before the heat of the day. That would be a very humane act. But for the sake of the few men working on the carts I do not think it is necessary to jeopardize the health of hundreds who are annoyed by it. I thought if I brought it to your attention you would have it taken care of.

Mayor Congleton: If it is not done early in the morning the neighbors complain about it. But we will see what we can do. Is there anyone else who has any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. B. C. Kaiser, 311 Aldine Street:

Gentlemen, I am here in behalf of my family, on behalf of the president of the Manufacturers' Realty Company, who is under the doctor's care at the present time. Now, we bought that piece of property which is in litigation with the City of Newark at the present time, known as the Manufacturers Realty Company, about a dozen years ago. Then the property was purchased for the home of a business which was prospering at the time. We had tenants in the building such as David H. Tichenor, Joe Young and Sauls Brothers, and they all required a good substantial building for the line of work in which they were engaged. Some years ago the City of Newark made plans, or negotiated plans or worked on plans for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. That meant that our leases with these firms were discontinued. It furthermore meant that we curtailed expenses, and income suddenly stopped. Mr. Kaiser took sick, and naturally, the business discontinued. I was forced to sell a good home and forced into a little bit of a place which is going under sheriff's sale this coming week due to no fault of our own. Today the building is a monument to vandalism, destruction and despair. I am facing absolute poverty. Now, there was $50,000 awarded and put into the Court of Chancery for this same building. From being a business man's wife, and understanding and loving business myself, we were willing, due to Mr. Kaiser's illness, to go to a small farm, put the few dollars we would get out of that paltry amount, into this farm, and keep our small children together with a home. This option has run out and we lose, by the first of October, the money we have placed into that. That leaves us destitute. We inquired whether we could not obtain part of that $50,000 put into the Court of Chancery. We find that there has been an objection by Commissioner Gillen. Now, what I am here for is to find out why the objection, and what the City Commission thinks the property should be worth. We had an income of over $5,000 in rental alone for years out of it.

Commissioner Gillen: I think, Madam, you are slightly in error as to the objection on my part.

Mayor Congleton: That was the one that wanted $70,000, I think.

Commissioner Gillen: Yes. I remember the Commissioners went down one day, and I think Commissioner Murray was along and Commissioner Howe, and we all agreed, I think, that those pieces—I can't remember which was your piece—

Mrs. Kaiser: The corner property.

Commissioner Gillen: We agreed that the prices were too high. So the objection, while I am willing to share the matter, I think they all agreed that the price was too high. So it is not merely my opinion at all that settled the matter.

Mayor Congleton: And I think, Commissioner, at that time the price that the owners were asking was $70,000. Is this the piece in which Mr. Ralph Lum represents you?

Mrs. Kaiser: Yes, Mr. Lum is representing us. I believe, if I am not mistaken, that the price of $70,000 was brought about by the gentlemen sitting at the time, Mr. Pearce Franklin, Mr. Waldron, and Mr. Ross, the banker.

Commissioner Gillen: That was a condemnation commission.

Commissioner Egan: They have been awarded $50,000. Who has appealed it?

Corporation Counsel Boettner. We have. We feel $50,000 is too much.

Mayor Congleton: Supposing we take it up in conference this afternoon. We will have all the facts before us then. But my recollection is that at the time we visited the property that the lowest price we had been able to get from the owners was $70,000. Since then Commissioners in condemnation were appointed, the gentlemen that the lady mentioned, and I think they awarded $50,000, if I am correct.

Commissioner Egan: I move it be taken up in conference this afternoon.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: We will take it up in conference this afternoon, Mrs. Kaiser, and see if there is anything we can do. Does anyone else have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Commissioner Gillen introduced the following ordinance, and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance to authorize alterations and equipment in and about the Newark City Alms House, and providing for the financing thereof.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, do ordain:

1. That certain alterations and improvements necessary to enlarge and render more serviceable the Newark City Alms House are hereby authorized.

2. That the total cost of completion of said alterations shall not exceed the sum of One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000.00).

3. Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 252, P. L. 1916, Section 12, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, there shall be issued temporary improvement bonds of the City of Newark, in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000.00), bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, payable semi-annually, for the purpose of temporarily financing the cost of the improvements aforesaid and all incidentals connected therewith in order to make the same suitable for said purpose. All other matters in respect to said temporary improvement bonds shall be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, subject to the provisions of this ordinance, and of Chapter 252 of the Laws of 1916, and the supplements thereof and amendments thereto, and the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance is hereby authorized to issue said temporary improvement bonds at such time or times and in such amounts as he may deem advisable. The Mayor, Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance, City Auditor and City Clerk, are hereby authorized and directed to execute said bonds or as many thereof as the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance shall deem it advisable to issue.

4. The sum of One hundred twenty five thousand dollars ($125,000.00), to be raised by the issuance of said temporary improvement bonds is hereby appropriated for the purpose for which said bonds are hereby authorized to be issued.

5. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that October 7th, 1931, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Cillen moved to take a recess until 2 P. M.

Upon a call of the roll the following Commissioners were present:

Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

The matter of the property of the Manufacturers Realty Company was referred to Corporation Counsel Boettner to see if some plan could not be devised whereby some of the funds now in the Court of Chancery could not be paid over to Mrs. Kaiser.

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

CHARLES P. GILLEN

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

P. J. O'TOOLE, JR.,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., September 30, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Murray.

The minutes of meeting of September 23rd were read and approved:

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading, curbing, flagging and paving of Albert Avenue from Lockwood Street to Chappel Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Ernest C. Lum, 605 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor, I am here representing the Stanley Rule and Level Company.

Mayor Congleton: If there is no objection we will consider all four ordinances involving the various streets before us, so anything you may want to address to any of the others, you may do so at this time.

Mr. Lum: I am sorry to say I did not know there were others in contemplation.

City Clerk O'Toole: Albert Avenue, Euclid Avenue, Cornelia Street and Catherine Street.

Mr. Lum: I think we are all going to be assessed by Euclid Avenue. Euclid Avenue is parallel to Albert Street. Catherine Street bisects Albert Avenue and runs directly through the middle of the Market Association property. Now, I would not like to be understood as objecting on behalf of the Stanley Rule and Level Company to any adequate or proper improvement. They have met assessments within the last two or three years for Chapel Street and Lister Avenue, and they have met them cheerfully. But this is not a time in our business progress when a manufacturing company looks forward with happiness to the meeting of any unnecessary expenditure. The Stanley Rule and Level Company owns on both sides of the street approximately thirty-two per cent. of the total area of Albert Avenue. It is proposed under the ordinance, as I read it, to do this paving as a local improvement. And it is particularly to that situation that I desire to address myself. The Stanley Rule and Level Company as such, I do not believe can be benefited in the true sense of the word by this improvement by reason of the use they make of their property. Of course, it is equally obvious if they change the use of this that they might be. The property is located in the industrial zone, and therefore, its uses are limited to factory or other manufacturing uses. The fact of the matter is that this whole matter undoubtedly came before you at the behest of the Farmers Market Association, which I can readily conceive will be very largely benefited. But I think that the matter might be very readily treated by you as not quite within the normal scope of the assessment upon the contiguous property by reason of the fact that the use to which it will be put by the users of the Farmers Market Association is not a use that will be beneficial to adjoining property, but is a use that might very properly be considered as beneficial to the City as a whole. In other words, it is not used in any such connection as will confer a benefit by reason of increased business or increased value to the use of manufacturing property in any sense of the word. And my appeal to you is to consider the question of the adoption of a portion of the cost of this improvement by the City in a fixed percentage because of that very factor. In other words, I think that the City as a whole is to be benefited by this, if there is to be a benefit from it, and I do not want to be confronted with the fact that this Commission says that it cannot deal with that question prior to the Commissioners of Assessments having dealt with it, because it is to be assumed that the Commissioners will do their duty and only assess to the extent of the benefit conferred; and when they have determined that that is one hundred per cent. of the front foot cost they have exercised their best discretion in that respect and there is no opportunity to procure an adequate review of it, as we all well know. I think there is a situation here that differentiates it from the ordinary purely local improvement. I think it is obvious to you that hundreds of trucks rolling in there at night, dropping vegetables, which in due course will decay, for the benefit of the retailers who will in turn come there in the early hours of the morning for the purpose of obtaining their produce, is not going to be a benefit to this locality in the sense of improving its value for general business purposes; and it is in a limited area.

Mayor Congleton: I can quite go along with you on your statement, Mr. Lum. Of course, until there is business in a section there may not be the necessity for paving streets, but as soon as business is there and there are business houses there, whether they conduct their business at night-time or in the day-time, I take it that those people are entitled to have a paved street so that the fire engines and other services that they are helping to pay taxes for can reach them promptly; and it is not our policy to specify a percentage for streets of this nature in our ordinances.

Mr. Lum: May I take just a moment more of your time? The general principle, I am absolutely in accord with that view; but I say here that there is in this particular situation an inherent fact that the use that is going to be put of it is a use that is for the benefit of the City as a whole, far more than to the individual property owners. I think they are going to be incommoded in the use of their property by the existence of a great amount of traffic there. I think the very street will be worn out much more quickly by virtue of a use that can be of no benefit to them. And as far as the question of fire protection, for the standpoint of the property in which I am interested, and for which I speak, we have it already.

Mayor Congleton: Fire apparatuses cannot get over a mud street in winter if there is much travel in there, and we have had experience of having them stuck in mud streets.

Mr. Lum: I grant you that much consideration might be given to that as a general factor; but I still cannot help but urge upon you the view by virtue of the thing that makes this essential, with the existence of the Farmers Market Association in this location, there is obviously a use that must arise that is not beneficial to the property owners in any sense. Now, if some benefit is to be given to the fact that he is going to be more adequately served by fire-fighting apparatus, I think that is an element to be taken into consideration in fixing the percentage.

Mayor Congleton: The City bears a percentage of all these paving assessments, but we do not fix the percentage in advance. That will come before the Assessment Board and we let the case stand on its own foundation.

Mr. Lum: I realize the practise; but I was appealing to you to relieve us from that practise, that which is not normal work to be particularly beneficial to the property owner.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I feel that these other property owners, if they want it, are entitled to have their streets paved on which your client happens to own some frontage. I do not think it is quite fair to other people who need that pavement for the purpose of carrying on their business, should be deprived of it just because your client has frontage on another street and can get in there and do his trucking on a paved street.

Mr. Lum: That is not the fact exactly; we do not happen to have the necessity for it. But let me call your attention to the fact that you are, with another ordinance, providing for the paving of Catherine Street which will run directly through the market there' Lister Avenue is an improvement street, Lockwood Street is an improved street, and Catherine Street runs through to Euclid Avenue, but Euclid Avenue is not improved. But for the purpose of Market Association, Catherine Street would be providing an adequately improved street. I do not think that meets the entire situation, in other words.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on the ordinance referring to the pavement of Albert Avenue, Euclid Avenue, Cornelia Street and Catherine Street?

Mr. Donald P. Taylor, Farmers Market: I am speaking for Albert Avenue, and also for Cornelia and Euclid and Catherine Streets. In the case of Albert Avenue the street is in very poor condition—

Mayor Congleton: Tell us whom you represent on Albert Avenue and what the frontage is, please.

Mr. Taylor: I represent the Newark Farmers Market, and the frontage that they have on Albert Street is the section from Cornelia to Joseph Street. Now, the Farmers Market at present is without any good entranceway into the market. Albert Street is at present very poorly paved, and they have no use of Albert Street between Cornelia and Joseph Street. At present they are using Chapel Street and Lister Avenue, and using a dirt road in on Catherine Street. Now, it so happens that there are approximately 2500 to 3000 trucks coming in there daily, and it is absolutely necessary that they have a good method of ingress into the market.

Mayor Congleton: You are for the paving?

Mr. Taylor: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Suppose we hear those who are in opposition. We were in favor of it in the first instance, or we would not have introduced the ordinance; and the ordinances are likely to pass unless the opposition is too strenuous. Are there any other people who want to be heard in opposition to the paving of these streets?

Mrs. Monica Kosakowska, 120 Chapel Street: I am speaking for my mother. My mother does not approve of this street being paved. She is a poor widow; she has three boys out of work and she has no money coming in and she cannot afford to have this street paved. That is all I have to say.

Mayor Congleton: How much frontage have you?

Mrs. Kosakowska: Chapel Street has just been paved three years ago.

Mayor Congleton: How much frontage have you? Which one is it?

Mrs. Kosakowska: 100 feet long.

Commissioner Howe: On which street?

Mrs. Kosakowska: On Albert Avenue.

Commissioner Howe: Where have you got 100 feet on Albert Avenue?

Mrs. Kosakowska: On the corner of Chapel Street.

Commissioner Howe: They live on Chapel Street and they would be assessed for the corner.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to enter an objection?

Mr. Dennis J. Dacey, 65 Joseph Street: Mr. Mayor, if you will recollect, about three years ago this subject was brought up. That is a street that is badly in need of paving. I have got four children going to school; they have got to walk in a very busy street. This particular street you cannot walk; it is absolutely impossible, especially on a rainy day.

Mayor Congleton: Which one are you speaking of?

Mr. Dacey: Albert Avenue. If you recollect the Honorable departed friend, Mr. Brennan, when I mentioned the fact that a fire apparatus almost cracked in two, he verified my statement. Since the Farmers Market has been down there I understand they approve of this paving. It is a terrible place since they got there; everything is literally filled with refuse, not from the natives, not from the farmers, it is just the people coming in there and dumping their garbage. The Board of Health has been notified five times about the same thing, they come down there and investigate it; still and all it is just as bad. They think nothing of defecating in back of our property on Joseph Street; and I think in justice to the farmers and in justice to the people down there that ordinance should go through.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone else who desires to be heard?

No one else appearing, Commissioner Egan moved that the hearing be closed.

Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:— Re: Meyer Slutsky,
Constable Bond.

Take notice that the undersigned, Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Co., a corporation established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, having its principal office in Boston, Mass., and authorized to do business in the State of New Jersey, will, within five (5) days from date of service upon you of this notice withdraw its suretyship and cancel a certain bond given by one Meyer Slutsky, as principal, and said Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Co. as surety, to the City of Newark, in the sum of One thousand ($1000) dollars for the faithful performance of the duties of the said Meyer Slutsky as Constable of said City, and dated December 18, 1930.

Notice of such intention of the said Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Co. to cancel said bond and to withdraw suretyship has been sent to Meyer Slutsky with a copy of this notice.

Massachusetts Bonding &
Insurance Company,
By John Gilblon,
Attorney-in-fact.

Referred to Law Department for action.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Gentlemen, I am not going to take up much of your time, but I would like to make a request. Unfortunately, Commissioner Murray is ill. I am interested as the sponsor of the movement to regulate the sale of returned bakery products—

Commissioner Gillen: It has been laid over.

Mr. Grois: I realize that. The thing I am concerned with, we have been dwelling on that for four months, and I think with the coming of winter a hardship is going to be caused to the common people, because they are going to be discriminated against in the sale of this product; and I would respectfully urge that in so much as Commissioners Murray is in favor of it whole-heartedly, and the entire personnel of the Health Department, and that it is a very humanitarian measure, that some effort be made to bring it before the Commission on next Wednesday for final passage or rejection.

Mayor Congleton: It has been laid over for two weeks. The last information I had about the ordinance was at our meeting that there were certain suggested changes made by someone and Commissioner Murray said he believed that they had merit in them.

Mr. Grois: That was six weeks ago.

Mayor Congleton: Until I have some word from Commissioner Murray on that phase of it I would not feel like voting, until we know something of what he has in mind with respect to those suggestions.

Mr. Grois: That is what caused my appearance here, to ask you gentlemen to get that further information. In two weeks time, I think that will be ample time, in order to incorporate any changes that should be made—

Mayor Congleton: I take it you know the reason Commissioner Murray has not been here is that he is sick.

Mr. Groise: That is an unfortunate circumstance that none of us can get away from. I think with the coming on of winter, and these people the way they are, lack of funds due to the depression, will probably revert to anything, and maybe suffer later on, and I do not want to see any unscrupulous merchants take advantage of this situation, because I feel the City would be neglecting its duty if it were allowed to continue.

Commissioner Egan: I move it be referred to Acting Director Harry Murray to give us a report on that in two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Alphonse Bergamo for a poultry market; premises 255 Academy Street; on condition that an up-to-date blower system for the control of odors be installed, and that all windows on the east, north and west sides of the building be eliminated, be laid over to October 21, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Henrietta Gersten, owner, for the construction of a 2-car garage eleven feet back of street line; premises 112 Newton Street; on condition that overhead doors be installed;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, and administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

W. J. Egan
John Howe
Charles P. Gillen
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. John B. King, 222 Market Street:

I am the architect—

Mayor Congleton: Why can't your client put that garage further in the back yard instead of out on the line with the houses?

Mr. King: Well, she contends if she puts it back on the rear she throws the whole property open and opens up the whole property to the front. She has three small children, and it is her intention to have a playground for the children, and by putting the garage on the front then she can keep the yard intact.

Mayor Congleton: She also says it will cost her more to build a driveway if she goes further back.

Mr. King: Of course, due to the fact there is a terrace running back there she would have to excavate about three feet all the way to the rear to come down to a proper drive to pitch it in, and it would cost quite a lot of money for it; but her main reason is, if you open up that thing you open up to vagrants, and everybody else along the road.

Mayor Congleton: What?

Mr. King: If you open up that yard to put the garage on the rear you open up the yard to vagrants—

Mayor Congleton: Oh, nonsense. I have got my garage on the back of my lot and I have never noticed any of that.

Mr. King: It is a heavy traffic street and there are several garages on the front.

Mayor Congleton: The plan does not show them, Mr. King; the lot plan does not show them.

Mr. King: Show what?

Mayor Congleton: Any garages out on the line with the houses.

Mr. King: Well, of course, it just happens to be outside of the two hundred feet.

Mayor Congleton: On either side of the street.

Mr. King: It just happens to be on the other side of Thirteenth Avenue, and then there is another one up near South Orange Avenue. It is a heavy traffic street.

Commissioner Gillen: Can't she put it back a little further?

Mr. King: Well, we are going back ten feet—in fact, we are not out to the line, we are ten feet off the line; we keep back to the line of the other two houses.

Commissioner Murray: How much objection was there?

Mayor Congleton: None, according to the memorandum.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we concur.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

Nays: Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be approved:

Application of Thomas Troncone (Dechler Realty Company, owner) for the outdoor sale of automobiles; premises 280 Central Avenue; on condition that entrance and exit be from the Newark St. side of the lot, that a steel wire fence be erected along both street frontages, and that only two signs be permitted, 4 by 8 ft. in size, one on each fence;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Is this for the sale of second-hand cars?

Mr. Andrew J. Brady, Jr., 17 Academy Street:

Yes. I am representing Mr. Troncone.

Commissioner Egan: Is that property vacant?

Mr. Brady: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: Who owns the stores on the corner?

Mr. Brady: Zecker Realty Company. The permit is only limited to one year, and I think it is going to result in the physical improvement of the property.

Mayor Congleton: I do not think any open-air sales place improves conditions in the neighborhood itself, and if I vote for it it will not be on the theory it is improving the neighborhood.

Mr. Brady: The property has all been graded off, and it will be fenced up, and it is not a parking station, it is for the sale of cars.

Mayor Congleton: I know it, and I think they are one of the eyesores of the City, the way they drag them up, all kinds of old scrap right out on the sidewalk almost.

Mr. Brady: This property will be fenced in and it will be impossible to put them out on the sidewalk.

Commissioner Gillen: Will the fence be on Central Avenue?

Mr. Brady: A fence on Central Avenue, yes.

Commissioner Gillen: To hide the cars?

Mr. Brady: No, a wire fence on Central Avenue.

Commissioner Howe: They do not cross the sidewalk on Central Avenue?

Mr. Brady: No, the entrance is on Newark Street.

Commissioner Howe: The entrance is in back of the houses?

Mayor Congleton: Is there more than one entrance on Newark Street or do you provide for one entrance for the entire property?

Commissioner Murray: A fence on both sides of the property and one entrance from Newark Street only.

Mr. Brady: One entrance.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Frederick W. Schlosstein, 14 Prospect Place, East Orange: I come here before you with reference to the property at 9 Ferry Street, owned by Bernstein and Weiss. I think for sometime now the City has been endeavoring to obtain title to it. About two or three months ago proceedings were started to condemn, and they are still in the same state. These people are down there in business now, and it is imperative at this time that they know what to do. If they can agree on a price they have in mind another place to go to. It may be very important to them.

Mayor Congleton: This gentleman is inquiring about the condemnation proceedings for the Bernstein and Weiss property which were started some little time ago, and nothing has been done, and he does not know where he is at with his tenants.

Corporation Counsel Boettner: Where is that property located?

Mr. Schlosstein: 9 Ferry Street. We have never been given any formal offer for the property: It does seem to me we should at least have been offered something before condemnation proceedings were started.

Corporation Counsel Boettner: If you will see me a little later I will give you all the information.

Mr. Schlosstein: Can't we have some action on it this morning? Can't we have an offer?

Mayor Congleton: You have had an offer, if I am correctly informed.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, I understand that there is an application pending, having been passed by the Adjustment Board, for permission to build four four-family houses on Colleen Street, and to which I am told Commissioner Gillen has no objection, although he is interested in some of that property up there. Mr. Steib says his contract is limited to today, and he would like to get—

Mayor Congleton: When did the Zoning Board pass on it?

Mr. John G. Steib, 133 Goldsmith Avenue:

Two weeks ago.

Commissioner Murray: I would like to have the rules suspended and the Commission concur in it. You have no objection, Commissioner Gillen?

Commissioner Gillen: No.

Commissioner Murray: I move for a suspension of the rules.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of University Land Company, owner, for the construction of four four-family dwellings; premises 16-30 Colleen Street.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to authorize alterations and equipment in and about the Newark City Alms House, and providing for the financing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Commissioner Murray: This is the situation: Seven or eight months ago Commissioner Ellis commented on the crowded conditions. Since that time we have added enormously to the population, and we have got over five hundred people in the Alms House, and we have got seventy-odd-year-old people in the corridors; but if you men want to assume the responsibility, go ahead.

Commissioner Egan: I am assuming mine and vote no.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you think you could get its worth from the Board of Freeholders if they did take it over?

Commissioner Murray: If the Board of Freeholders want to take it over under county control, they don't have to take the building. I would be very glad if they did not.

Commissioner Howe: What would you use it for?

Commissioner Murray: Make it an absolute convalescent hospital, convalescent in fact, at very little expense. The City would not lose by that, the City would gain. It would reduce the cost of the eventually new City Hospital that you will have to have, whether in my time or not. This is meeting a necessity for this coming winter. Why it should be objected to is more than I can state.

Commissioner Egan: I will be perfectly frank in making my objection clear. It seems to me with this referendum on the ballot, with the possibility at least, of the county taking over this institution, it seems rather inadvisable for the City to enter into a building program now representing at least $125,000.

Mayor Congleton: I was going to ask Commissioner Murray: I saw listed in the papers last night that bids had been received. Now, my recollection is that the total of these bids is considerably less.

Commissioner Murray: Considerably less. The appropriation does not have to be spent because it is made.

Mayor Congleton: My recollection is the bid ran under $90,000 for the complete proposition.

Commissioner Murray: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: I have hesitated—we might all exchange our views if we care to—I have hesitated for a considerable time whether or not I would vote for this, and I have finally decided to vote for it, based largely on the recommendation made by Commissioner Ellis, the director or head of Institutions and Agencies, even though this present emergency was not at hand, that there should be a recreation room for those old people so they might have a place to sit and smoke and not have to use the dining room right up to feeding time. Another point that has made me hesitate a good deal, and this part of the legislation is not involved in the referendum, the old age pension. And I assume, especially from what Commissioner Murray said, that we have quite a population there that may be over seventy years of age.

Commissioner Murray: We have.

Mayor Congleton: I have thought that a great many of those people, if they are allowed a dollar a day, that they will have lots of relatives that cannot now take care of them, that will be very glad to find a room for them to sleep in in their own home if they are going to get $30. a month for it. It will thereby keep down the population when we get to normal times. But as I understand it, a large part of the money is to be spent for the purpose of creating a recreation room, and that by doing that we are able to provide additional beds. Is that correct?

Commissioner Murray: Absolutely correct.

Mayor Congleton: And it is for that reason that I shall vote on the roll call in favor of it, after mature consideration.

Commissioner Egan: The fact, Mr. Mayor if, this referendum is passed on November 3rd, that this activity will be taken over by the county, is that your understanding of the law?

Mayor Congleton: They can take this property over; they do not have to.

Commissioner Egan: Isn't it quite likely that they will?

Mayor Congleton: We do not have to let them have it if we do not want to, if we have some other use for it. I hope they do take it over, and I hope they take over the so-called Convalescent Hospital that Commissioner Murray has spoken about. I have felt for a good many years that the City of Newark is imposed upon. People who live outside of the City of Newark and who have to be operated on, they have some relative in the City of Newark and they spend one or two nights with them and they get the doctor to send them to the City Hospital, and the City pays for it. I have doubts about the adoption of the referendum, because all of our neighboring municipalities have practically organized in a group to fight the referendum, just the same as they organized when the question of annexation was started.

Commissioner Egan: Isn't it a fact, too, that when the other institutions were taken over by the County from the City, our normal school and our industrial school, that the compensation to the City was quite arbitrarily fixed?

Mayor Congleton: It was fixed after numerous conferences and negotiations. The City did not get the price that they thought they ought to have. That was so with the State on the State Normal School on Broadway and the Vocational School on Sussex Avenue. I appreciate the dangers and all that, but we have a condition confronting us.

Commissioner Egan: We have a condition confronting us that has to do with the welfare of the old folks. No one appreciates the necessity of giving the old folks who are in need of official protection every consideration. But if on the eve of an election there is likelihood of this referendum being accepted by the people of Essex County, and if and when that takes place this institution and these activities are taken over by the County, and if the record of our other affairs and dealings with the County are in any way a precedent, we are not likely to receive for Newark full compensation for this assessment. Conferring with Commissioner Howe a couple of months ago, I learned rather definitely that we are rather close to our bonded indebtedness, I am of the opinion that no matter how small the amount may be that the taxpayer is entitled to every consideration at this time, every consideration so as to conserve his interests. The taxpayer and property owner in this City today is suffering and suffering very much because of the economic conditions. I do not think that as a governing body of this city that we as a Commission should expend a single penny for any public activity that we can refrain from expending. Now we are in unusual times at the moment. The population of the Alms House, no doubt, is heavier than usual. But in my opinion it is temporary because of this depression. It is temporary too in the face of the new pension law which will soon become effective. And if these facilities took care of the needs of our poor people for all time up until now, in my mind the passing of an ordinance at this time appropriating $125,000 to do a patchwork job at the alms house is ill-advised. And even though it might be misconstrued, and having in mind above everything else the fact that we are close to our bonded debt limits, the fact that our property owners and taxpayers are suffering intensely today, I think we cannot be too technical in spending any amount for capital investment, operating or overhead at this time. So consequently I vote no on this ordinance.

Comimssioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, it will not be in any sense a patchwork job. It will be absolutely a permanent alteration, constructed at perhaps a lower contract cost than any similar plant that has been built for the City. The present condition referred to by Commissioner Egan has existed about fifteen or eighteen months, and the crowded condition of the Alms House has continued for four years. I have constantly held off in the hope that a reduction in the population might save us doing the work we have to do now, but I cannot find any way out of it except this. It is not a hobby of mine. It is a necessity that we are facing, a responsibility that we cannot shirk. And in addition to Commissioner Ellis' recommendations, we have the actual experience of the Superintendent and his staff in the difficulty in trying to keep these people from exposure. We have no right to expose them. We have no right to have any men or women sleeping in corridors. We have only men sleeping in corridors now, and that is because of the unavoidable condition that we have no place else to put them. I cleaned out the storeroom and cleaned out the wareroom and put in an additional twenty-four beds. We removed the infirmary for unmarried mothers and put it down on High Street and made an additional ward for the old men there, and we still did not have room to take care of those during the eighteen months we have been in more or less financial difficulties. The situation is so acute I do not think it can possibly, from any proper angle, be avoided.

Commissioner Egan: I do not want Commissioner Murray to take from my remarks that I am regarding the work that you contemplate as a patchwork job in so far as the job is concerned. But I say if there is great need for improvement to take care of the old folks there will be no great improvement by the expenditure of $125,000.

Commissioner Murray: There will be no $125,000 expended.

Commissioner Egan: That is what the ordinance provided for.

Commissioner Murray: The bids for the contract, the estimated cost is $125,000, and the bids are over $30,000 less than that, which means we will get along with the sum called for in the bids.

Commissioner Egan: That is another odd thing, the fact that you advertise for bids before you had the money appropriated.

Commissioner Murray: Well, I am not here to take a wallop on the formalities of those things.

Commissioner Egan: I do not mean to wallop you, I mean to discuss intelligently, because it is just as much my problem as it is yours, in so far as—

Commissioner Murray: I don't think it calls for a political speech at this time.

Commissioner Egan: I do not like your attitude of injecting politics in a matter that has to do with the public's problem.

Commissioner Murray: I am not injecting politics.

Commissioner Egan: You did.

Commissioner Gillen: I think it would be well to lay this matter over for further consideration, inasmuch as it was my understanding last week that we were to confer or communicate in some way with the Board of Freeholders and find out what their attitude would be if the City were to make the expenditure and the County took over the institution. So having that in mind, I would suggest we lay it over for a week.

Commissioner Egan: I second the motion.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating the sale of returned bakery products and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Green; 42 Schuyler Avenue: I would like to ask why you are so much against the returned bakeries.

Mayor Congleton: This ordinance does not prevent the sale of it, it merely provides it should be tagged to show it is returned stuff.

Commissioner Murray: The purpose of the ordinance is to prevent the importation of goods, the cast-off bread, cakes, and rolls from Brooklyn, New York, Elizabeth, Rahway, from hotels where they cannot dispose of the stuff. They bring it back here and handle it in a disgustingly bad way.

Mayor Congleton: Even if it is labeled it is still good and can be sold.

Commissioner Murray: It can be sold, but it must be properly wrapped and properly indicated by a clip off the loaf that it a second and not a fresh product.

Mr. Green: You are wrong on that. We are not selling any returned bread and rolls; you are absolutely wrong on it; what we are selling is left over from the baker that they are baking this afternoon.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Charles Handler, 790 Broad Street: The purpose that Commissioner Murray states here today which he hopes to effect by this ordinance are not covered at all by the ordinance. It prohibits in its first clause the sale of returned bakery products or bakery products seconds except on one condition, that it can be sold by the large companies themselves in their own stores. Now, the gist of the matter is this, that nobody in all the time the stores have operated has been made ill by these goods. There has been no complaint that anybody has suffered from it. When we first appeared here we presented a petition signed by over two thousand people. The ordinance as drawn only permits the manufacturers to sell it at their places or in their stores. To have people spend carfare to get to the factory to buy this stuff, is simply impossible. These people buy this bread for three or four or five cents because they cannot afford to spend ten cents.

Commissioner Howe: Aren't there bakeries in every section of the city?

Mr. Handler: You mean big bakeries?

• Commissioner Howe: Yes.

Mr. Handler: No, they are not.

Commissioner Howe: Where, for example, aren't they?

Mr. Handler: You haven't any around the Third Ward, you haven't any Down Neck.

Commissioner Howe: You have Hill's down neck.

Mayor Congleton: As I read this ordinance Mr. Handler is right, the only people who could sell day-old bread would be the manufacturers themselves.

Mr. Handler: Even a hasty perusal of that ordinance will convince any member of this Board who is an attorney-at-law, or any Commissioner who is conversant with the law at all, that the ordinance as drawn is absolutely unconstitutional. At best it can be regulatory, but there is no health problem here to regulate. Assuming that there was, it is not regulatory, it is discriminatory; it puts out of business the independent man who hasn't a factory connection or whom the factory won't finance in his store, and only enables the factory to sell it. Because some poor bakers have stores on Prince Street is no reason why they should be prevented from selling it because another group has money to erect a factory and sell it.

Commissioner Murray: Any baker on Prince Street can sell bread one day old or two days old.

Mayor Congleton: I do not read the ordinance that way. Section 2 would prohibit anybody from selling bread. It provides, as I read it, that the only man who can sell it is the manufacturer.

Commissioner Murray: A man who has a bakery is a manufacturer.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, but he is the only one who can sell it.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Handler is referring to bakeries in the Third Ward. They have the same right as any baker in any other ward.

Mr. Handler: I do not refer to the bakers, I refer to these people who have these retail stores.

Commissioner Murray: You don't mean bakers, you mean storekeepers who make a business of selling this product.

Mr. Handler: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: He is just the man the Health Department is after, because much of his stuff comes from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Coney Island and elsewhere, and nobody knows what the condition of his product is, but they do know that the handling of it has been decidedly bad. Now, Mr. Sharwell, chief of the division of food products of the Health Department, is here, and I would like to have you hear him as to the Health Department's view of it.

Mr. Handler: I do not quarrel with the Commissioner about keeping out inferior stuff from Newark. If you cannot inspect plants in Brooklyn and New York, I think you should draft an ordinance to cover that problem. But the way this ordinance is drawn you are wiping these people out entirely.

Commissioner Murray: If a man has made a business of selling goods that are not fit for human consumption, no one should feel sorry for him being put out of business. You repeatedly made the statement that nobody had been turned in. Mr. Sharwell will state how much of these goods have been condemned.

Mr. Samuel G. Sharwell: We have a lot of complaints about these cut rate stores. We have thirty-seven now, and we have had an application for a half dozen more before this ordinance. The Board of Health is not objecting to people eating stale bread, stale cake, or anything else; in fact probably it would be good for lots of them to eat it. But we do not believe any stuff coming from Clifton, Philadelphia, all over this state, Pennsylvania, Coney Island, and sold to the public and we have no control of it. They are established all over the city, and no baker in the City is deprived from selling the stuff if he tags it.

Mayor Congleton: If he tags it. Suppose I am running a store, and I see Hill's wagon and other wagons, and they take in their wagons a certain number of loaves of bread, how long can I keep that?

Mr. Sharwell: There is no stipulated time how long you can keep it.

Mayor Congleton: Supposing my dealer comes around the next day and I have got six or eight loaves left over that were delivered to me yesterday, and that goes back to the factory. That cannot be sold again by anyone except that manufacturer, as I read that ordinance. Isn't it true that a lot of these bakeries deliver day-old and two-day old bread to hospitals free of charge?

Mr. Sharwell: They have a right to do it.

Mayor Congleton: It must be pretty good stuff then.

Mr. Sharwell: They have a right.

Mayor Congleton: If it is good to feed to sick people in the hospitals I do not see any reason why a storekeeper cannot sell it if it is properly labeled.

Mr. Sharwell: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: But a storekeeper cannot sell it, even if it is labeled, as I read the ordinance.

Mr. Sharwell: We know for a fact that these places have sprung up two or three in a block. This gentleman referred to Prince Street. There is half a dozen of those cut-rate bakers in Prince Street right alongside of legitimate bakers, but we want somebody responsible for it.

Mayor Congleton: Myself, I prefer a loaf of rye bread that is at least a day old.

Mr. Sharwell: We do not object to that at all.

Mayor Congleton: Your ordinance does.

Mr. Sharwell: If you saw some of the bread, the way it is handled in some of these shops, and the way it is handled around the street—

Mayor Congleton: I am in favor of the proposition of not permitting the sale of stuff that is not good, but I cannot bring myself to believe that day-old or two-day-old bread is not good bread.

Mr. Sharwell: We do not say that.

Mayor Congleton: Why not have all bread wrapped and dated?

Mr. Sharwell: Our argument, Mr. Mayor, we do not believe—

Mayor Congleton: Isn't most of the bread now wrapped?

Mr. Sharwell: Well, yes, sixty per cent.

Mayor Congleton: Why can't the date be put on it?

Mr. Sharwell: It is. This allows them to do it.

Mayor Congleton: It does not permit, as I read it—if I am wrong I wish someone would correct me—it does not permit the storekeeper to sell. If I want to get a loaf of bread two days old I have got to go to the baker that baked it and buy it from him.

Mr. Sharwell: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: That, I think is not fair. It is working an undue hardship upon a lot of people. I am fully in accord with the purpose, and I want to keep out stuff that is not good, but I cannot bring myself to believe that bread or cake that is a day or two old is not fit to be used and if I want to buy old stuff that I have got to go back to the manufacturer.

Commissioner Murray: Any baker who bakes bread can sell that bread.

Mayor Congleton: Yes, but how about my storekeeper who buys my bread from one of these bakers and delivers it to me every day in the basket.

Commissioner Murray: There are very few stores have bread—when you refer to the neighborhood grocers, there are very few of them—

Mr. Sharwell: These wagons go around delivering bread, they come under this ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: For instance, to illustrate: Supposing now anyone of the chain store groups, Mutual or A. & P. don't they get bread delivered to them everyday?

Mr. Sharwell: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: And they come around and they take the stale bread the next day?

Mr. Sharwell: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: That bread having been taken away from my store in my neighborhood, and I want a loaf of bread one day or two days old, I can not get it from my store. I have got to go to the baker who baked for that chain store.

Commissioner Murray: The baker has to take it back and to re-wrap it and clip the corner off.

Mayor Congleton: But he cannot take it back to the store, as I read the ordinance. If I want a loaf of bread I have got to go back to the bake shop for it, and not to that store in the neighborhood that I am buying from.

Mr. O. Henry Grois, Essex County Trades Council: I feel I am in a position to be able to clarify the situation. The gentleman that was the first speaker here today before the Commission, a layman, is probably excusable for what he says—

Mayor Congleton: I will say as far as that person is concerned, that he made no impression on me.

Mr. Grois: I am sorry that you were not present the day that I outlined for the rest of the Commissioners here the problem that the people of the city are confronted with.

Mayor Congleton: I have been here several times when you have outlined it. I know the problem you are trying to meet. I am in sympathy with it.

Mr. Grois: I want to set you right on one thing—there is no bread delivered by any wholesales into a store today and returned tomorrow. Remember that. The bread taken in today is not brought back to the shop tomorrow.

Mayor Congleton: The next day.

Mr. Grois: If you want a loaf of stale bread you have every right in the world to have it. There is no one stopping you from it. This ordinance is to regulate a business that is becoming detrimental to the health of the people of this city. There is nothing else in it but to try to regulate it in such a manner.

Mr. Handler: Who was made sick?

Mr. Grois: It is not a question who was made sick; it is a proven theory that there are hundreds of pounds of this bread and cake condemned, and that is reason enough to take this matter into consideration.

Mayor Congleton: How many are there altogether that sell bread in the city?

Mr. Grois: I am talking about these stores and this practise.

Mayor Congleton: How many stores are there in the City of Newark that sell bread?

Mr. Grois: Thousands and thousands of them.

Mayor Congleton: Do you think it is fair to penalize all of them for thirty-seven.

Mr. Grois: You are not penalizing all of them.

Mayor Congleton: I say you are.

Mr. Grois: No one can prohibit a firm that puts bread into the store from refraining that man from selling the product they sell.

Mayor Congleton: It does now.

Mr. Grois: It does not, because that particularly states it must be labeled from whom it comes from.

Mayor Congleton: No. It says that, but, "provided, however, that nothing in this ordinance shall apply to any baker, bakers, or baking company to sell returned bakery products or bakery products seconds upon their own premises or in stores operated under their own name."

Mr. Grois: You do not even need that chapter in that ordinance?

Mayor Congleton: But it is there.

Mr. Grois: It does not hurt anyone. It takes away nothing, it put nothing there. Firms sell it anyhow because they have that bread left with their own names.

Mayor Congleton: No, the owner of the store becomes the owner of it when it comes into his store. He is just a seller, and that ordinance would not permit him to sell it, in my opinion. I may be wrong on that—

Mr. Grois: I believe you are, I hate to say it. I would like to outline the practise there—

Mayor Congleton: I have heard you outline the practise. I am in sympathy with you, but I do not think the ordinances meets the situation you are after.

Commissioner Murray: Do you think this suggestion will meet that: "Provided, however, that nothing in this ordinance shall apply to any baker, bakers, or baking company to sell returned bakery products or bakery products seconds upon their own premises or in stores"—now this is an insertion "with which they are doing business"—"or operated under their own name."

Mr. Grois: You have that in there already.

Commissioner Murray: No, you have not.

Commissioner Howe: Have you got that in there "with which they are doing business."

Commissioner Murray: I am suggesting that.

Mr. Grois: The practise that is here before you, I want to tell you frankly—

Commissioner Murray: I move it be referred back to the Law Department and this insertion made which will permit anyone to sell seconds, provided that the rest of the ordinance is complied with as to proper marking and proper indication as to the age of the article, and so forth.

Mayor Congleton: I am thoroughly in accord with reaching that situation, but in trying to reach thirty-seven you are unconsciously hurting thousands of others.

Commissioner Murray: I move this be referred to the Law Department for redrafting.

Commissioner Howe: That amendment would cover it all.

Mr. Grois: I would only suggest this: If you gentlemen do not believe this practise is harmful and is detrimental to the health of the people of this city, I would like to invite you all on an inspection tour of the manufacturers that manufacture the products, and prove to you that they are lying so long in the various stores, that they are returned to the shops, that they are not kept in sanitary conditions, and that goes practically for the whole; that they are again sold to jobbers, that jobbers resell them again, that they are put in these stores which are not all of them sanitary, and that the cake has every possibility of becoming sour and unfit for consumption if it is kept there a day or two longer; that that bread, in the summer time especially, is liable to mould and decompose; that it is unfit in any manner for any of our citizens to partake, not because of price—I am fighting for a cheap loaf of bread and cheap cake for our people too; I want them to get a fresh product that is cheaper.

Mayor Congleton: I have confidence enough in the Board of Health to follow them in their work, and I have said before, and I say again, I am in sympathy with the proposition. I think that the ordinance can be worked out to cover it. I am not trying to protect the people you are talking about. I am trying to protect the honest legitimate bakeries.

Mr. Grois: I didn't say that you were trying to protect any individual group. It was reported I was interested in a particular group. I can come here for something just once in a while than for my own organization.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Handler: Can I respectfully request that members of our group be permitted to sit in with the Law Department in the drafting of this ordinance?

Mayor Congleton: Take it up with Judge Boettner and I am sure he will be glad to receive suggestions from anybody who wants to offer them.

The City Clerk presented "An ordinance to vacate portions of Market Street, Railroad Place, Commerce Street, Abel Street, New South Canal Street, and Raymond Plaza West, and to vacate and extinguish the public rights, if any, in land occupied by the elevated railroad and structure of the United New Jersey Railroad and Canal Company, all within an area bounded as follows: On the Southwest by a line parallel to and distant ninety (90) feet Northerly measured at right angles, from the proposed Southerly line of Market Street, which line is described as follows:

In consequence of the death of their neighbor and fellow-citizen Thomas Alva Edison, who departed this life on Sunday, October 18th, 1931, the people of Newark, New Jersey, are bowed with grief as are also the peoples of the entire civilized world;

AND WHEREAS: His passing from the scene was especially sorrowful in the minds and hearts of the members of this community, not only for the reason that he achieved many of his greatest triumphs in his laboratories in the neighborhoring town of West Orange, but also because many of his experiments were conducted during his early career in laboratories which he maintained in the City of Newark. During the scores of years which marked his prodigious efforts in the interests of mankind that were spent in Newark at Menlo Park and in West Orange, members of this community by the tens of thousands came to know him personally as friend and neighbor;

AND WHEREAS, Thomas Alva Edison, foremost citizen of the world, one of the greatest men this nation has ever produced, through the hundreds of services of the greatest importance which he has rendered mankind, by reason of his wizardry in the fields of electricity and chemistry, notably his major triumphs among which are the incandescent lamp, which gave work, light, recreation and comfort to the entire world; the phonograph; the kinetoscope and the electrically driven railway car, made the world a better place in which to live to a degree that is altogether without parallel in the history of human achievement;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, on behalf of the people of this City, do hereby record this expression of appreciation of Thomas Alva Edison, their sense of the world-wide loss occasioned by his death, and their deep sympathy for the members of his bereaved family;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions suitably engrossed, be presented to the family of Thomas Alva Edison.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Alphonse Bergamo for a poultry market; premises 255 Academy Street; on condition that an up-to-date, blower system for the control of odors be installed, and that all windows on the east, north and west sides of the building be eliminated, be laid over to November 4, 1931.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Mark B. Warner, owner, for the construction of stores beyond the prevailing set back lines of Lyons Avenue and Park View Terrace; premises 128-130 Lyons Avenue; on condition that none of the stores face Park View Terrace, and that face brick be used on the north, west and south sides of the building;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioner of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this resolution?

Mr. Jacob Lubetkin, 60 Park Place:

I represent the applicant. I believe we have satisfied the neighborhood up there by eliminating some of the stores.

Mayor Congleton: The plot plan does not show it, but Mr. Rankin says it has been changed—

Mr. Lubetkin: We have eliminated stores from Parkview Terrace and have agreed to use front brick on three sides. I might add that the setback on Lyons Avenue has already been broken.

Commissioner Howe: Was there any objection to this?

Mayor Congleton: Twenty-five property owners, they say here.

Mr. Lubetkin: There is a parcel in the middle of the block which extends to the street line, and the corner of Bergen Street has a building on the corner which comes out to the street lines.

Mayor Congleton: Are the lots immediately east vacant lots?

Mr. Lubetkin: They are vacant lots.

Mayor Congleton: Owned by your client?

Mr. Lubetkin: No, different owners. You see, the property is zoned for business; if you understand, Lyons Avenue is zoned for business in its entirety.

Mayor Congleton: But it still provides for a setback.

Mr. Lubetkin: Yes, under the zoning ordinance—

Mayor Congleton: As far as this plot goes, you are going in on a corner where all the rest of the plots have dwellings, you are the first store in there, and as I understand it, the people in these houses think you ought to maintain the same setback they do.

Mr. Lubetkin: In the middle of this very same block there has been a private house erected coming out to the street line. In other words, the set back on the street on the same block has already been broken.

Mayor Congleton: Once.

Mr. Lubetkin: Yes. and also on the corner.

Mayor Congleton: All of these houses within two hundred feet show a setback, and they are all dwellings.

Commissioner Gillen: I move it be laid over two weeks. I would like to see it.

Mr. Lubetkin: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, there is another question of law arising in case of this kind, and that is the function of the Board of Adjustment, whether or not this is not a case in which the Board of Adjustment has full and complete jurisdiction. Now, the Board of Adjustment created under your zoning ordinance, provides that the Board is given the powers, under Chapter 272 of the Laws of—

Mayor Congleton: We have had that question presented to us before, and we have an opinion from our Law Department which does not harmonize with your views and the views that have been raised before. I, for one, shall follow my Law Department.

Mr. Lubetkin: I would like to submit a brief to the Law Department on it. It seems to me the Board itself does not know where they stand in the matter.

Mayor Congleton: They have been advised by the Law Department, and they acted on this, so they are following the procedure laid down by the Law Department.

Commissioner Murray: Isn't this a thing where your Board of Adjustment should have passed on it without referring it to us?

Mayor Congleton: The Law Department says no. They have given an opinion to that effect.

Mr. Lubetkin: It seems to me—I do not want to question the value of the opinion—but a reading of the act, if you will read the act yourself, it seems to me very simple and very plain. The rights of the Board are very clearly defined under the Act of the Legislature, and if you take that construction of the act the Board of Adjustment has no powers at all, but is merely a recommending body; and that being the case, every applicant has one chance to appear before the Board of Adjustment, while the objectors have two opportunities to appear, once before the Board of Adjustment and once before the City Commission to object to a permit.

Mayor Congleton: We always give the applicant the same opportunity that we do the objector.

Mr. Lubetkin: There is nothing in the law which permits the applicant to come before the City Commission—

Mayor Congleton: Almost every applicant knows he has that right, and we have never refused a hearing to anyone, because where there is any controversy we always have plenty on both sides.

Mr. Lubetkin: It would seem to me the effect of the opinion of the Law Department, that this Board has no power to recommend, has practically devitalized this Board. It seems to me it is a useless function. I do not see why an applicant cannot come directly here to the City Commission and have it disposed of at one time.

Mayor Congleton: We are going to follow our Law Department's opinion, and if you would like to argue it with the Law Department you can do it.

Mr. Lubetkin: I would like to have that opportunity.

Mayor Congleton: I am sure they would be glad to discuss it with you.

Mr. Lubetkin: For the benefit not only of myself in this particular case, but for the Board of Adjustment, to ascertain and definitely determine what their functions are.

Mayor Congleton: They have been advised many, many times by the Law Department what their functions are. We have not been operating in the dark, as we view it, for all these years. We have had opinions from the Law Department, and the Board of Adjustment is acting accordingly.

Mr. Lubetkin: Mr. Mayor, I do not question that point at all, but some very reputable lawyers sometime make mistakes—

Mayor Congleton: We are giving you an opportunity to go and see if you can convince our Law Department that they are wrong. I am going to follow that opinion.

Mr. Lubetkin: May I have that opportunity?

Commissioner Egan: This is three times you have been told you have it. What do you want, do you want it in writing?

Mr. Lubetkin: Very well, the matter is postponed for two weeks.

(Laid over to November 4, 1931.)

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Auditor's Trial Balance for September, 1931.

Mayor Congleton: Three weeks from today, gentlemen, is Armistice Day. Will you have your meeting that week the day before or the day after?

Commissioner Egan: I move that the weekly meeting be held on Thursday, November 12, instead of Wednesday, November 11.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they wish to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: I am here on behalf of the Essex Trades Council in reference to the Centre Market. One of our organizations had their men employed there. Many of these engineers I am referring to have been employed there, I believe, for over a period of nine years, as long as the market has been there. They have paid into a pension fund and they were liable for a pension eleven years later. It so happens that I have been informed that there was an agreement made with the Board of Commissioners when the lease was consummated with the company that now operates the City Market, that the men employed there would be retained. It has also been brought to my attention and the council's attention that the organization that controls the market is continually in arrears with the rents owing to the City. Notwithstanding all this, they installed a Diesel engine for motor power and it cost in excess of $50,000, and they aid off the union men employed in there and put on non-union men, and particularly from outside of the City and State. Naturally, the council is interested in its own members, and then again it is interested in seeing that state and municipal residents are employed on state and municipal work where it is possible to do so. We respectfully urge the Board of Commissioners here to try and use your influence in having this organization live up to the verbal agreement made with you, by retaining these men and re-employing the men that were formerly employed.

Mayor Congleton: Is that the same matter that was called to our attention a few weeks ago and referred to Commissioner Gillen?

Commissioner Gillen: I have taken the matter up with the lessees, and I did not seem to get anywhere, so I leave it in the hands of the Commissioners.

Commissioner Egan: I think I saw some of the officers of that corporation here.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Gillen refers the matter back to the Commission. Do you hear any motion?

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I think this, that local labor, as I understand this picture discussing it with Commissioner Gillen and these representatives, that this company that has the Center Market has engaged labor from outside of the state to do this work in their building. Now, while we have no legal right in even suggesting whom they should employ in that market, certainly the City, through this Commission, has been very lenient with this tenant, and they in return should show interest in the welfare of our City. As I understand it from conference with these labor representatives, the men whom they have in their organization are licensed by the state, and have been especially approved by the representatives of the Department of Labor of the State; but even in the face of those conditions, this company, through its officers, has refused up to the present moment to recognize the necessity for employing local labor as against labor from outside the State. I think that is the position you gentlemen find yourselves in?

Mr. Grois: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: Why they continue to assume this attitude in the face of the fact this Commission has been very gracious, to say the least, is beyond me. And I move you, Mr. Mayor, that this company be officially informed that the City Commission feels that they are not fair in dealing with local labor in the situation, if the facts submitted to me are as I indicated in my talk.

Commissioner Murray: Can't you get local men to run Diesel engines?

Mr. Grois: Yes.

Commissioner Egan: They won't hire them.

Commissioner Gillen: They offer some excuse that they require Diesel men. The local men say they can run them.

Mr. Grois: They are run by our men throughout the State, and there are in the City Diesel engines.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. William Simon, 20 Clinton Street:

I represent Jacob R. Mantel, owner of premises 502 Hunterdon Street. A year ago an occupant of that building had been doing some shooting, and the police, in order to get at him and get him out of the building, of necessity fired over fifty shots into the building, destroying the entire interior. It is Mr. Mantel's belief that they went a little bit too far in the destruction of the building in order to get the occupant out. It is an old house, and it has been damaged to the extent of beyond $1,000. I wrote to the Commissioners, it was referred to the Law Department, and the Law Department denies legal liability. I do not think that the owner of this property should stand the total burden of the destruction of his property in order to get this man out, and I think that the City and this Commission should do something to recompense the owner of the premises for the destruction. There is a large newspaper column giving in detail the destruction that has taken place.

Commissioner Murray: What was the building occupied for?

Mr. Simon: A one-family house, a colored tenant.

Commissioner Egan: This fellow was a maniac?

Mr. Simon: I don't know. I know that he fired at somebody outside, and the police got there and they hurled bombs into the building.

Commissioner Egan: This matter has never been discussed with me.

Mr. Simon: I know it hasn't. I didn't know who to take it up with. I thought I would come here, and if it is referred back to you—

Commissioner Egan: We will take it up.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Comimssioner Howe: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following ordinance was presented for information:

A further Supplement to an Ordinance entitled "An ordinance to es-abolish the names of certain streets in the City of Newark",

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, this proposed ordinance changing the name of Mechanic Street to Edison Street, we find in looking up our records there is an Edison Avenue that runs from the Elizabeth City Line a short distance into Newark paralleling Frelinghuysen Avenue. It is only a very short distance. Then I have also seen some comments in the press that they did not think it was a sufficient tribute.

Commissioner Murray: The comment in the press suggested one of the State Highways might be called Edison Route.

Mayor Congleton: I shall withhold introduction of this ordinance for two weeks.

Commissioner Murray introduced the following ordinance and moved its adoption on first reading.

The clerk then read the ordinance as follows:

An ordinance for the removal of Dust, Gases and Fumes from factories.

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, Do Ordain:

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and advertisement according to law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that November 12th, 1931, at 11 A. M., or as soon thereafter as said matter can be reached, and the Board's meeting room, second floor, City Hall, Newark, N. J., be fixed as the time and place when and where said ordinance will be further considered for final passage, and that the City Clerk be and he is hereby directed to publish said ordinance and give public notice of its introduction and passage on first reading as provided by law.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray presented the following ordinance for information:

An ordinance Regulating Laundries doing business in the City of Newark.

Commissioner Murray: That, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I am introducing more for information than anything else. It is my information from the Health Department, at the regular meeting of the heads of the various divisions of the Health Department a committee of Newark laundrymen appeared before them and asked for an ordinance requiring the laundries to come up to a certain standard which most of them meet. Among the elements of this standard is the handling of soiled laundry, and the group through which it passes and becomes clean and is ready to send out. Apparently some of them do it in a shipshod manner, which does not cost very much. They have no objection to having the ordinance come up to a certain standard, but if any ordinance is intended to prevent, for example, a poor woman from taking home a load of laundry washing it and ironing it and taking it back to the house from which it came, then I would not want the ordinance to go through. But I would like to find out more from these people. They are apparently anxious to have it introduced, but I do not think we should go to the expense of printing it, and so forth, at this time.

Commissioner Howe: Is this being introduced at the request of the Board of Health or the laundries?

Commissioner Murray: At the request of the Department of Health by way of request of the Laundrymen's Association, or whatever they call themselves.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, the people you are thinking of won't know anything about this ordinance.

Commissioner Murray: They probably won't; but in their absence we can take care of them.

Mayor Congleton: For that very reason we ought to perhaps give very careful attention to it ourselves. The ordinance is introduced for information and will come up for hearing on Thursday, November 12, 1931.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolution:

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard in opposition?

Mr. Francis J. Tansey, 164 Market Street:

I am appearing for a Mr. Castle, owner of the adjoining property, on this application for a garage. I wish to object to the granting of this application and also, I appeared before the Board of Adjustment and stated my objections. Our petition was presented to the Board of Adjustment and we obtained some signers who also objected to that place.

Mayor Congleton: Four.

Mr. Tansey: Four, yes, sir. Now, I also wish to state that Mrs. Castle is a paralytic, and it is detrimental to her health, due to the noise and the racket which goes on—

Mayor Congleton: Do you think it will be more objectionable to have cars on a vacant lot or to have them so people cannot get in their houses on Broad Street? I go by there a great deal, and it is almost impossible at times to get through, due to the parked automobiles on both side of the street; and if a jitney comes down you stand a fine chance to get sideswiped. With the club there I think it is a good place for an open-air parking, myself.

Mr. Tansey: The accommodation that lot would afford would be very small—

Mayor Congleton: Well, it will help some, won't it?

Mr. Tansey: Then I would also call the attention of the Commissioners here that there was an application for Third Avenue and Mt. Pleasant Avenue which was denied by this body, now, the party making that application was the one who protested against the granting of that application also, and I think it is detrimental to the community there, being a residential neighborhood, and also to my client. They have an arclight there burning all night long, and my client's bedroom faces on the back of the lot there.

Commissioner Murray: The arc light burns where?

Mr. Tansey: In this very parking lot, which is a nuisance. There are cars butted up against the fence of my client.

Commissioner Murray: If they do any damage or invade the property of your client, you have a remedy.

Mr. Tansey: The thing is, we don't want them to get a permanent application and to get this lot there. It is the noise that arises there.

Mayor Congleton: You have that same noise now that arises in front of the house.

Mr. Tansey: But the bedrooms are on the rear; so it doesn't matter so much about the noise on the front of the street.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Murray: How many people object to that?

Mayor Congleton: Four.

Mr. Tansey: I might say that the signers of the petitioner's application, they were informed at the time they signed that there were no objections to it; and my client, Mr. Castle, received a notice subsequent to the signing of that original petition. Now, he has been around to see the signers of that original petition, and when they found there were objections to it, they would not have signed the original application.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, that Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the require-

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. Donald C. Fox, 117 South Grove Street, East Orange:

I would like an adjournment of two weeks.

Mayor Congleton: There is quite a substantial protest from the people up in East Orange—

Commissioner Egan: There is a substantial protest from the people in the immediate neighborhood. There is my old green vegetable representative with all of his neighbors who are opposed to this thing, who have invested their life savings in this neighborhood, and I do not think a chicken market should go into a neighborhood where they are living.

Commissioner Howe: Why not settle it now?

Mayor Congleton: I am ready to vote against it, but the gentleman wants a two weeks adjournment.

Mayor Congleton: Do I understand from this that this is merely using the backyard of a lot that there is a house on?

Mr. Rankin: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: It is the backyard of a plot that the house is on.

Commissioner Murray: How are they going to get in there?

Mr. Rankin: From Plum Street.

Mr. Rankin: That is on the corner of Ingraham Place.

Mayor Congleton: Is there a setback?

Mr. Rankin: This will come out to the property line, the addition that they contemplate.

Mayor Congleton: And none of the neighbors objected, according to your memorandum?

Mr. Rankin: No.

Mr. Rankin: That faces Ingraham Place. The store will face Runyon Street.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I shall be brief. It is my understanding from the public press that a movement has been started, or is about to be started, to name one of the thoroughfares in Newark in honor of the memory of the late Thomas A. Edison. I don't know whether I am in order on that matter at this time, but I would like to suggest for your consideration when the thought comes up, the naming of the present Ward

Street in honor of Mr. Edison. There are several reasons why Ward Street should be named in honor of Mr. Edison, the first of which is, that Ward Street will be, when it is completed, a street running practically from one end of Newark to the other; the second is, that Mr. Edison had the first, or if not the first, one of his very first work shops in Newark on Ward Street near Market Street I shant go into any further reasons, I cannot think of them right offhand, but we merely ask when you are considering this matter that you give it some consideration.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else have any matter to discuss with the Commission?

Commissioner Egan: I move we adjourn.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until November 18th.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance regulating laundries doing business in the City of Newark, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray: That ordinance, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, was introduced for information, and we set it down for today so we might get some information from the people interested.

Mayor Congleton: There are some people here who are interested.

Commissioner Murray: I would like to hear those people.

Mr. Harold C. Buckalew, Secretary, New Jersey Laundry Owners Association, 1060 Broad Street, Newark: I am secretary of the New Jersey Laundry Owners Association—

Commissioner Murray: Are you going to speak for it or against it?

Mr. Buckalew: For it, with the exception of one section of it. I may say that the ordinance as it has been presented to the Commissioners was reviewed in private hearing with Dr. Craster and a committee of this association, and we agreed upon the ordinance as it has been presented to you, with an exception, and that is the provision in the ordinance which call for the payment of a license fee of $2. per plant.

Commissioner Murray: You do not like that?

Mr. Buckalew: No, sir.

Commissioner Murray: That isn't charging enough?

Mr. Buckalew: The objection to it, your Honor, is this: The restriction there that we get invariably in other towns—the question is, where will this thing stop. The question of super taxes has become burdensome. We have in effect at the present time in this State a commercial tax levied under legislative enactment which is in operation in practically all but first-class cities. There are plants in the membership of this association that are paying taxes in twenty-five municipalities, and these taxes which started out originally at $5. a year, in three municipalities today are $300. a year; and if you picked up the paper here last night you will find Union contemplates a five hundred dollar tax a year. There isn't any end to it. If this is a public health measure, as Dr. Craster seems to think it is—he originated the ordinance, and not the laundry industry—then we see no reason for the tax. We are willing to stand for a tax of fifty cents per vehicle, or $1. which it was originally, for the plates he affixed to the trucks, if it is necessary to do that in order to pay for the material, the actual cost of these plates, and administering this ordinance. The tax is something which will simply spread. Every municipality in Essex County, every truck coming into Newark will be taxed—will retaliate similarly. It will be five, ten, or what not. It is a super tax, and we object to it. We are willing to abide by the ordinance and are willing to assist in its administration.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Aaron Levinstone, representing

New Jersey Hand Laundry Association, 20 Clinton Street, Newark: You have just heard the argument of the representative of the Laundrymen's Association representing the steam laundries. The individual laundryman, the retail laundryman, have no objection to that particular feature of the $2. a year. I think it is a reasonable fee to cover the expenditure of the Board of Health. There is paragraph 5, section 5, which requires them to have water-closets for males and females separately provided. That will prove too great a burden, and an impossibility, practically, for the individual laundryman who has a small place and usually employs one or two at the most; and I think that this provision should be, that if anyone employs one or two or three help it should be sufficient to have just one water-closet.

Mayor Congleton: This ordinance is not before us for any final action, it is for the purpose of information just such as we are getting here this morning. So you will have ample opportunity to see to that.

Mr. Levinstone: It is also our idea that the general trend of these regulations are, I think well taken, and are really going to be for the benefit of the citizens at large.

Mayor Congleton: You represent the small—

Mr. Levinstone: The retail laundrymen.

Mayor Congleton: Tell me, I haven't had an opportunity to study the ordinance very carefully, what effect does it have on, for instance, the colored woman who comes to our house and takes the laundry home to her house, has she got to have these toilets?

Mr. Levinstone: That is the next point I wanted to take up. These ordinances do not provide—

Mayor Congleton: It will make it almost impossible for those people to make a livelihood.

Commissioner Murray: This is not an ordinance yet.

Mr. Levinstone: These regulations do not make any provisions for that particular situation that your Honor the Mayor just mentioned. I believe I read in the press that Commissioner Murray did make some reference to that, that it is not intended to have this regulation apply to those, provided the person who takes wash to their own homes. At the same time, if the Board of Health is interested in the protection of the health of the citizens, I think that certain regulations should be made in order to regulate and provide for those particular emergencies or facts. There is also a question, the previous speaker referred to the prohibitive fees that are laid on by the different municipalities. I also thought that the Board of Health in cooperation with the Commission government, or the Honorable Commissioner Murray, should call a conference of all the different neighboring municipalities in order to have uniform rules and regulations for the protection of the health of the citizens.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, that is one of the things I have in mind. There are laundry companies from outside of Newark and outside of Essex County who do a very large business here. We have no right, I assume, to bar them from coming in and doing this inter-city business; but I wonder whether any ordinance which the City of Newark might put into effect would control these plants from outside the City on the same basis as they would be controlled within the City. The real object of the ordinance should be to regulate the handling of clothing sent in for laundrying where the clothing particularly comes from places where individuals are suffering from communicable diseases; and they have been very careless with it, and we have been very fortunate that it has not done much harm that we know of. There are a few isolated cases where illnesses might have been traced back to the fact that the individual worked in a laundry; but the object of the ordinance should be to protect the receipt of that kind of goods separate and apart as to vehicle, and everything else, from linen or anything else that comes from an ordinary household, or restaurant, or hotel, or other place where they have large amounts of laundry; and the separation should be so distinct that there would not be any danger of the contamination of the wholesome goods by the unwholesome. I am not satisfied that this ordinance does it yet, and I think the suggestion made by the last speaker is very timely. Of course, whatever ordinance is adopted will require additional inspection by the Department of Public Health, and will cost the City extra money for that labor; and I cannot see any reasonable basis for objection to the levying of a reasonable license fee which will pay into the City something to offset this additional expense of inspection which would naturally follow this for a very considerable period until these laundries become automatically so well acquainted with the operation of the sanitary rules in this respect as to make it easier to let down on the inspection; and I do not believe that the fact that Newark would make a $2. charge would cause any other city in the County of Essex to make a charge any larger, because the cost of inspection to them would certainly not be larger than to us, and probably not as great. We cannot draw a line around the City of Newark, because if we do, retaliation will be against the men in Newark who go outside to get business. But I think the ordinance as at present drawn is just in a primary stage which needs a lot of explanation—we have heard some of it here this morning—and I would suggest before we take any further action on the matter that it be referred back to the Health Officer and that conferences be arranged among all the people interested in this line of work, both hand laundries, Chinese laundries, private laundries and the larger laundries, so everybody might have his day in court, instead of ironing it out here. They understand their business, and we have no idea of embarrassing their business in anyway. We are not trying to put any crimp in their business, or to regulate it except as it applies to the sanitation or lack of sanitation of washable goods and goods sent out cleaned. If all of you will refer your matter to Dr. Craster, the Health Officer, the Health Department will take it up and go into it carefully with you so when an ordinance is submitted it will be such as will accomplish the purposes of the Health Department without injuring your business in any way. Is that satisfactory?

Mr. Levinstone: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: All right, take this matter up from now on with the Health Department, and the ordinance will be sent back by me to the Health Department for these conferences which will have to be held.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be referred to Dr. Craster for hearing and redrafting.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance for the removal of dust, gases and fumes from factories, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Steve Koss, 56 South Fourteenth Street: I live next to the Imperial Laundry up there. On July 26th they had an explosion which rocked my house. Also they fill it with gas and smoke every once in a while. At night they have their fan going, and I cannot sleep. They have a place to drive the coal in, and people cannot hear conversation on the first floor.

Commissioner Murray: When they get the coal in.

Mr. Koss: When they are dumping coal.

Commissioner Murray: What do you mean when they are dumping coal, when it is being delivered there?

Mr. Koss: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: That applies to my house.

Commissioner Murray: You cannot hear anybody talk no matter where they are delivering coal.

Mr. Koss: It is all day. We have dust all over the place.

Commissioner Murray: You have a remedy now. Where do you live?

Mr. Koss: 56 South Fourteenth Street.

Commissioner Murray: If there is a condition there that interferes with your comfort and your living where you are, it may constitute a nuisance. If it is a nuisance you have a right to make a complaint against them.

Mr. Koss: I have a whole bag of coal sweepings from the floor.

Commissioner Murray: If they are violating the smoke ordinance, we have a smoke department in the city to which you can appeal; and if they have got a fan that runs at night which keeps you from sleeping, that can be stopped, because that is nuisance itself. You have a remedy right there; you do not have to wait for this ordinance. You go to the Health Department and make your complaint.

Mr. Koss: They won't take my complaint. The inspector told me he is going to protect the laundry and not my health and not my home.

Commissioner Howe: How long are you living there?

Mr. Koss: I have the house four years and I live in the place since January.

Commissioner Howe: How long is the laundry there? Twenty years?

Mr. Koss: The house is up there before the boiler was there, and that boiler was put in after I got the house.

Commissioner Howe: That is an industry that has been there over twenty years, and you move alongside of it and want it stopped.

Mr. Koss: Why should I give my house up for the laundry? Shouldn't I have protection?

Commissioner Murray: You can get proper protection.

Mr. Koss: I want them to put a wall between that place, but they would not do that, to keep out the dust.

Commissioner Murray: How high do you want that brick wall?

Mr. Koss: As high as the boiler house.

Commissioner Murray: Isn't the boiler in a brick building?

Mr. Koss: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: What good will a brick wall do outside of a brick building.

Mr. Koss: For this new boiler they have corrugated iron, and the smoke and the gas is escaping.

Commissioner Murray: Then it is a corrugated iron boiler house?

Mr. Koss: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: That might be checked up.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Murray will have it looked into. Does anyone else desire to speak with respect to this proposed ordinance?

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until November 25th.

Commissioner Howe offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Louis Rossi (Sam Cavalieri, owner) for a retail ice and coal depot; premises 306 Fairmount Avenue; permit to run for one year from date;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe
Jerome T. Congleton
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Mayor Congleton: I do not think we have had a report from the Board of Health yet.

Commissioner Murray: I have reports for 464 Fourteenth Avenue and 306 Fairmount Avenue.

Mayor Congleton: 306 Fairmount Avenue is the one we are now considering.

Commissioner Murray: The report of the Health Department is there isn't any objection to it; and in addition to making an ordinary inspection, they inquired of families in the vicinity of the proposed ice depot, and they voiced no objection. It is properly drained, has a concrete floor and trap, and was formerly used for the manufacture and sale of cheese. An ice house cannot be any more objectionable than a cheese factory. So the Health Department reports both as all right.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Vetollo, owner, for the construction of a retail ice depot premises 464 Fourteenth Avenue; permit to run for one year from date; .

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe
Jerome T. Congleton
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Commissioner Murray: The site of the proposed ice depot, the inspector reports is a vacant lot 25x100 feet; 462 is also a vacant lot and 466 is a one-family house. He sells ice from a truck with a permit from the Health Department. Inquiries made in the neighborhood where there is a one-family house with a barber shop in it, reveals no one would object to the depot.

Mayor Congleton: No objectors appeared before the Board of Adjustment, either.

Commissioner Murray: The site of the proposed depot is 100 feet east of Speedway Avenue.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Guarantee Building & Loan Association, owner, for the outdoor parking of automobiles, premises 29½-35 Rec- tor Street; for one year, on condition that a wire fence be erected along the street front, and that only such signs be erected as meet the approval of the Board, be laid over to November 25, 1931.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Amon, owner, for the alteration of a dwelling to provide for a store on the first floor; premises 277 Runyon Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Murray: He wants to put it out beyond the building line instead of maintaining the setback.

Commissioner Howe: Do you have it up against it?

Mr. Amon: I got to come to the building line. The building line is about three feet six out. The building is set back three foot six on it.

Commissioner Murray: Don't you come to the building line?

Mr. Amon: I want to come to the building line.

Commissioner Murray: That puts you against all the buildings on the block?

Mm. Amon: Most of the other apartment houses on the other side of the street are three foot six back.

Commissioner Murray: But you will come out to the building line and shut off all the houses on the other side of you.

Mr. Rankin: It comes out three and one-half feet beyond his present building line.

Commissioner Howe: Where are the other houses?

Mr. Rankin: The other houses are back.

Commissioner Fowe: There are no objections?

Mr. Rankin: No objections.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray moved that the resolution covering the application of Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halstead Street, be laid over for one week.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, may I say this: This was up two weeks ago and these people have changed counsel in the last two weeks. Mr. Fox did represent them, and here comes another lawyer. I like to give whatever concessions we can to lawyers, but I think it is not fair to bring these poor people down here every week.

Commissioner Murray: I do not think that is fair, but-- Commissioner Egan: I am not going to vote for it. There are a lot of people up there who have their homes established, and I do not intend to vote for it.

Mayor Congleton: There is a very strong protest from East Orange.

Commissioner Gillen: I am against it too.

Commissioner Egan: They tried to set up in the application before the Board of Adjustment, to counteract the attitude of the objectors, that there was a pool room in the neighborhood, and that if the pool room was there, certainly there was no reason to find fault with a chicken market. Then in order to prove the pool room was a nuisance an anonymous complaint came into the Seventh Precinct Police Station two weeks ago Sunday night, and a Seventh Precinct plainclothes man went over there and did a complete job in so far as bringing into the station house the young fellow that runs the pool room. They were trying, apparently to establish the fact that this was a bad situation over there, to further their application for a chicken market in this section.

Mayor Congleton: What are your grounds for an adjournment?

Mr. Fenias: I have just been brought into the matter and I would like to familiarize myself with the reason for granting the application.

Mayor Congleton: The matter has been before the Board for some time, and most of us have visited the place and have expressed ourselves at the previous meetings as to how we feel about it.

Mr. Fenias: So far as I know there is only one objector within the two hundred feet radius. I have a letter from the priest of St. Joseph's Church recommending the granting of a permit for a chicken market. The only objector is this single individual who owns a house at the corner of Tremont and Halstead, and the owner of this supposed chicken market—

Mayor Congleton: You have not been properly informed about the people opposed to it. According to a memorandum given us by the Board of Adjustment two petitions were filed, eighteen property owners in favor, twenty-two opposed, and three signed the petition and protest.

Mr. Fenias: I understand since that time they have obtained the permission of the original protestors to the erection of this poultry market.

Commissioner Murray: What harm can it do to give Mr. Fenias this courtesy?

Mayor Congleton: Except it brings these people back for the third time. We are perfectly willing to entertain any motion that is made.

Commissioner Murray: I move it be adjourned for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Now, let it be understood that this is the final adjournment. We are not going to ask these people to come back again.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Director of Public Safety publicly solicited, received and opened proposals covering the furnishing of tags, plates and badges to the License Division of the Department of Public Safety; and

WHEREAS, the proposal of B. Conlan & Company on same, as follows, is the lowest one received and

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan: Now, Mr. Mayor, so I won't burn my fingers on this question of material, do I have to go through the process of advertising for materials?

Mayor Congleton: You will have to advertise if you are going to buy more than $1,000 worth, unless we pass an emergency resolution. I think a quotation from at least three merchants would get you started.

We now have an emergency resolution authorizing Commissioner Egan to purchase materials to carry out this work that he has mentioned on the police stations, for which he said the estimate was $37,947.00.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING

PARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY TO MAKE REPAIRS TO POLICE BUILDINGS, IN ACCORDANCE WITH EMPLOYMENT RELIEF PROGRAM.

WHEREAS, under the program for employment relief the Director of the Department of Public Safety has outlined work to be done in the alterations and repairs to buildings used by the Police Department; and

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Commissioners of The City of

Newark, that the Director of the Department of Public Safety is hereby authorized to proceed with the work of alterations and repairs to Police Headquarters and the 8th Precinct buildings, at a cost not to exceed Thirty Seven Thousand, Nine Hundred and Forty Seven Dollars ($37,947.00), which amount is hereby appropriated for that purpose; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That since an emergency exists, requiring the immediate purchase of supplies and materials for the work, the Director of the Department of Public Safety is hereby authorized to make such purchase as may be necessary for the immediate progress of the work without advertising for bids. This authorization is in conformance with the resolution heretofore adopted, making an appropriation for the said Employment Relief Program, and providing for the issuance of temporary bonds to meet such appropriation.

Commissioner Egan: I think you should, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: They are all taken from the Overseer of the Poor's list of registrations. This resolution of mine is where they have been put to work, and ratifying my act in having heretofore appointed these men. Are there any remarks?

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

A resolution authorizing the Director of the Department of Public Affairs to do the necessary work in the improvement and alteration of watershed properties, in accordance with employment relief program.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the Director of the Department of Public Affairs be and he is hereby authorized to proceed with the work in the improvement and alteration of Watershed properties, and the sum of three hundred and twenty nine thousand dollars ($329,000.) is hereby appropriated for that purpose; which authorization is given in conformance with a resolution heretofore adopted by this Board making an appropriation for the said Employment Relief Program, and providing for the issuance of temporary bonds to meet such appropriation.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Now, gentlemen, do you want to take any action on Congressman Lehlbach's matter? Take the average of these four appraisals and your appraisal of the building it runs to that. This Koch resolution is before us to buy at $23,000. Are there any remarks on that?

Commissioner Gillen: I think in view of the prices we are forced to pay for other pieces there we cannot get away from it.

Commissioner Egan: The average appraisal of four men was $20,829 for the land, and Commissioner Gillen's appraisal for the building is $2,000, which make $22,829, a difference of only $171.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the sum of Twenty-three thousand dollars ($23,000) be and the same is hereby appropriated to Margaretha Koch, individually, and Margaretha Koch and William F. Koch, executors under the last will and testament of George Koch, deceased, being the amount agreed to be accepted by them as the purchase price of premises agreed to be sold to The City of Newark, for City Railway, which lands, situate in the City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey, are more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at the intersection of the northerly line of Academy Street with the easterly line of Wickliffe Street; thence along Academy Street south 62° east 77.75 feet; thence north 26° 45' east 59.57 feet to the southerly side of a garage standing on lands adjoining on the north; thence along the southerly side of said garage north 65° 39' west 80.27 feet to Wickliffe Street; thence along Wickliffe Street south 24° 9' west 54.56 feet to Academy Street and place of BEGINNING.

said sum to be paid to them upon the execution and delivery of an Executors' Deed made by them to The City of Newark, conveying the lands aforesaid, free and clear of all encumbrances, except taxes for the current year, which are to be apportioned as of closing, said Deed to be approved as to form by the Law Department.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, I think we ought to take up the Purchasing Board.

Mayor Congleton: The Law Department has some reports to make on some of these condemnation cases.

Mr. Henegan: The Ash property on Washington Street; the Commissioners found $107,386 on that property. I have prepared a resolution. That is the case in which there was a certiorari—we were noticed on certiorari before the Chief Justice; Mr. Hannon was representing the owners, and he withheld action on the certiorari and went ahead with the condemnation, and he is now willing to accept the amount awarded.

Commissioner Egan: What were our figures?

Mr. Henegan: We had various figures: $94,000, and we had another figure of $100,000, and we were to waive all taxes and assessments, which amounted to about six or seven thousand dollars. Then there was a figure of $100,000 on which they were to pay assessments.

Commissioner Egan: What is the attitude of the Law Department on it?

Mr. Henegan: It is a policy matter, and I do not suppose we should make a recommendation on it, except we say we do not think we can cut it down much on appeal, in the light of the testimony that was given.

Commissioner Gillen: It went to condemnation?

Mr. Henegan: Yes, that is the award of the Commissioners.

Commissioner Gillen: What was the award?

Mr. Henegan: $107,000.

Commissioner Gillen: That is ridiculous.

Commissioner Howe: They offered to take $94,000 and waive taxes.

Mayor Congleton: We to cancel taxes.

Mr. Henegan: That would be about $101,000.

Commissioner Gillen: I think it ought to be appealed. I do not think that property is worth over $76,000 on anybody's figures.

Mr. Henegan: There is a practical situation there that Mr. Smiley tells me about. They are about to let contracts on that section, and he would like to get the property as soon as he can. Of course, the practical situation is that any delay that we have on that work is going to be a costly delay to the City.

Mayor Congleton: Who were our real estate men?

Dr. Kraemer: On the Ash Realty, Fiedler, Beach, and Jones.

Mayor Congleton: Our three real estate men on that were Fiedler, Beach, and Jones. Who did the other side have?

Dr. Kraemer: Mr. Edward Maier and John Berry. Our figures run from $85,000, and their experts went up as high as $140,000.

(Discussion.)

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the sum of one hundred seven thousand, three hundred eighty-six dollars ($107,386) be and the same is hereby appropriated to L. Steiner, J. Augenthaler, H. J. Harnoch, being the amount awarded by the commissioners appointed in proceedings in condemnation instituted by The City of Newark, in the New Jersey Supreme Court, for the acquirement of lands of said parties on Washington Street, necessary for City Railway, a municipal project; said sum to be paid to said parties upon filing with the Acting Auditor of Accounts of Warranty Deed made by said parties to the City of Newark, conveying said lands, free and clear of all encumbrances except 1931 taxes, which are to be apportioned on closing title, approved as to form by the Law Department, which lands, situate in the City of Newark are described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point in the southeasterly line of Washington Street, as recently opened and widened, where same is intersected by the southwesterly line of the Morris Canal, and which point of beginning according to a survey hereinafter mentioned, is distant northeasterly as measured along said line of Washington Street 122.88 feet from the intersection thereof with the northeasterly line of Academy Street; thence along said southeasterly line of Washington Street south 27° 19' west 31.77 feet to lands now or formerly of Morris Canal and Banking Company; thence along said lands of Morris Canal and Banking Company south 59° 34' east 46.31 feet; thence north 30° 14' east 35.67 feet to said southwesterly line of Morris Canal; thence along said southwesterly line of Morris Canal; north 64° 15' west 48.07 feet to said southeasterly line of Washington Street, as recently opened and widened to the point or place of BEGINNING.

According to a survey made by Frank T. Shepard, Surveyor, dated Aug. 27, 1925.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the Purchasing Board sit in with the Law Department and prepare their rules and regulations so as to start to function on December 1.

Mr. Henegan: I do not know what has been done on that up to the present time. Judge Boettner has been meeting with them—

Commissioner Gillen: Just follow the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: They cannot start until after they have prepared rules and regulations and we have approved them.

Commissioner Gillen: Then we will make no date at all.

Mayor Congleton: I should say that the direction be that they proceed to prepare their rules and regulations and submit them to us for approval.

Commissioner Gillen: They can have some member of the Law Department follow the ordinance.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, one more thing: The Bergamo chicken market. In the condemnation proceedings they awarded $26,358. Now, the Law Department and the attorney for the owners have been negotiating, and if he is permitted to keep that piece where he can go on and keep his chicken market, giving us what we need for Academy Street frontage and for our railway, he will take $17,250. instead of $26,358.

Commissioner Murray: What does he keep?

Dr. Kraemer: This piece here (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: We take this and he gets this (indicating on map).

Commissioner Egan: What do you think, Mr. Mayor?

Mayor Congleton: I can only go on the figures handed in. In the condemnation case he thought he was going to get his permit on the upper block, and by an agreement with the Law Department in that case he did not attempt to put any particular value on this for anything for his business.

Commissioner Murray: He cannot put any value on a chicken market, because it is a year-to-year permit.

Mayor Congleton: I appreciate that; but in the condemnation it was agreed if he did not get that other, by a gentleman's agreement they were to go back and let him try to put in what additional value he could if he thought he had any rights.

Commissioner Murray: He wants the front on Academy Street for $9,000, and he gets $18,000 above that for the back part, which is narrower and smaller and on the bank of the canal.

Mayor Congleton: We are taking 24 feet of frontage off of his property on Academy Street.

Commissioner Murray: But he has got the best part of the property back there.

Commissioner Gillen: We ought to authorize Dr. Kraemer or somebody to offer him some figure below that amount.

Dr. Kraemer: That was the figure they agreed to take, and nothing less, and they said if they do not get that they want to go back and try the case over again, and that will be the second condemnation on it.

Commissioner Murray: He will never get his market up there, because it is up against a residence, and I do not care how many families are in the place, he will never get a permit.

Commissioner Gillen: I suggest we offer a lower figure.

Commissioner Murray: What do you suggest?

Commissioner Gillen: I would suggest about $14,000.

Commissioner Howe: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan moved that the resolution covering the application of Guarantee Building & Loan Association, owner, for the outdoor parking of automobiles; premises 29½-33 Rector Street; for one year, on condition that a wire fence be erected along the street front, and that only such signs be erected as meet the approval of the Board be laid over for two weeks.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, that Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Schilizzi (Factory Associates, Inc., owner) for the construction of a poultry market; premises 133-137 Halstead Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter?

Commissioner Howe: I move it be laid over one week.

Mr. Nicholas Dispensire, 318 Littleton Avenue:

We were told here last week this would be the last time.

Mayor Congleton: We gave the property owners who were coming here for several weeks our word that the matter would be finally disposed of today.

Commissioner Howe: I meant to look at it.

Mayor Congleton: What is your pleasure, gentlemen? Do you press your motion, Commissioner Howe?

Commissioner Howe: I said last week I would not vote for it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I am thinking about the people who were told this would be the last day. It is not quite fair to keep the property owners coming down week after week.

Commissioner Howe: All right.

Mayor Congleton: All right, we will proceed and hear the arguments on it.

Mr. Edward Fenias, 1060 Broad Street, said the physical situs of this property is especially adapted to a chicken market.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in favor of the application? If not, we will hear any objections there are.

Mr. Dispensiere said he represented Mr. Poppolardo, the person who was named by the person speaking for the application. There are at present three live poultry markets within a distance of three blocks: One at 221 Tremont Avenue, one of Mr. D'Angelo at 246 Tremont Avenue, and he understood there is another one at Bedford and Tremont Avenue, three chicken markets in a space of three blocks. He could not see any necessity for another one.

Commissioner Murray: How near your property is this proposed one?

Mr. Dispensiere: Right adjoining it.

Commissioner Murray: You are on the southwest corner?

Mr. Dispensiere: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: All the rest of the block is vacant, isn't it?

Mr. Dispensiere: I don't think so.

Mr. Fenias: All vacant.

Commissioner Murray: What I mean is, is this lot that this is to go on immediately next to your property?

Mr. Dispensiere: Yes.

Mr. Fenias: If it please the Commissioners, we propose to erect this poultry market forty feet from the building which Poppolardo now owns, so that it will not be so adjacent.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak against the matter.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gil-
len, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Joseph Weisberger, owner, for the construction of a poultry market; premises 82-84 Peddie Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this matter?

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Mr. Mayor, we are dealing with chickens today instead of bread. I am here representing Mr. Horbach of the Horbach Baking Company.

Mr. Felix Forlenza, 60 Park Place:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I appear in behalf of the applicant in this matter, which is for a chicken market at number 82-84 Peddie Street. May I say that this applicant some six or seven months ago had been presented to the Adjustment Board, and the objection at that time was that the entrance was on Hawthorne Avenue. That has been eliminated, and it is the intention, in accordance with the plans, to have the entrance on Peddie Street and no outlet whatsoever on Hawthorne Avenue. And when that was before the Board the applicant asked to withdraw it, which he did, and now with the new plan has been re-presented. May I state that when the application was granted a year or so ago to this other plot—

Mayor Congleton: What was that application? I don't recall any application that was concurred in by this Board. What was the name of it, do you know?

Mr. Forlenza: I don't recall, but that present site there is a bakery.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Rankin, do you have any record of this Board having granted a permit for a chicken market a year and a half ago?

Mr. Rankin: It was granted by the Board of Adjustment. But that was two or three years ago.

Mayor Congleton: I haven't any recollection of it.

Commissioner Murray: I will get that information from the Health Department.

Mr. Forlenza: The permit was granted, and at that time I believe Mr. Craster appeared before the Board, whatever Board it was that passed on it, and said that in his opinion he did not think it would be a detriment to the neighborhood or injurious to the health of the people in that neighborhood. Now, it seems to me with the ironclad regulations that are thrown around businesses of this kind, it certainly cannot be injurious to the health or the property.

Mayor Congleton: You can go in any of them where they are actually carrying on business and where they have the finest sanitary conditions, with tile walls, concrete floors, and they wash them out, and they have protection against odors. I have been to several of them and I haven't found one yet where they keep the live chickens in the place when you open the door you did not get an awful stench.

Mr. Forlenza: If you go into the place, but the immediate neighborhood is not affected by it.

Mayor Congleton: I have made investigations of them at different times when they have been pending, and you take it in the summertime with the windows open you can get it before you reach it, walking up the street. That has been my experience.

Mr. Forlenza: I might state, if that is so I do not think they were properly conducted. I think that there can be provisions made to do away with that odor.

Mayor Congleton: Well, it was just because of that condition that when we changed our zoning ordinance we put them in the heavy industrial district.

Mr. Forlenza: I ask that that application be granted.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in favor of the application?

Mr. David Litwin: I represent the owner of four houses immediately to the east, and about two years ago I was one the other side making opposition. I have checked up on the situation, and speaking for the owner of those houses, we have no objection.

Mayor Congleton: Now, we will go into the opposition. I will ask the City Clerk to read the letter I have from the president of the Pyrene Company.

A communication from Pyrene Manufacturing Company, 560 Belmont Avenue, on behalf of their employees, and in the interests of the many residents of this district, earnestly requesting that this application be denied, was received and read.

Mayor Congleton: And another letter from the Winans Company.

A communication from C. G. Winans Company, 241 Ridgewood Avenue, stating that their warehouse is directly across from this property and will be decidedly objectionable as well as detrimental to their business and property, was received and read.

Mayor Congleton: Now we will hear anyone else who desires to speak in opposition.

Mr. Herman Ratner, 14 Mechanic Street:

I represent the forty objectors—about forty, more or less—who own property in the immediate vicinity of this proposed chicken market. First of all, there is the industrial type property owners, such as the Pyrene Company and the Winans Company and the Horbach Baking Company. The Pyrene Company, I think, pays something like $30,000 in taxes to the City of Newark. They maintain a building which the City of Newark, I think, should be proud of. There is another class of objectors, those property owners who own property to the south of this proposed site, properties which are now occupied by tenants, mostly three and six-family houses. Under the conditions of real-estate values today these people have all they can do to meet their taxes and meet the carrying charges. With the erection of the chicken market rentals will go down and it will be impossible for these property owners to carry on and hold onto their property. There is still another class of objectors, and that is the property owners who own one-family houses in the immediate vicinity. These people have saved their lives savings and invested in a home for themselves.

Mr. O. Henry Grois: Mr. Horbach, of the Horbach Baking Company, has asked me to represent him here today. Mr. Horbach is present. He has been a taxpayer in the City of Newark and conducts a bakery business at Hawthorne Avenue and Belmont Avenue for thirty years. The pictures clearly show many of the factories there, but they don't give a distinct view of the bakery that is in that neighborhood. In addition to that, there are some twenty women here today that are in opposition to this matter, and the women have decided to speak to the Commission and tell them their disapproval of it.

Mayor Congleton: We will give them an opportunity if those gentlemen will step aside for a minute. Those here who are in opposition to this permit will all stand up. You need not come forward, we can see you.

(Group of women stood in council chamber.)

Mr. Grois: The reason I say that, is the people are really here in opposition to it and they are willing to sign their names to that effect. We ask that the permit be denied.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak in opposition to it?

Mr. T. H. Mulvaney, Pyrene Manufacturing Company:

I just want to add a word to Mr. Clapp's letter. I represent the Pyrene Company, and I just want to tell you that we have got about five hundred employees there. Those people live there from seven-thirty in the morning until five. And they are all people who live in Newark. Now, I don't know of another consideration that is as large as that, on account of the great numbers, and, as Mr. Clapp said in his letter, we do run a very nice plant. Henry Ford is reputed to keep a clean plant. We will match our plant against Henry Ford's plant any day. We spend a lot of money keeping this place clean, and if you gentlemen have been in it you realize it is an up-to-date place and we do not want to have any nuisance around it.

Mr. Herman Licks, 810 Broad Street:

First I want to bring out the fact that these pictures which have been presented show a very distorted view of the situation as it actually exists. The pictures fail to bring out in any respect the actual situation. They fail to show or bring in in any way the residential dwellings and apartment houses which are on Hawthorne Avenue in the immediate vicinity of this chicken market. I represent Mr. Alexander Albert, who has an apartment house on the corner of Ridgewood Avenue and Hawthorne Avenue, a six-family apartment house. Adjoining him there are several other apartment houses containing six and three apartments.

Mayor Congleton: Where did you say the six-family one was?

Mr. Licks: On the corner of Hawthorne Avenue and Ridgewood Avenue. It seems to me and to Mr. Albert and his neighbors, that if this chicken market is permitted to be put in, it will greatly reduce the value of their land, as has been brought out. It will further endanger the health and the life of their children.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak or give their name as being in opposition?

Mr. Forlenza: May I just make a remark at this time in reply to what has already been said. Mr. Ratner, the attorney, said that there were forty property owners opposing. I want to say this, and it can be examined from the records, that there are not more than sixteen to seventeen property owners within the radius of two hundred feet of this lot.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I do not feel that anyone who lives beyond two hundred feet—as I understand that statute, it is merely a regulation that notice must be given to everybody within two hundred feet. And the fellow who lives 225 feet, so far as I am concerned, has got just as much right to protest as the fellow who lives ninety feet.

Mr. Forlenza: That may be true, but still we have that regulation there, and I presume it was put there for a purpose. May I say this, Mr. Mayor: Reference has been made to the pictures. I think in the opening remarks I said there were two and three-family houses on one side of Hawthorne Avenue, which shows I was not trying to misrepresent any facts.

Mayor Congleton: I think all of the Commissioners know it, because we have all been around there and looked around the neighborhood.

Mr. Forlenza: I was going to suggest that the matter be adjourned for a week so the Commissioners can go down and look at that neighborhood.

Mayor Congleton: I have been down, and I think the Commissioners have been down there too.

Mr. Forlenza: I think that should be done.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gil-
len, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

Commissioner Egan: Where is that near?

Mr. Rankin: It is near South Seventeenth Street.

Commissioner Egan: A very dead section of Springfield Avenue.

Mr. Rankin: There was formerly a battery service station there.

Commissioner Egan: Is this conducted along the side of the lot where this building is now existent? You have a dotted line and you have what looks like a small garage on the rear of the lot.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

Board of Commissioners

---

December, 1931

---

Newark, N. J., December 2, 1931.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

WHEREAS, by ordinance dated October 7, 1931, authorization was given to the Director of the Department of Public Affairs for the erection of a garage building, and providing for the financing thereof in the sum of Three hundred and thirty thousand dollars ($330,000.00); and

WHEREAS, by resolution adopted the same date contracts were awarded to the Daniel J. Cronin, Inc., a corporation, and the Breen Iron Works, a corporation, the first in the sum of Two hundred and eleven thousand, seven hundred and fifty four dollars ($211,754.00), and the second in the sum of Forty six thousand, nine hundred dollars ($46,900.00); and

WHEREAS, it now appears that it is impossible to proceed with the general contract according to the plans and specifications, as accepted by the City, due to the fact that the piling specified, of concrete type, cannot be used throughout the entire location, it having been revealed that the site is marsh land and that the concrete pile cannot be used, except in certain parts of the premises, in conformity with the Building Code of the City, and the engineers in charge of construction advise that it would be impractical to proceed under the specifications, making it necessary to substitute wood-piling for about seventy per cent. (70%) of the foundation, instead of as originally specified. In accordance with the terms of the contract, the Daniel J. Cronin, Inc., contractor, has submitted an estimate for the extra work necessary in substituting wood piles for the concrete piles, which estimate after deducting credits and allowances for the work necessarily left out of the contract, brings the total amount of the extra to the sum of Thirty five thousand, two hundred and forty six dollars and ninety two cents ($35,246.92); and

WHEREAS, the Breen Iron Works contract did not include all the structural steel and ornamental iron work that it has been found necessary to have done in connection with the building of said garage; and

WHEREAS, an estimate has been furnished by the said company in the sum of Two thousand eight hundred and fifty five dollars ($2,855.00) for the omitted work;

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark, that the Director of the Department of Public Affairs be and he is hereby authorized to allow the following extra work on the construction of the said garage in his Department.

R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner, and further action postponed to December 16, 1931.

G. F. Hoover, 810 Broad Street:

I represent the Hahne Realty Company. I would like to ask if it could be possible for the ordinary rules to be suspended, so that the determination could be acted upon at this session.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, so that we will not waste counsel's time, I move that the rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe,
Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Hahne Realty Company, owner, for an automobile parking station; premises 74-86 Halsey Street; on condition that a steel wire fence be erected along the street front, and that only such signs be erected as meet the approval of the Board;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED
by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Jerome T. Congleton
W. J. Egan
John Howe

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe,
Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Sidney Simandl, 20 Branford
Place:

Gentlemen, I ask for a suspension of the rules on the application of Herbst-Moch Company for permission to have a tallow rendering plant at Frelinghuysen Avenue, Newark,
New Jersey, which was passed upon yesterday by the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any objection?

Mr. Rankin: No, sir. Sheffield
Farms had a representative before the Board who stated that if this plant were constructed in the manner that the Herbst people have agreed to, they would have no objection, providing there were no odors escaping from this building. Mr.
Thomas Smith, representing the Urban Investment Company, as nearly as I can gather, concurred in that, saying that they would not object if there were no odors from this plant.

Commissioner Murray: There is a similar plant run by another slaughter house in the City. Personally I do not think that they can possibly avoid the production of odors. They claim that water jackets containing cold water, and so forth nullifies these odors before they get into the surrounding air. The Health Department made an inspection and they questioned whether it would be injurious or disagreeable to people living two or three or four blocks away from there. I don't think that is the case. It isn't the type of plant that would use ancient animals, dead horses, and so forth, because most of the stuff is virtually fresh when it goes in there. Mr. Herbst got me in the corridor one day and told me about it, and I said that if he would agree to accept the permit conditioned with the fact that if this should in any way constitute a nuisance or produce these offensive odors, he would close it up and abandon it. If he will agree to that, I will have no objection to it. He said he would agree to that. Does your permit so state?

Mayor Congleton: If it is as close as that, one of these border line cases, I would not feel like suspending the rules without giving the property owners who may want to be heard an opportunity to be heard. I may vote for it at the meeting when it comes up in its regular order, but I should not like to do so now and possibly foreclose the people who want an opportunity to be heard from being heard on such a border line case.

Commissioner Murray: What was the understanding with the Board of Adjustment on that, Mr. Rankin?

Mr. Rankin: The understanding of the Board was that there would be no odors there at all.

Commissioner Murray: How about the objectors?

Mr. Rankin: There were no objectors, but there were the two representatives of the companies I spoke of there.

Commissioner Egan: The two representatives didn't come out in favor of it, did they?

Mr. Rankin: The Sheffield man came down and withdrew his objections, they having inspected a plant in Philadelphia similar to the one that was installed here. This system draws the odors down into a sewer. There are no stacks that draw the odors up into the air.

Mr. Simandl: That letter is on file.

Mayor Congleton: That may be so, but personally I will not vote to suspend the rules.

Mr. Simandl: Everyone else within the dictance under the adjustment rules consented, and that petition is on file.

Mayor Congleton: That may be so, but I have a duty to perform, and I think that those who want to be heard where there is a border line case like this are entitled to be heard, without being foreclosed by a suspension of the rules.

Commissioner Egan: Isn't this the kind of industry that should be in the heavy industrial zone? Didn't we have a case four years ago where they tried to put a varnish plant down there and where there were numerous objections? I do not think that this is the kind of case where we should suspend the rules.

Mr. Simandl: May it be adjourned for a week?

Commissioner Egan: It comes up in the regular course two weeks from today.

Mr. Simandl: Very well, thank you. I withdraw my request.

Mr. Rudolph Kruger, 60 Branford place:

May I ask for a suspension of the rules to permit the building of a commercial garage at 197 Broome Street to be used in connection with the manufacture of bolognas. The owner owns the property adjoining and has a factory there and has had it for many years. This garage is for his own use, for his own trucks. It is 25 by 100.

Mayor Congleton: Is there any objection?

Mr. Rankin: There are two letters opposing this, two across the street. One of them is about two hundred feet away, just within the two hundred feet, and one is directly opposite, but there was no one present at the meeting yesterday.

Mayor Congleton: That serves the same as though the property owners came in, practically. They are the only two letters that came in?

Mr. Rankin: Yes. The proposition is for a commercial garage and not a public garage.

Commissioner Egan: I move that the rules be suspended.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Morris Kaplan, owner, for the construction of a commercial garage; premises 197 Broome Street;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

W. J. Egan
John Howe

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. Herman Loewenberg, 20 Fairview Avenue:

This happens to be my third appearance before the Commission. As I might say, I had either the pleasure or the agony to appear before you on a personal matter. As there isn't anybody can speak for myself as well as I can, I am taking this privilege to appeal to you, for humanity's sake, not for a citizen's sake, to give me the opportunity to get sufficient work to keep my family together. I know you will refer me to the organization or rather the board that is now taking up registration for unemployed. I wish to state right now that I was one of the very first ones in the Eighteenth Avenue School to register. I may say I was one of the early birds, but so far I haven't caught any worm. Now, I think I would come before you—

Mayor Congleton: Of course, it is impossible to put over twenty thousand men to work immediately. We are doing the best we can, and if you will try and be just a little patient a little longer we will do our best to find some work for you.

Mr. Loewenberg: Mr. Mayor, may

I interrupt you? I have had two years of patience.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir.

Mr. Loewenberg: I have been before this Commission and you personally.

Mayor Congleton: And I tell you that we will try to find some work that you can do.

Mr. Loewenberg: That may be well and good, but can I tell my children, "Please wait until you get something to eat"?

Mayor Congleton: We can't go out and make these jobs any faster than we are doing it. We have the greatest sympathy with every person who is out of work, and we are doing our utmost. There is no occasion for your children to be hungry, because we have spent almost a million and a half dollars of the taxpayers' money to prevent that, and we intend to continue doing it. We are going to put just as many people to work as possible.

Mr. Loewenberg: Will you ask your poor and alms overseer how much aid he is giving me?

Commissioner Murray: How much have you asked for?

Mr. Loewenberg: You personally sent me down there, and it had no results.

Commissioner Murray: How many children have you?

Mr. Loewenberg: I have only seven.

Commissioner Murray: How many are working?

Mr. Loewenberg: Two.

Commissioner Murray: What do they do?

Mr. Loewenberg: One is a bell-boy in the Beth Israel Hospital, getting $12 a week.

Commissioner Murray: What does the other one do?

Mr. Loewenberg: The other one is an errand boy getting $7 a week.

Commissioner Murray: You get $19 a week out of them?

Mr. Loewenberg: I get $19 originally, and there is over $3 carfare. There is, you might say, $16 a week to keep the family going.

Commissioner Murray: There are a lot of families in Newark that have seven children, twelve children, thirteen children, that are getting barely $16 a month. They are being taken care of. If you are entitled to care you will get it. If you are looking for a job, you will get it, but it will not do you any good to come here. The Overseer's office will take good care of you, even to the extent of trying to get you a job, but you can save a lot of time if you go down there and state your case, but do not expect them to stop business and stop attending to everybody else to wait on you, and look after you when you come down there. If you have a just case you can go down to the overseer of the poor and you will get further in fifteen or twenty minutes with him than you would get here in a like time, because this is not the place to come with such matters.

Mr. Loewenberg: All right, I am sorry I bothered you. I won't bother you any more. I was told it would not do me any good to come before you, and I believe now all the statements that have been made to me. I am desperate in the matter. I would not have approached you. I think I got the right. I don't care who does not think so. I think I have got the right to see that my children are not undernourished.

Commissioner Murray: You are right, perfectly right. Go downstairs now and you will be taken care of in fifteen minutes.

Mr. Loewenberg: I will never approach the poor and alms overseer any more. If they want us to go away, we are willing to go away.

Commissioner Murray: You go down and see them now. I will see you down there later.

Commissioner Howe: I move we adjourn.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Alphone Bergamo for a poultry market premises 255 Academy Street; on condition that an up-to-date blower system for the control of odors be installed, and that all windows on the east, north and west sides of the building be eliminated;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioner of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared lost by the following votes:

Nays: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the application of Guarantee Building & Loan Association, owner, for the outdoor parking of automobiles; premises 29½-35 Rector Street; for one year, on condition that a wire fence be erected along the street front, and that only such signs be erected as meet the approval of the Board.

Commissioner Egan: I do not think it is a good thing to put it in there, Mr. Mayor. That is a heavy traveled street there; you have got your buses coming through there all the time. I think we ought to hold it up, because you have got that heavy traffic coming through there all the time. We had a condition like that on New Street yesterday because of the narrow condition of the street and big trucks loading and unloading. I move it be postponed for two weeks.

(Laid over to December 23, 1931.)

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter they desire to take up with the Commission this morning?

Mr. George E. Bond, 20 Columbia Street:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment on December 1 a permit was granted to the Baby's Hospital to use the vacant plot at the corner of High and Bank Streets as an outdoor parking station. I would ask at this time that the matter be brought before the Commissioners for their approval.

Mayor Congleton: Were there any objections?

Mr. Rankin: There were two owners on Bank Street. There will be no High Street entrance.

Mayor Congleton: Two property owners on Bank Street objected. I do not see what harm it could do.

Mr. Bond: The owners don't live on the property.

Commissioner Egan: The objection is based upon no fence being there?

Mr. Bond: There will be a fence around the property.

Commissioner Egan: You will erect a fence?

Mr. Bond: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: Does the permit call for a fence?

Mr. Rankin: This permit calls for a fence with the only entrance on Bank Street; and the Board of Adjustment recommends a five-year permit.

Commissioner Egan: I move the rules be suspended.

Commissioner Murray: I second the motion. The permit calls for a fence around the property with an entrance only on Bank Street.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Egan offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Society of Babies Hospital, owner, for an outdoor automobile parking station; premises 439-445 High Street (163 Bank Street); for five years, on condition that a wire fence be erected along street fronts, that there be no entrance or exit on the High Street side, and that only such signs be erected as meet the approval of the Board;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person have any matter they want to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mrs. E. Krane, 25 Dover Street:

I would like to present this to the Commissioners, a petition.

Mayor Congleton: The clerk will take it.

Newark, N. J., December 8, 1931.

We the undersigned, residents and property owners of Dover Street, Cliff Street and St. Paul Avenue, do hereby request that the independent buses be prohibited from operating on said streets, contrary to their franchises, as the using of these streets is causing us much discomfort and annoyance. We are of the affirmed opinion that proper arrangements can be worked out so that the buses could turn around at the City Line as heretofore.

Signed by Emil O. Krane, 25 Dover Street, and about sixty other property owners.

Referred to the Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: We will take it up, madam, and see what we can do about it.

P. O. Box 523,
Newark, N. J., December 10th, 1931.

Honorable City Commissioners,
City of Newark,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:—

In accordance with your request of December 4th, 1931, for information as to development of Submarine Boat Corporation property.

The following, with plan herewith, will give you an approximate outline of proposed development of the property.

	Approximate Cost	1st Unit	2nd Unit

(8) Miscellaneous buildings .....	250,000	10,000	10,000
(9) Construction of administration building..	50,000	.....	.....
(10) Machinery, equipment, etc., for handling of cargo .....	200,000	50,000	.....
(11) Supervision, and contingencies.....	400,000	36,000	20,000
(12) Bay-front bulkhead, filling, and dredging	2,395,000	.....	.....
Total, .....	$8,290,000	$714,000	$410,000

The figure of $8,290,000 may be considered as minimum cost of such terminal development, as this figure does not make any allowance for construction of buildings for light manufacturing, industries, Bay front, and attendant facilities.

Space shown for bulk inward and outward cargoes is to take care of steel, heavy machinery, automobiles, etc., unloaded from cars to release railroad equipment when ships are not in port, or not shortly due; and for inward rough cargo which can be stored in the open.

Space shown for light manufacturing buildings, and loft buildings is held open along Port Street (extended), as this is most desirable location for such industries, and keeps them away from transit buildings, decreasing exposure.

Land on northern portion of Bay front is held open as most suitable for industries which require direct ship and rail connections, i. e., which have raw material arriving by ship lots, or barge lots for manufacture and re-shipment by water, rail, or truck. This space will also be available for additional construction to support the Bay front traffic, in case of necessity.

Our ideas of development of the Submarine property are predicated on the success so far attained in attracting business to Port Newark through the Newark Seaboard Terminal.

When that Terminal was taken over in December, 1926, it was after two other interests had made efforts to operate it, both of them going into bankruptcy.

The property was in such shape physically that it was practically inoperative. There was only one berth at which ships could be handled. Ships could not be discharged at any of the warehouses, due to the condition of docks, warehouse platforms, and floors. The property was not earning sufficient to pay its employees.

In 1927 large sums of money were advanced to put docks and buildings in earning condition.

Between January, 1927, and January of this year, it has, through its operations, distributed in payrolls and purchases in the Newark District approximately $1,000,000 per annum, not including payrolls and purchases of industries located in the Plant, and payrolls of trucking companies and others given employment through the activities of the Plant, which would aggregate $200,000 or $300,000 more per annum, or a total of around $1,250,000 per annum.

Prior to 1927 the business of the Terminal was largely lumber.

The traffic in other commodities has since been built up to a point where lumber earnings are now around 6% of the total, which means a long step toward developing a real port.

A large additional tonnage of diversified cargo could have been secured for the Port if proper facilities had been available, which facilities we now propose to provide.

The success of the Port can only be assured by the securing of diversified tonnage.

The following data (in round figures) may be interesting, as indicating traffic handled at the Newark Seaboard Terminal during the past five years:

Deep-Water Vessels Arriving and Departing.....	1,700
Carloads Freight In and Out .....	25,000
Trucks In and Out (loaded).	150,000
Employees per day.....	230 to 1,000

We believe the Submarine Boat property can be developed to equal this operation, and in a manner to secure the co-operation of the railroads and steamship lines, and in next few years exceed it in payrolls and benefit to the City and the Port.

We estimate employment for approximately 200 men practically from the beginning, with a payroll and purchase expense of $500,000 or more during the first year.

A large successful terminal must be organized and operated to secure the co-operation of railroads and steamship lines, as well as shippers and consignees, and this can only be done by people with knowledge and experience in the warehousing and shipping industry, with needed capital, of which we are assured.

Our purpose in securing the Submarine Boat property is not

- (1) For real estate speculation
- (2) For a stock promotion scheme
- (3) An attempt to retard the growth of the Port by permitting the land to lie idle
- (4) An attempt to secure control of the Port for any one interest
- (5) For railroad freight yard purposes

but it is for the purpose of developing the Port for water and rail traffic, and as an industrial area, which it is believed will be to the benefit of City, steamship lines, railroad lines, warehousemen, merchants, and taxpayers.

We are prepared to proceed immediately with first unit of improvements, and, as stated above, estimate expenditures for the first year at $500,000 to $1,000,000, and if business develops, it will undoubtedly run more. We are willing to give assurance of the development generally as outlined, and to make the expenditure required for the first unit within twelve months, and second unit within two years.

Yours truly,

H. R. Hanlin.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Herbst Moch Company, owner for the construction of a tallow rendering plant; premises 222-234 Frelinghuysen Avenue; on condition that the plant is so constructed as to prevent the escape of odors into the air;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Murray: The Department of Health has made an inspection and has stated that in their opinion it would be unsatisfactory, but one of the men concerned in the plant, Mr. Herbst, when asked by me if this scientific plant which they intend to erect would not obviate odors and odors were found by us to exist, whether he would be agreeable to discontinue it, said he absolutely would. In any event, if the plant in operation were to constitute a nuisance, we could stop it. I think that inasmuch as they are planning to spend a large sum of money and to use coldwater jacketing outfits for the purpose of obviating the odors which have been inherent in these plants in the past, and inasmuch as the plant is intended for the use of fresh products and not for dead animals, such as are used over the river, we should let them try it out.

Mayor Congleton: If the Board of Health thinks it is unsatisfactory, I would not want to vote for it. The thing that struck me on this ordinance was that Mr. Myers of the Sheffield Farms was present and stated that his company contemplated a $2,000,000 plant on the adjoining property.

Commissioner Murray: The Health Department is concerned chiefly with residents who, according to their statements, are something like three blocks distant. I think they are unnecessarily disturbed about it, because, according to Mr. Herbst, the permit can be so worded that the plant is to be discontinued if it is odorous.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Building Commissioner, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Building Commissioner, the administrative officer in charge of the enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Second District Court
Newark, N. J.

December 9, 1931.

Hon. Peter O'Toole,
City Clerk, City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

My dear Mr. O'Toole:—

May I ask you to call the following condition to the attention of the City Commission at its next regular meeting?

The work of the Second District Court like that of the First District Court requires an Information Clerk. The position is one that would be best filled by the advancement of employees now in the Clerk's Office.

May I therefore request that the position of Information Clerk be created for the Second District Court, to commence January 1, 1932.

Very truly yours,

Louis R. Freund.

Referred to Budget Conference.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he wants to bring to the attention of the City Commission this morning?

Mr. Gus Mullins, 427 Amboy Avenue, Perth Amboy, said that on August 4, 1928, he was injured by a stolen motor car at Market and Broad Streets. He was following the traffic light. As a result of the accident his leg had to be amputated.

He asked for a city job, if damages could not be obtained.

Mayor Congleton: As I understand it, you were walking across on foot?

Mr. Mullins: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: And the light changed and a car struck you?

Mr. Mullins: That is right.

Mayor Congleton: In daylight?

Mr. Mullins: In daylight, four o'clock.

Mayor Congleton: The mere fact that a light changes does not give the automobile a right to proceed with a person passing in front of it.

Mr. Mullins: This car was stolen by a boy, and it started way up other part of Broad Street.

Mayor Congleton: What line of business were you in before this accident?

Mr. Mullins: Why, I was a tapper on a blast furnace. Of course, at that time I was working for the Public Service.

Mayor Congleton: Didn't you get a pension from them?

Mr. Mullins: No, I didn't.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the matter be referred to Commissioner Egan to investigate.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Egan will take it up.

Mr. Herman W. Brams, 951 Broad Street: He spoke on model housing. He recently attended the Home Ownership Convention at Washington.

Mr. Brams spoke on the Prudential housing plan in Newark and which matter now is in court. He added: The only purpose for which I appear this morning is that when this proposition is presented to the public and the various agencies which I have mentioned I desire to have the moral and active support of the members of this commission to take their respective places in this plan.

I particularly speak of this matter at this time because I anticipate that the courts will in the very near future make their decision with regard to the Prudential suit, and after they have started their work I hope that there will be other agencies that will take an interest in this matter and carry the work from there on. It may be necessary to form private corporations; it may be necessary to have the City use its right of condemnation, and any number of plans may be proposed. I expect after the first of the year to call a conference of these various agencies that I have suggested, on the type of the President's conference on home building and home ownership, to take care of this one, our own particular problem, and I ask that you members of this commission lend your support in carrying forward this proposition.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to discuss any matter with the Commission this morning?

Commissioner Gillen: I move that we recess until 2:30 this afternoon for the budget conference.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Commissioners reconvened at 2:30 P. M.

Mayor Congleton presiding.

Present: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: The Commission have met today to take up in an informal way, the study of their own budgets. I understand that the Chamber of Commerce has a representative here who would like to make a statement or read a communication before we start.

Mr. Curtis R. Burnett, care American Oil and Supply Company, Newark, N. J.: Before submitting to the Commission the statement of the Tax Conference Committee, which is composed of the representatives of various business associations, civic associations, and building and loan associations of the City of Newark,
I am authorized to say on behalf of the Tax Conference Committee that as these tax budget conferences of the City Commission are held from week to week, the Tax Conference Committee, either as a whole or as a sub-committee will be present.

We now wish to take this opportunity to present the preliminary statement of the committee which I have just mentioned. We believe that the statement I am about to read faithfully represents the viewpoint and opinion of a cross-section of the people of the City of Newark.

An open letter to the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., concerning taxation and the cost of municipal government.
To the Honorable

The Board of City Commissioners:

The present economic condition has adversely affected practically every individual, every business and every governmental agency, from federal to municipal. Every known economic practice of the past concerning business and government failed to prevent what has come to be viewed as a deep-seated and critical financial situation.

In the final analysis governmental wealth is no greater than the financial status of the citizens as a whole.
Government cannot meet its fiscal obligations unless the people are able to meet their obligations, either self-created or those which they have had assessed upon them, the payment of which is contingent upon their ability to do business on a profitable basis or, as individuals, to earn a sufficient income.

When there is no business or when all lines of commerce and trade have been seriously curtailed and the income has been wiped out or greatly diminished, as at present, we are confronted with the question as to what must be done to protect and preserve normally productive assets, such as land, buildings, raw materials, equipment, etc., etc. It is these tangible assets of commerce and trade, together with human endeavor, which produce, in major proportion, the earnings out of which private and public expenses are paid.
Admittedly, practically all income, private and public, is now seriously reduced or jeopardized. Treasury Department figures showing a decline of 29% in net income of income tax payers from the 1930 return filed to August 31, 1931, as compared with the same period of 1929 is proof, but probably does not indicate the full extent, of decreased earnings and income, as a vast number of persons whose income has been most greatly affected do not file returns with the Federal Government.

We have the situation of having slumped from an abnormally high and inflated level of business, of easy credits and pyramided borrowing, when financial commitments were made in business and in government in the belief that there would be no cessation of ability to meet, without difficulty the obligations thus created. Large loans were made to finance public improvements, usually with the concurrence of citizens, in the belief that such huge outlays and vast public works, were synonyms of prosperity and progress. No one seriously paused to count the cost. Conditions have changed and this fact must be recognized by everyone.

Conditions will improve in time, earnings will be resumed even though present losses mostly will not be recouped and while the process of recovery may be painfully slow, our inherent wealth if safeguarded will again assert itself. Meanwhile, however, business and government must initiate drastic economic and greater efficiency, so that expenses may be brought to an irreducible minimum. Business and in some instances government, have already undertaken this task but in the preparation of public budgets at this particular time of stress, the pruning knife will have to be employed by public officials—federal, state and municipal—in a manner heretofore unknown. Conditions demand reduction in public expenditures. Merely holding budget appropriations at their present level will not suffice. The Governor-elect promises to cut the state's budget "to the bone". Everyone should support such an effort in this emergency.

A ten year compilation of Newark's financial reports, prepared at the direction of the Tax Conference Committee submitting this statement, pictures the consistency with which the cost of local government has increased during the last decade. While the compilation does not indicate the causes for the increases in expenditures, nevertheless, it is known that they are due to considerable measure to the ever-increasing demand, by the public or upon the initiative of public officials, for more and more municipal services both in character and extent, often without counting the ultimate cost thereof, whether paid for through the tax levy or by borrowed money.

The data which follows should be balanced up with the fact that the area of Newark has not increased and the fact that the population has increased but 7% in the decade under review. The tax rate has increased only 5% from 3.76 in 1921 to 3.94 in 1930, but in order to raise the huge sum for municipal operations, including schools, the ratables (net valuation taxable) were increased by 7%, i. e., from $520,748,-740 in 1921 to $886,788,983 in 1930.

In 1921 the total of all city Departmental expenses was $14,498,551. By 1930, it had increased by 51% to $21,958,948. Total expenditures for the city, including schools and after allowance for State aid, were $22,-486,286 in 1921 and $39,335,701 in 1930, an increase of 74%. Exempt property increased 154%. Of the exempt property within the city, the city itself increased its values from $27,300,572 in 1921 to $63,883,050 in 1930, or 134%. Public school property increased 74%.

A similar picture obtains in the expenses of public schools. In 1921, the school population was 83,450, in 1930 it was 86,087, a 3% increase, but during the same period current school expenses had increased 76% from $5,945,285 in 1921 to $10,448,-737 in 1930. The number of principals, teachers and clerks increased 11%. Teachers' salaries increased 73%. Total cost of schooling, including construction which went on constantly during this ten year period, increased 57%, bearing $7,812,? 165 in 1921 and $11,466,270 in 1930. Per capita cost per pupil was $87.62 in 1921 and $133.19 in 1930, a 52% increase. Such increases cannot be continued without inviting disaster.

In the ten year period here set forth, the enormous increase in the cost of municipal operations is also indicated in the departments listed as follows:—

		1930 Expenditures
Public Works,	68%	$2,908,590
Public Affairs,	99%	4,010,586
*Public Safety,	63%	6,340,151
Parks and Public Property,	59%	803,417
Revenue and Finance,	24%	528,211
Non-departmental,	50%	416,003

*Police division during this period shows an increase of 46% in personnel.

Fire division expenses increased 46% with 14% increase in personnel.

Per capita cost of police protection increased from $4.75 to $8.07 and fire protection from $4.74 to $5.60.

Striking instances of the increase in the size of our municipal business are that the total of city owned properties has increased from $97,659,964 in 1921 by 75% to $171,715,691 in 1930 and that the interest bearing debt has increased by 84%, being $60,812,200 in 1921 and $112,079,352 in 1930.

Financing municipal improvements through the issuance of interest bearing paper cost $3,430,811 in interest charges in 1930, an increase of 114% over the 1921 requirements. The sinking fund and redemption requirements in 1930 were $1,746,233, being an increase of 124% over 1921. The total of interest charges and sinking fund and redemption requirements, $5,177,044, was 117% greater than in 1921 and represents 15% of the total expenses for the year.

Thus, we have a picture of over-increasing costs of municipal government for a population which has not grown rapidly and an area approximately the same as ten years ago, with the prospect of no appreciable net increase in values for 1932 tax purposes.

It is not the purpose of this statement to imply that municipal expenses should not have increased at all, or to suggest a penurious policy of public spending. Its purpose is to set forth for your serious consideration and appropriate action that we cannot with safety increase public expenditures. A drastic reduction is imperative. Business is at a low level, earnings are totally inadequate to carry properties and citizens have sustained heavy losses in their incomes through unemployment and other circumstances. We believe the Board of City Commissioners is fully aware of these critical economic conditions.

It seems evident that the foregoing facts demand that whatever economies are necessary to effect a reduction in taxes be instituted at this time, with assurance of public appreciation and approval.

This statement is respectfully submitted by the Tax Conference Committee composed of delegates representing the:—

Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark,
Waverly Manufacturers Association,
Ironbound Manufacturers Association,
North Jersey Employers Association,
Broad Street Association,
Building and Loan Interests.

Attest:

Ross Nichols, Secretary,

Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, N. J.

December 16, 1931.

Received and referred to Budget Conference.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak, Mr. Burnett?

Mr. Burnett: Not that I know of.

Mayor Congleton: On behalf of the Commission I want to say that we are very pleased indeed to see such a large delegation of people interested in the Municipal Government of the City of Newark. We only wish that you would come oftener and not only when you think your pocketbook is being touched. Today is not the day when you should be interested in your city alone; it should be on the day when you all have notice, in exactly the same manner as you have had notice of this meeting, that we are considering the question of involving the city in expenditures.

I received a copy of this communication this morning and I have not had very much time to analyze it, but it does not, in my opinion, present a proper picture to the taxpayers to the City of Newark. It is true that your figures are correct, but when you start by saying, "Striking instances of the increase in the size of our Municipal business, or that the total of City owned property has increased from $97,000,000," it is an absolutely wrong picture to paint to the taxpayers of this City of Newark. That represents in large part an increase in the value of land that we owned in 1921, just the same as the assessment upon your property, if they have been increased, have been raised. Again, it represents the City approximate ownership, if you please, in the Wanauque Water Development, which is not in the 1921 figures, that you make comparison with. It also is represented in part by the City's ownership in the Passaic Valley Sewer and in the joint sewer and other large improvements of that kind, as to which, of course, no city, even though its population has not increased, could sit by and permit their sewers to overflow.

When you say that our population has not increased and that our area has not increased, I would like to ask how many more business plants you have in the City of Newark today in 1931, than you had in 1921? I have seen the reports of the Chamber of Commerce where they have patted themselves on the back about the tremendous increase in the number of plants that they have brought here and about how much business has increased. We have to take care of that business, and some of these very sewers that I have spoken of were made for the benefit of that business, to bring it here and to keep it here, so that figures and that statement is not fair to the governing officials if you attempt to paint the picture to the people that we have gone into additional businesses.

I have had only a few minutes to analyze this statement, but with just a few items I can account for $47,000,000.00 of increase. That is of the debt statement. I can do better than that on the increase in the city's properties. There is $20,000,000.00 of it represented by the Wanauque and the increase in our distribution plant. There was a new Convalescent hospital built, if you please, and it was built at the earnest request of some whom I see here, when they appeared before us as representatives of the various social agencies. It was one of the crying needs of the community, you told us. We have built a new wing on the City Hospital to take care of our unfortunates, and yet your various committees have told us only within the last two or three months, that our hospital facilities are not now great enough, so I say that that is not quite fair to the governing officials.

I am not thin skinned. I am willing to take my part in this and take what part of the blame applies to me, but I ask that the picture be properly painted.

Another thing that I would like to call to your attention—and I have some of these figures, because there have been other letters sent out to taxpayers—that they deal just in generalities. They give total sums without showing why or where it was done. Some of these figures relate to 1917, which was another figure that was used under Debt but applies to the debt that you have used in a very large degree. When Commission government was adopted—and some of us were here on that day—your policemen and firemen were starving at $800.00 or $900.00 a year, respectively. That pay was increased because we felt it was fair to give men and women a living wage. We, ourselves, in the first instance felt that a question which was urged by the public. Do you want us to go back to paying policemen or firemen $800.00 or $900.00 a year to live on and be respectable and bring up a family in this community? I know you do not. In those days, things were run differently, but there was a great demand to treat employees somewhat differently. Some of the figures that I have gathered to use at the appropriate time in reference to some other letters that I have seen relates to this. We were paying nurses in training in the City Hospital wages that did not permit them to live decently and again, at the earnest solicitation and urging of social service agencies, and allied associations, those young women were given a proper wage. Do you want us to put them back at $25.00 a month and have them take care of themselves? I could go on and enumerate many other things of that kind.

Now, you have stated in another place about the increase in the debt. Let me call your attention, when you use your 1930 debt to the fact that there was included $6,000,000.00 of tax revenue notes which represented unpaid taxes at the close of the year, which we always have to set up as a debt. Those notes have been retired out with receipt of taxes. Again this year we will close our books, probably with $8,000,000.00 of taxes unpaid, but there is an asset there to meet this and retire them which is not reflected on the other side of the ledger.

There is $7,000,000.00 increase in public improvement, which includes new buildings, the wing at the hospital, the convalescent hospital, the annexes in back, the purchase of the rest of the block for future extension. I think that that was good business, and I am strongly imbued with the idea that every community should have its own civic center. I, for one, advocated the purchase of that land, believing it to be right. I may have been mistaken.

There is an $8,000,000.00 increase in school bonds for construction purposes. You all know how insistent the parents of the children that go to our schools here in the city were. Most of your children do not, for as I look around the audience I see that a majority of your are not residents of Newark, but although you have your places of business here. The parents of the children who go to the schools in the city of Newark were insistent that the old schools should be made absolutely fireproof and new schools should be built to take the place of the ones that had outlived their usefulness.

There is an $11,000,000.00 increase in the bond debt for Port Newark. Many of you have heard me discuss that and say why I believe in it. We found the marsh meadow land there occupying one third of the area of our entire city. That land was of no use to anyone until millions and millions of dollars had been spent on it, to reclaim it and put it to some useful purpose. If we had followed the policy that is followed in other states, we would have reclaimed that property and given it away to some concern who would bring a large industry here. Under our constitution we cannot do it but the first step that we had to take was to reclaim the land and make it available for some good use.

We have an item of $5,036,000.00 for street openings, sewers, and pavings with no corresponding amount in the 1921 figures used by you. I ask you, if you had been sitting in our place, would you have improved and widened Washington Street, would you have widened and improved Jones Street, would you have widened and improved Mulberry Street for the benefit and good of your city, even though our population has not increased? The traffic in our city has increased, and the best proof of that is the fact that 25,000,000 people are handled at the Park Place Station each and every year, and they do not come from Newark alone. For the proper movement of them, for their convenience, and for the convenience of a lot of you who come to Newark— and we are glad to have you come here to business every day— and so that you can get home in time for dinner in the evening, it has been necessary for us to widen the streets, to pave them, and to properly sewer them. That was for your convenience as well as for the convenience of the people who live here in Newark.

Those are some of the things that I think ought to be said, although they are said on the spur of the moment, at the same time as your letter goes forth to the public. I will continue my analysis of these figures and at a later date will give you more detailed information.

(Applause)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Theodore Grotta, 46 Farley Avenue: Mr. Mayor, I have listened to your remarks very patiently, but so far I have heard nothing very constructive. These remarks we have heard year in and year out. What we want to know is, what are you going to do with the present condition of the taxes?

Mayor Congleton: We are going to keep expenses down to a minimum, insofar as we can, but let us understand each other. Commitments that the city made by contract prior to the depression can not be repudiated. It is improvements of that kind that go in large part to increase the interest and retirement of bonds that we have heard about here today.

Mr. Grotta: Well, I want to prophesize here before the assemblage that we will have no decrease in the taxes, as I see it, and there is only one solution. Let the prosperous pay and we have got to have an income tax instead of having a tax continually thrust upon the taxpayers of the City of Newark.

Mayor Congleton: I am fully in accord with you in that thought, sir, but you must go to Trenton to get that law enacted.

Mr. Grotta: What are the Commissioners here for?

Mayor Congleton: We have advocated income taxes.

Mr. Grotta: I have never seen you visualize on this great important tax question.

Mayor Congleton: You haven't possibly been around much, then.

Mr. Grotta: Permit me to say that you have visualized on the increase of salaries, you have visualized on improvements, but where are you going to get this money from? The conditions are changed. We have got to go according to the new conditions of things.

I want to tell you right now if you go right around the City of Newark and see the state of affairs of the business houses, the junk shops you have got on the principal thoroughfares, and the vacant places and factories and everything else, you will begin to realize the importance of this and if you do not beware, you will have the same condition in the City of Newark as you have in Chicago and in the City of Philadelphia and elsewhere.

(Applause)

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. August Rosinger, 31 Clinton Street: Mr. Mayor, I am not going to start to criticize. We are here, this afternoon, I think also in relation to taxes on real estate to copy from the expenses of the City, amounts I think to about 80% or 85%. That being the case, under existing circumstances, considering the depression, we want to know, not from the commission alone, but to know how these things are going to turn out. In June of this year, the unpaid taxes for 1929 and 1930 on real estate in the city amounted to more than $10,000,000. unpaid. Now, as I understand it, the City in addition to that is heavily indebted. Can the Mayor tell me about what the indebtedness of the City is today?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir.

Mr. Rosinger: How much?

Mayor Congleton: At the end of 1930 it was $112,000,000. gross debt. The net debt today is about $46,000,000.

Mr. Rosinger: In addition to that we have the Pennsylvania and the Canal matters which ask for millions and millions more.

Mayor Congleton: And a part of which is in the debt that I spoke of, Mr. Rosinger.

Mr. Rosinger: All right. I am asking you, Mr. Mayor, and this audience how all these things are going to be paid for with about 85% on real estate alone, which is to date tottering under the loads like a centenarian. I am in favor of an income tax. Under the Federal income tax all salaries of public officials are free, while the income, including the salaries of private citizens are taxed. That is not right. It is not fair. My idea is that every citizen, rich or poor, black or white has the same right and protection before the law and therefore should bear its proportionate share towards the income of the state. When I say "state" I mean the municipalities as well. Under a State income tax plan, real estate can be valued as it is now, and on that valuation the rental value can be fixed and that could be part of the income of the real estate owner. To avoid a double tax, the amounts paid by the individual under the Federal tax could be allowed to him on the State income tax.

Under such a system of taxation, I doubt if the tax on real estate would be as high as what it now is, and it would be more evenly divided between real estate and personal than it is today.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to speak?

Mr. Frederick Hoadley, American Insurance Co., Newark: Gentlemen, I merely, came here today to let you know that there is an appearance on behalf of one of the co-operating agencies that framed this letter of the Broad Street Association. I do not wish to add anything to that argument. I hope that no one will attempt to. I do think it is fair to say, however, that if you look upon this letter from the Tax Conference Committee as an attack or criticism upon the Board of Commissioners, then, I think, you are greatly mistaken in so looking upon it.

It has been difficult for those who sat in this committee to obtain the information in the time that was available, to go more into detail than they have done. Perhaps the picture that they have painted may be in some of its elements, as you have suggested, unfair to the Commissioners, but it is not so intended. The intention is merely to convey to you that the taxpayers of Newark are deeply concerned and interested in the success with which this body, the Government of the City of Newark, shall meet a grave problem that is before it in preparing its budget for next year.

Mayor Congleton: If there is no one else, the Commission will proceed with the consideration of their respective budgets.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, before we proceed, I would like to offer a vote of thanks to all the organizations that have appeared here and have taken an interest in this most important matter. I think, after listening to the letter that was read by Mr. Burnett and then listening to your reply, Mr. Mayor, that there is a great deal that can be said on both sides of the question. I, as one of the governing bodies, feel that these organizations are taking a step in the right direction. As you have said, we have invited them time and again to join in these deliberations on the expenditures of the City's money and sometimes they have appeared and sometimes they have not. I do not want them to feel that we consider their attitude antagonistic. I know that there is not a member of this Board who considers the attitude of those appearing here today as antagonistic to the governing body. I realize that you are deeply interested and concerned about the mounting cost of government. That is a problem which has confronted all forms of government in this country for the past decade or more, and I feel myself, as one who is interested in real estate personally and who is professionally representing others, that the cost of government is mounting too high. The Mayor, very briefly, has put before us a number of items showing why there has been an enormous increase in the cost of the Newark City Government. He also has said to you that you should have come here before, when the City was about to commit itself to the expenditures. I remember when we were considering the great union station of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the City Highway over the bed of the Morris Canal, when estimates were made by engineers showing how many millions of dollars those improvements were going to cost. I predicted at that time that the improvements would cost probably twice the amount that they were estimating and my predictions are beginning to come true. Yet, many of the organizations represented here today sent their representatives to the governing body of Newark and enthusiastically and unlimitedly endorsed these vast expenditures and told us to go ahead ad lib, and spend as we please. You see, the improvements, seemed to be so attractive, and we all had a lot of money at the time—that is, a great many of us did, anyhow—and we thought that the era of prosperity would never end, so we were all enthusiastic about the great improvements. I state to you, however, that it was at that time that we should have called a halt and cut down our program to a great extent. We are spending a lot of money for utility corporations to operate their busses, feeling of course, that that would reflect a great benefit upon the City of Newark in improving transportation facilities, so necessary to the growth of a city. But now you have to consider a great many things in treating with this matter. Manhattan, the heart of the greatest city of the world today, practically speaking, is not growing. Brooklyn has outstripped it. We are in the same position in Newark. Newark is not growing in population to any extent and it never will. Our area is limited. Until such time as this whole territory is consolidated we can not look forward to any great growth of population. I feel that all Essex County should be Newark and will be some day—there is no doubt in my mind about it—but how far off it is, I don't know. Until that time comes there will be no appreciable increase in the permanent population of Newark. You must remember, however, that while there is no increase in the population as the census may show it, there is a tremendous increase in the work day population. During the day there is a vast number of people who come to Newark and it is safe to say that if we could get a census of the people who are in Newark during the day, who depart to the suburbs and other places where they may live, to sleep, we would find that there is a vast increase in the day population over 1921. There is a vast increase, or there was up to the present depression in the amount of business that Newark has been doing. If the population, as Mr. Burnett has said, only increased 7%, it is safe to say that the business of Newark increased 50% or more. I do not know exactly, because I haven't statistics right at my hand, but it is safe to say that business did increase up to the start of the present serious depression. Where there is a tremendous amount of business being done, where there is a city, like Newark, changing rapidly from a city that was to a great extent residential—into a mere workshop, just as Manhattan is, don't you see that it is going to cost more money for government? It has to cost more money to do business. The increase in traffic through the streets of Newark has been tremendous. The traffic does not belong to Newark. It is passing through from

New York, from New England to points South, Southwest and West. We are sort of sieve through which a tremendous vehicular traffic is passing everyday between the New England States and New York on one side and the South and the West on the other side. That means a great increase in traffic regulations, a great increase in police department costs, and a great increase in many things connected with the regulation of traffic. But still I am not here to apologize for the increase in the cost of government, nor am I here to defend. If we have gone far beyond our means, I think all municipalities have done so. I think that we have been on a great drunken spree after the war, both in private and public business. We spent twice as much money as we should have spent. I think that our schools are too palatial, if you please. I think they are putting too many fads and fancies into the school. Every fad and fancy that is put into the educational system means an increase in the cost of education. I think that that ought to be cut down to the bone. I think that in many other respects we can economize and I think that the Board is minded that way. We have our own little interests here as well as our jobs, but I think we have come to a realization that we must cut down the cost and we must get something to relieve real estate. We must get a luxury tax or a sales tax or something of that kind. I favor a luxury tax myself, if anybody is buying luxuries these days. I think that your words are well meant and I think that they will be well received by this Commission. I have been going over my own budget and I have made a substantial reduction in it. I have it completed here. It is substantially reduced this year. I feel that all the other four commissioners are doing the same thing. I think that they have had that in their minds since this serious economical situation came upon us.

Your letter merely fortifies what was in our minds, emphasizes our own thoughts on the subject and backs us up in what we may do. I, as one of the Commission, feel very much obliged for your coming here. At the same time when figures are sent out by an important conference such as is represented by you gentlemen here today, the facts should be tactful all the way through and they should be plainly stated so that when people read them, they will come to a full and truthful knowledge of the true condition of affairs. (Applause)

Mayor Congleton: All in favor of the motion will signify by saying "Aye".

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen: I would offer a further motion, Mr. Mayor, if it be necessary that this Conference appoint a small committee,—I think Mr. Burnett suggested something of that character,—to sit in with us. We will have several conferences on this budget and we would like a small committee to sit with us in a small room where we can talk around the table in plain language and go over the various items of the budgets.

Mayor Congleton: I thought that that had been arranged months ago. That is why the invitation was sent to them to be here today. I supposed their committee would come rather than this large delegation.

Mr. Burnett: Our committee is here, Mr. Mayor, but the citizens were notified as well. Not in an apologetic way at all, I think that if you gentlemen will take literally the case as shown in this statement, you will find not one word of direct or indirect criticism. Commissioner

Gillen has stated the situation very distinctly, I think. We were all carried away with the idea that money could be picked off the trees. We have awakened to the fact that Winter is coming, that the leaves are off the trees and the money as well. Now, if we can help you, as citizens, as property owners, or as representatives of various civic and other organizations, in working out a budget, we are at your command and at your service. We are approaching you in a friendly way and not in a critical way. (Applause)

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, I want to add one word of thanks to this delegations for coming here today and to say that the depression has done some good. It brings us back to some eighteen or twenty years ago in Newark, when many of you, gentlemen, who are here today, were very much interested in your government. During the period of prosperity and luxury you were either too busy or engaged in attempting to make more money or enjoying the money that you made, but today, it would seem, you have come back home to help your governing agents solve a problem that is serious.

Commissioner Murray: I had not intended to speak, because I thought everything necessary to be said had already been said, but you will appreciate, of course, that in my particular department, which takes care of the welfare, we have had the tremendous load that comes directly or indirectly from the often referred to depression. The Welfare Department has on its books now, 7,000 families in actual distress, families that could not exist and could not maintain any morale of citizenship if the City abandoned them to their fate as it stands today. The City Commission has repeatedly, by temporary bond issues, provided the funds necessary to take care of these people. The direct results of that has been the fact that in this acute season of depression there has been no disturbance, no riot, no untoward incident in the life of this community. We have gone along and we have carried this load, but it has been very expensive, it will run from $560,000 to $570,000 in 1930 to $1,600,000 in 1931. It is absolutely unavoidable on our part. We cannot help that. We had to meet this condition, and everybody in Newark approves it. The work is being very well done. We have had to load ourselves with the unusual situation of a public municipal lodging house, which we are running at a minimum of expense. This situation which we are all very confident is only temporary will pass on, we hope, in the early part of ensuing year or within the ensuing year. The increase in expenditures in this department is absolutely unavoidable. Had you been where I am, you would have had to meet it. I had to meet it. We would all have had to meet it. The City Commission has understood and appreciated the difficulties of the situation and it has unhesitatingly and unanimously approved the added expenditures for this department. In the matter of Hospital care, we have had an increased cost because of the fact that so many people can not pay a doctor or can not pay a hospital bill. They come to us. We took it and we carried it through. In our Health Department, we had a smallpox outbreak, one of the most disastrous things that can ever come to a city if not checked in time. When it came here, we had six cases of smallpox to start with and when we finished, we had six cases with no deaths. 106,000 people have been vaccinated by the Department of Health, in addition to those who were vaccinated by private doctors but we stamped out an outbreak which in the City of Milwaukee and the City of Detroit had tremendous consequences. We felt that it was something not to be treated lightly and we took it right up and fought it and avoided the terrible consequences that these other cities all had. It cost about $25,000. to do all this, but we think it was worth it, and I have no doubt you do too. We have run down diptheria mortality rate too. We won't ever run down every mortality, but we have had not a single child to die in this city in the past five months from diptheria. That is due to the proper immunization and the increase in concentrated antitoxins that has been made available, to combat this terrible disease right at its inception. We have instituted the process of giving out pneumonia serum to those who need it, to reduce the terrible mortality from this dread disease. In 2500 or 2600 cases we have brought the deaths down to a minimum so far, and I am very hopeful that we will cut that in half. All this is a matter of life saving and constructive work that can not be passed by. They have been sprung on us sometimes suddenly and we had to meet them, in this department. Notwithstanding that, I am very confident that the 1932 budget will show a substantial reduction over 1931 because of the fact that one commodity that has been very expensive ordinarily, the foodstuffs that go into our institutions, have come down considerably in cost, and through that and through other sources, I anticipate a substantial reduction of the budget in my department for 1932.

Mayor Congleton: Is Mr. Burnett's committee that wants to sit around the table with us here?

Mr. Burnett: The committee hadn't thought that we would come right in with your budget or anything of that sort, but I am sure that we are ready with any specific matter that you would like to have us state, whether it has been mentioned or not, and then you can have us come in with you.

Mayor Congleton: We are going to take up our budgets now.

Commissioner Gillen: Suppose we get our budgets completed and then give you a copy of our budgets? I think they are nearly completed now.

Mr. Burnett: Fine, we want to help. Of course, we are not ready to go into the details on this thing right now. Although we hadn't expected to sit with you today, we are ready at any time you may suggest.

Yeas: Commissioners Egan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, what is your pleasure as to how we shall proceed?

Commissioner Egan: I don't think that we ought to get to the point of taking up any departmental budget, Mr. Mayor. We have the citizens' committee here. No doubt they will have some suggestions which they will like to leave with us, which will give us a better opportunity to deal with this problem.

Mayor Congleton: Is there anyone who desires to address the Commission on the question of the budget at the present time?

Mr. Spencer S. Marsh, 744 Broad Street:

Mr. Mayor, I would just like to say to the Commission that follow the suggestion made to Mr. Holmes sometime ago, that this Tax Conference Commission of the Chamber might be helpful if they sat in with you Commissioners in casting the 1932 budget, the committee is here. We have nothing further to suggest except that if we can in any way help you men with the hard task you have, we will be glad to do it.

Mayor Congleton: Well, I assumed from what Mr. Holmes said on that day and from what has taken place since that you had some concrete matters in mind where you felt that we could perhaps cut our budget. I know that your representatives have been going over the books for weeks here, and we would like to have the benefit of whatever suggestions you have to make, because after all, after we have heard everybody we can hear and have received all the suggestions and help we can receive, we have to sit down and come to a decision. I think that if you have anything in mind it would be more helpful if we could have it before us when we are trying to arrive at the decision.

Mr. Marsh: I am here representing the committee, because Mr. Burnett found it impossible to come, but in discussing this question today we have rather reached the decision that it would be presumptuous for us to try to tell you how to do your job. We would rather, if it is compatible, look over the budget that you may suggest after it is made and take time to do it. It would be practically impossible for the men who compose this conference to tell you in detail what they think should be done.

Mayor Congleton: I hadn't in mind that you were going to do it in detail, but there are certain matters that, I take it, various citizens and organizations have been giving a lot of thought to, that they may have some views on. Of course, take my department's administration, if you will. Most of the money that was spent in my department is in the rendering of service,—street cleaning, garbage removal, and things of that kind. What would be helpful to me, if anyone has any opinion about it, is whether or not, because of the times and the conditions, we should curtail some of the service. If we do, of course it is going to reduce the budget. If we do not curtail service along those lines, it isn't going to reduce the budget very much.

Mr. Marsh: This service of the Chamber if it is going to be of any service at all, will have to be done intelligently, and our committee feel that they cannot do it intelligently unless they have a chance to study the budget through. I mean, with regard to what you have just illustrated, it would be impossible to sit back and take your 1931 budget, for instance, and tell you what should be cut out of your department. If we had a chance to take the budget of 1932 and study it through the staff of the Chamber, we might be helpful. That is why we would rather have it that way, if it is agreeable to you gentlemen.

Mayor Congleton: We will proceed that way, I take it, but I cannot see how you can make suggestions as to what might be cut out of the 1932 budget after you have seen the 1931 operations and have seen what service we were rendering. I don't see how you can make any suggestions as to what we can cut out in 1932 of what we did in 1931.

Mr. Marsh: If we found the things there that we thought could be cut out we would frankly say so, with the full desire and intention of being helpful, because we feel that you men have your hands full.

Commissioner Gillen: Do you want a copy of the budget of each department of the City?

Mr. Marsh: If you could do it. That could be done?

Mayor Congleton: They always have had them. There was no trouble about that.

Mr. Marsh: Not at all. The Chamber has 1931, too.

Commissioner Gillen: Then you suggest that we proceed as we are proceeding now and see what we can do?

Mr. Marsh: That is the sense of the committee.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Marsh, may I leave this thought with you: The budget covering the operation of the city government, divided into five departments is our direct responsibility, and as the Mayor has said, a great deal of it is chargeable to services rendered. The amount of money to be expended in 1932, naturally, will have to be based upon the amount of service that is rendered in all departmental activities in the city.

Now, we will go further, if you will, into the county. The City of Newark pays in the neighborhood of sixty per cent. of the county cost of government. I think that that will indicate clearly that it is closely associated with our cost of government here. We will take our educational system, which is a separate entity. That money, too, to a very great extent comes from the taxpayers of the City of Newark. We will go from the Board of Education in the County of Essex into the State of New Jersey. A great deal of the money that we collect here in the form of taxes is paid over to the State to carry on the work of the State.

It would seem to me fundamental that, in order to give this thing the scrutiny that you, as a banker, would give it, the entire State structure should be studied and analyzed thoroughly, not with the idea of placing the City of Newark, in so far as we Commissioners are concerned, in a position where we would occupy a background position, but in order to get a complete picture. I think that we are all agreed that this is the time to conserve the money of the taxpayer as much as we possibly can. We recognize our responsibility as Commissioners in rendering services as executives and administrators, and we have a standard of service in Newark today which is expected in modern American cities. We can cut down the cost of government, but if we do we cut down the type of service not only in the City, but in the educational system, in the county government, and in the State structure. I think it might be well for your committee to start in, if it will, and make a complete study of a situation such as this. Perhaps it might be wise—in my opinion I am inclined to think that it is wise—to consider seriously the postponing of some of these major improvements handled by the state. I have in mind superstructure highways. We have the money available in bond issues, but at the same time something could be rearranged, perhaps, to conserve the resources of our people.

We have our county government and our board of education, and the city has much expenditure that is mandatory, based upon state laws. Our State Legislature and our political leaders in both parties seem to be giving it very serious consideration. In order to get a complete picture, it would seem to me that your committee should assume these responsibilities and deal with this matter seriously and thoroughly, so that when you do finally get this thing worked out we will take into consideration the entire fabric, fundamentally, to begin with, in so far as taxation is concerned, revenue from taxation, and cost of government in the form of expenditures.

Last year as a unit we did as much as we possibly could to reduce our budget figures to a minimum. We did that mechanically, so to speak, in order to stay below the four-dollar tax rate. It was purely an expedient, as I see it. There was nothing scientific about it. Nothing was done as you will do it in the bank handling a financial problem. We are going through the same problem this year. It is more or less of a mechanical cut. That does some good, but I think you will agree with me that it does not do the measure of good that could be obtained if we went at it seriously from the state standpoint. I think, if you are willing to admit it, that the matter of your assessed valuation of properties, taking the twenty-one counties as a unit, is not an equitable assessment. From my point of view, I think many counties are so under-assessed that we suffer from the cost of it, in so far as Essex County is concerned, and it comes right back to the City of Newark and therefore comes from the pocket of the taxpayers.

I think that if your committee, which is well equipped in background and experience and ability, would assume a position of responsibility in this matter, it will find every government agent at this time only too eager to cooperate with it. We will do some good in Newark, but it is nothing compared with what we can do if we take the whole picture and deal with it as a unit. There isn't any reason why any state department should expend any tremendous amount of money if we feel that the ultimate taxpayer cannot bear the weight of the burden, as he always has to do.

We are all of the opinion that we are in very serious times. The men sitting around this table as commissioners are grappling with the situation. Take, for instance, the various angles involved in my department. You might say that my department ought to cut down its expenses and in order to cut down its expenses we ought to cut our service twenty-five per cent. All right, but I will go right into your situation, if you will. I have operating in the Police Department a squad of motorcycle policemen who constantly during banking hours visit every banking institution in Newark. It is a preventative measure in order to give you the Security, at least, psychologically, that you are being quite well protected against burglars, highway robbers, and the like. That is one angle that you will understand quite clearly. Now, here is another angle that comes up that you can take into consideration. We have three gangster squads functioning in Newark, quite preventative in principle, although we do make some arrests a great many times, but the purpose of it is to keep down the activities of the abnormal or subnormal person who might be classified as a criminal. In our Fire Department we have fire prevention squads who constantly supervise the industrial activities of our city. We have on our river front and on our bay front a fire boat, in order to protect the water front property.

We can do it to every department of the city government and show you where, as a matter of strict economy, eliminating what might be considered modern methods of protecting the interests of our people, we would, by eliminating them, get down to where we were twenty-five years ago. Do you see my point?

Mr. Marsh: Yes, decidedly.

Commissioner Egan: In looking at this thing from the broad point of view let us not simply take a piece of the cloth; let us take it all.

Mr. Marsh: I think, Mr. Mayor and Commissioner Egan, that I can explain our position by saying that all business— and we consider that you men have a real big business proposition on your hands— a city of pretty nearly five hundred thousand people to take care of is a big proposition— all business, whether it be large or small, is taking this opportunity to go over its costs and find out where it can cut down, find out where it can reduce expenses. That is our attitude in coming here and that is the only attitude we can explain to you.

Commissioner Egan: We are happy to have you give us any help, such as you are giving us now.

Mr. Marsh: If we can be of assistance, we want to do it. Every corporation of whatever size is considering the service that it is giving and whether it can be eliminated. Far be it from any one of us to tell you men who are familiar with your departments that service such as you are particularly rendering in the police department should be cut, for I know what has been done in the banking positions, and it has been excellent. I myself would hesitate a long time, and I know my associates would, in putting our opinion against yours, and yet it is a time when the whole fabric should be gone over. Your suggestion as to a state survey is a large order, but I agree with you that it should be done. I feel sure that it should be done if we wish to get a proper solution. We are here really to follow your lead rather than to try to lead you. We are to follow your suggestions and help you if we can. I think, Mr. Mayor, that that explains our position pretty clearly.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, as Commissioner Egan has said, if we confine ourselves only to the departmental budgets of the five branches of the city government we are handling just one contribution to the tax bill that the taxpayer has to meet. Now, if we do, as we hope to be able to do, trim down to the very limit that we can possibly stand for, we are doing only a part of the job that is to be done. If we do not look to the other constituted causes of the tax rate, as evidenced by the tax bill that the taxpayer in Newark gets, we overlook what may perhaps be a very strong contributing factor in the total amount of each and every man's tax bill in the city.

Mr. Marsh: I would just like to say that our study has gone into that. We know that. I don't know just what we can do to help you men on the factors that go to make up the tax rate. Outside the city, perhaps, we can't do it now, but we are here to help you do it.

Commissioner Murray: Why not?

Commissioner Egan: Why not? You are just as much a part of the state as we are.

Mr. Marsh: We are willing to help you if we can.

Commissioner Egan: I would like to see a group such as you represent assume the leadership that is imperative at this time. Where public officials take it for granted we are inclined to be a bit political. You men are interested now because you find it necessary to be interested. The city is just a part of the county and the county is just a part of the state, and the cost of government in this state reflects in your pocketbook and in the pocketbook of the interests you represent. If you can save a nickel here in the City of Newark and you feel that you can save another nickel in the county and another nickel in the state, don't you think it would be pennywise and pound foolish just to confine your activities to the City of Newark?

Mr. Marsh: Yes, I do.

Commissioner Egan: I want to get this thought clear and give it to you as I understand it. What I tried to do was to place the leadership in this movement on the shoulders of your committee as the nucleus of a large organization to assume the attitude that the taxpayers and citizens should assume at all times in handling governmental affairs, but I take it from your expression just a moment ago that you want us to understand that you will cooperate with us and that you will criticize and comment. That is fine if you want that structure, but I don't think you will get the amount of work out of it that you will get if you assume the tremendous responsibility that is involved. It is going to be controversial from start to finish, I assure you, because I want to say to you that I am of the opinion that if you get down to brass tacks you will find that in every nook and cranny of this state you can save money for the taxpayer. You can say to us to do this or do that. Of course, we have no monopoly on brains, and we have no monopoly on all the wisdom. We believe that we know our jobs and that we are doing our jobs here as best we can, but you can show us points that might save money for the taxpayers. We are just clearing house agents. If you can do it with us, however, you can do it with your freeholders, and you can do it with your state government agencies.

I think that the time has arrived when the public should assume a superior position in supervising the conduct of men in public office and give at all times close supervision and just criticism. No man in public office should feel that he is being offended if he is criticized justly. It is just a matter of opinion. Every line of business has every imaginable expert in order to guide the business in all angles. We need you. We are willing to assume and maintain the leadership, but you gentlemen representing the big interests of this state—when I say "the big interests", it goes back into every little hole of every household—should assume a position where you can let everybody in public office know that you don't think they are right.

I have a certain number of policemen. Maybe after you have analyzed the police department you come to the conclusion that Newark does not need so many policemen at this time. Fine, if that is the conclusion that you arrive at, if I think it is for the best interest of the city I will be broadminded enough to go along with you on that suggestion. The Mayor has refuse collection, street cleaning and so on in his department. Perhaps the people might be satisfied with less service of that type. Commissioner Murray has given most efficient service in supervising every angle of his department, looking after health matters concerning all people from the little tots who have just been brought into life, up to the old man and the old woman. Perhaps you can curtail that service. Take Commissioner Howe. He has his own plant and his own activity in handling his receipts and disbursments of city funds. Perhaps you as a banker may be able to show us a system that might save us money. Commissioner Gillen has charge of your parks and your properties. Perhaps you, from a commercial view might be able to show us where we can save some money and curtail expenses in that department.

You are coming in with us. You ought to be able to show us how we can cut down expenses. We cannot be and we are not going to be men who are ignorant and blind to the needs of the times, men who are crude to the point where, when you want us to go out and cut down the expenditure of five or ten or twenty thousand dollars in budget that we can eliminate, we won't want to do it, but we ought to have this leadership at the hands of the people.

Mr. Marsh: Mr. Commissioner, I thoroughly agree with all that you have stated, and I think that my committee will go with me and agree with all you have said. If we are to take the responsibility, we must take the responsibility and go along with you. We are glad to do it if it is necessary. As far as these state activities are concerned, I am not sure that I can commit my committee to doing it and going along in the way that you outlined. However, you are here, and I would suggest that you give this a real study, and we will go along with you men as far as we can and work into the greater leadership that you speak of gradually as we work out from the center.

Commissioner Egan: Let me leave this thought with you, and I think that it is a paramount feature: You can't spend what you don't have.

Mr. Marsh: That is right.

Commissioner Egan: The worry now in the minds of the taxpayers, the property owners, is that they are not getting sufficient out of their property to carry the burden of governmental operations. If we get to the point in Newark where we do not collect sufficient taxes to pay the governmental expenses of the City we are going to find ourselves in the position of Philadelphia or perhaps in the position of Chicago or perhaps in the position that another city in this state is at the moment.

Last summer, Mr. Lehmann, an architect, a very substantial citizen, conferred with me having to do with the revision of real estate in this city, in order to bring out a more equitable assessment on property, and he told me that he had conferred with practically every big banker in this city and that every big banker with the exception of the late Uzal McCarter refused to be identified with the movement. Now, if it is going to be reconstructed along equitable lines—and there is always room for improvement, and I think we have a very fine system in Newark—then everybody must accept it as a civic responsibility. But you know and I know that when it comes to a matter of assessing real estate, if any individual can get the edge in having his valuation lower than it ought to be, he is not going to worry about what his next door neighbor is doing. We have to become more parochial in a situation such as this. There is your first study. Where is your revenue coming from? If you don't get a dollar in you can't spend a dollar. That is where we are getting to in all governmental activities in this county, in this state, in this nation, and in this world.

Mr. Marsh: I think you are thoroughly right. I think if there is to be any readjustment, a reappraisal, of the properties in Newark, it will have to be done not by outside people at all, but by the authorities that you have under your control, who know the situation better than outside parties do, with the help of the large and better interests in town.

Commissioner Egan: If you take Newark you cannot ignore the rest of the county. If you take the county you cannot let the other counties go in this state undealt with, because in the last analysis we would suffer as compared with the rest of the state.

Commissioner Gillen: If your Committee making any study of the county budget?

Mr. Marsh: I think not. Mr. Wollmuth tells me that we have a separate committee for that.

Commissioner Gillen: This city pays, I understand, sixty-one per cent. of the cost of the county government.

Commissioner Egan: Yes, sixty-one per cent. of the money that the county uses to handle the county government we pay out of the pocket of the taxpayers in Newark. That brings us down to thirty-nine cents. Then take the school costs. What is your school out of that other thirty-nine cents, Mr. Brady? How much of the tax rate goes for the school?

Mr. Brady: We figured $600,000.

Commissioner Egan: What per cent. of the dollar?

Mr. Brady: About thirty-five cents on each dollar.

Commissioner Gillen: Whatever the county must pay of the cost of government we have to contribute sixty-one per cent.

Mayor Congleton: Our tax rate last year was $3.98. The City's part of that was $2.01. The school tax was .97. The county was .5993. The State school tax was 2760 The state tax for roads was ten cents, and the tax rate for soldiers bonus was .139, making your $3.98.

Commissioner Egan: You see, Mr. Marsh, that on that basis about half of that which we collect for taxes is used in Newark. The other half is used outside Newark.

Mr. Marsh: And your thought us that to be fair to ourselves we should get after these other factors that enter into our tax rate?

Commissioner Egan: All of them.

Mr. Marsh: Our county affairs committee works on the county budget. We have a state committee that is not so active. It is more of a legislative committee. I can say to you, however, that we will consider that very seriously with the thought that you have in mind, that the whole thing works toward our tax rate. I think your point is very well taken, that if we are going to help our local tax rate we must spread out our influence and efforts throughout the state. We are quite willing to take your suggestion.

Commissioner Gillen: How about the school budget? Has your committee studied the school budget?

Mr. Marsh: Yes, we have studied the school budget rather carefully, very carefully. Am I right in thinking that that is mandatory on you, to take that budget?

Mayor Congleton: No, if it is passed by the Board of School Estimate it is mandatory on us. The Board of School Estimate is made up of two members of this commission, two of the Board of Education, and the Mayor.

Mr. Marsh: Then, we have enough voice in that to have really some influence in that budget, isn't that so?

Mayor Congleton: We always have had in the last few years

Commissioner Gillen: It is three against two.

Mr. Marsh: It is three to two.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Marsh, you see there are certain questions that have been published in the newspapers talked about. I don't know what your organization has done, but other organizations have discussed it. As to this question of reducing salaries, as far as I personally am concerned, I am ready to take my cut whenever it is necessary, but see how unfair it would be to the employees of the city to reduce the salaries of our employees if the county does not reduce the salaries of their employees, when we pay sixty per cent. of the county salaries. That question has been talked of in the papers and all around. So far as I personally am concerned, I am ready to go along when it becomes necessary, when they make it state wide, county wide and municipal wide, but until then I am not for cutting salaries and keeping on making our contribution out of our taxpayers' taxes to pay this great body of employees of the county.

Mr. Marsh: Now, Mr. Mayor, that is exactly the position that our committee has taken. To put it another way, the position that the committee has taken is that they feel they can't come in here and tell you men to reduce the salaries of your employees. That is the thing that you should be permitted to determine.

Mayor Congleton: We are only your servants, and when the general public tells us certain things that they want done, of course, we are not going to play the part of the dog in the manger and do nothing.

Mr. Marsh: All efforts of that kind, in our opinion, must be constructive and must be considered carefully. If we can be constructive with you men in reaching the desired end, which is the reduction of the holding where it is of the tax rate, at least in no increase, possibly a reduction, we want to do it.

Mayor Congleton: In my department I start out with the proposition that the budget can be reduced very little if the public wants the kind of service that it has been getting. If they are willing to have their streets cleaned less frequently, have their garbage collected less frequently, their rubbish and ashes, and so forth—those items make up the largest part of my budget—I can cut it down, but I have not received any assistance in helping me to arrive at my decision. Your committee today does not tell me whether or not they think I ought to cut down that service. If I go on as I am going it is going to cost $1,675,000 or $1,650,000, but if I cut out some of that service I can save you two or three hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Marsh: If we can see your budget, the thought we have in mind—

Mayor Congleton: My budget won't tell you a thing, Mr. Marsh, as to whether or not I could cut down one or two items. I say to you now that my budget for street cleaning is $1,675,000, based upon the type of service that we are now giving. What I want to know is whether I can find out from the public generally whether they will be content during this next year, because of the conditions, to have less of that kind of service.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Mayor, I would like to put in a suggestion in there as to the question of reducing your service. We have another angle to bear in mind on that premise.

Mayor Congleton: The health matter, very largely.

Commissioner Murray: The health matter also enters into it, but if you take the service that you refer to, the employment in which is generally at a very nominal wage--in other words, those who are virtually among the poor of the city--and put them out of a job, then you send them over to me and I have to take care of them, and the taxpayer has to pay them for doing just nothing. It creates additional unemployment and an additional cost to the Department of Welfare in the city.

Mayor Congleton: That kind of collection in that department in the year 1931 cost us 71 cents per cubic yard for labor and equipment for the removal of refuse material. It was lower during 1931 than it has been in any previous year since the records were first commenced in 1921. It is as low as I have been able to find in any other place, so that I do not see so much chance of cutting down the cost.

Mr. Marsh: Mr. Mayor, my committee is here, most of them, listening, and they get your thought, I am sure, and as a group of men interested in the welfare of the city we will study these budget of yours, if we may have them. If there are place where we think the service can be cut down--certainly we will take no chance of tampering with the health of the city--we will come back and tell you so. It should make, in our opinion, a point from which we may be able to build something up.

Commissioner Egan: That is fine, but let me leave this thought with you, so that you will understand my picture, so far as my department is concerned. Will you give me one or two men from your committee who will live with me in my department for a sufficient amount of time to become conversant with the mechanics of the department, so that they can see for themselves?

Mr. Marsh: I think we can do that. I can't tell you who it will be or what it will be, but I think we can find someone who will do that with you.

Commissioner Egan: I would like to have them there.

Mr. Marsh: That is a constructive thought.

Commissioner Egan: If they can show us where there is a single man doing a job that can be eliminated where there is one job that can be combined with another, where two man's work can be made into one man's work, I will go along with you.

Mr. Marsh: That is very constructive.

Commissioner Egan: If you feel that the amount of traffic regulation can be reduced by reducing the man power in handling the traffic, fine. If you feel that in so far as the operations in the detective branch of the service should be reduced, fine. Right now we have certain police posts in this city that are not covered with the man power we have. In other words, every post is not completely covered in each precinct in this city. Perhaps with a couple of outside minds working on it you can give us some help. We want the help. We need it. We appreciate it.

Mr. Marsh: I will take that under consideration and try to give that help to you.

Commissioner Egan: Thank you, Mr. Marsh.

Mayor Congleton: All right, Mr. Brady, we will start with the so-called mandatory taxes. We have to meet interest on our obligations and retire bonds as provided by law.

Mr. Brady: The amount of the debt service to this year is $6,206,- 079.40, which is an increase of $274,-558.02, caused by the additional bonds that were issued last year. It is also caused by the number of temporary loan bonds that we will have to float this year, and we have to pay six per cent. interest on them while three months ago we were paying two and a half per cent.

Commissioner Egan: That means, Mr. Brady, that on your carrying charges for your debt structure you are increasing $274,000?

Mr. Brady: $274,000.

Commissioner Egan: How much has your debt increased this year? How many millions has there been in your debt structure this year? Mr. Marsh, you might note this. In the debt structure the increase for carrying for 1932 is $274,000.

Mr. Marsh: Addition?

Commissioner Egan: Yes, that is capital structure, just to carry the additional capital structure you have over a quarter of a million dollars increase. You don't know any way to get away from that?

Mr. Marsh: Not unless you can find someone to lend you money for nothing.

Commissioner Egan: Yes, but my point is this: There are major improvements that the City is committed to, which have already increased the cost of carrying over $25,000 for your highways, your railroad layout, your improvements from all points of view, incurred during this period of luxury for ten or fifteen years. You can't get away from it.

Mr. Marsh: No, not a penny.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, may I say a word: Would it be interesting for you gentlemen to know that on August 19 I sold bonds of the City of Newark or borrowed money from the banks at two and a half per cent.; on September 20 at two and three quarters per cent; on October 1 at four per cent; on November 1 at five per cent; on November 6 at six per cent. It just gives you an idea of the additional cost of money within four months.

Mr. Brady: Last year we had $112,000,000 for gross debts. Today we have a gross debt of $125,000,000.

Commissioner Egan: Do you see that, Mr. Marsh? An increase of $13,000,000 in your gross debt. What does that $13,000,000 represent in general form, Mr. Brady?

Mr. Brady: Well, it is Port Newark, it is the railway, the street openings. Most of it is local improvements—that is, street openings, the Morris Canal project. Most of it is in the Morris Canal, $6,000,000 is there.

Commissioner Egan: That shows you clearly where that money has gone. The public of Newark during this last ten or twelve-year period, dealing with these proposed major improvements, not only encouraged the City Commissioners, but urged them to go forward, and we are committed and under obligation. We have to carry it, and I think that answers the Commissioner's question about the raise in the interest rate. You bankers are worried about all municipal securities today, and you have a right to be.

Mr. Marsh: Yes, that is very true.

Mr. Brady: There is $6,000,000 in that debt, that is, in the debt, but not as issued debt.

Mayor Congleton: It is work authorized but not expended.

Mr. Brady: Yes. We have to take it in the debt, just the same. Now, the assessment deficiency, the City's share of the streets and sewers, is $186,000 this year. That would show an increase of $ 61,000, but it isn't really an increase, because last year we took and applied the gasoline tax to it. We only put in $24,000,000 last year. We applied the gasoline tax, but under a ruling of the department of municipal accounts we must put the gasoline tax into the miscellaneous revenue, so it is six to one and half a dozen of the other, no matter how you make it out.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Brady, that sewer and street deficiency represents the money that has been charged for improvements but not collected?

Mr. Brady: It is the City's share, the part that the City has to pay. Now, the surplus and deficiency—that is, the amount of money that we lost on canceled taxes, remission, discounts, and uncollected personal tax three years old—shows a decrease of $56,000 this year. The reason for the decrease would be that in 1927 we had an automobile tax which we haven't now, which was a personal tax, so we were short about $500,000 in the collection of personal taxes in 1927. We will only have to put in about $300,000 this year to take up to 1928.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Brady, have you any figures showing the amount of taxes collected in 1930 as compared with the collections for 1931?

Mr. Brady: I haven't them here, no, but we went out last year with about eight million in arrears. This year we are going out with about eleven million.

Commissioner Egan: That is a very important point.

Commissioner Howe: Eleven million as of December 1. That has been reduced now.

Commissioner Egan: What was it last year compared with the year before on uncollected taxes?

Mr. Brady: Just about the same percentage.

Commissioner Egan: There is something you could use as a basis for cancellation, at least.

Commissioner Howe: There was $601,000 less collected this year on December 14, which is the last date that we have tabulated.

Commissioner Murray: There was more property taxed this year than last.

Commissioner Howe: $157,000 more taxed.

Mr. Brady: There is one other little increase I have. It doesn't amount to much. It is only $2,200. It is in the pension funds. That is mandatory. All the figures that I have given here are mandatory. Altogether there is about $775,000 there. The library is a mandatory appropriation if they want it. As a matter of fact, the library gets only about half of what they could get if they demanded what the law would allow them.

Mayor Congleton: I would like to say for the library trustees—I am ex-officio member of the board and have attended meetings—that when they were considering the budget I urged them to co-operate as far as they could. They have turned in their budget, and it is some $16,000 less than last year. Of course, there again is the question of service. We have got a main library and ten branch libraries. Of course, by closing branch libraries you can reduce the cost, but these branch libraries, except for the business library, have come up during my tenure in office, and they came as a demand from the localities where they are now situated. It is a question of service again. Personally I think that the people out of work, if we can keep their minds occupied, by letting them get good books and reading them, it is a rather good thing, rather than a bad one, and it may be interesting to know that the figures prepared by Miss Winsor show that during this year there has been a tremendous increase in the taking out of books from the library. I have seen the same cooperation from the Newark Museum. We have set down in their budget tentative $130,000, which is $20,000 less than they got last year. The next item, Mr. Brady, is that amount for hospitalization. There is a matter that you men have just as good a view on as we have. We started putting that in at the urgent request of the public, we take care and compensate some of the institutions for free service that they were rendering. It is $100,000, which is a point in the tax rate. Personally I think that these institutions need it this year more than ever, because they are rendering more free service, but if it is merely a question of bringing the tax rate down it can be cut out. It will come back on us in another fashion—that is my belief—because if we do not take care of the sick and if we do not take care of the children and give them some kind of proper food, I think that in the next ten or fifteen years we will have the greatest number of tubercular children from malnutrition and other things that go with it, and it will cost us a great deal more money. I would like to have the views of your committee on the question of libraries and on the question of continuing this appropriation for hospitals. Is that all you have, Mr. Brady?

Mr. Brady: That is all, except the Passaic Valley Sewer. The Passaic Valley Sewer this year will be $37,000 more than last year. That is the amount that we have to raise the tax. That came through the balance left from the years before. It is uncertain just how much it will be. I won't know until the middle of January what the Passaic Valley is.

Commissioner Egan: I think Mr. Mayor, that we could be prepared next Tuesday morning to have our budgets for the various departments in tentative form, so that we can exchange copies with another, give the auditor a copy, give Mr. Marsh's committee a copy, as well as the press.

Mayor Congleton: I can't promise mine by Tuesday, whether it will be entirely completed. We are working on it from time to time. We expect to have it just as promptly as possible. Speaking generally, I can say that my budget for the department that is supported by the tax monies will show, I think, a decrease of at least a point in the tax rate, and maybe more, which is something in the neighborhood of $90,000.

Commissioner Murray: All I can say as to my department, Mr. Mayor, is that I have been over the situation with the division heads and find it possible in spite of the uncertainties which continue to obtain there, to make a reduction. Of course, in the Alms House, which is carrying now 36 patients per day more than it ever carried before and very substantially over five hundred residents, and in spite of the fact that the new alteration will accommodate perhaps sixty more, we have kept the budget the same as this year, trusting in the ability to buy supplies at a low market, which we have been doing recently. In the Outdoor Poor Department I have included the same amount as last year, because the same situation precisely faces us as faced us then, and we put it in at the round sum of $300,000 and we have to take our chances on the improvement of conditions during the year. I hope they are going to be a lot better. In the Unemployment Bureau there is no change, because of increase, which have been necessary and exchanges which have been made, but in the City Hospital, in the Convalescent Hospital, in the matter of public outings and camp, Bureau of Baths, Health Department, City Home, and in my office, I get what will total about $43,000 reductions from the amount of the budget of the current year.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I might state that my budget is completed. The majority of my department is clerical, stationery, and postage. That is practically all there is to it. It shows a decrease of $2,950 over last year.

Commissioner Gillen: I have so far tentatively in this budget a decrease of about $12,000. Of course, that reduction could be made greater if we cut down on the shade tree work. That is a question that will have to be determined.

Commissioner Murray: Then you increase unemployment.

Commissioner Gillen: Then we increase unemployment, because in the Shade Tree Department it is all common labor. The material that we buy is very small compared with the cost of labor.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, it creates a very difficult situation. On the one hand we are urged to make all the work we can and put them to work. The next day we are told to keep down the cost. You can't put people to work and pay them wages without figuring it in somewhere.

Commissioner Egan: Mr. Mayor, as you know, the budget of my department was cut to the bone in 1931, and I conserved as much as I could. I succeeded in having a surplus at the end of the year by curtailment and not having the manpower that we really needed to maintain the standard of service, but by cutting further this year and using every opportunity to reduce it, I think I will be able to cut down my budget $50,000.

Mayor Congleton: Are there any questions that anyone wants to ask?

Mr. Marsh: Mr. Mayor, in passing I would just like to ask whether we could have the budgets when they are finished—that is, when, as, and if they are finished—so that we can come back here as quickly as possible with any suggestions we may have.

Commissioner Gillen: You can have mine tomorrow.

Commissioner Howe: You can have mine tomorrow.

Mr. Marsh: All right, thank you. We will send down for them.

Commissioner Gillen moved to adjourn.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter that he desires to take up with the Commission this morning?

Commissioner Gillen: I want to report that I have made arrangements through Mr. Egner, representing the Lefcourt interests, to have the rents that are now being collected for parking privileges on the land at Raymond Boulevard and the tenant is strictly a monthly
